King of Prussia's Head Quarters at Dakwitz, August 2.

ON the 22d of last Month, his Prussian Majesty fixed his Camp at Leubnitz, about Seven in the Morning; and, on the 29th, in the Night, the Army decamped from thence, and next Day the King removed his Head Quarters to Unkersdorff. Yesterday the whole Army passed the Elbe over two Bridges near Hirstein, without any Opposition, and encamped with the Right at Wantewitz, and the Left at this Place, upon the Heights behind Groß Dobritz. This Day the Army halts, and, 'tis believed, the Bridges will be withdrawn, as the Army is to march towards Lusatia To-morrow. The King has left General Hullen in Possession of the Town of Meissen, and in the strong Camp of Schlettau.

From Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick's Head Quarters at Warburg, August 11. Since the Action of the 31st, we are encamped on the Heights of Warburg, with the Dymel in our Front. The Enemy are on the opposite Heights, and separated from us by the River. Nothing of Consequence has happened lately between the respective Armies.

A few Days ago a large Body of the Enemy was detached towards Stadbergen, a strong Pass which we occupy, as we do likewise all the others on the Dymel: But they were soon obliged to return, without having succeeded in their Attempt to get Possession of it.

General Kiełmansegg is posted with a Corps of Troops upon the Weser near Beverungen; and Major General Luckner has been sent with some Battalions and Squadrons on the other Side of that River, to make Head against the Detachments which Prince Xavier might push forward in those Parts. And that General has had the good Fortune not only to drive back the Enemy's Detachments, that had advanced as far as Einbeck, but Yesterday Morning took their whole Detachment at Nordheim, consisting of 332 Men, Prisoners of War. Colonel Donop likewise at the same Time succeeded in his Attack on a Body of two Thousand of the Volunteers, detached by Marshal Broglie into the Wood of Sababourg, in order to preserve his Communication with Prince Xavier. And notwithstanding the Enemy's advantageous Position in a very thick Wood, they were dislodged from thence, with the Loss of about five Hundred Men in Killed, Wounded, and Prisoners; and of three Pieces of Cannon, which were taken by the Prussian Hussars.

[ Price Three-Pence. ]

Hague, August 15. We are informed by Letters from Magdebourg, that Prince Henry of Prussia arrived at Glogau, with his Army, on the 1st Instant; and that his Royal Highness having left before that Place Part of his Forces, was marched with the other to Breslau, in order to prevent the Junction of any Austrian Troops with the Russian Army. The same Letters add, That General Laudohn had appeared before that Town the 30th past, with a Corps of about 15000 Men; and that as the Prussian Commandant, Major General Taventzien, had refused, upon several Summons, to surrender, the Austrians begun, on the 1st Instant, to throw Bombs into the Town, which had reduced the King of Prussia's Palace into Ashes, as well as the finest Streets in the City; but that as General Laudohn had no heavy Artillery with him, and began to be in Want of Ammunition of all Kinds, he was obliged to retire on the 4th in the Morning, directing his March towards Lissa and Schweidnitz. The King of Prussia was arrived the 6th Instant at Bautzen; Marshal Daun was at Weissenberg, at the Distance of one German Mile from his Prussian Majesty.

Our last Letters from Brunswick, which are of the 8th Instant, mention the Arrival of his Serene Highness the Landgrave of Hesse in that City.

Hague, August 19. After having received the News of the King of Prussia's Arrival at Bautzen, on the 6th Instant, and of Marshal Daun's at Weissenberg, in order to intercept him in his Passage into Silesia; we have just had the unexpected Account, that his Prussian Majesty reached Lignitz, in Silesia, on the 11th Instant; having executed his March to that Place without any Loss in Men or Baggage, and beat up several Austrian Detachments in his Way thither.

Prince Henry of Prussia, according to the last Accounts, had passed through the Town of Breslau, crossed the Oder, marched forward, and reached Drachenberg on the Frontiers of Poland.

Salop, July 22, 1760.

Whereas an Act passed last Session of Parliament, to enable the Lord Lieutenant of those Counties, where the Militia Forces have not been raised, to summon a Meeting of all such Persons as are qualified and willing to serve as Officers in the Militia, notwithstanding the Suspension made in Pursuance of the Directions of the former Acts: And whereas at the Meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Salop, this Day held at the Talbot Inn in this Town, a sufficient Number of Gentlemen qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia for the said County, did not appear, nor give in their Names for that Purpose: In order therefore that the Militia Acts may the more effectually be carried into Execution, His Majesty's said Lieutenant doth hereby give Notice, that another Meeting will be held at the Place aforesaid, on Thursday the 28th of August next: And likewise desires that all Persons qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia for the said County, and willing to accept Commissions, will attend the said Meeting, or deliver, or cause to be delivered, their Names in Writing to His Majesty's Lieutenant, or such Person as shall be appointed to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which they are willing to serve.

POWIS.

Horton House, July 28, 1760.

The second Meeting of the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace in the several Sub-Divisions of this County, for choosing by Lot, out of the Lists delivered in at the last respective Subdivision-Meeting, the Militia-Men to serve for the said County, having been necessarily postponed on account of the Want of a sufficient Number of Subaltern Officers to serve in the said Militia; the Lord Lieutenant of the said County hereby gives Notice, That another General Meeting will be held on the last Saturday in August next, at the George Inn in the Town of Northampton, for carrying into Execution the Militia Laws now in Force; when and where (or sooner) all Gentlemen willing to accept the vacant Commissions of Lieutenants and Ensigns, are desired to send in their Names to me, or to the Clerk of the General Meetings at the said George Inn, or his House in Northampton.

ROGERS, DUNK HALLIFAX.
Clerk of the General Meetings.

General Post Office, April 12, 1760.

Public Notice is hereby given, That, for the Time to come, no Person whatsoever will be permitted to pass from England, in any of the King's Packet Boats, stationed at Harwich or Dover, without first obtaining a Passport from one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

All Persons, intending to return to England in the said Packet-Boats, are in like Manner to produce a Passport from His Majesty's Minister at the Hague, or from His Majesty's Consul or Vice-Consul at Flushing, before they can be received on Board.

By Command of the Post master General,
Henry Potts, Secretary.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or
The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARÉ faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mullets Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inghish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epsom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quinties, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

• See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.
