Kensington, October 16.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, waited on His Majesty; and being introduced to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, made their Compliments in the following Address, which was spoke by Sir William Moreton, Knight, the Recorder.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us, your ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly to congratulate your Majesty upon the late signal Successes with which it has pleased the Divine Providence to bless your Majesty's Arms by Sea and Land.

The Conquest of Canada, so heroically begun at Quebec, so nobly seconded by the Defeat and Dispersion of the Enemy's Fleet upon the Coast of Britany, and so happily completed without the Effusion of Human Blood at Montreal; at the same Time that it reflects the highest Honor upon the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, upon the Conduct, Fortitude, and Activity of your Commanders, and upon the Bravery and Discipline of your Fleets and Armies, is an Event of the utmost Importance to the Trade and Manufactures of these Kingdoms, as it is the only effectual Means of securing your Majesty's Industrious Subjects in North America against the continual Encroachments and unparalleled Barbarities of a restless and insidious Enemy, ever more dangerous in Peace than War.

Deeply sensible of your Majesty's paternal Goodness, in thus graciously protecting the most distant of your faithful Subjects, your Majesty's grateful Citizens of London will ever cheerfully exert those Means, for which (under the Divine Favour) they esteem themselves indebted to your Majesty, towards enabling your Majesty to preserve this valuable Acquisition, and effectually to prosecute the various and extensive Services of this just and necessary War, and to dictate to the Aggressors, the Terms of a safe and honourable Peace.

To this desirable End, may the God of Armies crown the Justice of your Majesty's Cause with repeated and decisive Victories; and when your Majesty shall have long enjoyed the glorious Fruits of all your Care and Labours, may the Empire of Great Britain continue in your Majesty's Illustrious Race, in full Splendor and Security, till Time shall be no more.

Signed by Order of Court,

James Hodges.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most Gracious Answer.

I Have the highest Satisfaction in this fresh and signal Proof of your Affection to Me, and to My Government, for which I return you My hearty Thanks. The same Union amongst My People, and the same Ability and Valour in my Fleets and Armies, will, I trust, under the Blessing of God, enable Me, in the End, to terminate this necessary and extensive War, by an honourable, advantageous, and lasting Peace. The City of London may depend on My constant Care for their Prosperity, and for the Extension of the Trade, Manufactures, and Navigation, of My faithful Subjects.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand:

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Robert Kite, Esq; Alderman, and } Sheriffs.
 William Hart, Esq; — — }
