St. James's, November 25.

THE following Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Westminster, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Westminster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Westminster, do with great Humility beg Leave to present to your Majesty these our Offices of Condolence and Congratulation.

Like all others of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, we deeply feel the Loss of our late most excellent Sovereign, whose great Length of Reign over us was attended with this uncommon Blessing, among many others, that every Year increased the Affections of His Subjects towards Him; and that He lived to see the Zeal of all His People turned to its proper Objects, the Love and Service of their King and their Country.

We sincerely congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Realms, and most heartily wish, that the National Happiness, which we have enjoyed under your Royal Grandfather, may be carried on towards its Perfection, during your Majesty's whole Reign; which, if our earnest Prayers to Almighty God can prevail, will be a long and a prosperous one.

May your Majesty's repeated Declarations of your firm Resolutions to promote the Welfare of your Kingdoms, and of our holy Religion, so far operate in all your Councils and Actions, as that your Majesty may have no Enemies at home, and soon find, that none will think it their Interest to continue such abroad.

We esteem ourselves particularly happy, that we are under your Majesty's immediate and peculiar Inspection and Jurisdiction; and that, in virtue of our respective Offices, we shall be present and assisting, when, on some solemn Day, the Imperial Crown of these Realms shall, in our Church, be placed on your Majesty's Sacred Head, with the united Approbation and Acclamations of all your People.

The following Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Southwark, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Ancient Town and Borough of Southwark, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person, and to condole with your Majesty on the Death of our late Sovereign of blessed Memory.

At the same Time we desire to express our grateful Sense of the Divine Goodness, in so greatly compensating this sudden and important Loss, by the happy Accession of a Prince, whose youthful Ardour is tempered with Judgment, and directed by Virtue to the publick Good.

This gives us the strongest Reason to hope, that your Majesty will approve and pursue those wise and spirited Councils, which, in the Course of this just and necessary War, have, by the Blessing of Almighty God, been crowned with such Glory and Success, as to leave no other Contention amongst us, than who shall give the strongest Proofs of Zeal and Affection to our King and Country.

Permit us therefore to congratulate your Majesty upon your most auspicious Accession to the Government of a free and loyal People, who account it their Honour, and their Happiness, that your Majesty was born, and is to reign amongst them.

It is our sincere and fervent Prayer to Heaven, that your Majesty may long live to be the Guardian of our Religious, Civil and Commercial Rights; and we are fully persuaded, that your Majesty's grateful Subjects will cheerfully employ the Means they shall acquire under your Royal Favour and Protection, in Support of such Measures as your Majesty shall judge necessary for securing their just Claims, and for obtaining an equitable and lasting Peace.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, of the County of Surry, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, of the County of Surry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, of the County of Surry, beg Leave, with all Duty and Humility, to testify our sincere and unfeigned Concern for the Death of our late most gracious King, your Majesty's august Grandfather; whose Memory will ever be held by us in the highest Veneration and Esteem from the grateful Contemplation of his many amiable and princely Qualities.

Accept, Great Sir, our most hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Crown of these Realms, and permit us to felicitate our Country on seeing your Majesty in the Prime and Vigour of Youth, with a Mind matur'd by Wisdom, and fraught with every great and princely Virtue, ascend the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, at a Time when a Victory attends your Majesty's Arms in every Quarter of the World, and when the Wisdom, Steadiness, and Integrity of your Majesty's Councils, the Valour and Conduct of your Forces, and the Union, Confidence and Loyalty of your People in general, are so remarkably conspicuous.

As we of this County (ever true and loyal to your Majesty and Family) wish every Accession of Happiness to your Majesty's Reign, so we desire, in the most dutious and respectful Manner, to tender to your Majesty, without Reserve, our best and most faithful Services, to be exerted in such Manner, as your Majesty, in your great Wisdom, shall judge most conducive to the Welfare and Prosperity of Great Britain, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of these Realms.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant General Sir Charles Charles Howard and Major General John Stanwix, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, from a grateful Sense and Remembrance of the many Blessings we enjoyed under the auspicious and glorious Reign of our late most gracious Sovereign, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of your late Royal Grandfather. But the Duty we owe your Majesty obliges us to moderate our Grief, and to congratulate your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration of your Affection for your native Country, and of your Care for the Glory and Happiness of your Kingdoms, demand the utmost Duty and Thankfulness from your faithful Subjects; permit us therefore (Sir) on this Occasion to express our Zeal and Affection for your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and our sincerest Wishes that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a dutiful, loyal, and happy People.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects beg Leave to condole your Majesty on the sudden and unexpected Demise of your great and glorious Ancestor. The Loss these Kingdoms would have sustained by his Death at this critical Conjunction would have been irreparable, as well as inexpressible, had not your Majesty, like a Phoenix, arisen from the Ashes of your most amiable and illustrious Father and Grandfather, ascended the Throne to protect and govern a free, brave and opulent People, ever faithful, affectionate and obedient to a good and gracious Prince, who, like your Royal Grandfather, makes the Laws of the Land the Rule of his Government, and defends our holy Religion and admirable Constitution, as your Majesty hath declared in Council your Resolution to do, in whose Royal Word we entirely confide.

We therefore most sincerely and heartily congratulate your Majesty on your Exaltation to the Government of these Realms, which you hold not only by Right of Succession, but by a more endearing Tenure, the united and universal Consent, Satisfaction, Approbation and Affection of all your People, every where, throughout the vast Extent of your Majesty's Dominions.

Your Majesty's natural and princely Endowments, and Royal Virtues, and the illustrious Blood that streams in your Veins from your blessed Father and glorious Grandfather, gives us the clearest Prospect, and strongest Assurances, of possessing our Religion, Rights, Liberties and Properties in the like Security, Freedom, and Tranquility we enjoyed them under his late Majesty's mild, gracious and prosperous Reign.

That the God of Wisdom and Power may direct all your Councils, and give you Success and Victory over all your perfidious and inveterate Enemies, enable you powerfully to assist and protect your high Allies and Friends, to secure your Colonies, and to encourage our Trade and Commerce, and grant your Majesty a long and glorious Reign over an united and grateful People, is the sincere Wish and most ardent Prayer of us, your Majesty's most loyal and obsequious Subjects and Servants.

The gracious Declaration, that your Majesty should make it the Business of your Life, to promote in every Thing the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, and to preserve and strengthen the Constitution both in Church and State, is the most indulgent Testimony of Love and Benignity that can be given by a Prince to his People, and must possess all true English Hearts with Fullness of Joy.

Your Majesty will be pleased to permit us to make a Tender of our sincere Assurances of doing every Thing in our Power to promote the Peace and Happiness of your Reign; for the long Continuance of which we fervently pray; and that the Throne of your Majesty may be established in your Person and Royal Line to the End of Times.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Commonalty, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, has been presented to His Majesty by James West, Esq; their Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Commonalty, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, Commonalty, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Majesty with proper Sentiments of Affection and Condolence for the great Loss of your Royal Grandfather; a Prince, whose Reign will be distinguished in the Annals of Britain, by its great Clemency, impartial Administration of Justice, the Security and full Enjoyment of every Blessing; whose Memory therefore must be always dear to a grateful People.

We should be inconsolable for our Loss of His late most Gracious Majesty, but from our certain Prospect of enjoying equal Felicity under the Auspices of a Prince, whose Mind has been formed under the Inspection and Influence of so illustrious a Predecessor.

Permit us therefore, Sir, to congratulate you on your happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these

Realms:

Realms, glorious in itself, but rendered more so by the late Circumstances of Victory throughout the Globe.

Permit us also, Great Sir, to express our Zeal and steady Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government, and that your Reign over us may be long, happy, and prosperous, and that your Throne may be established in your Illustrious House to latest Posterity, are the sincere and fervent Prayers of,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Albans.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of St. Albans, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our Concern in the general Loss these Nations have sustained by the Death of our late Glorious and Excellent King; and to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Deeply sensible as we are of the Weight of this Event, we have the most sincere Confidence from your Majesty's Royal Declarations, and from that Piety, Benevolence, and Moderation, which adorned your early Years, and endeared you to every honest Man in your Kingdoms, that the Loss will be abundantly repaired to your People, through the whole Course of your Majesty's Reign. Engaged as your Majesty is in an expensive and bloody War, we doubt not but by the Wisdom of your Councils, and the active Vigour of your Fleets and Armies, your Majesty will soon be enabled to give Repose to Europe, and to your People the Blessings of Peace.

May the Supreme Disposer of all Things, prosper your Majesty's Arms, and grant you a long and happy Reign over a free, dutiful, and affectionate People.

Dated at the Town Hall of the Borough of St. Albans, this 15th Day of November, 1760.

The following Address of the Principal, Professors and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Principal, Professors and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

May it please your Majesty,

AT a Time when your Majesty's Subjects are hastening from all Parts to express the warmest Sentiments, both of Affection to your Majesty, and of Veneration for the Memory of your Royal Predecessor, whom it hath pleased God to remove from this to the Inheritance of a better Kingdom, be pleased to accept, Most Gracious Sovereign, of these unfeigned Expressions of Duty, which the Occasion to justly demands from your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Principal, Professors, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, an University under your Majesty's immediate Patronage.

We beg Leave, in the humblest Manner, to condole with your Majesty, on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most Gracious Sovereign, whose Reign will not be more distinguished in British Annals by the glorious and unexampled Successes with which Almighty God blessed His Arms, than by the numerous Virtues which adorned His Character. His paternal Tenderness towards His Subjects; His Magnanimity and impartial Justice always united with Clemency; His inviolable Regard to the Constitution of these Kingdoms; and his strict Adherence to the Law: These Virtues attracted the Love and Honour of His Subjects, forced the Admiration of His Enemies, and will command the Applause of latest Ages.

It is with the sincerest Pleasure we reflect, that the heavy Loss which these Kingdoms have lately sustained, is so amply supplied by your Majesty, a Prince, descended from the same illustrious Line, and educated in the same generous Principles, with those Heroes, who have been the Defenders of the Liberties of Mankind, and of the Protestant Faith; a Prince, whose Wisdom and Royal Virtues have been already displayed so conspicuously, that your Majesty's Subjects must heartily congratulate your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, at this critical Juncture, and must look forward to your Majesty's future Administration with the entirest Confidence.

It shall be our constant Study to recommend to the Youth under our Care, the Principles of Liberty and true Religion, and to make them sensible, that loyal Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, is the best Means of perpetuating these Blessings to the British Islands.

We rejoice in the Hope of seeing Learning flourish, under the Patronage of a Monarch, who has early imbibed the Knowledge of Arts and Sciences, and displayed the Love of them. And it is our hearty Prayer to the God of Heaven, that He may, for the Happiness of these Kingdoms, grant to your Majesty a long and glorious Reign, as strongly marked with national Prosperity, as we are confident it will be with the Abilities and Virtues of the Sovereign.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the University, at Marischal College, the 15th Day of November 1760, by George Campbell, Principal.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Howe, in the Absence of Colonel Howe one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, truly sensible of the great Loss, which your Majesty, and the Nation have sustained by the Death of our late most gracious and glorious Sovereign, do humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on that melancholy Event; and to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

We reflect with inexpressible Pleasure upon the great Virtues which adorn your Majesty, and which we are very confident, will be always exerted to promote the Glory and Happiness of your Subjects; and we most sincerely assure your Majesty, that we will make it our Study, as it is our Duty, to shew, upon all Occasions, an affectionate Regard, and an inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government.

We unite in our most earnest Wishes, that your Majesty may long live in Health and Honour to reign over an happy and obedient People; and that there may never be wanting one of your Majesty's Illustrious Family to wear the Crown of these Kingdoms.

The Eight following Addresses having been transmitted to His Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; have by him been presented to His Majesty: All which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,
WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, do beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Crown of these Realms; and with all Humility presume to condole with your Majesty upon the Decease of our late most gracious Sovereign.

Nor could our Hearts receive Comfort in that deep Sorrow with which we were penetrated at the sudden and unspeakable Loss of that most Excellent Prince, but by viewing those Virtues which we gratefully revered in Him, still blooming in His Royal Successor to bless your People with a long, auspicious and glorious Administration.

The Establishment of the Crown in your Majesty's most Illustrious House, was the Establishment of our Laws, our Religion, and our Liberties: As such, hath it at all Times been considered by our City, and adhered to, with a steady and unshaken Loyalty, in which we humbly beseech your Majesty to accept of our most solemn Assurances of our ever persevering, and of our most zealous Affection, Duty and Devotion to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, the Third Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to declare the deep and unfeigned Concern with which our Hearts are filled by the Loss of our late most Excellent Sovereign of Glorious Memory, and most humbly beseech your Majesty graciously to accept our Condoleance on so mournful and afflicting an Event.

The many exalted Virtues which so eminently distinguished his late Majesty's happy Reign, in His just and mild Administration at home, as well as his unwearied Endeavours, and unshaken Firmness, exerted abroad for the Defence and Protection of His Subjects, for asserting the Honour and Rights of His Crown, and for the Support of true Religion, and the Liberties of Mankind, against the most powerful Confederacy the World hath yet seen, have rendered His Reign one of the most Glorious in the Annals of Britain, and must inspire the Minds of his loyal People with the sincerest Affection for His Memory, and transmit His Name with Lustre to the latest Posterity.

But we the Members of this your loyal University who have so long been favoured in a distinguished Manner with His late Majesty's Protection, and received so many and so eminent Proofs of a Munificence truly Royal, are more strongly obliged to express that deep Sense of Duty and Veneration we bore to His Royal Person while living, and to testify our Grief for the Loss of so gracious a Patron, and so liberal a Benefactor.

Nothing could console the People of these Realms under so heavy an Affliction, but the Reflection, that since it hath pleased the Divine Providence to deprive us of so excellent a King, he departed full of Days and Honour, and hath left us a Successor of His Royal Line, who is Heir not only to His Throne, but to all His Virtues, which for so many Years made His Subjects happy, and for the Glory of whose Reign, the full Completion of those great Designs so wisely laid, and so happily conducted, for the Tranquility of Mankind, ~~rest~~ in a peculiar Manner reserved.

Permit us, therefore, Gracious Sovereign, most humbly to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and to assure your Majesty of our most unalterable Duty and Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and that we will persevere in instructing the Youth of this Kingdom, committed to our Charge, in the Principles of true Religion, and unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty and your Illustrious House, with the same Care and Assiduity we have hitherto so successfully exerted.

May that Almighty Power, by whom Kings reign, and Princes derive Justice, continue the same Divine Protection to your Majesty's Counsels and Arms, wherewith he so eminently blessed your Royal Grandfather; and grant to the united Prayers of a dutiful and loyal People, that your Majesty's Reign may in Duration, Glory and Happiness, exceed that of the most renowned of your Predecessors.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Dissenters of Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,
THE Protestant Dissenters of your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, being deeply sensible of the great Loss these Nations have sustained, by the Death of our late Gracious Sovereign King George the Second, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather; a loss the more severely felt by your Majesty and your Kingdoms; for coming at so critical a Juncture, and so unexpected, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on this affecting Occasion.

The many Blessings the People of these Lands have so long enjoyed, under his late Majesty's auspicious Reign, the Mildness and Equity of his Government, the Care he took to preserve and maintain their valuable Liberties, and Privileges, his tender Regard to the Rights of Conscience, and the many signal Successes with which it pleased God to bless his Arms and Councils, justly endear his Memory to those of the present Age, and will render it glorious to all succeeding Generations.

But amidst the just and general Concern for the Loss of so great and good a King, pleasing Prospects open to us, from the excellent and amiable Qualities of his Royal Successor; the Princely and Christian Virtues which have adorned your Majesty's early Age, and whilst yet a subject, will, we trust, shine forth with a still brighter Lustre upon the Throne.

The Sense your Majesty has expressed in your most gracious Declaration, of the Weight which has fallen upon you, and of your own Insufficiency to support it as you wish, is a Proof of that noble Modesty which is so becoming a great and good Mind: And the Assurance your Majesty has been pleased to give us, of your being animated by the tenderest Affection for your Country, to enter with Chearfulness into so arduous a Situation, is an Earnest to your faithful Subjects, that your Majesty will fulfil the Character of a Patriot King; and that you will make it the Business of your Life to promote in every thing the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms.

We therefore, with Hearts full of Duty and Affection, congratulate your Sacred Majesty upon your Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, and take this Opportunity to assure your Majesty of the steady and inviolable Attachment of the Protestant Dissenters of this Kingdom, to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; and of their Readiness to show their undiminished Loyalty, by all the Expressions of it which are in their Power.

That your Majesty may be long continued an eminent Blessing to these Lands; that Wisdom and Righteousness may be the Stability of your Throne; that Religion and Virtue may flourish under the Influence of your Authority and Example; that whilst it is necessary to carry on the present War, your Majesty

Majesty's Councils and Arms may be crowned with Glory and Victory; and that You may have the Honour of being the happy Instrument of procuring for us a safe and honourable Peace; are the earnest Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Protestant Dissenters of Ireland.

Signed, in their Name, and by their Appointment, by JOHN LELAND.

To GEORGE the Third, King of Great Britain, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

The humble Address of the People called Quakers, of the Kingdom of Ireland.

May it please the King,

WE thy dutiful and faithful Subjects, being deeply impressed with a Sense of the Loss these Nations have sustained by the sudden and unexpected Removal of thy Royal Grandfather, our late gracious King, beg Leave to condole with Thee this affecting Event.

His mild and just Government rendered him dear to all his faithful Subjects; and the particular Indulgence and Protection we have enjoyed in the free Exercise of our Religious Duties, have left on our Minds lasting Impressions of Gratitude and Respect to his Memory.

At the same Time permit us to congratulate Thee on thy Accession to the Throne of these Realms, in which exalted Station, we trust in that God by whom Kings reign, that those many Virtues, which we rejoice to hear adorn thy Breast (and for which we are humbly thankful to the Divine Giver) will ever continue to animate thy Conduct: And thy gracious Declaration for the Encouragement of Piety, and Suppression of Vice and Immorality, gives us just Grounds to hope, that thy Reign will be happy to thy People, and honourable to Thyself.

Persuaded of the Clemency and Benevolence of thy Disposition, and conscious of our own Fidelity and Affection to thy Person and Government, we are at once emboldened to ask, and assured of thy favourable Protection: A Protection, we stand the more in need of, as some of our Religious Tenets (of the Truth of which we are firmly persuaded) expose us to Sufferings from the Hands of unreasonable Men. Such Protection we thankfully acknowledge, the kind Acceptance of our peaceable and dutiful Demeanour hath procured to us, during the late Reigns of thy Royal Ancestors; and it is our firm Resolution (through Divine Assistance) to merit the Continuance thereof, by behaving agreeable to our Christian Principles, as becomes faithful Subjects.

We offer up our fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that He may endue Thee with Wisdom, to rule in His Fear; that in thy Days Righteousness may exalt the Nation; and that Thou may be the happy Instrument of restoring a permanent Peace; that His protecting Providence may shield Thee from every Danger, preserve Thee long the beloved Sovereign of a happy and grateful People, and perpetuate their Happiness, by continuing the Crown in thy Family to latest Posterity.

Dublin, the 13th of the 11th Month (called November) 1760.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Kilkenny, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Kilkenny, beg Leave most humbly to address your Majesty, to express our Sorrow for the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most excellent King.

The heavy Affliction which filled our Hearts upon the Death of a Prince, under whom we have enjoyed such Happiness and Glory, could only be removed by the Goodness of Providence, in placing your Majesty on the Throne.

We humbly intreat, that your Majesty will be pleased to accept our unfeigned Congratulations, upon your glorious Accession to the Crown of your Ancestors; and we do assure your Majesty, that we shall constantly endeavour, by our Unanimity and Zeal for your Service, and the Support of your Government, to deserve and obtain the Continuance of that Royal Favour and Protection which we have so happily experienced under your Ancestors. And that we shall, at all Times, be ready to lay down our Lives and Fortunes, for the Preservation of those Blessings in Church and State, which we can only hope to enjoy under a Prince of the illustrious House of Hanover.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, in Ireland,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, beg Leave most humbly to address your Majesty, to express our unfeigned Sorrow for the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most excellent King; a Prince, under whose Government we enjoyed Security, Glory, and Happiness.

Nothing could remove the Affliction that opprest us on this melancholy Occasion, but the Goodness of God, in placing your Majesty on the Throne, and giving us thereby a firm Assurance of all the Blessings which the best of Princes can confer on a happy and grateful people.

We most humbly intreat your Majesty will be pleased to accept our Congratulations, on your happy Accession to Throne of your Ancestors, which can never retain its present Glory, unless filled by a Prince of the illustrious House of Hanover.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall ever be ready to lay down our Lives and Fortunes, for the Support of your Government; and shall endeavour, by our Loyalty to your Sacred Person, and Zeal for your Service, to deserve a Continuance of those Blessings, which we enjoyed under your Glorious Ancestors.

And we do, with the greatest Warmth and Unanimity, promise your Majesty, that the Magistrates of this ancient and loyal City, and every Member thereof, will invariably assist in the Establishment of those invaluable Treasures of Liberty, and the Protestant Succession, amongst us; and though we are not the very first City in the Kingdom for Wealth and Magnitude, yet we will be second to none in conforming and promoting, to the utmost of our Power and Ability, our present glorious Constitution, under your most Sacred Majesty, in Church and State.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portrieve, Burgesses, and Freemen of the Borough of Saint Canice, otherwise Irishtown, in Kilkenny.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of the ancient Borough of Saint Canice, Irishtown, do most humbly congratulate you on your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors. The Loss of your Royal Grandfather, of blessed Memory, so deservedly regretted, would be indeed irreparable, did we not see in his Successor all his paternal Virtues, together with every other Qualification requisite for a great Prince in the Lustre and Bloom of Life.

When we consider the Splendor of your Majesty's Arms, crowned with Success in every Quarter of the Globe, Liberal Arts and Sciences flourishing in the highest Degree of Perfection, Commerce established in all Parts of the known World, and a victorious Fleet unrivaled for its Protection, how great, how unfeigned ought our Thanks be to Almighty God for the Continuance of these Blessings, which plainly point out your Majesty and your Subjects the peculiar Care of Heaven.

Happy Britain! adorned with a native Branch of the triumphant Brunswick Line, a Race of Kings and Heroes, whose Moderation, whose Clemency, whose inimitable Virtues, must shine forth an Example to future Ages, and render the Name of the illustrious House of Hanover ever glorious and Immortal. Permit us, Sacred Sir! to assure you, that, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, we will always support and defend your Majesty's Government, as we are convinced, that to it we owe our Religion, Laws, and Liberty, and every other Benefit, which we with Gratitude enjoy as a prosperous and happy People.
B and

The Loss of so great and excellent a Monarch, in the Midst of a Bloody and Expensive, though necessary War, must have involved these Nations in the greatest Distress and Danger, had not His Royal Virtues survived in your Majesty.

We rejoice that it is the peculiar Happiness of your Majesty to ascend the Throne of these flourishing Kingdoms, at a Period when Faction is quite extinguished; when all Hearts are animated with Loyalty to their Sovereign, and Love to their Country; when the Councils and Arms of Britain are become the Terror of our Enemies, the Confidence of our Allies, and the Admiration of all Europe.

We entertain the most agreeable and sanguine Hopes, that Providence will reward the Virtues of our Gracious Sovereign with a long and happy Reign, equal, if not superior in Fame and Felicity to that of the Greatest of your Royal Predecessors; that wise and vigorous Measures will be pursued, and crowned with Success; that the Trade, the Power, and Prosperity of all the British Dominions, will be carried to the greatest Height under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

A Loss which must have been more severely felt, did not your Majesty's Virtues, so conspicuous in an early Season of Life, give us the strongest Assurance of a Continuance of those Blessings, which we have so singularly experienced under the Reigns of your Illustrious Ancestors.
