P R E S E N T,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied Landmen to enter themselves on board His Majesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for discovering such Seamen as shall conceal themselves; for pardoning such Seamen as have deserted and shall return into the Service; and also for taking up all stragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 21st of this Instant June; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; — It is therefore hereby ordered in Council, that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 21st Day of this Instant June, to the 31st Day of July next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 31st Day of July next. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

From Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Sachsenhausen, July 18. Advice having been received by Prince Ferdinand, That a Body of the Enemy, consisting of some Battalions and Light Troops, were advanced on the Left of our Army towards Ziegenhain, his Serene Highness detached the Hereditary Prince on the 14th Instant with six Battalions, two Hanoverian and four Hessian, Elliot's Regiment, (which was just arrived) Luckner's Hussars, and two Brigades of Chasseurs, to oppose that Corps. On the 16th, the Hereditary Prince engaged them near the Village of Erxdorff. The Action was very warm for some Time, but in the End the Enemy was entirely defeated. Two Battalions of Royal Baviere, three of Anhalt, together with the Commander in Chief, Major General Glaubitz, and the Prince of Anhalt Cothen, were made Prisoners of War. Six Pieces of their Cannon were taken, and all their Arms, Baggage, &c. Elliot's Regiment signalized themselves greatly upon this Occasion. The main Army of the French under Marshal Broglie still remains encamped upon the Heights of Corbach.

From the King of Prussia's Head Quarters at Grunau near Dresden, July 18.

On the 2d Instant, the Army marched in two Columns, through a very woody Country, with very little Interruption from the Enemy, who might have rendered our March extremely difficult, perhaps impracticable, if they had had Notice of the King's Designs, and had placed their Troops properly to intercept us. On the Afternoon of the same Day we passed the River Pulsnitz, on the Bridge at Crau, and encamped upon the Heights near that Town.

On the 4th, his Majesty, at the Head of the Vanguard, marched to Konigsbruck, repassed the Pals-nitz, and continued on towards Lichtenberg, with an Intent to attack General Lascy's Corps stationed there: But that General having Notice from his Out-Posts of his Majesty's Approach, thought proper to retire.

On the 5th, the Army marched in the Morning, in three Columns, to Marienstern: And,

On the 6th, (Advice having been received, that Marshal Daun had quitted his strong Camp at Reichenberg, and was marched from thence to Bautzen, and proceeding towards Gorlitz) our Army was ordered to pass the River Sprehe near Grofs-Dobrau; and from thence we occupied the Camp at Doberfschutz, about half a German Mile from Bautzen.

On the 8th, Intelligence having been given of Marshal Daun's actual Arrival at Gorlitz, and of his continuing his March to Lauban, (by which Means the Marshal had gained two Marches upon the King) Orders were given for striking our Tents at Eight o'Clock at Night, and we repassed the Sprehe near Bautzen; and

On the 9th marched by Bischoffswerda to Harta, where the Head Quarters were fixed.

On the 10th his Majesty sent a strong Detachment under General Ziethen to Marsdorff near Reichenberg, and marched himself with the rest of the Army to Weiffig: Whereupon General Lascy, who was encamped at Weisse-Hirsch, quitted that Post, crossed the Elbe on the Stone Bridge of Dresden, and encamped on the Plain between Pirna and that Town. The Army of the Empire, under the Duke of Deux Ponts, was encamped upon the Heights behind Plauen.

On the 12th the Army marched in two Columns, and took Possession of the strong Camp at Reichenberg, where General Ziethen joined us: General Hullen, with his Corps from Meissen, appeared in the Afternoon on the opposite Side of the River. A Bridge of Boats was thrown over the Elbe at Kaditz; and the Prince of Holstein, and General Bulow, were left, with a strong Detachment, to keep Possession of the Post of Weisse-Hirsch.

The Army marched on the 13th to Kaditz; and his Majesty crossed the River, and ordered the Army to follow as expeditiously as possible; and that Day the Head Quarters were fixed at Grunau, behind the Great Garden, from whence the Austrian Pandours had been dislodged; and the Army encamped in two Lines, one towards Pirna, and the other towards Dresden. His Majesty sent a Summons, by one of his Aid-de-Camps, to the Town to surrender, which was refused by the Governor General Maquire: A Battery was therefore raised that Night, which began to play the Morning of the 14th; as did also another raised by the Prince of Holstein, who remained on the Right of the Elbe, in order to attack the Town on that Side. The Firing from these Batteries has continued for these few Days past. The Suburbs of the Town towards the Pirna Gate have been attacked, and carried, by a Free Battalion, and the Chasseurs à Pié. A Sortie, made from the Town against our Detachment at Weisse-Hirsch, was repulsed; and a Bridge has been thrown over the Elbe, to secure the Communication with the Prince of Holstein.

This Day a Sortie was attempted from the Pirna Gate, which likewise miscarried; and our heavy Artillery

Artillery being now arrived from Torgau, it is expected we shall soon begin to batter in Breach.

The Army of the Empire, and the Austrians under General Lascy, who had quitted their respective Encampments on his Prussian Majesty's Approach to Dresden, are now encamped together near Gross-Seydlitz in an advantageous Position.

We have no certain News at present of Marshal Daun's Motions.

Petersburgh, June 24. On Sunday last, about Eleven o'Clock at Night, the Empress set out for Peterhoff, attended with her usual Court, amongst whom was the great Chancellor, who is to remain there as long as her Majesty.

Count Czernichev, who was so long Minister at London, is named Ambassador to the Court of France in the room of the deceased Count Bestucheff. It is said, that Count Esterhasi, the Imperial Ambassador, has, at his own Desire, obtained his Recall; and that Count Merzi, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Court of Vienna at Turin, is to succeed him as Ambassador to this Court.

Copenhagen, July 15. Last Friday having been the first Publick Day since the Court came back from Holstein, there was a numerous Appearance at Friedenburg, where the King of Denmark shewed all the Signs both of Health and Satisfaction in his Countenance. They say, his Danish Majesty was extremely pleased abroad with the good Condition in which he found his Troops. Baron Bernstorff is not expected here till some Time next Week.

Admiralty-Office, July 29, 1760.

Captain Vane in His Majesty's Ship Arethusa, took off Lowestoffe, on the 25th Instant, the Revenge, a French Privateer Cutter of Eight Carriage Guns, and Forty-four Men, and also retook the Swallow Brigantine, which had been taken by the said Privateer in her Way from Amsterdam to Teneriffe.

Captain Tonym, in His Majesty's Ship Powey, has also taken a small Dunkirk Privateer, which was cruizing off Heligolandt, to intercept the English Merchantmen bound to Hamburgh.

Whitehall, July 26, 1760.

Whereas a Corn Mill in the Parish of Woolwich in the County of Kent, was, on the 16th Day of March last, supposed to be wickedly and maliciously set on Fire, and consumed; His Majesty, in order to bring the Offender, or Offenders to Justice, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein (except the Person, who actually set the said Mill on Fire) so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. PITT.

And as a farther Encouragement for apprehending and bringing to Justice such Offenders, the Proprietors of the said Corn-Mill, do hereby offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except the Person who actually set the said Corn-Mill on Fire) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of them, by us

Will. Scott.

To the PUBLICK.

Bruton-street, July 13, 1760.

THE Right Hon. the Lord Barrington, Secretary at War; having been pleased to communicate to me the following extract of a letter, I think it my duty to make it publick, for the sake of the inhabitants of very hot climates; of the Navy surgeons, and those committed to their care; and of those commanders and surgeons on board trading vessels, that are already furnished with my powder.—For the future proper instructions will be given in the printed directions.

If every one, to whom the care of my powder has been committed by their superiors, had been as diligent in observing, as judicious in applying, and as attentive to His Majesty's service as Mr. Browne, no doubt but some thousands of brave fellows might have survived to serve their King and country, that are now no more; a consideration of no small moment in this tedious and destructive war, perhaps rendered more so by the neglect of those, whom their superiors had furnished with every advantage to enable them to do their duty with effect.

R. JAMES.

To Doctor JAMES.

S I R,

War-Office, July 17, 1760.

I Send you inclosed the copy of an extract of a letter from Mr. Henry Browne, Surgeon to Colonel Coote's battalion; which I think it right to communicate to you, as it shews the great efficacy of your medicines, and as it may assist you in giving directions for accommodating the doses to very hot climates.—You are at liberty to make what use you please of this extract, which may be depended on as authentic. I am, Sir,

Your most obedient, and most humble servant,

BARRINGTON.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Henry Browne, Surgeon of Colonel Coote's battalion, dated at Madras the 4th of Nov. 1759.

With the six companies that went out with us, we lost eighteen in the voyage, fifteen of them died of fevers. We had above forty fevers in the ship I was in. I used James's Powders with great success; we had but one died. When we were within twelve Degrees of the Line, or less, it was impracticable to use them as James, the evacuations were so great, that the patient could not bear them: I gave four or five grains, every three hours, which proved a powerful sudorific; the first dose generally vomited, or purged two or three times; By this treatment the fever left them in two or three days."

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurishes, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

• See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6d.
