THIS Day the following Address of the University of Cambridge was presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, their Chancellor; accompanied by the Rev. Dr. Sandby, Master of Magdalen College, Vice-Chancellor; the Right Hon. the Earl of Hardwicke, High Steward; and several of the Nobility, Students in the University; the Bishops of Norwich, Litchfield and Coventry, Chester, St. David's, Chichester, Peterborough, and Bristol; with a great Number of Heads of Houses, Doctors, and Masters of Arts; all in their proper University Habits.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of your University of Cambridge, lamenting, with the sincerest Grief, the Death of our late most Gracious Sovereign; and being truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoyed under His glorious Reign, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to testify our deepest Concern, for the severe, and most affecting Loss, which your Majesty and these Kingdoms have sustained by that melancholy Event; and, with Hearts full of the sincerest Duty, and most affectionate Zeal, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

The remarkable Prosperity and Success, which, by the Divine Providence, have been vouchsafed to us, through the long, and illustrious Reign of your Royal Grandfather; the acknowledged Lenity, Moderation, and Wisdom, of His Government; that uniform Regard to our Laws and Constitution, which was the invariable Rule of His Conduct; that constant and inviolable integrity, with which His Engagements were fulfilled; that Firmness, and Resolution, with which His Councils were directed; as they were productive of the most invaluable Blessings, justly demand the most affectionate Remembrance, and grateful Acknowledgments, of a dutiful and happy People.

We, of this University, in particular, who have been distinguished by the most signal Marks of His especial Favor, who have been honored by repeated Acts of His Royal Munificence; who have ever experienced the continued Support and Encouragement of His most gracious Countenance and Protection, can never be so unmindful of our Duty and Obligations, as not to retain the most lively Impressions, and, on all Occasions, testify the warmest Sense of Gratitude towards our Royal Benefactor.

The pleasing Hopes, so justly raised in us, by the Consideration of your Majesty's Princely Virtues, early implanted, and successfully cultivated; of your eminent and publick Regard to our Holy Religion, and your well-known Affection for our excellent Constitution in Church and State, have, by your Majesty's most gracious, and reasonable Declaration in Council, been improved into the strongest Confidence, that every Thing dear and valuable to us, will be preserved, in its full Extent, under your Majesty's Auspicious Government.

[Price Six-Pence]

Engaged as we are, by every Principle of Duty, we will not fail to offer up our most devout and fervent Prayers, that your Majesty's gracious Intentions to promote the Welfare of your Subjects, and to support the Dignity of your Crown, may be ever attended with Success; that the dreadful Effects of the present destructive, though necessary, War, may be succeeded by the lasting Blessings of an honorable and happy Peace; and that your Majesty's Throne may be ever fixed on that most solid and glorious Foundation, on which it now stands, the united Affections of a free and loyal People.

Permit us, Sir, with all Humility, to add our most earnest and faithful Assurances to your Majesty, that your University of Cambridge, ever firmly united in Principles of Loyalty and Affection, to your Royal and Illustrious Family, will invariably persevere in the most dutiful Attachment to your Royal Person and Government; and that our zealous and unwearied Endeavours shall be ever employed to impress deeply on the Minds of the rising Generation, entrusted to our Care, the most sincere and awful Reverence for our Holy Religion; the most zealous Regard for that happy Government under which we live; and the truest Sentiments of Allegiance, Fidelity, and Affection, to your Sacred Majesty; that so, under the settled Influence of these good Principles, and by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Blessings which we now enjoy may be perpetuated under the Government of your Royal and August House.

Given under our Common Seal, this 10th Day of November, 1760.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to give this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this very Dutiful and Loyal Address; the Zeal and Affection you shew to my Person, Family, and Government, and the Assurances you give me, of educating the Youth under your Care, in a due Reverence to our most Holy Religion, and in Principles of Zeal and Affection to our happy Establishment in Church and State, are most acceptable to me, and cannot fail of recommending you to my Favour and Protection.

His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously: And they had all the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

Nothing could alleviate our deep Concern, and repair our affecting Loss, but that entire Sense we have of His Majesty's Princely Virtues, early cultivated, and brought to a happy Maturity, by the pious, and maternal Care of your Royal Highness.

from your Majesty's innate Goodness and acknowledged extensive Blessings we may reasonably hope

Permit us to assure your Royal Highness, that we will not cease to offer up our constant Prayers to Almighty God, that he will shower down all Blessings, Spiritual, and Temporal, upon every Branch of the Royal Family; and that your Royal Highness may long live to see, and to partake of the Prosperity, which these Kingdoms cannot fail of enjoying under His Majesty's Wife, and Gracious Government.

Our Eyes are now turned on your Majesty's Sacred Person, the Heir of His Crown, His Virtues, and His Fame; ordained by the peculiar Favour of Providence to finish and compleat what is still wanting towards the Establishment of General Tranquility, and the Attainment of an Honourable and Lasting Peace; to repair the Ruins and Ravages of a destructive War, and to secure the domestic Happiness of your Subjects, by preserving and strengthening the Constitution both in Church and State.

Such extensive Blessings we may reasonably hope from your Majesty's innate Goodness and acknowledged Virtue; from your tenderest Affection and Regard for this your native Country; from those Principles of Religion and Morality, implanted in your Royal Breast by the Precepts and Example of your much lamented Father; cultivated from your early Youth by the Instructions of pious and learned Prelates; and happily perfected under the Guardian Care and Inspection of a most excellent Princefs.

Your Majesty, having thus happily experienced the Benefits of a Literary and Religious Education, will naturally look down, with an indulgent Eye, on Places and Persons set apart for Purposes so honourable and important. And your antient and loyal University of Oxford, ever faithful to Monarchy on the most trying Occasions, for their Part humbly hope to render themselves not unworthy of your Royal Protection and Favour, by their assiduous Endeavours, in their several Stations and Capacities, to answer the End of their Institution, the Promotion of Loyalty, Learning, and Religion.

Given at our House of Convocation this seventh Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1760.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to give the following most gracious Answer.

YOUR Assurances of Zeal, and Affection, for My Person and Government, are very acceptable to Me. Sound Principles of Religious and Civil Duties, early instilled into the Minds of Youth, and confirmed by Examples of True Piety, and Loyalty, in so eminent a Seat of Learning, cannot fail to diffuse the happiest Influences on Church and State; And will always ensure to You My constant Protection, and Favour.

Leicester-House, November 14.

This Day the Reverend Dr. Browne, Vice-Chancellor, and the other Members of the University of Oxford, who before waited on His Majesty at St. James's, were introduced to Her Royal Highness the Princefs Dowager of Wales, by Sir William Irby, Bart. Her Vice-Chamberlain; when the Vice-Chancellor made the Compliments of the University to Her Royal Highness in the following Speech.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

TO accept the Condolance of the University of Oxford on the melancholy Occasion of His late Majesty's Death; and to permit us to express our most sincere Congratulations on His present most Gracious Sovereign's Accession to the Throne of His Ancestors. A Prince! whose Abilities, being so happily cultivated under your Royal Highness's Inspection, cannot fail to add a Lustre to the British Crown, and adorn that exalted Station of Life, in which Providence hath placed Him. A Prince! whose Learning, Virtue and Piety will ever render Him the Darling of His Subjects at Home, and universally admired and revered Abroad; and whose promising Reign commences with an auspicious Omen, the glorious Success of His Allies.

Your faithful University of Oxford retains a grateful Sense of the many Favours vouchsafed to them from your Royal Highness and your much-lamented Consort; most humbly requesting the Continuance of, what they will ever studiously endeavour to merit, the Patronage and Protection of your Royal Highness, and of your most Illustrious Family.

To which her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer.

I Return you My hearty Thanks for this strong Mark of your Affection to Me; and feel most sensibly the Duty and Attachment you express to the Person and Government of the King My Son.

They had all the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Ligonier, and the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, their Representatives in Parliament.

Parliament : Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of your Majesty's City of Bath, in your County of Somerset, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the sudden and unexpected Loss of our late most Excellent Sovereign, whose End, though it can never be sufficiently deplored by his Subjects, deserves however in the History of human Life to be accounted fortunate : For after that good Prince had continued through a Course of happy Years to protect his People in their just Rights, and to assert the Honour of His Crown with equal Wisdom and Dignity both at Home and Abroad, He at last finished His Period without a Pang, universally beloved, honoured and lamented.

This heavy Loss, at so critical a Conjunction as the present, while the Kingdom is engaged in a bloody and expensive War, would be enough to weigh down our Hearts with Sorrow : But when we look up to your Majesty's personal Virtues and Accomplishments, and see the Scepter transferred to a Descendant of the same Illustrious House, our Grief is at once dispelled, and we are enabled with Joy to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

It is with the highest Satisfaction that we behold your Majesty ascend the Throne with the universal Acclamation and Consent of your People : And we already feel the happy Effects of your Majesty's Rule in that gracious Declaration, wherein you have been pleased to give us a most endearing Testimony of your Love to this your native Country ; and to assure us, that you will not only preserve, but endeavour to strengthen the Constitution both in Church and State : For which Act of voluntary Grace your People are already become bound by Gratitude to your Majesty, as well as by Duty and Inclination :

We are sensible that although your Majesty must feel with Concern the Calamities of an expensive War; yet we are persuaded that your Majesty, in Concert with your Allies, will pursue it vigorously ; and, with the Blessing of Providence, prosperously, till you have obtained for your Subjects a lasting and honourable Peace.

We therefore put up our Prayers to the Almighty, that your Majesty's Reign may commence even more gloriously than your Illustrious Grandfather's was finished : That your Name may become more renowned by a Series of new Victories, and that our Posterity may live to see the Glory, and enjoy the Happiness of your Majesty's Government. In Testimony whereof we have hereto set our Common Seal this Eleventh Day of November, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty.

St. James's, November 12.

This Day the Judges, Advocates, and Proctors, of Doctors Commons, waited on His Majesty with the following Address of Congratulation and Condolence : They were introduced to His Majesty by the most Reverend Father in God the Archbishop of Canterbury.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E the Judges and Advocates of Doctors Commons, with the Proctors Exercit in your Majesty's Ecclesiastical and Admiralty Courts, do, with our most profound Duty, approach your Royal Presence, humbly begging Leave, amidst the universal Joy of your Subjects, most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms.

The very early Assurances which your Majesty has graciously condescended to give your People, that the Preservation of our happy Constitution in Church and State, shall ever be your chief and principal Concern, is our greatest Consolation, under the sudden and afflicting Loss of your Majesty's Royal and most Illustrious Grandfather, of whose equitable and prudent Administration and Government, we shall ever retain the most sensible and grateful Remembrance.

Permit us, dread Sir, with all Humility, to assure your Majesty, that it shall ever be our constant Study, and earnest Endeavour, in our several Stations, to support your Royal Crown and Dignity, and by enforcing the due Observance of your Majesty's Ecclesiastical and Maritime Laws, as well to maintain the Supremacy of your Crown in these your Realms, as your undoubted Sovereignty of the Seas, which the many signal Victories obtained by your Majesty's Fleets, during the Course of the present War, have so nobly and gloriously vindicated and confirmed.

May Almighty God always direct your Majesty's Councils ; go forth with your Fleets, and Armies ; prolong your Reign with Honour, and soon vouchsafe to your most gracious Majesty the Glory of establishing for your People, a firm, a lasting, and honourable Peace.

They were received very graciously, and all had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, has been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, by the Right Honourable Robert Nugent, Esq; and Jarrit Smith, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament ; being introduced by Sir William Irby, Bart. Her Royal Highness's Vice-Chamberlain : Which Address Her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to condole with your Royal Highness upon the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign ; and to offer their sincere and hearty Congratulations upon the Accession of your Illustrious Son to the Throne of His Ancestors, and to the Government of this His Native Country.

God has made your Royal Highness a happy Instrument of conveying those Blessings to us, which cannot fail to distinguish the Reign of a Monarch descended from a double Line of Ancestors, who, from the most distant Periods of History, have stood forth the Asserters of Freedom, and the Champions of true Religion.

After Divine Providence had snatched from our Hopes, his much beloved and much lamented Father, those Seeds of heroic Virtue, implanted in His Nature, were in his tender Youth nourished by your Parental Care, which have since opened and disclosed themselves to the Eyes of an admiring People : Firmness of Mind, and Sweetness of Manners, were the early and auspicious Presages of Fortitude in Action, and Clemency in Rule. That these may be the Characteristicks of His Reign, and that your Royal Highness may long live a happy Witness of the Glories derived from them, is the hearty Prayer of your Royal Highness's faithful and most devoted Servants, the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, has been presented to His Majesty : Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, from a grateful Remembrance of the many Blessings we enjoyed under the Government of our late most gracious Sovereign, beg Leave, in the most dutiful Manner, to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of your late Royal Grandfather ; a Loss to this Nation which your Majesty alone could possibly repair.

It would but aggravate our Sorrow particularly to enumerate the Virtues of that most excellent Prince, Prince. Your Majesty's immediate Succession obliges us to moderate our Grief, and acknowledge the extraordinary Care of Providence, in securing to us the Continuance of our Happiness, by permitting your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration to your Council demands a more than ordinary Return of Gratitude for that tender and paternal Affection which you have been pleased to express for our Religion, Laws, and Liberties; and as the Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights is a Blessing most dear and valuable to a free People, and the peculiar Privilege of this Nation, we cannot sufficiently acknowledge your Majesty's Goodness in this your solemn Resolution, to make the Good of your People your chief and constant Care.

And though your Majesty has found your Kingdom involved in a bloody and expensive War, we make no Doubt but that, by the Steadiness and Vigour of your Councils, you will bring it to a glorious Conclusion; and by an Honourable and Lasting Peace lay a solid Foundation, not only of the Security and Glory, but even of the Ease and Tranquility of your Government, and that of your Majesty's Posterity; for which we offer up our most ardent Prayers, that it may for ever continue to reign after your Majesty on the Throne of these Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a People truly happy and gratefully sensible of their being so.

Given under our Common Seal this fourth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

Your faithful Subjects must have more severely felt this great Loss, had not Providence been careful of their future Happiness, by fixing the Imperial Crown of these Realms in your Royal Person; We therefore most humbly entreat your Majesty to accept of our earnest and sincerest Congratulations, on your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

The Declaration, which your Majesty has most graciously been pleased to make, confirms us in the Opinion we early entertained, of your Regard to the Constitution of this Kingdom, and Attention to the true and commercial Interests of your Subjects.

May the Almighty ever crown with Success your wise and vigorous Measures, supported by the united Efforts of your faithful People, in carrying on this just and necessary War, in the Manner which to your Majesty shall seem most effectual to bring on an honourable and lasting Peace.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous; and may there never be wanting one of your illustrious Family, to support and transmit to the latest Posterity, the civil and religious Liberties of this Nation.

We assure your Majesty, that we are steady in our Attachments to your Royal Person and Family, and shall be zealous in our Endeavours for the Support of your Crown; and we join in fervent Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that there never may be wanting one of your August House, to rule the Scepter of these Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

The continued Course of Felicity so long enjoyed by these Nations, obliges us with all Obedience and Gratitude, to acknowledge the deep Sense we have of our present and future Happiness, and to beseech your Majesty to accept our most sincere Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

Your Majesty's tender Affection for your native Country, and your most gracious and solemn Declaration at your first Entrance into Government, that you will make it the Business of your Life to promote in every Thing the Glory and Happiness of these these Kingdoms, and to preserve and strengthen both the Constitution in Church and State, claims our most sincere and dutiful Acknowledgments; and may justly be depended upon from a Prince, descended on both Sides from a Race of Heroes, who so early and so undauntedly stood forth, and distinguished themselves in the Cause of Liberty and Religion.

Memory will be for ever dear and sacred amongst us.

But our Grief is much alleviated, and we scarce felt the sudden Stroke of that Calamity, when we perceive it abundantly repaired to us in a Prince succeeding to these Imperial Crowns, possessed of all the Regal Virtues that can answer the Desires of a Free People, sensible of the Benefits we enjoy from a Protestant Succession in your Illustrious House.

What can a loyal and grateful People have more to wish, than that your Majesty's Reign may be prosperous and lasting ; not doubting but that a peculiar Providence will attend your Sacred Person, who gives us such early Proofs of being a Father to your People, and a Blessing to Mankind.

Nothing could have supported us under this melancholy Event, but the Consideration of those Virtues, so conspicuous in your Majesty when Prince of Wales, and your Majesty's Gracious Declaration to your Privy Council, That you would maintain all our valuable Privileges, Sacred and Civil.

We therefore, with unfeigned Joy, congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Crown of these Realms, and humbly beg your Majesty will accept this Tender of our Duty and Loyalty, with our hearty Prayers to Almighty God, to bless your Majesty with a long, glorious, and happy Reign.

This sudden and unexpected Event at so important a Crisis, would have been an insupportable Calamity to your Majesty's faithful Subjects, had not the Divine Providence blessed us with a Prince, who hath been graciously pleased to declare in Council, the most tender Affection to His native Country, and the highest Regard for our most excellent Constitution in Church and State.

What good Things may not your Majesty's Subjects hope for, what may not your Enemies fear, from such a happy Beginning.

We therefore, with the most sincere and dutiful Affection, congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.
