AT the Court at Kensington, the 2d Day of May, 1760,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 10th of this Instant May; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; — His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 10th Day of this Instant May, to the 21st Day of June next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 21st Day of June next. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

Hague, June 3. In Consequence of the Alarm given by a Detachment of the Allied Army under Colonel Luckner, who was for some Time in Possession of the French Post at Butzbach, the whole Army of Marshal Broglie was, we hear, in Motion towards Friedberg, from the 24th to the 27th past. Since that Time, they have been cantoned in the Villages of Weteravia, where they are so much crouded, that, it is supposed, they will not remain long in that Situation: It is given out, that they are to encamp between the 10th and 16th. We are now confidently assured, that the Wurtembergers, under the Duke their Sovereign, computed at Nine Thousand Men, have separated themselves entirely from the French.

We are yet without News of any important Operation being begun by the respective Armies in Germany: And our last Letters from Dantzick, which are of the 21st past, mention, That the Russians, which have been quartered in that Neighbourhood, remain still in a State of Inaction.

By Letters from Magdebourg of the 27th past, we find, that the King of Prussia continued in his strong Camp near Meissen; and that his Royal Highness Prince Henry was still at Sagan; that General Salomon, by Means of a Reinforcement sent him by his Prussian Majesty, had been able to stop the farther

Progress of General Klefeldt, who had advanced as far as Naumbourg, with a Part of the Army of the Empire; and that the Austrian Generals Laudohn and Beck, who had reached Zittau, had on a sudden retreated to Reichenberg in Bohemia; but that their Designs and Motives for this unexpected Retreat, did not yet appear.

The States General came to a Resolution, Yesterday, upon the Coinage of Gold; and several other Regulations relating to their Money: And Twelve Millions of Florins, in Ryders and Half Ryders, are to be issued immediately. All Ducats not milled, to be declared Bullion; and no Ducats whatever are to be received in Payment, but with the mutual Consent of both Parties.

Saville House, June 3.

To both which he was introduced by Sir Charles Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

As likewise had the Marquis d'Abreu, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Spain, of both their Royal Highnesses, to take his Leave.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuritis, Quinies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasiness proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by Mrs. Smart, at Mr. McMahon's, in Caple street, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.
