Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person with our Compliments of Condoleance upon the Death of your Illustrious Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign, whom, after a long and prosperous Reign, in the Hearts and Affections of His most faithful Subjects, it hath pleased the Almighty to translate from a temporal Crown, which he adorned with every Royal Virtue, to One Immortal.

The Protection of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; the extending of our Commerce, and raising the Glory of the Nation, both Civil and Military, to the highest Pitch; and, at last, leaving all his Subjects most wonderfully united, in a perfect Approbation of his wise and equitable Government: These are Blessings which must reflect a distinguished Lustre upon the glorious Reign of our late Monarch to remotest Ages, and cannot fail, at present, mightily to endear his Memory, and to impress a deep Sense of the Loss which the Nation hath sustained on the Heart of every British Subject.

But our Minds are greatly revived by the Accession of your Majesty, the Heir of the Virtues, as well as the Dominions of our late Sovereign, at a Crisis when the same Wisdom and Magnanimity which animated His late Majesty's Councils, seem necessary to make the unparalleled Success of the British Arms, and of the Arms of your illustrious Ally, terminate in a glorious and lasting Peace.

That this so desirable Blessing may be the Result of the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and of the Valour of your Arms: That you may long enjoy the Fruits thereof, and continue to reign in the Hearts and Affections of your most faithful People, the illustrious Protector of their Religion, Laws, and Liberties; and that there may never be wanting a Succession of Monarchs, descended from your Majesty, and endued with the same Princely Virtues, to transmit these Blessings to our latest Posterity, will be the invariable Object of our most ardent Prayers to the Almighty Protector of States and Kingdoms.

The following Address of the High Steward, Alderman, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Malmesbury, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Henry Fox, Esq; High Steward of the said Borough; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Alderman, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Malmesbury, in the County of Wilts.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Alderman, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Malmesbury, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave to offer our Congratulations to your Majesty, upon your Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms; the greatest and only Consolation we could receive, for the Loss of your Royal Grandfather, our late most Gracious and Excellent Sovereign.

The Unanimity shewn upon your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, bespeaks the well-founded Opinion the People of Great Britain have of your Royal Virtues; and your Majesty will more and more experience the sincere Affections of all your Subjects; and their extreme Happiness, in being governed by a King, who glory's in the Name of Briton. And we, the Electors of this ancient and ever loyal Borough, faithfully assure your Majesty, that we will always endeavour to distinguish ourselves in Loyalty, Affection, Zeal, and true Allegiance to your most Sacred Person, and benign Government.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused this to be signed, and affixed our Common Seal, this Twenty-fourth Day of November, 1760.

The Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Warwick, which was inserted in last Saturday's Gazette, was presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Warwick, their Recorder, whose Name was, by Mistake, omitted in the said Gazette.

AT the Court at St. James's the 2d Day of December, 1760,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day the Right Honourable Francis Earl of Huntingdon, Master of the Horse to His Majesty, and George Townshend, Esq; were, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective Places at the Board accordingly.

Whitehall, December 2.

Yesterday arrived here Baron Cocceii, Aide de Camp to the King of Prussia, by whom he was sent with the Confirmation, and Account, of the late signal Victory obtained by His Prussian Majesty on the 3d past, near Torgau in Saxony, over the Austrian Army, commanded by Marshal Daun; and was this Day presented to His Majesty at St. James's, by whom he was received in the most gracious Manner.

Hague, Nov. 14. The News of the King of Prussia's Victory over the Austrians under Marshal Daun, on the 3d Instant, near Torgau, is now confirmed from all Parts. The Particulars of that great Action are contained in a Relation already given to the Publick by Authority. And from a List it appears, that the Prussians, on that Day, made 216 Austrian Officers, among whom are four Generals, and upwards of Eight Thousand Private Men, Prisoners of War; and took Fifty Pieces of Cannon. The Prussians compute compute their own Loss to 1500 killed and 4900 wounded; besides 1500 which are taken Prisoners. No Calculation has yet appeared of the Number of killed and wounded on the Side of the Austrians. The King of Prussia himself had a slight Contusion on the Breast by a Mullet Shot; and Marshal Daun was obliged to retire from the Field of Battle, by a Wound he received on the Thigh.

Hague, Nov. 24. By the last Accounts from Saxony we find, That the King of Prussia, in Consequence of his Victory on the 3d, was drawing near Dresden with his Army; and that, after having quitted Meissen, he had advanced to Unkersdorff, and that some of his Troops had actually taken Possession of Freyberg: So that his Prussian Majesty's Position was nearly the same, as at the Opening of the present Campaign.

Our last Advices, relating to the Russians, mention, with Confidence, their Retreat towards the Vistula, and the Generals Czernichev and Tottleben having actually evacuated all the Places, they had, in Brandenburg; as also some Advantages, which General Werner had gained over some Russian Parties in their Retreat.

The Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, we hear, was still at Klein-Reckum, on the 22d Instant.

Brunswick, Nov. 21. We have received Information, That Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick had quitted his Head Quarters at Ovilgunne, and passed the Weser, and was actually on the 18th at Uslar; from whence it is supposed, that some vigorous Attempts will be made to dislodge the French from the Posts they occupy on this Side of the River Weser. The Generals Diepenbroek and Luckner are, it is said, ordered from the Side of the Hartz, to second his Serene Highness's Operations.

Le Picquier, Lieutenant, and -sailed from Morlaix the Night before she was taken.

Capt. Ourry, of His Majesty's Ship Astæon, gives an Account, in his Letter dated the 28th of last Month, that he had given Chase that Morning to a French Brig Privateer, which he soon came up with, and took: She is called the Phoenix, belonging to Morlaix, of 12 Carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, and 120 Men.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS; and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuritis, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

• See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6 d.

For the Teeth, Scurvy in the Gums, and Tooth-ach.

TWO Tinctures of known and established Reputation, which have been long successfully used by the Nobility and Gentry, both of this Kingdom and of Ireland, and for which His Majesty has been pleased to grant His Royal Letters Patent, are sold by the Patentee, THO. GRENOUGH, Apothecary, at the King's Arms and Pestle and Mortar in Ludgate-street; and by J. NEWBURY, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, Price 1 s. a Bottle.

The Tincture for Preserving the Teeth, cleanses and takes off all their Foulness, renders them white and beautiful, fastens such as are loose, prevents their Decaying, and entirely cures the Scurvy in the Gums.

The Tincture for the Tooth-ach removes the most raging and violent Pain in a few Minutes, without either corroding the Teeth or affecting the Gums.

The great Demand for these Tinctures having induced several Persons to attempt to counterfeit the same, (some of whom are now under Prosecution) the Publick are desired to observe, that for the Future the Patentee will inscribe his Name on a Label on each Bottle, in the following Manner, T. GRENOUGH, and none but what are so inscribed are genuine.
