St. James's, November 7.

THIS Day a most numerous Body of the Merchants of London waited on His Majesty; and being introduced to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain of the Household, John Gore, Esq; made their Compliments of Condolence and Congratulation in the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants of London, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person, sincerely to condole with your Majesty on the Loss of our late most Excellent Sovereign; and to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Permit us, Sir! to express our Gratitude to the Memory of your Illustrious Grandfather, for the constant Encouragement of Commerce in Time of Peace, and its unparallel'd Extent and Security in the Course of the present War.

Your Majesty's eminent Virtues give us full Assurance, that a continued Protection and Countenance of our National Trade and Manufactures will, at all Times, appear among the Blessings of your Majesty's Reign.

The Support of Public Credit, so necessary to enable your Majesty to vindicate the Rights of the Crown, and secure the Welfare of your People, shall be the Object of our most strenuous Efforts; and in every other Instance we will exert our Duty and Zeal to promote your Majesty's Glory, and the Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

To which His Majesty was pleased to return this most Gracious Answer.

I Take the highest Satisfaction in this signal Instance of Duty, and Affection, from so considerable, and opulent a Body of My trading Subjects. Nothing can be more acceptable to Me, than your steady Zeal for the Support of Publick Credit.

I am so truly sensible, that the present Wealth of My Kingdoms, amidst the Expences of such an arduous War, flows from the happy Extension of Trade, and Commerce, that you may be assured of My constant Protection, and Favour; and that I have nothing nearer to My Heart, than the maintaining You, and all My trading Subjects, in the full and free Enjoyment of their Rights, Liberties, and Privileges.

They were received very graciously; and all had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

Leicester House, November 3.

This Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, and the rest of the Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, waited on His Majesty; and being introduced to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain of the Household, Edward Grose, Esq; the Secretary, made their Compliments of Congratulation and Condolesance in the following Address:

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, and the rest of the Commissioners of the Lieutenancy for Your City of London.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for your City of London, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our Congratulations on your Happy Accession to the Throne.

We cannot reflect on the awful Event of the Death of our late King, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, but with the highest Veneration and Gratitude to his Memory, who by the Exercise of all princely Virtues, in the Course of a long Life, made his People happy throughout a glorious Reign, conciliated the Affections of all his Subjects, and secured to your Majesty the peaceable Succession to the Government of this Kingdom.

Your Majesty's Royal and Eminent Qualities are the strongest Security to this Nation of the Continuance of all the Blessings a free People can enjoy. With the highest Sense of which Happiness we assure Your Sacred Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person, and that we will execute the Trust reposed in us, to the utmost of our Power, in Support of your Majesty's Government, and in Preservation of the Publick Tranquility.

May the Establishment of the present Constitution receive fresh Strength under your Majesty's auspicious Government. May your Reign be long and prosperous over a loyal and free People; and may our Posterity enjoy the Happiness of being governed under your great Example, by one of your Royal House, to the latest Ages.

Signed by Order of Court,
EDWARD GROSE.

To which His Majesty was pleased to return this most Gracious Answer.

YOU please me extremely, with this Strong Mark of your Duty and Affection to My Person and Government.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which His Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on William Baker, Esq; one of the Aldermen of the City of London.

Leicester House, November 5.

This Day John Bristow, Esq; Sub-Governor of the South Sea Company, accompanied by the Deputy Governor, and several of the Directors, presented the following Address to His Majesty, being introduced by the Lord of the Bed Chamber to His Majesty in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously: And they had all the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Corporation of the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas, and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery, in a General Court assembled, beg Leave to express their great and more immediate Concern for the Death of your Royal Grandfather, as He was their Governor and Protector.

They

They with most sensible Joy congratulate your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne; and your Majesty's Protection and Patronage being of the greatest Advantage and Benefit to them,

They therefore do, in the most dutiful Manner, beseech your Majesty, that you will graciously condescend to be their Governor.

John Bristow, Sub-Governor.

Lewis Way, Deputy Governor.

His Majesty was graciously pleased to say, That He accepted the Offer made to Him, and that the Company might depend upon His Protection.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The Humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter in Chamber assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

W E Your Majesty's ever faithful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of your City of Exeter in Chamber assembled, humbly presume to approach your Throne, to offer up our most sincere and dutiful Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Crown of your Ancestors, and to express the deep Sense we have of the Loss which your Majesty and this Nation have sustained by the Death of your Royal Grand Father, our late most Gracious Sovereign, whose Memory will be ever dear to the present Age, and transmitted with Reverence to our remotest Posterity.

A Loss so great and so unexpected at so critical a Juncture would alarm us with the justest Apprehensions, did we not find in that Assemblage of every Virtue, every Royal Endowment, which is so universally acknowledged to adorn your Majesty's personal Character, in that tender Affection and Regard your Majesty has, on every Occasion, manifested for the Welfare of this your native Country, and for its excellent Constitution both in Church and State; Reason abundantly sufficient to assuage our Grief, to calm our Fears, and to fill us with the most pleasing Hopes and Expectations.

The Confirmation of these Hopes by your Majesty's most gracious Declaration in Council justly demands the most ample Return of Duty, Gratitude, and Confidence from all your Subjects, but most peculiarly from this City, which hath so long enjoyed the distinguishing Honour and Advantage of being admitted under your Majesty's immediate Patronage and Protection.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall ever contribute with the utmost Zeal, and most chearful Readiness, every Thing in our Power, to the utmost Extent of our Ability, in the Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, in the Maintenance of the Protestant Succession as by Law established in your Illustrious and Royal House, and in Support of those Efforts your Majesty shall judge it proper to make in Prosecution of the present just and necessary War, till your Majesty shall be enabled, by the Divine Assistance, happily to terminate it, in Concert with your Allies, by an honourable and lasting Peace.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and

Citizens of the City of Worcester in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

I T having pleased Almighty God to call to Himself our late Sovereign Lord King George the Second (your Majesty's Royal Grandfather of Blessed Memory) whose long and happy Reign over us was productive of such a Series of good and prosperous Events, we your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the ancient and loyal City of Worcester, truly sensible of the Loss we have sustained, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon this melancholy Occasion, and, at the same Time, to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, which is some Alleviation of our Grief, as it affords us such a good Prospect of being happy under a Prince in whom all the Virtues of his Royal Progenitors are so eminently conspicuous.

As your Majesty ascends the British Throne with the universal Joy and united Acclamations of all your Subjects, we hope nothing will be wanting in them to shew their Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's most Sacred Person and Government; and, as we have nothing to fear from a Prince who is adorned with every Virtue necessary to fill the high Station in which he is placed, there cannot remain the least Doubt but he will reign in the Hearts of all his Subjects, and make them a flourishing and happy People.

May your Majesty's Reign over us be long and prosperous; and may a Prince never be wanting in your most illustrious Family to succeed to the Imperial Crowns of your Majesty's Kingdoms to latest Posterity. May all your Majesty's Subjects, truly sensible of the great Blessings they have enjoyed under the auspicious Government of your Royal Ancestors, (and which will undoubtedly be continued to them under your Majesty's Administration) unite with Heart and Voice to say, Long live King George the Third.

Given in our Council Chamber under our Common Seal the Third Day of November, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty.

AT the Court at Saville House the 27th Day of October 1760.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

W H E R E A S the Time limited by His late Majesty's Order in Council of the 25th of April last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of this Instant October—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, That no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of this Instant October, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Passport from one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

All Persons, intending to return to England in the said Packet Boats, are in like Manner to produce a Passport from His Majesty's Minister at the Hague, or from His Majesty's Consul or Vice-Consul at Flushing, before they can be received on Board.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
Hicney Potts, Secretary.

TWO Tinctures of known and established Reputation, which have been long successfully used by the Nobility and Gentry, both of this Kingdom and of Ireland, and for which His Majesty has been pleased to grant His Royal Letters Patent, are sold by the Patentee, THO. GRENOUGH, Apothecary, at the King's Arms and Pepple and Mortar in Lurgate-street; and by J. NEWBURY, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, Price 1s. a Bottle.

The Tincture for Preserving the Teeth, cleanses and takes off all their Foulness, renders them white and beautiful, tastes such as are loose, prevents their Decaying, and entirely cures the Scurvy in the Gums.

The Tincture for the Tooth-ach removes the most raging and violent Pain in a few Minutes, without either corroding the Teeth or affecting the Gums.

The great Demand for these Tinctures having induced several Persons to attempt to counterfeit the same, (some of whom are now under Prosecution) the Publick are desired to observe, that for the Future the Patentee will inscribe his Name on a Label on each Bottle, in the following Manner, T. GRENOUGH, and none but what are so inscribed are genuine.

By the KING's Patent,

THE Stomachic Lozenges, for Disorders of the Stomach and Bowels, which are extremely pleasant and agreeable to take, and are one of the best Remedies yet discovered, for curing most Disorders of the Stomach and Bowels, such as all Cholick Complaints, fixed Pains of the Stomach and Bowels, Indigestion, and Weakness of the Stomach, Wind, cold Anglem, and Want of Appetite; likewise for expelling the Gout from the Stomach upon the Extremities, and also for curing Heartburn, and sour Risings; as well as for preventing all the ill Effects of hard Drinking, especially of bad Wine, four Punch, stale Beer, &c. By Appointment of the Patentee, are sold only at Mr. Newbery's, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, opposite the North Door of the Church; and at Mr. Bayley's, Perfumer, at the Civit-Cat, at the Bottom of the Haymarket. Price 1s. 6d. the Box.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms. But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuritis, Quinics, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.

Dublin, October 28.

Thursday last, being the Anniversary of the Irish Rebellion in 1644, their Excellencies went in the usual State to Christ Church, escorted by a Squadron of Dragoons, where they heard a most excellent Sermon, preached by the Rev. Doctor Edward Ledwich, upon that Occasion. The Sword of State was carried to and from the Church by Lord Headfort. After their Excellencies Return to the Castle, the Great Guns in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired Three Rounds, and answered by Volleys of small Arms from the Regiments in Garrison, drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks.

The Order of Thomas Earl of Effingham, Deputy Earl Marshal of England.

IN Pursuance of an Order of Council, dated the 3d of this Instant November, the Solemnity of the Interment of His late Majesty King George the Second is appointed to be performed on Tuesday next: These are therefore to give public Notice, That all Persons on this Occasion are to alight at Westminster-Hall Gate, to which Place they are to return to their Coaches or Chairs after the Ceremony is over; and that the Peers of Great Britain and Ireland, Privy Counsellors and Judges are desired to meet in the House of Lords at Seven of the Clock in the Evening; at which Time all other Persons mentioned in the printed Ceremonial, do attend in the Painted Chamber, where they will be marshalled and put in Order by the Officers of Arms appointed for that Purpose.

And all Persons are required to take Notice, That in Order to prevent any Interruption to the Funeral, no Coaches are to be admitted to stay, or come into the New Palace Yard after Five of the Clock in the Afternoon of the said Day; and that the Lights in all the Places and Passages be not extinguished until the whole Ceremony is over, and the Company returned to their Coaches or Chairs.

And that the White Staff Officers being by Act of Parliament continued in their respective Offices, are not to break their Staves as has been formerly practised.

That all the Knights of the Garter, Thistle, and of the Bath, who shall walk in this Procession, are to wear the Collars of their respective Orders.
