From Saturday November 8, to Tuesday November 11, 1760.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS at the Time of the Demise of Our late Royal Grandfather of Glorious Memory, this present Parliament stood prorogued to Thursday the Thirteenth Day of this Instant November: And whereas by Virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of Our late Royal Predecessor Queen Anne, of Blessed Memory, entituled, An Act for the Security of Her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession of the Crown of Great Britain in the Protestant Line; it is required, That the said Parliament should, immediately after such Demise, meet, convene, and sit, and should act, notwithstanding such Demise, for and during the Term of Six Months, and no longer, unless the same should be sooner prorogued or dissolved, as in the said Act is provided: And whereas We, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, did order, That Our said Parliament should be prorogued to Thursday the said Thirteenth Day of this Instant November; and the same hath been prorogued accordingly. Now We do hereby, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said Thirteenth Day of this Instant November, to Tuesday the Eighteenth Day of this Instant November: And We have given Order to Our Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do hereby further declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the said Parliament shall, on the said Eighteenth Day of this Instant November, be held and sit for the Dispatch of divers weighty and important Affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners of Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their Attendance accordingly at Westminster, on Tuesday the said Eighteenth Day of this Instant November.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Sixth Day of November 1760, in the First Year of Our Reign.

St. James's, November 11.

The following humble Address of the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Diocese of Canterbury, has been presented to His Majesty by the most Reverend Father in God the Archbishop: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Diocese of Canterbury.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE come into your Majesty's Presence with the deepest Sense of that awful and most unexpected Stroke, by which God hath taken from us our late Excellent King your Grandfather, under whose just and mild and glorious Reign these Nations have flourished so many Years: Yet we feel, at the same Time, the sincerest and highest Joy, on seeing his Throne filled by your Majesty, Heir to His Royal Virtues, as well as His Dominions; who, even during your Minority, were our Hope and our Comfort, after the Loss of your Princely Father; and whose hereditary good Dispositions have been improved, by the tender Care of the admirable Princess your Mother, into a Character so amiable and worthy, that the affectionate Reverence of all your People had long prepared them to receive you as a singular Blessing, whenever Providence should call you to rule over this your native Country.

But we of the Clergy are bound in particular to honour your Majesty, as we do unfeignedly, for the exemplary Regularity of your Life; for your known Regard to the Doctrines and Institutions of the Gospel; for your gracious Resolution, so immediately declared, to preserve and strengthen the Constitution, both in Church and State. Accordingly we beg Leave most humbly to assure your Majesty, that in teaching our Fellow-Subjects every Part of their Duty, we will be especially careful to inculcate Love to your Majesty's Person, thankful Obedience to your Government, and a cheerful Support of whatever Burthens the Expence of publick Affairs may require: That as the Light of our Holy Faith, when obscured in this Land by Heathenism, first shone out afresh in the Diocese to which we belong, we will exert a peculiar Zeal to promote its Lustre continually; and as we stand the first in Rank, will labour to approve ourselves distinguished Examples to others, both in our Instructions and our Behaviour.

By exercising our Function conscientiously thus, we trust we shall secure your Majesty's Protection and Favour; and, what alone we value more, the Approbation and Acceptance of the Almighty; whom we earnestly beseech to reward your modest Diffidence of yourself, as he did that of Solomon, with unequalled Wisdom and Prosperity; to give you Success in the present necessary War, and enable you speedily to conclude an honourable and lasting Peace; to make you a blessed Instrument in his Hands for establishing Piety and Virtue, Liberty, Unanimity and Happiness upon Earth; to extend your Majesty's Reign to the utmost Duration of human Life; and effectually incline you to serve Him with such Faithfulness of Heart, under all Sorts of Tryals, through the whole of your Days, that in the End you may receive the brightest of those Crowns of Righteousness, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

They afterwards waited on the Princess Dowager of Wales, and his Grace the Lord Archbishop made their Compliments to her Royal Highness in a Speech, to which her Royal Highness was pleased to return a most gracious Answer: They had all the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

St. James's, November 10.

This Day the most Reverend Father in God the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain of the Household, waited in a Body on His Majesty, with the following humble Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of London, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and the the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, do humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, to condole with you upon the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Your faithful Clergy of the Diocese of London, ever studious of testifying their Affection and Loyalty, desire upon this Occasion to give your Majesty the strongest Assurances of their inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government, and of their firm Resolution at all Times to inculcate the same good Principles upon those committed to their Care.

We beg Leave to acknowledge with all Thankfulness your Majesty's great Goodness towards us in the gracious Declaration you have been pleased to make, that you will preserve and strengthen the Constitution both in Church and State: And we desire farther to thank your Majesty for your late Royal Proclamation for the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice, Prophaneness, and Immorality. Such an early Testimony of your Majesty's Pious Intentions, enforced by your Royal Authority, cannot fail of having the best Effect upon the Publick, and especially upon the Magistracy of this Great Metropolis, in encouraging them to discharge their Duty in punishing all Prophaneness and Immorality, and particularly all Abuses of the Sabbath-Day. So shall this Nation become a Praise in the Earth, and this Great and Royal City be as eminent for its Virtue, as it is for its Trade and Commerce throughout the World.

Our Prayers are daily offered up for the Welfare and Prosperity of your Majesty, and your Royal House; and may God grant you a long and successful Reign over a grateful and happy People.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to give the following most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this early Testimony of your Loyalty, and Zeal; for My Government. The just Sense you have of My affectionate Care of the Established Church, and of My Concern for the Maintenance of True Religion, and Good Morals, among My People, is highly acceptable to Me; and you may depend on My constant Attention to protect the Clergy in the Enjoyment of all their Rights and Privileges.

His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously; and they had all the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

Leicester House, November 10.

This Day the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the Name of the Lord Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, waited on her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales; and being introduced by Sir William Irby, Bart. Chamberlain to her Royal Highness, the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury made her the following Compliment in their Name and Words.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE the Bishop of London, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, most humbly desire to wait upon your Royal Highness to condole with you upon the Death of our late most Excellent Sovereign, and to congratulate your Royal Highness upon the happy Succession of the King your Son, to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

After the great Loss we have sustained, it affords Matter of solid Comfort and Consolation to us, that we are now under the Protection of a Prince, whose filial Piety, and other private and domestick Virtues, have shewn him to be worthy of a Crown: And our just Acknowledgments are due to your Royal Highness for that fair Prospect we have of enjoying all Spiritual and Temporal Blessings under his wise Administration, and particularly an Increase of Virtue and Piety under the Influence of his great Example.

May God shower down his Blessings upon your Royal Highness and all your tender Offspring: And may you long live in Health and Prosperity to enjoy the Happiness of the King, your Son's, most flourishing and auspicious Reign.

To which her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I Heartily thank you for this new Proof of your Attention, so flattering to me, so full of Duty and Affection to the King my Son.

They all had the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

The following Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Dorchester, having been transmitted by the Right Hon. the Earl of Shaftesbury, their High Steward, to the Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Dorchester in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Dorchester, beg Leave humbly to offer our Condoleance on the Death of His late Majesty your Royal Grandfather, under whose Protection, and by whose Moderation, we so fully enjoyed our Civil and Religious Liberties.

We humbly beg Leave also to present this Testimony of our Joy, at so great a Loss being supplied by your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne: A Joy, which owes its Birth to the Fame of those Virtues, that give a Lustre to a Crown: A Joy, which rises to the greatest Height, by your Majesty's gracious Declaration to your Council. Your Majesty has, at the same Instant, taken Possession of the Throne, and the Hearts of your People. These are united by your peculiar Affection for them; and this Union will be, by the Divine Permission, and under your Majesty's Conduct, our Security, and the Terror of your Foes. With one Heart we are ready to support your Majesty against them: With one Voice we shall pray for the long Continuance of a Life so essential to our Happiness. Dated at the Guildhall of the Borough of Dorchester, the third Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and the rest of the Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty: which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and the rest of the Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

BE pleased to accept of the sincere Congratulations of your most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and the rest of the Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, upon your happy Accession to the Crown of these Realms, and and at the same Time allow us to condole the great Loss this Nation has sustained by the Death of our late most glorious Sovereign, your most illustrious Grandfather.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration affects us with the deepest Sense of Gratitude, and cannot fail to heighten the Zeal and Affection of a People, happily free from intestine Divisions, united in Sentiments as well as Duty.

May your Majesty long possess the Throne of these Realms, and reign in the Hearts of all your Subjects; may Wisdom and Stability attend your Councils; Success and Victory your Fleets and Armies; and after, by the Divine Favour, you have humbled your Enemies, may you give to a grateful, free, and happy People, the Blessing of Peace.

Given under our common Seal the fourth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord; One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Walter Blackett, Bart. and Matthew Riley, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of Newcastle upon Tyne, beg Leave, in the most dutiful Manner, to condole with your Majesty, on the sudden and unexpected Death of our late most gracious Sovereign; whose Memory must ever be held dear, with the greatest Esteem and Reverence, by all the British People, for the many Blessings they enjoyed under His mild and benign Government, during a long and glorious Reign.

We beg your Majesty to accept our most fervent Congratulations on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors. And we pray the Almighty to bless and preserve your sacred Majesty, and to grant you a long and prosperous Reign, with Success against all your Enemies.

May your Subjects endeavour to emulate those many Virtues for which your Majesty is so eminently distinguished, that they may on all Occasions appear themselves virtuous, brave, and loyal.

Given under our common Seal, the fourth Day of November, 1760.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Robert Nugent, Esq; and Jarrit Smith, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person with our sincere Condolence upon the Death of your great and good Grandfather of dear and revered Memory, and with our hearty Congratulations upon your happy Accession to the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors.

Although we are sensible that our late most gracious Sovereign has left your Majesty engaged in an expensive War, in Defence of the Rights of your Crown, the Protection of the Trade, and Possessions of your Subjects, and the Support of the Protestant Religion, and the Liberties of Europe: Yet we are happy in reflecting, that he has also left you the Hearts of a zealous and united People, the Councils of a wise and spirited Ministry, and the Arms of victorious and irresistible Forces by Sea and by Land. With such Means, and in such a Cause, suited to the Magnanimity of your Royal Breast, Divine Providence has reserved for the Opening of your Reign, the Glory of pursuing this just and necessary War, until it can be concluded, in Concert with your Allies, by an honourable, advantageous, and lasting Peace. That your Majesty, after having thus established the Happiness of your native Country, may long live to dispense Blessings to your People, is the fervent Prayer of your most faithful Citizens of Bristol, who, fully convinced of your Majesty's tender Regard for the Welfare and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, will upon all Occasions manifest their Gratitude and Loyalty, by constant Returns of Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The following Address of the Master, Wardens, Assistants and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant Adventurers of the City of Bristol, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Robert Nugent, Esq; and Jarrit Smith, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the City of Bristol, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The Humble Address of the Master, Wardens, Assistants and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant Adventurers of the City of Bristol.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Master, Wardens, Assistants and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant Adventurers of your City of Bristol, beseech your Majesty to accept our sincere Condolence upon the Death of your Royal Grandfather; a Loss which could only be repaired by a Prince inheriting with the Septre, the Virtues of his illustrious Ancestors, and our gracious Sovereigns, whose auspicious Reigns have been a Series of Blessings universally diffused over a happy and a grateful Nation. Trade and Commerce have ever been the favourite Objects of their Care: And ere God had called your Majesty to the Government of your native Country; you made the Knowledge of its Commercial Interests the chief Pursuit of your early Years, which were dedicated to those Studies that best befit the Heir Apparent of a Mighty Empire.

The wonderful Successes with which Providence has blest the Arms of Great Britain, open a new and more extensive Scene to your Majesty's Wisdom, and to the Ingenuity, Arts and Industry of your faithful Subjects: And great as the Expence has been, and still must be, of the just and necessary War in which your Majesty is engaged for their Safety and Prosperity, it will be cheerfully and vigorously supported with the Lives and Fortunes of a People, prompted by Love and Zeal for your Majesty's Glory, and animated by those manifest Marks of Divine Favour with which the God of Hosts has owned the Justice of your Cause, until your heroic Labours end, in Concert with your Allies, in a safe and honourable Peace.

With these Sentiments of Duty, Affection and Zeal for your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, we humbly presume to offer our hearty Congratulations upon your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Ipswich, has been presented to his Majesty by Thomas Staunton and George Montgomerie, Esqrs. their Representatives

Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Ipswich in the County of Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Ipswich, in Great Court assembled, having the deepest Sense of the Great Loss this Nation has sustained by the Death of our late Sovereign Lord King George the Second, of glorious Memory, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty, and express our Sorrow upon this melancholy Occasion: A Sorrow, which, however severe and afflicting, cannot but be moderated by your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, (which we most heartily congratulate) and by our just Confidence in your Majesty's Virtues, animated by the tenderest Affection for this your Majesty's native Country, and Zeal for the Rights and Liberties of all, who can boast the Happiness of being your Majesty's Subjects.

When we reflect on the many shining Instances of Success, wherewith the British Arms have been crowned in every Quarter of the World, which, next to the Divine Favour, we ascribe to the Vivacity of His late Majesty's Councils; and, from your Majesty's wise Discernment, assure ourselves the like Measures will be pursued; We entertain the strongest Hopes, that the present expensive, but just and necessary War, will terminate in an honourable and lasting Peace: And your Majesty may most firmly rely on our contributing, with the utmost Chearfulness, every Thing in our Sphere and Power, to assist your Majesty towards the obtaining that great and desirable End.

Permit us, Sir, in this most humble and sincere Testimony of our Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, to offer up our warmest Vows, that your Majesty's Reign may be as distinguishable in our Annals for its Length, as we confidently expect it will be, for the Blessings, which never fail to flow from the Example of a Patriot King.

Given under our Common Seal this first Day of November, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Lincoln, assembled at the County Hall, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Hearts full of Concern for the Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather. If any Thing can atone for that most melancholy Event, it is the high and great Expectations the Nation has so much Reason to entertain, from your Majesty's known princely Virtues; your Love to Liberty, and the Constitution of your native Country, and your pious Attachment to the Religion of these Kingdoms; these princely Endowments, Sir, with the Blessing of God, will enable you to follow such prudent, and wise Councils, as will extricate the Nation from the present bloody, and expensive, tho' successful and necessary War, and procure to us the Blessing of a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace. Full of Duty and Zeal, Sir, we have taken the earliest Opportunity to congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Throne of these Realms, and to declare our Loyalty and Affection towards your Majesty's Sacred Person. As we are confident that the Laws of the Realm will be the Standard and Guide of your Majesty's Actions, we will ever chearfully Support your Majesty's Government. May your Majesty's Reign be prosperous and glorious; and may you long live the Protector of the Liberties of this Nation, an example to future Princes, and an Honour to Mankind.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by John Chaplin, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, at our Guildhall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's most Sacred Person, and lay at your Feet this our earliest Testimony of the most sincere Condolence for the late melancholy Event, which has befallen your Majesty and these Realms, by the Death of your Royal Grandfather.

Nothing could alleviate so great an Affliction, but the firm Assurance we have, that the many Princely Virtues, which have so eminently manifested themselves in your Majesty, will faithfully preserve to us the great Blessings we have so long enjoyed under your Illustrious Family, by a full Possession of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

With Sentiments of the truest Loyalty and Affection, permit us therefore, Sir, at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Throne of these Realms, and to assure your Majesty, that we shall ever most heartily support your Government, and particularly at this critical Conjunction, that nothing shall be wanting from us, that can contribute to extricate your Majesty, from an expensive War, and procure a safe, honourable and lasting Peace.

God Grant your Majesty a long and glorious Reign, that Ages hereafter may honour that Name, which your faithful Subjects so highly venerate and esteem.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the City of Lincoln aforesaid, the first Day of November, in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Capital Burgeses of the Town or Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk and Capital Burgeses of the Town or Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln.

May it please your Majesty,

TO Receive our hearty Condolence for the great Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, whose Wisdom, Justice and Bravery, made his Reign glorious to himself, and happy to his Subjects; and, at the same Time, to accept of our firm Assurances of our Loyalty and Obedience to your Sacred Majesty, the lawful and rightful Successor to the Crown of these Realms.

As your Majesty early ascended the Throne in the Midst of a just and necessary War, it is our greatest Happiness to know your Majesty's Attention for your People, and Attention to our Religion, Laws and Liberties, Trade and Commerce; and we trust in God, that your Majesty possessing the Virtues of your truly good and great Predecessor, will be able to prosecute the War in such a Manner as to procure an honourable and lasting Peace. That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over a loyal, grateful and united People; and that the Crown

Crown of these Kingdoms may ever descend to One of your Majesty's illustrious Family.

These, and all other Blessings, we pray Heaven to pour down upon your Sacred Majesty, and your native Country; a Nation that will glory and rejoice in your Birth and Eminence, in the Wisdom of your Councils, the Valour of your Arms, and the Justice of your Government.

Given under our Common Seal at the Town-Hall of the said Borough, the Fifth Day of November, in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Shrewsbury, has been presented to His Majesty: which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Shrewsbury, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit your Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Town of Shrewsbury, to share humbly in the Sorrows of your Sacred Majesty, to lament with the Piety and Honour which they owe to the best of Princes, the Loss of their beloved Sovereign; and as a Testimony of Gratitude to His Memory, to profess the fullest Hopes and Transport which they sensibly feel in your Majesty's Accession to His Crown and Dignities.

With happy Omens your Majesty ascends the Throne with the entire Confidence of your People in those princely Virtues and just Sentiments of Government, which you have early learnt from the Example and Practice of your Royal Grandfather, and our late patriot Prince your Father, and in your declared Affection to the Country which boasts your Birth; and at a Time when the Commerce and Dominions of Britain are more extended than ever, and her Character in Arts and Arms is apparently the Envy and Terror of the most ambitious and dreaded Power in Europe.

May Providence continue its Blessings on your Majesty's Arms and Councils, and crown you with a long and prosperous Reign over a dutiful and grateful People; may you ever reign, and, with your great Ancestors, think it only glorious to reign in the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects; and may you long enjoy, and think it the greatest Blessing of Royalty, to enjoy the Power of blessing Nations that serve and love you.

Given under our Common Seal the Third Day of November, in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians in London, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians in London.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the President and Fellows of the College of Physicians in London, a Society founded by one of your Royal Predecessors, and honoured with the constant Patronage of succeeding Princes, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the humblest Profession of our Duty, and of our unfeigned Joy in your Majesty's happy Accession to the Government of these Realms.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to congratulate you on the auspicious Juncture at which you are called to rule us; when by the Blessing of Divine Providence on the wise Councils of our late excellent King, and on the unblemished Equity and Mildness of His Administration, the Glory and Happiness of Great Britain are raised to a Height unequalled in any former Period. These distinguished Circumstances, which will for ever make the Memory of your Royal Grandfather revered by this Nation; would render our Grief for the Loss of him most permanent, did not your Majesty's Virtues, so conspicuous in an early Season of Life, promise a Continuation of the same Felicity to your People.

May your Majesty's future Government be distinguished by every Blessing which the Favour of Heaven, and the Gratitude of good Subjects, can secure to the best of Kings: May your Majesty ever reign in the Hearts of all your People, and surpass your Predecessor in Years and Glory.

Given under our Common Seal this Tenth Day of November, 1760.

The following Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity-House, in Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity-House in Newcastle upon Tyne.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity-House in Newcastle upon Tyne, humbly beg Leave to condole the sudden and unexpected Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, whose many Virtues and mild Government must ever render His Memory dear to His Subjects.

We also humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Realms, and to assure you of our constant Prayers and most zealous Endeavours to render your Majesty's Reign long and prosperous.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the Third Day of November, 1760.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesses of Monmouth, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesses of Monmouth, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesses of your Town of Monmouth, with the utmost Duty and Humility, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the Death of our late Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal and August Grandfather, of glorious Memory, and at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Imperial Throne of these Kingdoms, with the general Voice and Approbation of a free and united People.

Your Majesty's so early and gracious Declaration, confirmed by your immediate, affectionate Attention in Consequence, to the Honour and Welfare of this your native Country, and at so critical a Juncture, must certainly endear your Majesty to every thinking Briton, and make him in Tongue and Heart a grateful, dutiful, and faithful Subject.

To see all our Party Feuds and Distinctions so happily vanished, our Commerce so well protected from the Violence of a long and destructive War, new Colonies and Territory almost daily added to the British Empire, and every other Part of the Publick Service so duly attended to and exerted under the Care and Vigilance of an able, faithful, and active Ministry, cannot but give the most sensible Pleasure to your People, and make them cheerful in their Supplies for so useful a Purpose.

Permit us, Royal Sir, in particular, most humbly to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government; and as Monmouth has been once honoured with the Birth of one of the greatest of your Royal Ancestors, the Scourge, the Conqueror of France; should the Ambition or Envy of that perfidious Nation, contrary to the Dictates of Reason and Humanity, oblige your Majesty to a Continuance of the present just and necessary War, may your Majesty's Successes be as Signal and Glorious as His, and Victory upon Victory still attend your Fleets and Armies, till Gallic Pride shall be once more humbled, and forced to an equitable, safe, and honourable Peace.

To conclude, and not to presume any further on your Majesty's most precious Moments, may every Blessing attend your Majesty in a long, very long, and prosperous Reign over us; and may the British Diadem lineally descend to your illustrious Progeny to the last Period of Time.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guild Hall, the fourth Day of November, 1760, and in the first Year of your Majesty's most gracious Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, filled with the warmest Zeal for your illustrious House, most humbly beg Leave to lay ourselves at your Majesty's Feet, and sincerely to condole with your Majesty on the Loss of our late most excellent King, your Royal Grandfather, whose princely Virtues most deservedly procured him not only the entire Love and Confidence of his Subjects, but also the universal Esteem of all good Men.

Under this calamitous Event, to whom can we fly for Protection but to your Majesty, the lineal Descendant and rightful Heir to the Crown of these Realms, in whom our Hopes are revived, and our most sanguine Expectations renewed for the Continuance of our happy Constitution in Church and State.

Your Majesty's Education in this Country of Liberty, and your late most gracious Declaration, fill our Hearts with the strongest Assurances of a Government conformable to them, and to the Spirit and Genius of a free People: Fully confirmed in these our Hopes and Expectations, permit us, Royal Sir, most solemnly to assure your Majesty, that we will, upon all Occasions, most zealously support and defend your Majesty's just Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous; may you ever rule in the Love of your Subjects; may you meet with the grateful Returns of a loyal and happy People; and may there never be wanting an Heir of your Majesty's august Family to inherit the Crown of these Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be thereto affixed, the Thirtieth Day of October, in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Chepping Wycombe in the County of Bucks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Permit us, your faithful and dutiful Subjects, after our Condolence for the Loss of His late Majesty of glorious Memory, humbly to express our Joy and Duty on your happy and auspicious Accession to the Crown of these Realms, an Event which was wanting to complete the desirable Effects of the Act of Settlement, by having our Sovereign born amongst us. We assure your Majesty, that notwithstanding the great Weight of our Taxes, and our immense Debt, that we shall, under your Majesty's Government, with the utmost Cheerfulness, support you in carrying on this just and necessary War, till we obtain a safe and honourable Peace, for the true and lasting Interest of these Kingdoms.

We beg leave humbly and most gratefully to acknowledge our just Reliance on your Majesty; that the Rule of your Government will be to promote in every thing the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, and to preserve and strengthen both the Constitution in Church and State.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with the deepest Concern for the Loss of your Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign of Blessed Memory; of whose princely Virtues we shall ever retain the most grateful Remembrance.

Permit us, Sir, at the same Time, to tender our most sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms. It is a real Happiness to reign over a People united in Sentiments and Affection to your Royal Person; and we have the strongest Assurance that the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms will be continued to us under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

We beg Leave to assure you, that we will faithfully execute the Trusts reposed in us, under your Majesty's Authority, with the greatest Fidelity and Zeal for your Majesty's Service: And also to add our sincerest Wishes and Prayers, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous; and that there may never be wanting one of your most illustrious House to fill the Throne of these Realms to latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of New Windsor, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of New Windsor, beg Leave to condole with you on your Private and our most affecting National Loss, by the Death of your Royal Grandfather, and our late Sovereign of glorious Memory: Language is too poor to attempt paying the Debt we owe it; but our Gratitude and Veneration will ever preserve it. Your Majesty will permit us now to turn our Thoughts to the only true Consolation, and to congratulate you on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms. We are truly sensible of the great Weight of Government devolved on your Majesty; but as England happily derives a Title from your Royal Declaration to your Heart as well as Birth, we cannot doubt, but that from your declared and fixed Purpose through Life to preserve our happy Constitution, and the able Advice of your Council, and the cheerful Support of every honest Subject, that Weight will gradually lessen, you be surrounded with Glory, and your Subjects blest'd with an honourable and lasting Peace.

Your Majesty's earliest Attention being thus firmly attached to these Noble Ends, as your Royal Predecessor's deceffor's lateft was, which even the Approach of Death could not fhake; may the Almighty confirm your Virtuous and Glorious Government; blefs your Royal Endeavours, and grant you a long and happy Reign over a Dutiful, Affectionate, and Faithful People.

Given under our Common Seal in our Council-Chamber this fifth Day of November, One thoufand feven hundred and fixty.
