

render necessary for the Support of your Majesty's Credit abroad, and till your Rights are firmly established, by a safe, honourable, and lasting Peace. May the Dignity, Justice and Clemency, which have already surrounded your Majesty's Throne, and appeared in so conspicuous a Light to your admiring Subjects, for ever secure to you the Love and Veneration of your People; and may you continue to reign over us for a long Series of Years, which we are firmly convinced will ensure to us a long Series of Liberty, Plenty and Prosperity.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty-fifth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Officers of the Militia, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Carysfort and Coulson Fellowes, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Officers of the Militia, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders, of the County of Huntingdon.

WE the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Officers of the Militia, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to represent to your Majesty the just Sense we have of the heavy Loss which these Kingdoms have sustained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign, whose Virtues had endeared him to his People, and whose glorious Reign has added the greatest Lustre to the British Empire.

Permit us at the same Time to express the utmost Joy and Satisfaction in your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors; the Declarations your Majesty has made of your most tender Regard and affectionate Concern for the Welfare of your People, give us the sincerest Pleasure, as they insure Happiness and Prosperity to these Realms. To attempt to point out the many Virtues that adorn your Sacred Person, were but vain Presumption; these we doubt not will shine forth in the Glories of your future Reign, so happily began amidst the Acclamations and zealous Attachment of your faithful Subjects. We beg Leave in particular to assure your Majesty of our intire Affection, and most hearty Concurrence in Support of such Measures as your Majesty shall think most suited to the Credit and Dignity of your Crown, and most conducive to the procuring a firm and honourable Peace. May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous over an happy and united People, truly sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under the Government of your illustrious Family.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of Rye, has been presented to His Majesty by George Onslow and Philipps Gybbon, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the ancient Town of Rye.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of your antient Town of Rye, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, whose mild Government, constant Regard to our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, made him truly reign in the Hearts of all His Subjects, and his sudden and unexpected Death must most sensibly afflict every grateful Briton.

Permit us at the same Time, Great Sir, with unfeigned Joy, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors: Your Majesty's known Zeal for the Welfare of the People of this your native Country; your Royal Promise to secure to all your Subjects the full Enjoyment of all their Religious and Civil Rights, leave us no Room to doubt but we shall have continued to us, under your auspicious Reign, the Blessings we enjoyed under that of our late Sovereign.

May a speedy and honourable Peace put an End to a bloody and expensive, though just and necessary War; and may your Majesty long in Happiness adorn the British Throne, and your Endeavours for the Good of your Subjects, and the Protestant Religion, be always crowned with Success.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Capital and other Burgeses of the Borough and Town of Waymouth and Melcombe Regis, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord John Cavendish, the Right Hon. George Dodington, Welbore Ellis, and John Tucker, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Capital and other Burgeses of the Borough and Town of Waymouth and Melcombe Regis in the County of Dorset.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Capital and other Burgeses, of the ancient Borough of Waymouth and Melcombe Regis in the County of Dorset, beg Leave to approach your Throne with all proper Sentiments of Affliction for the great Loss your Majesty, and this Country, has sustained by the Decease of your Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign, at a Time when we are involved in a most bloody and expensive War.

We beg, at the same Time, with the warmest Hears and liveliest Hopes, humbly to congratulate your Majesty, and the Nation, upon your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, at a Period when the Seeds of every Virtue which the Hand of Providence has implanted in your Royal Breast, are, by the happiest Cultivation, under the Care of a most affectionate and illustrious Parent, arrived at full Maturity: Which leaves us no Room to doubt, but that your Majesty will improve the Successes, and regulate the Expences of the War, which devolved upon you with your Crown, with such Prudence, Magnanimity, and Oeconomy, as to procure to this your native Country, in a proper Time, the Blessings of a safe and honourable Peace.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall, with the most ardent Zeal, and most loyal Affection, be ready on all Occasions, with our Lives and Fortunes, to assist in making your Majesty's Reign over us as glorious, as we pray to Almighty God to make it durable.
