

flourish under His Majesty's Protection, and your Royal Son shall be spoken of by all, as the Patron of Learning, the Friend of Liberty, the Favourite of Providence, and the Delight of the best and worthiest Men; how will your Royal Highness's Heart exult with Pleasure, in reaping these liberal Fruits of your Maternal Piety and Goodness; and finding yourself esteemed, beloved, and honoured, by a grateful and happy People.

Your Royal Highness will allow us to offer up our most ardent Supplications to Almighty God, for the long Life, and increasing Honour and Prosperity of His Majesty; that your Royal Highness may be many Years preserved, to rejoice and share in the Blessings of His Reign; that all the Branches of your Royal Highness's Family may be distinguished by the Favour of Providence; and that there never may be wanting one of your Royal Descendants, to fill and adorn the British Throne, till Time shall be no more.

To which her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer.

I Return you my Thanks, for your Attention shown to me, and for the Duty which you express for the King my Son.

Her Royal Highness received them very graciously; and they had all the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, having been transmitted by Charles Fall, Esq; their Provost, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most dutiful Compliments of Condoleance, on the Death of your illustrious Grandfather, our late most Gracious Sovereign; and at the same Time, with Hearts full of the warmest Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on the joyful Event of your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these Realms, amidst the universal Acclamations of a free and united People.

May your Majesty be pleased to accept of this humble Tender of our Duty, and of our invariable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government; and it shall be our constant Prayer, that the great Ruler of the Universe may direct and prosper your Majesty's Councils, in the present arduous and critical Situation of Affairs, for your Majesty's Glory, and the Good of all your Majesty's Subjects; and that He may bless your Majesty with a long and happy Reign.

Signed in our Name and by Appointment,
Charles Fall,, Provost.

The following Address of the High Steward, Deputy-Steward, Chief, and other Burgesses of the City of Westminster, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Henry Earl of Lincoln High Steward, the Deputy-Steward, the Chief, and other Burgesses of this your Majesty's antient City and Liberty of Westminster, peculiarly honoured, by being the Place of your Birth and Residence, do, with the utmost Reverence, presume to congratulate your Majesty, upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms: And we do, from a grateful Remembrance of the many Blessings this Nation enjoyed during the late glorious Reign, administered with so much Wisdom and Resolution, humbly beg Leave to condole the Death of your Illustrious Grandfather, a Loss which nothing could alleviate but your Majesty's Succession to His Crown.

When we reflect on your Majesty's Royal Virtues; and on your solemn Declaration to support the Constitution of this your native Country both in Church and State, our Sorrows must abate, as we have the greatest Reason to expect, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign; every Blessing that can be enjoyed by a free and happy People.

We further beg Leave, in the strongest Manner, to assure your Majesty, that our Hearts are firmly united in Support of your Person and Government; and that we will cheerfully embrace every Occasion of manifesting that Zeal, Affection and Fidelity, which is due to a great and gracious King.

That the Divine Providence may ever guard and protect your most Sacred Majesty; that your Reign may be long and happy in the Affections of your People at home; that the Conduct and Courage of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies may procure the Respect of all Nations abroad; that a lasting and honourable Peace may succeed the present just and necessary War; and that your Majesty's Imperial Crown may descend to your Illustrious Family to all succeeding Ages, are our most sincere and fervent Prayers.

Given under our Common Seal this 21st Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1760.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. William Bouverie; Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Government of these Kingdoms, and, at the same Time, to express our deep Sorrow for the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign.

Amidst the general Concern for so sudden and melancholy an Event, it is our great Consolation to see a Prince ascend the Throne, who (inheriting the Virtues as well as Crown of his Royal Grandfire) will secure to us the full Enjoyment of those inestimable Blessings, our Religions and Civil Rights.

The manly Contempt of Pleasure (so apt to engross the Attention of Youth) and the steady Application to improve the excellent Endowments of your Mind, which so remarkably distinguished your Majesty's early Days, gave the surest Prefage, that you would adorn that Pre-eminence your Birth intitled you to, and by filling the Station you are now placed in, with the highest Dignity, increase the Splendor of your Illustrious House.

Whatever Anxiety your Royal Breast may feel upon being thus torn called to the difficult and arduous Task of Government, at this important Crisis, not the least Diffidence or Distrust can arise in the Minds of your faithful People, who upon the best Grounds expect every Thing that is great and good, from a Prince determined to make the Welfare of His Native Country the chief Object of His Care and Ambition.

In this happy Situation, undisturbed by Faction at home, freed from the Terror of hostile Invasions, and the common Calamities of War, Britons cannot be too thankful.

With a just Confidence in the experienced Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils; and the Conduct and Bravery
