By the Lords Justices General and General Governors of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Requiring all Persons, being in Office of Authority or Government, in the Kingdom of Ireland, at the Decease of the late King, to proceed in the Execution of their respective Offices.

George Armagh. Shannon. Jn. Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the Security of Her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of Great-Britain in the Protestant Line; it was enacted, That no Office, Place or Employment, Civil or Military, within the Kingdoms of Great-Britain or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney and Sark, or any of her Majesty's Plantations, should become void by Reason of the Demise of her said late Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, but that every Person and Persons, in any of the Offices, Places and Employments aforesaid, should continue in their respective Offices, Places and Employments, for the Space of Six Months next after such Death or Demise, unless sooner removed and discharged by the next Successor, to whom the Imperial Crown of this Realm was limited and appointed to go, remain, and descend.

And whereas a further Part of the said Act, which required all Officers in any Offices, Places or Employments, who should be by that Act continued, to take the Oaths therein mentioned, and do all other Acts requisite by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, to qualify themselves to be and continue in such their respective Places, Offices and Employments, within such Time, and in such Manner, and under such Pains, Penalties and Disabilities, as they should or ought to do, had they been newly elected, appointed, constituted, and put into such Offices, Places or Employments, in the usual and ordinary Way, stands now repealed by the Statutes of 1 Geo. II. Stat. 1. Cap. 5. and 1 Geo. II. Stat. 2. Cap. 23. whereby the taking such Oaths in order to qualify themselves to be and continue in such Offices, Places and Employments, is become unnecessary.

And whereas His Majesty hath signified unto us His Royal Pleasure, That all and every Person and Persons, who, at the Time of the Demise of His late Majesty, were duly and lawfully possessed of, or invested in any Office, Place, or Employment, Civil or Military, within this His Kingdom of Ireland, do severally, according to their Places, Offices, or Charges, proceed in the Performance and Execution of all Duties belonging to their respective Offices: And that all His Subjects be aiding, helping, and assisting, at the Commandment of the said Officers and Ministers, in the Performance and Execution of their respective Offices and Places, as they, and every of them, tender His utmost Displeasure, and will answer the contrary at their Peril.

We do therefore strictly Charge and Command, That all Person and Persons, who at the Time of the Demise of His said late Majesty, were duly and lawfully possessed of, or invested in, any Office, Place, or Employment, Civil or Military, within this Kingdom of Ireland, do severally, according to their Places, Offices, or Charges proceed in the Performance and Execution of all Duties belonging to their respective Offices: And that all His Majesty's Subjects of this Kingdom be aiding and assisting, at the Commandment of the said Officers and Ministers, in the Performance and Execution of their respective Offices and Places, as they and every of them tender His Majesty's utmost Displeasure, and will answer the contrary thereof at their Peril.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 10th Day of November, 1760.

By their Excellencies Command,
Tho. Waite.

G O D Save the K I N G.

St. James's, December 6.

The following Address of the Incorporated Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, has been presented to His Majesty by the most Reverend Father in God the Archbishop of Canterbury: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Incorporated Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, and the rest of the Members of the Society Incorporated for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, humbly approach your Royal Person to testify our unfeigned Sorrow for the Death of our late excellent Sovereign, and most gracious Benefactor; and, at the same Time, to intreat your Majesty's Acceptance of our most hearty Congratulations upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

This Society was wisely founded by our great Deliverer King William, that the remotest of our Plantations, by the Instruction of an Orthodox Clergy, might be preserved from the Danger of Infidelity, and guarded against the restless Attempts of Popery; and that the pure Light of the Gospel might be spread amongst those around them, who sat in the Darkness of Heathenism.

This pious Institution, under the constant Favour and Support of your Royal Predecessors, hath been carried on with all the Success, which the many and great Difficulties, incident to so extensive a Design, of such a Nature, would admit. And from the Experience that we have already had, of your Majesty's Liberality to the good Work in which we are engaged, from your known Disposition, and your declared Resolution, to countenance and encourage the Practice of true Religion, we come with Confidence to implore the Continuance of the same gracious Patronage and Protection.

The glorious Acquisitions, which have enlarged your Majesty's Empire in America, open a yet more extensive Field for our Attention and Care. And we do humbly and solemnly assure your Majesty, that so far as our Ability reaches, which almost wholly depends on yearly Benefactions, and occasional Collections, authorized by the Crown, we will exert our utmost Endeavours, that no Part of your Majesty's Dominions, for which our Duty calls us to provide, may remain unfurnished with the Means of being instructed in the Knowledge of genuine Christianity; and will go on to study and use diligently the most probable Methods of converting, not only the Negro Slaves, but the neighbouring Indians.

May that God, to whose Glory the charitable Labours of this Society, in promoting the Salvation of Souls are particularly directed, prosper all your Majesty's jefty's gracious Intentions for the Maintenance of Piety and Virtue: And may your Majesty long live, to see the happy Effects of your Government, in the still increasing Prosperity of your People.

Given under our Common Seal, this First Day of December, in the Year of Our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

St. James's, December 3.

This Day a numerous Body of the People called Quakers waited on His Majesty with their Address; and being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, Dr. Fothergill presented the same to His Majesty; who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

To GEORGE the Third, King of Great Britain, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

The humble Address of His Protestant Subjects, the People called Quakers.

May it please the King.

DE E P L Y affected with the sudden and sorrowful Event, that leads our Fellow-Subjects with Condolence to the Throne, we beg Leave to express the Sympathy we feel on this afflicting Occasion.

Justly sensible of the Favour and Protection we have enjoyed during the late mild and happy Reign, and impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude to our deceased Sovereign, we pay this Tribute of unaffected Grief, to the Memory of the Father and the Friend of His People.

We have abundant Reason to acknowledge the Goodness of Almighty God, for continuing to this Period, a Life of such Importance to the Welfare of these Kingdoms; a Period, when we behold a Prince, endowed with Qualities that add Lustre to a Crown, formed by Tuition and Example to protect the Liberties of His People, ascending the British Throne, and, in the earliest Acts of Power, giving the most ample Demonstrations of His Royal Regard for Piety and Virtue.

Ever faithful and zealously affected to Thy Illustrious House, though differing in Sentiments and Conduct from others of our Fellow-Subjects, we embrace this Opportunity to crave Thy Indulgence and Protection; and beg Leave to assure the King, that our Dissent proceeds not from a contumacious Disregard to the Laws, to Custom, or Authority, but from Motives to us, purely conscientious.

The same Religious Principle that produces this Dissent, we trust, through Divine Assistance, will continue to engage us, as it always hath done since we were a People, to exert whatever Influence we may be possessed of, in promoting the Fear of God, the Honour of the King, and the Prosperity of His Subjects.

May the Almighty bless Thy Endeavours, to put a Stop to the Effusion of Blood; and render Thee the happy Instrument of restoring Peace and Tranquility. May sacred and unerring Wisdom ever be Thy Guide; adorn Thee with every Virtue, and crown Thee with every Blessing; that future Ages may commemorate the Happiness of Thy Reign with grateful Admiration.

Signed in London, the First Day of the Twelfth Month, 1760.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

THIS Dutiful and Loyal Address is very acceptable to Me; and you may depend on My Protection.

The same Day a Deputation from the People called Quakers, waited upon her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales at Leicester House; when being introduced by Sir William Irby, Bart. Dr. Fothergill read the following Address, to which her Royal Highness was pleased to return a very gracious Answer.

May it please the Princess Dowager of Wales,

WE the People called Quakers, beg Leave to testify our Grief for the Loss we have sustained, by the Decease of our late Gracious Sovereign: Duty, as well as Gratitude, for the Favour we enjoyed, during his long and happy Reign, claim our unfeigned Regard to his Memory, and to every Part of the Royal Family, our most grateful Attachment.

As the Afflictions that befall them, very deeply affect us; so we share in the Blessings they enjoy; and we sincerely rejoice at the happy Accession of Thy Son, our Sovereign, to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

The noble Proofs He has already given of great and illustrious Qualities, sufficiently point out how much we are indebted to a Mother's early Care in His Education.

It will, we trust, be our constant Endeavour to manifest our dutiful Affection to the Princess, and our cheerful Obedience and Fidelity to the King, by a Conduct becoming our Religious Profession. May the Almighty pour down His choicest Blessings on every Branch of the Royal Family. May they be regarded as the Ornaments of the present Age, and as Examples of Virtue in succeeding Generations.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, do, with all Humility, beg Leave to present to your Majesty, our most hearty Congratulations on your happy Accession to the Imperial Throne of these Kingdoms; and also to condole with your Majesty on the sudden, and much lamented Death, of your Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign, whose Memory will ever be dear to us, and to all the Friends of our excellent Constitution.

Permit us further to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government, and of our earnest Zeal to inculcate to those committed to our Care, the same dutiful and loyal Principles; and to confirm every other Christian Grace and Virtue, that may tend to the Security, the Lustre, and the Blessing of your auspicious Reign.

We desire also to express our grateful Acknowledgment of the Encouragements your Majesty has been pleased to give to this our Zeal, by your gracious Declaration, that you will preserve and strengthen our Constitution in Church and State; by your Royal Proclamation, in Favour of Religion, and against all Impiety and Prophaneness; and especially by the conspicuous Example of Piety and Virtue, so uniformly and eminently manifested, in every Step of your Life, from your early Youth to your present happy Ascending the Throne of your Ancestors.

May God long preserve your Majesty in this high and awful Station, the chosen Instrument of His Providence, for the Welfare of your People; may He crown your Arms, already eminently prosperous, with such further Success, as, by securing an honourable and lasting Peace, to enable your Majesty to consult the true Wealth and Happiness of your Subjects; and to preterve and increase, their Religion and Probity, together with their Riches and Prosperity: And may He, after a long and prosperous Reign over them, reward your Royal Labours for their Good, with a happy Eternity.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter,

Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, after humbly offering our sincere and just Condoleance on the Death of our late gracious and most excellent King, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, with the universal Joy and highest Esteem and Affection of all your Subjects.

It is a Circumstance peculiarly seasonable and happy, that as your Majesty succeeds to the Crown of these Realms in a very critical and important Juncture abroad, you are possessed of the Hearts of all your People at home; who will therefore promote, with the greatest Zeal and Unanimity, those wise Measures, which have been, and we are fully persuaded, will be taken for the publick Good.

Your Majesty's early Proclamation for the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and the Discouragement of Vice and Profaneness, will, we trust, be productive of the most salutary Effects to this Nation, as it is aided and strengthened by your own excellent Example. This Proclamation cannot be considered as a Matter merely of Course, even by the most Profligate, when they behold the even and serious Tenour of your Majesty's own Life and Actions: They will be more naturally led to conclude, that it carries with it a publick Testimony and Declaration of the high Regard and Attention, which your Majesty is determined always to pay to Religion and Virtue.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will zealously endeavour to inculcate into the Minds of your People, those Virtues which your Majesty daily recommends to them in the most efficacious Manner, by your amiable Practice, by your engaging Deportment; and that it shall be our constant Care and Study to contribute to the utmost of our Power, to render your Majesty's Reign as easy and prosperous, as we are sure it will be just and gracious.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon and Parochial Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Bristol, accompanied by the Dean of Bristol: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon and Parochial Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon and Parochial Clergy of the Diocese of Bristol, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Government of these Realms.

Yet permit us, Sir, to mingle our Joy with Tears, and to condole with your Majesty, for your own, and the Nation's most affecting Loss, in the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign. As Wisdom and Magnanimity, Justice and Mercy, with an unshaken Reliance upon Divine Providence, adorned His Majesty's Life; so the Remembrance of those Princely Qualities, together with that of the extraordinary Glories of His Reign, will be transmitted to latest Posterity.

We have full and just Confidence, that your Majesty, following that illustrious Pattern, and convinced of the Truth and Excellence of our most Holy Religion, will go on to improve the Virtues which you have already so successfully cultivated; and will, by your pious Example and Royal Influence, animate your People to the Practice of those Duties towards God, which we beg Leave to assure your Majesty we will most zealously recommend and enforce to the best of our Abilities.

May God Almighty crown your Majesty's Arms with Success: May He, that refraineth the Spirit of Princes, inspire your Majesty's Enemies with the Thoughts, and point out to them the Blessings of Peace: May He, that maketh Men to be of one Mind in an House, so unite the Hearts of your Subjects, that, by a constant and uniform Course of Duty and Affection to your Majesty, they may all effectually contribute to your Majesty's Ease, Happiness, and Glory, and perpetuate the Blessings, which they themselves now enjoy.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, the Archdeacon and the Clergy of the Diocese of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Gloucester, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese, do humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, under all the Sentiments of sincere Sorrow for the Loss of our late gracious Sovereign, and of unfeigned Joy for your Majesty's happy Accession to the Imperial Throne of Great Britain, and the Dominions, Provinces and Dependencies thereof.

Permit, most gracious Sovereign, your faithful Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Gloucester, to avow, in your Royal Presence, their most inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Illustrious House; and their determin'd Purpose, with all Fidelity and Attention, to insill into those committed to their Care the same Sentiments, on the Foundation of Love and Reverence for the present happy Constitution of Church and State.

We beg Leave, amidst the Applauses of all our Fellow Subjects, to acknowledge, with our best Thanks and Gratitude, your Majesty's Goodness towards your People, in the gracious Declaration you have been pleased to make, that you will not only at all Times preserve, but on all Occasions will strengthen, this glorious Constitution; whose incomparable Excellence was never understood to so much Advantage as in the late Blessings of Divine Providence on the wise and steady Councils of your Royal Grandfather; by which the Honour and Prosperity of Great Britain are advanced to a Degree of Eminence, of which former Times had hardly a Conception.

We confide in the same good Providence, (and for this our Prayers are daily offered up to the Throne of Grace) that that innate Piety and Virtue so early appearing in, and now breaking with so much Splendor from your Royal Breast, will both enlarge and perpetuate these Blessings; so as to make your Majesty's Reign, as well for its uninterrupted Glory, as for its long Duration, the Envy of despotic Monarchs, and the Praise and Delight of all the free-born Subjects upon Earth.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford, beg Leave to express, before your sacred Person, the afflicting Sense of Grief, with which we were struck by the sudden interesting Demise of our late most excellent Sovereign. We cannot but ever retain a grateful Memory of the many and great Blessings this Nation enjoyed under his long and prosperous Reign; and, at the same Time, with devout Hearts, we acknowledge our Tribute of Thankfulness due to the Divine Providence for preserving his Life so long, till he had formed a Prince, by his parental Care and Example, worthy to succeed him in the Throne.

Under these Auspices of Divine Favour, we congratulate your Majesty's happy Accession to the Regal Seat of your Ancestors. And though this Event happens in the most critical Conjunction, under a most arduous State of War; yet we are persuaded, that this Incident will only tend to make the Commencement of your Majesty's Reign the more glorious.

From a Prince, born to the Inheritance of the most endearing Qualities, with a Mind naturally disposed to Humanity, and every amiable Virtue, cultivated under the early maternal Care of a most eminent Princess, improved and refined under the Tuition of the best and ablest Instructors, regularly opening in a sedate and confirmed Judgment, distinguished and adorned with signal Piety, your People must have conceived the greatest Expectations: But very great and flattering as those Expectations were, your Subjects must be so much the happier to find them, in the first Conduct of your Reign, far exceeded. From hence they have extended their Prospect further, even through a Length of Days, in which they wish you to surpass any of your Ancestors.

They rejoice in a Prince who was born among them, and breathes all the native Spirit and manly Sense of his Country. A Prince of such Capacity, and so well educated in the Knowledge of the Constitution of this Kingdom, will, by His penetrating Abilities, continually discern its Excellencies, which have made it the Admiration and Envy of the whole Earth. By His solid Judgment, he will continue to approve it; by his Affection to his Subjects, as it tends to make his People happy, He will love it; as by his early Declaration from the Throne, He hath already been pleased most graciously to assure us, that it shall be His Endeavour to confirm and strengthen it both in Church and State.

What then can your Subjects in Gratitude do, but return your Majesty their sincerest and humblest Thanks for this your Majesty's animating Declaration, and concur with all their Might in promoting the same good and pious End; and use their utmost Endeavours to make your Majesty's Reign happy, as your own Acts will make it glorious?

This we promise, as far as the Sphere of our Duty extends, shall be the zealous Study and Endeavour of your Majesty's Church and Clergy of the Diocese of Hereford, joined to their hearty Prayers, united with those of all good Men, to the King of Kings, and supreme Disposer of Princes, that He will continue to bless your Majesty with all Felicity upon Earth, till it shall please His Providence to call you late to a more compleatly happy and enduring State in Heaven.

The following Address of the Master, Assistants and Members of the Merchant Company of Edinburgh, having been transmitted by John Forrest, Esq; Master of the said Company, to the Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Assistants and Members of the Merchant Company of Edinburgh, Incorporated by Royal Charter confirmed in Parliament, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty, for the great Loss sustained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most beloved and gracious King, under whose Reign these Nations have been blest with all that a free and prosperous People could wish to enjoy.

Permit us, at the same Time humbly to mention, the inexpressible Satisfaction and Joy it gives us, that He is now succeeded by one of His Royal Progeny, in the Person of your Majesty, from whom (as we can expect no greater Freedom or Happiness) we have the firm Hope and Confidence of the Continuance of the many Blessings we enjoyed under Him.

Allow us also most humbly to assure your Majesty, that we will, with Cheerfulness and Alacrity, contribute our Proportion of the publick Expence, till your Majesty's Enemies are effectually humbled, your Allies protected, and an honourable and advantageous Peace established to all your Majesty's Dominions.

That your Majesty may long reign the Darling of your own Subjects, and the Dread of all the Foes of Liberty; and that there may never be wanting one of your illustrious House to reign over free Britons, and to protect the Protestant Interest and Liberties of Europe, is, and shall ever be, our most earnest Prayer.

Signed this 28th of November, 1760, in Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, the Company's Seal being affixed,

The following Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Lanark, has been presented to His Majesty by Captain Lockhart Ross, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Lanark, head Borough of the County of Lanark.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of your Ancient and Royal Burgh of Lanark, humbly presume to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our real Grief and Concern, for the Loss which your Majesty, and the Nation have sustained, by the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign; and to offer our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Crown of these Kingdoms.

The Loss of so great and so good a Sovereign, at such a critical Juncture, might alarm us with the greatest Apprehensions, did we not, in the Contemplation of the many Virtues which are so conspicuous in your Majesty's Character, find Reason sufficient to mitigate our Sorrow, and fill our Breasts with the most pleasing Hopes, and the fullest Confidence, that your Majesty will ever preserve the most tender Affection and Regard for the Welfare of this your Majesty's native Country, and its most excellent Constitution.

Happy in such Expectations, we beg Leave to declare our most sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and that it is our most eager Wish and earnest Prayer, that your Majesty may be blest with a long and prosperous Reign; and that one of your Majesty's Royal Family may ever enjoy the Crown of these Kingdoms, and continue to rule over a brave, free, and an united People.

Signed in our Presence, and at our Desire, by

Lanark, Nov. 26, 1760.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Twelve Men and Freemen of the Borough of Great Grimby, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Luxborough, Recorder of the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Twelve Men and Freemen of the Borough of Great Grimby.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Twelve Men and Freemen of the Borough of Great Grimby, beg Leave

Leave to approach your Throne with the humblest Profession of our Duty, and of our unfeigned Joy in your Majesty's happy Accession to the Government of these Realms.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to congratulate your Majesty on the great Success and Prosperity, which, by the Divine Providence, have attended the long and glorious Reign of your Royal Grandfather, and on the unblemished Equity and Mildness of His Administration, which will for ever make His Memory revered by this Nation, and would render our Grief for the Loss of him most permanent, did not your Majesty's conspicuous Virtues promise a Continuance of the same Blessings to your Subjects.

May your Majesty's Government be distinguished by every Felicity which the Favour of Heaven, and the grateful Hearts of good Subjects, can secure to the best of Kings: May your Majesty ever reign in the Hearts of all your People, and surpass your Royal Predecessor in Years and Glory.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twenty-fifth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Coroner, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Beauclerk and Herbert Westfaling, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Coroner, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Coroner, Capital Burgesses, and Commonalty of Thetford, do presume to approach your Royal Presence with our hearty and sincere Condolence, on the Death of our late King, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather; gratefully remembering the many great Blessings we enjoyed during the Course of His Majesty's most just and glorious Reign.

Give us Leave also Sir, to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Throne of these Realms; and, at the same Time, to express our most earnest Expectations, founded as well on the Happiness which we have experienced under the Princes of your Royal House, as on the no less shining and conspicuous Virtues and Qualities of your Majesty; whose Reign promises to us the Continuation of every Blessing that a free People can desire.

Given under our Common Seal, this 24th Day of November, 1760.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Codrington, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Gloucester, from a grateful Sense and Remembrance of the many inestimable Blessings we enjoyed under the auspicious Reign of our late most gracious Sovereign, beg Leave, with all Humility, to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of your late Royal Grandfather, of glorious Memory.

The real Grief which seized these Kingdoms upon so great and so sudden a Loss, could only have been relieved by the immediate Accession of a Prince to the Crown, possessed of every amiable Quality to engage the Affection of his People, and in whom every Royal Virtue appears in its genuine Lustre; Permit us then, most dread Sovereign, to offer to your Majesty our sincerest Congratulations upon your ascending the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors, amidst the universal Acclamations of your faithful Subjects.

And, as your Majesty's known Zeal, and early Declaration of being the great Guardian and Protector of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of your native Country, afford us a certain Prospect of the Continuance of our present Felicity; so these Reflections excite us unanimously to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Loyalty to your Sacred Person and Government; and that our Prayers shall ever be, That Success may attend your Majesty's Councils and Arms in the further Prosecution of the present just and necessary War; that the open and secret Attempts of your Enemies, may be always defeated; and that your Majesty's Reign may be long, glorious and happy, over a free, loyal and united People; and that the Sceptre of Great Britain may for ever continue in your Majesty's most august House.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolsay in the said Borough, the Twenty-fifth Day of November, in the Fifth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Chippenham, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Samuel Fludyer, Bart. and Edward Baynton Rolt, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Chippenham, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgesses of your ancient and ever loyal Corporation of Chippenham, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Crown of these Realms; an Event wisely provided for, and happily effected, by the general Voice of a free and brave People, as the only Security to them and their Posterity, of all that is valuable to true Britons; and whose Joy, on the Occasion, admits of no Allay, but what must naturally proceed from the Heart of every grateful Subject, reflecting on the many Princely Virtues of your Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign, of blessed Memory, whom it hath pleased the Almighty to take unto Himself, as full of Glory as of Days.

That your Majesty may successfully prosecute the present just and necessary War, to the obtaining of an honourable and permanent Peace, and long sway the British Sceptre, in Health, Wealth, and Tranquility; and that there may never be wanting a Descendant of your Royal Family, to fill the Throne of your Kingdoms, to the latest Generation, is the sincere and hearty Prayer of,

Great Sir,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and devoted Subjects.

Given under the Seal of our Incorporation, the Twenty-second Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Stafford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. William Richard Chetwynd and William Chetwynd, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which

Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Stafford in the County of Stafford, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Stafford in the County of Stafford, in Common-Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, amidst the unanimous Acclamations of a loyal and dutiful People; an Event, which alone can compensate for the otherwise irreparable Loss this Nation must have sustained by the Death of His late most glorious Majesty, for whose Memory we must ever retain the highest Veneration for His constant and steady Protection of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties.

Your Majesty's tender Regard to your native Country, your other most eminent Virtues, and your other gracious Declarations, give us the fullest Assurance, that you will ever promote the Glory and Happiness of your People, and preserve our most excellent Constitution in Church and State.

Permit us, Sir, to make a Tender to your Majesty, of our most zealous Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, together with our sincerest and most ardent Wishes, that the signal Success, which has hitherto attended the present War, may still continue to crown the Arms of your Majesty and your Allies; that this Success may be followed by the lasting Blessings of an honourable and happy Peace; and that your Majesty's Reign may be long and glorious, over a grateful and loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, the twenty-first Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty, and in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third.

The following Address of the Provost, Baillies and Councillors of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies, and Councillors of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Provost, Baillies and Councillors of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright, in Council assembled, beg Leave to express our most hearty and sincere Condolence with your Majesty, for the ineffable Loss your Majesty and the Nation have sustained by the Death of your Illustrious Grandfather, under whose long and prosperous Reign these Kingdoms enjoyed the highest Ease and Felicity, in all their Rights Sacred and Civil.

We, at the same Time, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty's happy Accession to the Government of these Kingdoms: The excellent and amiable Dispositions, which very early appeared in your Majesty, and fully expressed by your first Declaration in Council, leave us no Room to doubt of our great Loss being abundantly compensated by your Majesty's wife and steady Administration.

Though we are an Incorporation not very considerable, we beg Leave, in the most humble, but warm Manner, to assure your Majesty, that our Affection to your Person and Government is high and inviolable; and that we shall always pray for a long and prosperous Continuance of your Majesty's Administration; and that these Kingdoms may never want a Protestant Prince, of your Royal and Illustrious Race, qualified with your Majesty's great and good Endowments, to reign over an happy and obedient People.

Signed by Order of the Council,
Will. Gordon, Provost.

The following Address of the Portreeve, Burgeses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Tavistock, has been presented to His Majesty by Richard Rigby, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Tavistock, in the County of Devon.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Burgeses, and Principal Inhabitants, of the Borough of Tavistock, in the County of Devon, animated with the sincerest Zeal and Affection to your Royal Person and Government, most humbly beg Leave to join in the universal Joy of your faithful Subjects, in congratulating your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Permit us, Royal Sir, at the same Time to deplore with your Majesty, the great Loss the Nation and all Europe have sustained by the sudden Death of your illustrious Grandfather, justly stiled the common Father of his People; and to adore your Majesty, for your most gracious Condescension, in declaring to your People, that their civil and religious Rights are equally dear to you, with the most valuable Prerogatives of your Crown; which calls upon us for, and we beg Leave with all Humility to assure your Majesty of, the warmest Returns of Duty and Gratitude.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and happy, and your Days extended to the utmost Period of human Life; and when your Majesty shall be removed from an earthly Crown (full of Glory and Renown) that the King of Kings may reward your Majesty with a Crown eternal, are the sincere and hearty Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, Burgeses, and Freemen of Wexford, having been transmitted to His Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, Burgeses, and Freemen of Wexford, in your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland.

WITH Hearts full of Affection, we beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Throne of these Realms, and to condole with you for the Loss of our late much honoured and much loved King.

Under this Loss, our greatest Comfort is the Prospect before us of happy Days under your Majesty, descended from a Race of Kings who have made the Prosperity, Honour and Trade of their Subjects, the constant Object of their Care and Attention.

We shall always strive to be among the foremost of your Subjects, to pay all Duty to your Majesty, and to set an Example of Obedience to your Government, which we ardently wish may long continue a Blessing to a loyal and grateful People.

The following Address of the Chief Steward, Recorder, Representatives in Parliament, the Bailiff, Justices, Capital Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Leomynster, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

MAY it please your Majesty to accept the most unfeigned Condolence of your faithful Subjects, the Chief Steward, Recorder, Representatives in Parliament, the Bailiff, Justices, Capital Burgeses, and and principal Inhabitants of your Borough of Leominster, on the melancholy Event of the Decease of His late Majesty : A Loss which nothing could have alleviated, but the Succession of a Prince, the Inheritor of His Virtues, as well as His Crown, nothing but the Prospect we have of your Majesty's treading in the same Paths of Justice and Fortitude, of Clemency and Goodness, which so illustriously distinguished the Reign of your Royal Grandfather, and will for ever render His Name and Memory dear unto us. The virtuous Education your Majesty received under the Tuition of a most excellent Princess, and the Instructions of wise and learned Prelates in your early Years, and of able Statesmen when of maturer Age, joined with your innate Disposition to every Thing good and laudable, give us the greatest Consolation in our present Sorrow, and the most assured Hopes, that Religion and Virtue will flourish in our Days, under your great Example. That an End will at length be put, by a continued Divine Blessing on your Arms, to the Desolations of that just and necessary War, wherein we are engaged ; and the great, and only Object thereof obtained, by a safe and honourable Peace. We are encouraged even to hope, and have humble Confidence, that your Majesty's Regard to the Welfare of these your Kingdoms, in all Respects, will be perpetuated in a Succession of Princes, of your August House, with Emulation aspiring to that amiable Character your Majesty hath already acquired, That of being the Father of your Country.

Given under our Common Seal, Nov. 28, 1760.

Whitehall, December 6.

The Court of Directors of the East-India Company have received, by the Way of Persia and Aleppo, from the President and Council of Bombay, the following Advices, dated the 27th of May last.

IN our last Advices over Land, we had the Pleasure to inform you of the Success which had attended the English Arms at Wondevash and Chetteput ; and at Arcot, in those by the Yarmouth : Also, that Admiral Cornish arrived with his Squadron at Fort St. George on the 23d of February. We have now the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that on the 3d Instant we received the agreeable News from the President and Council at Fort St. George, that Permacoil and Allumparva had surrendered their Garrisons to be Prisoners of War. Also, That His Majesty's Ship Falmouth had obliged the Haerlem, a French Ship from Merguy, to run ashore two Leagues to the Northward of Pondicherry. These Successes were attended with the Surrender of the important Settlement of Karical, on the 5th of last Month, to the Sea and Land Forces commanded by Rear Admiral Cornish and Major Monson, with all the Garrison Prisoners of War. We are not yet informed of the Number ; but the Loss on our Side, was only seven killed and wounded. The Enemy is, by this Means, reduced to their single Port of Pondicherry.

The Court of Directors have also received Advices, by Way of Bassorah, that Pondicherry was closely blocked up by Sea and Land ; and that the French Horse, consisting of 400 Hussars, had deserted to our Camp.
