St. James's, November 22.

THE following humble Address of the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of the poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, hath been presented to His Majesty, by the most Reverend Father in God the Archbishop of Canterbury, President; accompanied by the Right Honourable Sir John Willes, Knight; Lord Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, Vice President, several of the Bishops, the Treasurers, the Court of Assistants, and a great Number of other Gentlemen, Members of that Corporation, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain of the Household: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and they all had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, President; the Right Honourable Sir John Willes, Knt. Lord Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, Vice President; and the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows and Children of Clergymen.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the President, Vice President, and Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, approach your Royal Person, to express our Share of that unfeigned Sorrow which this Nation in general has felt, in the Loss of his late most Excellent Majesty, of blessed Memory.

Permit us at the same Time, dread Sir, to testify our Gratitude to Almighty God, whose good Providence has comforted us in our Affliction, by continuing the Prospect of all those invaluable Blessings which we enjoyed under his just Administration, and by setting over a thankful and obedient People, the Heir of his Throne and his Virtues.

We reflect, with the most hearty Acknowledgment, upon the many Instances of Royal Bounty with which this Society has been graciously distinguished: We cherish the Memory of the Honor it once received by the Presence of your most illustrious Person; and we flatter ourselves that your Majesty will cheerfully accept this Tender of our Duty and Obedience, the loyal Congratulation of a Society, which, under God, has promoted the general Welfare, in a prudent Administration of that very considerable Article of Public Charity, the Relief of the Widows and Children of the Clergy, the sorrowful Remains of a Set of Men, whose Instruction and Example, by the Blessing of Providence, have contributed in great measure to that Unanimity, which at present reigns in the Hearts of a faithful and obedient People: And whose Learning and Labours have vindicated and supported that Holy Faith, of which your Majesty's most Illustrious House has been the constant Protector and Defender.

For the common Blessings therefore which we enjoy as Subjects, and for the particular Instances of Royal Munificence to this Corporation, Permit us, most Gracious Sovereign, to return you our most solemn Assurances, that our Gratitude shall endeavour to equal our Obligations; expressed in a faithful and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's most Sacred Person and Government, in a cheerful and ready Contribution to all the Exigencies of the Public Measures, in promoting, by our Influence and Example, that Decency of Manners, and that Regard for Religion, which alone can make a Government easy, and a Nation happy; and lastly, in assisting, by all the most effectual Means in our Power, your Majesty's most gracious Intentions and Declarations for the Support of our Religious and Civil Establishment.

May that Power, by which King's reign, direct your Councils, and bless your Endeavours, secure to you the Affections of your People, and continue the Splendor of your Arms: May your Reign be glorious to Yourself, and happy to those you rule over; in Length of Time out-numbering the Days of the great Monarch that went before you; and by late Posterity, held up as a shining Example, to those whom Providence shall raise up in your Royal and Illustrious House to govern after you.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the Seventeenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty, and in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign.

They afterwards waited on her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, and his Grace the Lord Archbishop made their Compliments to her Royal Highness in a Speech; to which she was pleased to return a most gracious Answer; and they all had the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

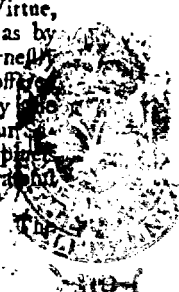

The following Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford, in all Humility approach your Sacred Person, affected with the deepest Sense of Grief under the Loss of our late most excellent Sovereign; but, at the same Time, most sincerely thankful to Almighty God, by whose gracious Providence your Majesty succeeds to the Throne of these Kingdoms, we revere and adore the Hand of God, under all his Dispensations: But we accept with Joy, the Earnest He has given us of future Blessings, in the many Virtues and Graces He has infused into your Royal Breast. On these we congratulate our Country: On these we build our Hopes of long-increasing Happiness, and national Glory, under your Majesty's most auspicious Influence. Your Majesty may be assured, that we shall, each of us in our respective Stations, exert our utmost Endeavours to promote that due Sense of Religion and Virtue, which, by your Royal Proclamation, as well as by your own Illustrious Example, you have so earnestly recommended to us. Our Prayers are daily offered up to Almighty God for your Majesty. May the Choice of His Blessings ever descend on your Sacred Person, and may you long reign in Happiness over the Hearts of a most dutiful and grateful People.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Diocese of Worcester, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Diocese of Worcester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, and Clergy of the Diocese of Worcester, beg Leave, with all Humility, to express to your Majesty our just Concern and Affliction for the great Loss which this Nation has sustained by the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, whose great and Royal Virtues, constantly directed to the Welfare and Prosperity of his People, and the Happiness of Mankind, must endear his Name to the latest Posterity.

Permit us, at the same Time, to testify our most sincere Joy, upon the happy Accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these Kingdoms; whose early and eminent Zeal for our holy Religion; and whose gracious Declaration in favor of our happy Constitution in Church and State, give us the most pleasing Assurance of future Blessings, under your Majesty's auspicious Government, and the powerful Influence of your Royal Example.

It shall be our earnest Endeavour, in our several Situations, by every Mark of Duty, Zeal, and Affection, to contribute, as far as lies in our Power, to the Ease and Prosperity of your Majesty's Government; and our constant Prayers shall be offered up to Him, by whom Kings reign, for the choicest of his Blessings to your Majesty's Person and Family; That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of a grateful People, and that there may never be wanting one of your illustrious House to inherit the Crown of these Realms.

St. James's, November 21.

This Day the following Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers, in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, was presented to His Majesty, by the Rev. Dr. Samuel Chandler, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers, in and about the Cities of London and Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers, in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our deep Sense of the great Loss your Majesty, your Kingdoms, and Europe in general, have sustained by the Death of his late Majesty, your Royal Grandfather; and, with Hearts full of Affection and Joy, to congratulate your Majesty's happy and peaceable Succession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

The numerous Blessings these Nations enjoyed, for a long Series of Years, under his late Majesty's auspicious Government, and the great Events that were depending in Europe, made the Preservation of your Royal Grandfather's important Life, the common Desire and earnest Prayer of all good Men in these Nations; and their Concern for his sudden Removal, would have been much more painful and durable, had not the Knowledge of your Majesty's Virtues, and great Abilities for Government, alleviated our Anxieties, dissipated our Fears, and filled us with the most pleasing Prospects of the sure Continuance of our Prosperity.

Illustrious and ancient Descent, Princely Education, Prime of Life, Dignity of Person, early Piety and Virtue, Love of Probity and Truth, Regard to Liberty and the Rights of Conscience, and your known Affection to this your native Country, peculiarily endear your Majesty to all your Subjects, and promise them every Thing their Hearts can wish from the best of Kings.

Your Majesty ascends the Throne in a Time of Difficulty, and amidst all the great Expences and Uncertainties of War. We adore the good Providence of God, for the distinguishing Successes that have attended it; and we trust, that, by His constant Blessing on your Majesty's Counsels and Arms, your Majesty will soon become the glorious and happy Instrument of establishing such a Peace in Europe, as shall effectually support the Protestant Religion and Liberties, and secure the Prosperity of these Kingdoms upon solid and immoveable Foundations.

We recollect, with Joy and unfeigned Gratitude, that glorious Era, which settled the Succession to the Throne of Great-Britain, in your Majesty's Royal House, and perpetuated to these Nations, under God, the free and undisturbed Enjoyment of all their Civil and Religious Liberties. And we humbly beg Leave to assure you, most Gracious Sovereign, that entirely confiding in your Majesty's great Goodness and Justice, for our Share in the Protection and Blessings of your Majesty's Government, we shall not fail, from Dictates of Conscience and Gratitude, to be Examples ourselves of Loyalty and Duty, and to inculcate on all, who attend our Ministry, that Submission and Obedience, which they owe to your Majesty's Authority and Government.

Nor shall we cease to offer up our most ardent Supplications to Almighty God, that he would render your Majesty's Prosperity so distinguished, as that when Great-Britain, in future Ages, wishes well to any of her most beloved Kings, the Descendants of your Royal House and Family, your Felicity, most Illustrious Prince! may bound all her Desires, and she may, with Joy and Triumph, say—May their Reigns be as long, as glorious, and happy, as your Majesty's.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to give this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this Loyal and Affectionate Address. You may assured of my Protection, and of my Care and Attention to support the Protestant Interest, and to maintain the Toleration inviolable.

His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously, and they had all the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

The same Day they waited in a Body upon Her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, introduced by Sir William Irby, Bart. and the Rev. Dr. Chandler made their Compliments of Condolence and Congratulation in the following Speech.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

May it please your Royal Highness,

W E His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers, in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Royal Highness, to express our just and great Concern, for the Loss your Royal Highness and these Nations have sustained, by the Death of His late Majesty, of glorious and blessed Memory, and to congratulate your Royal Highness, on the happy Succession of His present Majesty to the Throne and Government of these Kingdoms.

Your Royal Highness well knew the Importance of Religious Principles and good Morals, to secure a Prince's Happiness, and the Welfare of His People. And how much are these Kingdoms indebted to your Royal Highness, for forming the Mind of His present Majesty to the most worthy, generous Sentiments and Dispositions; preparing him, under the Blessing of the Almighty, to govern with Wisdom, Integrity, and Righteousness, this great People; and to be a Pattern of every Thing excellent and good, to all Ranks and Degrees of Men. And when your Royal Highness shall see Religion and Virtue, Arts and Sciences, Trade and Commerce, flourish under His Majesty's Protection, and your Royal Son shall be spoken of by all, as the Patron of Learning, the Friend of Liberty, the Favourite of Providence, and the Delight of the best and worthiest Men; how will your Royal Highness's Heart exult with Pleasure, in reaping these liberal Fruits of your Maternal Piety and Goodness; and finding yourself esteemed, beloved, and honoured, by a grateful and happy People.

Your Royal Highness will allow us to offer up our most ardent Supplications to Almighty God, for the long Life, and increasing Honour and Prosperity of His Majesty; that your Royal Highness may be many Years preserved, to rejoice and share in the Blessings of His Reign; that all the Branches of your Royal Highness's Family may be distinguished by the Favour of Providence; and that there never may be wanting one of your Royal Descendants, to fill and adorn the British Throne, till Time shall be no more.

To which her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer.

I Return you my Thanks, for your Attention shewn to me, and for the Duty which you express for the King my Son.

Her Royal Highness received them very graciously; and they had all the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, having been transmitted by Charles Fall, Esq; their Provost, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

May your Majesty be pleased to accept of this humble Tender of our Duty, and of our invariable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government; and it shall be our constant Prayer, that the great Ruler of the Universe may direct and prosper your Majesty's Councils, in the present arduous and critical Situation of Affairs, for your Majesty's Glory, and the Good of all your Majesty's Subjects; and that He may bless your Majesty with a long and happy Reign.

Signed in our Name and by Appointment,

Charles Fall, Provost.

The following Address of the High Steward, Deputy-Steward, Chief, and other Burgesses of the City of Westminster, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Henry Earl of Lincoln High Steward, the Deputy-Steward, the Chief, and other Burgesses of this your Majesty's antient City and Liberty of Westminster, peculiarly honoured, by being the Place of your Birth and Residence, do, with the utmost Reverence, presume to congratulate your Majesty, upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms: And we do, from a grateful Remembrance of the many Blessings this Nation enjoyed during the late glorious Reign, administered with so much Wisdom and Resolution, humbly beg Leave to condole the Death of your Illustrious Grandfather, a Loss which nothing could alleviate but your Majesty's Succession to His Crown.

When we reflect on your Majesty's Royal Virtues; and on your solemn Declaration to support the Constitution of this your native Country both in Church and State, our Sorrows must abate, as we have the greatest Reason to expect, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign; every Blessing that can be enjoyed by a free and happy People.

We further beg Leave, in the strongest Manner, to assure your Majesty, that our Hearts are firmly united in Support of your Person and Government; and that we will cheerfully embrace every Occasion of manifesting that Zeal, Affection and Fidelity, which is due to a great and gracious King.

That the Divine Providence may ever guard and protect your most Sacred Majesty; that your Reign may be long and happy in the Affections of your People at home; that the Conduct and Courage of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies may procure the Respect of all Nations abroad; that a lasting and honourable Peace may succeed the present just and necessary War; and that your Majesty's Imperial Crown may descend to your Illustrious Family to all succeeding Ages, are our most sincere and fervent Prayers.

Given under our Common Seal this 21st Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1760.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. William Bouverie; Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Government of these Kingdoms, and, at the same Time, to express our deep Sorrow for the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign.

Amidst the general Concern for so sudden and melancholy an Event, it is our great Consolation to see a Prince ascend the Throne, who (inheriting the Virtues as well as Crown of his Royal Grandfire) will secure to us the full Enjoyment of those inestimable Blessings, our Religions and Civil Rights.

The manly Contempt of Pleasure (so apt to engross the Attention of Youth) and the steady Application to improve the excellent Endowments of your Mind, which so remarkably distinguished your Majesty's early Days, gave the surest Prefage, that you would adorn that Pre-eminence your Birth intitled you to, and by filling the Station you are now placed in, with the highest Dignity, increase the Splendor of your Illustrious House.

Whatever Anxiety your Royal Breast may feel upon being thus torn called to the difficult and arduous Task of Government, at this important Crisis, not the least Diffidence or Distrust can arise in the Minds of your faithful People, who upon the best Grounds expect every Thing that is great and good, from a Prince determined to make the Welfare of His Native Country the chief Object of His Care and Ambition.

In this happy Situation, undisturbed by Faction at home, freed from the Terror of hostile Invasions, and the common Calamities of War, Britons cannot be too thankful.

With a just Confidence in the experienced Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils; and the Conduct and Bravery Bravery of your Forces under the Divine Favour, may they not still hope to triumph over their Enemies, and command an Honourable and Advantageous Peace.

We humbly assure your Majesty nothing shall be wanting on our Parts; animated by the strongest Motives of Duty and Gratitude, we will contribute every Thing in our Power to alleviate the Burden your Majesty so cheerfully sustains for the Publick Weal.

Given under our Common Seal this thirteenth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1760, and in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, with thankful and joyful Hearts, congratulate you upon the Accession of your most Sacred Person to the Imperial Throne of these Realms, wishing you a long and prosperous Reign over a happy and affectionate People.

We were deeply affected with the great Loss this Nation sustained by the sudden Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign, of blessed Memory, at so critical a Juncture: But our Misfortune would have been much less supportable, had it not been happily, and amply, repaired, by the peaceable Succession of your Sacred Majesty to his Crown and Dignity, amidst the loudest Acclamations of your united and faithful Subjects; an Event doubly auspicious to these your Kingdoms, as it has instated you, most Royal Sir, in the full Possession of those Rights and Prerogatives, which are legally derived to you from your Royal Progenitors: And as your Majesty was graciously pleased, at your Entrance into the Royal Government, to make a publick Declaration of your paternal Affection for his your native Country; of your firm Attachment to the Constitution both in Church and State; of your earnest Intentions to promote the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms; and of your Resolution to endeavour to prosecute the just and necessary War, in which we are now engaged, in the Manner most likely to procure an honourable and lasting Peace; whence your loyal Subjects have just Grounds to hope for every Thing that can contribute to the Magnificence and Splendour of your Reign, and the Happiness and Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

You may, Great Sir, be assured of our hearty Endeavours, on all Occasions, to promote the Glory of your Majesty, and the Welfare of our Fellow-Subjects.

And that there never may be wanting an Heir of your Illustrious Family, to possess your Virtues, and inherit your Crown, and who may captivate the Hearts, as well as rule over the Persons of your Subjects, is, Most Gracious Sovereign, the ardent Wish, and earnest Prayer, of us your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects.

Given under our common Seal, this eleventh Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Master, Wardens, and Assistants, Elder and Younger Brethren, of the Trinity House, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sandwich, Master of the said Trinity House: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord North, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Banbury, beg Leave, with the profoundest Respect, to express our deepest Concern, and to condole with your Majesty, upon the sudden and unexpected Loss of your illustrious Grandfather.

The Loss of a Prince, who unvariably made the Laws of the Land, and the Happiness of his Subjects, the constant Rule of his Actions, through the Course of a long and glorious Reign, must have proved almost insupportable to a truly loyal People, had not the Almighty Disposer of all Things been pleased to deliver the Sceptre of these Kingdoms into the Hands of your Sacred Majesty.

From your Majesty's excellent Disposition, known Abilities, Princely Virtues, and early Attention to the Laws and Constitution of these your Kingdoms, we have the firmest Assurance of every Happiness that a faithful united People can hope or desire from the best and most gracious of Sovereigns.

With the greatest Deference, and highest Satisfaction, we therefore most heartily congratulate your Majesty's Accession to the Government of these Realms; and may the Almighty grant unto your Majesty, a long, happy, and glorious Reign, and continue the Crown of these Realms in your Illustrious House to the latest Posterity.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Hereford, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your most Sacred Majesty with their sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors: An Event which affords the most solid Comfort under the Affliction which the Nation felt on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, whose glorious Reign will always shine with Lustre in the British Annals.

It gives the highest Satisfaction to your People, that a Prince reigns over them, who has early been acquainted with the English Constitution in Church and State, and will make that the Measure of His Government, by which the Prerogatives of the Crown, and the Liberty of the Subject, are equally supported: What may we not expect from a Sovereign, who reigns in the Hearts of a Free People? The Unanimity of your Subjects at home, and the known Courage of your Forces abroad, under the Divine Providence, give the strongest Assurance of Success to your Majesty's Arms and Councils; and from thence we derive the pleasing Hopes of a safe and honourable Peace, and of the future Happiness of these Kingdoms.

Your Majesty's Affection for this Country, and Regard for the Welfare of your Subjects, demand our warmest Returns of Gratitude: And we beg Leave, in the strongest Manner, to profess our unalterable Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government, and for your Royal House. Long may your Majesty reign over us, revered as the Father of your Country, and the Guardian of its Laws and Liberties; and may one of your Illustrious Family fill the Throne of these Kingdoms to the latest Time.

Permit us also to congratulate your Majesty, ourselves, and all our Fellow Subjects, upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, at a Time when the many eminent Virtues and great Abilities, which are so conspicuous in your Majesty, are more particularly necessary, for the Support and Maintenance of the Rights of the Crown, and the Interests of the People, both with respect to the carrying on a just and necessary War, and the concluding a safe and honourable Peace.

Your Majesty's innate Moderation and Goodness, your known Love of Liberty, and Hatred of Oppression, together with that Veneration for our excellent Constitution in Church and State, which has been instilled into your Majesty from your earliest Youth, by the Precepts and Example of your late Royal Grandfather, give the most undoubted Assurances to all your Subjects, of the free Exercise and full Enjoyment of all their Civil and Religious Liberties under your most auspicious Government; and that general Demonstration of Joy and Gladness, with which your Majesty's Accession to the Throne hath been universally received and celebrated by all your Subjects of every Rank and Denomination, gives us the most pleasing Hope and Expectation, that all domestic Dissension and Party Difference, which has for some Time subsided, will now entirely cease; and that your Majesty will continue long to reign in the united Hearts and Affections of a free and happy People, without any Strife or Contention among them, but that of endeavouring to excel each other in Duty and Loyalty to the best of Kings.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Council Chamber in Oxford, this Fourteenth Day of November, in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the Loss we have sustained in the Death of our late most excellent Sovereign; a Loss under which nothing could have supported us, but the happy Accession of your Majesty to the Throne of these Kingdoms, and on which we beg your Majesty will accept our sincere Congratulations.

Your Majesty accedes to the Crown with the Love and Veneration of all your Subjects, who have in your Majesty's gracious Declaration, as they have long had in your Princely Virtues, the fullest Assurance of their Happiness and Felicity, under the Influence of your Majesty's Government.

Upon this Occasion we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government, and that our Prayers and most ardent Wishes will ever be, That your Majesty's Reign may be long and glorious over a dutiful, loyal and affectionate People.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester in Common Council assembled, together with the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the said City.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept these earliest and sincerest Marks of our Duty and Loyalty, and to permit us to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession sion to the Throne of these Kingdoms; and withal, to condole for the unspeakable Loss of your Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign, who, full of Years, and full of Glory, has left to an admiring World a bright Example of every Royal Virtue, and of every humane and paternal Affection.

Nothing could alleviate so great a Loss, but the happy Prospect of your Majesty's future Reign over us; 'tis hence that through the Gloom of Sorrow, which involves every loyal Heart upon this mournful Occasion, bright Beams of Joy break in with all their fullest Lustre: And when we consider your Birth and Education amongst us, under the Auspices of her Royal Highness, and formed by the Example of him, whose Loss we lament, it gives us the most pleasing and solid Assurance, that your Reign will be productive of every Blessing to your People, and your private Virtues already conspicuous, your just Regard for the Laws and Constitutions of these Kingdoms, confirm all our most sanguine Expectations.

Well knowing your Majesty's Heart to have received such noble Impressions, with what Joy do we behold you mount the Throne, and cheerfully take upon you, at so critical a Juncture, the arduous Task of Government: Nor can we doubt, but that, thro' the same Divine Blessing (whereby the Glory of the British Arms and Empire have been so exalted and extended under our late Sovereign) your Majesty's Reign will be even more beneficially glorious by the Security of our Conquests, and the Cultivation of all the Arts and Blessings of Peace.

It is with fresh Pleasure, we congratulate you also, Royal Sir, upon what is most peculiar to your Majesty, that no Monarch ever possessed himself of the Reins of Power over a more unanimous and loyal People, who in their Acclamations of Joy, do not offer you the Adulation of Slaves, but the willing Tribute of Britons and Freeborn Subjects; zealous indeed, but not fearful for their Liberties under your Majesty's equal Administration, and your most glorious Declaration of making it the Business of your Life to promote, in every Thing, the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms; and tho' not insensible of the Burden of an expensive, but just and necessary War, yet ready to contribute to the utmost of their Abilities towards the Support of it, till your Majesty's Enemies are compelled to accept such Terms of Peace as are consistent with the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and the lasting Welfare of your Subjects.

May the Great King of Kings hasten this Event, and ever keep your Majesty under his Almighty Protection, that your Reign may be long and happy to yourself and People; and may these Blessings descend in your Royal Line till Time itself shall be no more.

May it please your Majesty,

TO admit your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Maldon, to approach your Throne with their sincere Condolence for the Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, of ever blessed and most glorious Memory.

The Happiness these Kingdoms have enjoyed for near half a Century, under the auspicious Reigns of your Majesty's most illustrious Ancestors, cannot fail to raise in the Heart of every British Subject, the Nothing could compensate for so great a Loss, but the Happiness we feel in our Hearts, that he is succeeded by a King of his Royal Race, and the Confidence we entertain, that your Majesty inherits his Princely Qualities.

May the King of Kings long continue to guard your Majesty's Sacred Person, and your Royal Family: May He inspire your Majesty with the same firm Attachment to the True Religion, the same real Affection for your Subjects, and the same steady Adherence to preserve the Liberties of Europe, and the Constitution of these Kingdoms, which were the distinguishing Marks of our late Majesty's most glorious Reign, and the great Source of Happiness to his People.

At the same Time, Great Sire, we most humbly beseech you to permit us, with the same warm Affections, to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Empire of these Realms your native Country: And although your Majesty ascends the Throne in the Midst of the Rage and Calamities of War, yet from the Natural and Royal Magnanimity of Soul, inherent in the ancient and illustrious House of Hanover, from the many shining Virtues and powerful Abilities, which have so conspicuously adorned your early Part of Life, cultivated and encouraged under the best of Royal Mothers, the arduous Task of Government will be easy to yourself, and happy to your Subjects.

Your Royal and Voluntary Declaration issued immediately upon your Accession to the Crown, that you would preserve and strengthen the present Happy Constitution in Church and State, must endear your Majesty to all your Subjects, and afford them a pleasing Confidence, that in you the Almighty has raised up another Indulgent Father of their Country, another George, auspicious Name to Britons! a King, who will reign in the Hearts of a great and powerful Nation, ready and willing to defend them against all their Enemies, to protect, encourage, and maintain them in all their legal Rights, Possessions, and Commercial Interests.

The Wisdom and Integrity of your Majesty's Ministers, the Fortitude and Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, under whose Directions, and by whose Valour so many noble Victories, and wide-extended Conquests, have been acquired, will, we trust in God, with the Concurrence of your steady Allies, enable your Majesty to triumph over the inveterate Enemies of your Kingdom, and compel the Rivals of our Trade, to accept from your Majesty's Hand, a Peace upon Terms honourable, just, and permanent, to these Kingdoms.

May it please God, of his great Mercy and Kindness, so often shewn to these Nations, to grant to your Majesty Health and Long Life, a happy and glorious Reign; and that the Imperial Crown of these Realms may descend from you to the latest Posterity of your Royal House with additional Lustre and Glory; and that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this Address as the sincere Pledge of our Allegiance, Fidelity, and Zeal, for the Welfare and Service of your Royal and most Illustrious Person, Family and Government.

By Order of the Court,
Signed and passed under our Common Seal, this 11th of November, 1760.

habitants within the Town and Neighbourhood of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, beg Leave, with the most humble Submission, to condole with your Majesty on the great Loss which your Majesty and all your Subjects have sustained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most good and Majesty's most valuable Life, and may the Glories and Honours of your Reign be daily enlarged, and

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Harwich, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Harwich, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Harwich, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty, on the sad Occasion of the Death of our late most excellent Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne.

When we call to our Remembrance the many Blessings we enjoyed under his late Majesty's most equitable and mild Reign, a Reign which will be distinguished in our Annals to latest Times, by his constant Attention to preserve inviolable our Religious and Civil Rights; and by his successful Endeavours to make us no less glorious abroad than happy at home; it would be the highest Ingratitude not to pay the due Tribute of Grief to the Memory of so great and so amiable a King.

Nor need we fear your Majesty's Disapprobation of our pious Sorrow, whose most gracious Declaration first set the Example to our Affliction, and made it incumbent upon us to lament your private Loss, in Conjunction with our own.

But, since it has pleased the King of Kings to take unto Himself your Royal Grandfather, and to change his temporal for an immortal Crown, we are truly sensible of our peculiar Felicity, we feel a Consolation and Joy beyond the Power of Expression, that the Sceptre hath descended into the Hands of your Majesty, from whose hereditary and innate Virtues, improved by Education, and confirmed by domestick Example, we rest assured of the Continuance of the same inestimable Blessings; of the same wise Choice of upright and able Ministers; of the same Firmness in the Pursuit of vigorous and national Measures.

And, filled with the warmest Sentiments of Zeal, and Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, we shall offer up incessantly our Prayers to Heaven, that God will vouchsafe to give your Majesty the Victory over all your Enemies; that he will crown with Success your spirited and well-directed Endeavours to procure an honourable and lasting Peace: And that, in Alleviation of the heavy Burthen you have undertaken, for the Advancement of the publick Glory and Happiness, your Majesty may long possess the united Hearts of an obedient, loyal, and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fifteenth

The humble Address of the Portreve and Burgeses of the Borough of Great Bedwin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreve and Burgeses of the Borough of Great Bedwin, Partakers of the common Benefits diffused through these Kingdoms, during the long and prosperous Reign of your Royal Grandfather, cannot be insensible of the general Concern, occasioned by His unexpected Death: An Event premature, as the Evening of His glorious Days was closed, before it was given Him to enjoy, the great Object of His Wishes, the Blessings of an Honourable Peace. An Happiness reserved, we trust, to gild the Infancy of your Majesty's auspicious Government, by the provident Disposer of all Things; who foresaw, and will reward the pious Attachment of your early Zeal to His Honour and Service.

Confiding in His Aid and Protection, we humbly hope your Majesty's Princely Resolutions may be crowned with the Success at which you aspire. Your declared Attention to the Glory of your native Kingdoms,

doms, convinces your affectionate People, that your Pursuits for their Happiness will ever be accompanied by a Regard for the Dignity of your Crown, and for the Honour and Interests of your Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Chichester, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Chichester, would think themselves wanting in the Duty and Loyalty they are so desirous of shewing, if they did not, at this Time, beg Leave to join with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, in condoling with you upon the Death of our late most Gracious Sovereign, whose mild, just, and happy Reign, claims from us the most sincere Grief for the Loss of so excellent a Prince.

We beg Leave, at the same Time, to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Succession to the Throne of your Illustrious Ancestors; and to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

The Declaration your Majesty has been pleased to make in Council, gives us the strongest Assurance of your Majesty's protecting our Laws and Liberties in Church and State, and confirms our most sanguine Hopes and Expectations.

We trust that (under the Divine Providence) we shall see a Continuation of the remarkable Series of Successes with which we have been blessed, and which owe their Being to Measures so wisely concerted, and so ably executed; and that a Lasting and Honourable Peace will confirm those inestimable Blessings we are born to enjoy.

We shall ever offer up our Prayers, that your Majesty may long live to make a loyal and free People happy.

In Witness whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, the fifteenth Day of November, in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Cardigan, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cardigan, has been presented to His Majesty by John Pugh Pryse and Herbert Lloyd, Esqrs. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Borough of Cardigan, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cardigan.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, with all Humility approach your Royal Presence, to deplore the Loss of your Majesty, your Subjects, and all Europe, has sustained by the Decease of our late most gracious Sovereign; and to testify (at the same Time) our Joy of your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your native Kingdom.

We are sensible under what Difficulties your Majesty begins your Reign; an expensive War to be carried on in different Parts of the Earth, against the inveterate Enemy of your Kingdoms; an heroic Prince, nearly allied to your Majesty in Blood, oppressed by a powerful and unjust Confederacy, to be supported. Nevertheless, depending on the Divine Aid to so just a Cause, and the Vigour of your Majesty's Arms and Councils, we despair not, but promise ourselves Victory over all our Enemies, who are at the same Time Enemies to the True Religion, and the Rights of Mankind.

That God may shower down upon your Majesty the choicest of His Blessings; grant you a long and happy Reign, and make your Majesty, as your Royal Ancestors have been, the great Protector and Defender of the Rights and Liberties of your Subjects, and of the Protestant Cause, are the ardent Wishes of us your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Bailiffs and Burgeses, of the Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardnes, has been presented to His Majesty: which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardnes, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of your ancient Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardnes, in your said County of Devon, should be greatly deficient in Duty and Gratitude to the best of Kings, did we not join with the united Voice of the whole Nation, in condoling with your most Sacred Majesty on the death of our late Liege Lord your August Grandfather; the Glories of whose Reign will always shine with the brightest Lustre in the Annals of Great Britain, and his Memory be ever precious with the People of these Realms; and the most distant Parts of his Dominions throughout the Globe, having felt the benign Influence of his Parental Goodness, and watchful Care over them, will stand forth as Monuments of his Greatness and Goodness, and bless his Name from Generation to Generation.

Nor is it the least Part of our Happiness, that it hath pleased a bountiful Providence, to continue him so long a Father to his People, and an Example of every princely Virtue to his Royal Progeny; whereby we have the joyous Prospect of the multiplied Blessings of his auspicious Reign, descending through your most Sacred Majesty to our latest Posterity.

And though the Difficulties of Government, always laborious, are become more exceedingly weighty, by the present critical Juncture of Affairs, Yet we flatter ourselves, your most Sacred Majesty will, by the Blessing of God, be enabled to surmount them all, through your own innate well cultivated Virtues; the Wisdom of your faithful Counsellors, the Valour of your joint Forces, and the Fidelity, Unanimity, and chearful Assistance of a willing People.

And may the same good God, who has blessed these Nations with the long and prosperous Reign of your Royal Grandfather, attend your most Sacred Majesty to at least a like Length of Days, and an equal Degree of Prosperity; May the same watchful Providence, which has long supported the Cause of Liberty, by the Wisdom and Magnanimity of your great Progenitor, resided in his Councils, and gone forth with his Fleets and Armies, blessing them with a surprizing Series of Victories, incamp round about your most Sacred Person, continue that Conduct and Courage with your Commanders, both by Sea and Land, and that truly British Bravery with those that act under them, which has hitherto prevailed against the secret Machinations and open Violence of the insidious and implacable Enemies of our Country.

May the same Divine Hand direct the Councils and Arms of your most Sacred Majesty, and crown your Endeavours for the Good of a faithful, obedient, and dutiful People, with the like happy Events, and at length compleat them, by the most important Blessing of an honourable and lasting Peace.

Given at our Council Chamber, under our Common Seal, November the 14th, 1760.
