Whitehall, June 17.

AN Officer arrived, this Day, from Halifax in Nova Scotia, with an Account, That, on the 28th of April, Brigadier General Murray, with 3000 Men of the Garrison of Quebec, attacked, near that Place, the French Army, supposed to consist of the greatest Part of the Force of Canada, as they were on their March to make an Attempt against the said Place; and, after a warm and obstinate Engagement, with a considerable Loss of Men, as well as of some Field Pieces, which could not be brought away, was obliged, by the Superiority of the Enemy's Numbers, to retire back into Quebec. Brigadier Murray was making all possible Dispositions for the most vigorous Defence of that Place, until the Arrival of His Majesty's Ships, under the Command of Lord Colville, which sailed from Halifax, for the River St. Lawrence, on the 22d of April; as well as of those, under the Command of Captain Swanton, who had been met, the 20th of April, off the Coasts of Newfoundland.

By the last Letters, received from General Amherst, all Preparations were making, with the utmost Dispatch, for opening the Campaign on the Side of Lake Champlain, and for pushing the Operations, in those Parts, with the greatest Vigour.
