From Thursday July 8. to Monday July 12. 1675.

Lisbon, June 18. Reparations are making here with all imaginable diligence, for the fitting out nine Men of War, on which are to serve two Regiments of Land Soldiers now raising; they are, as is faid, defigured to Cruife upon the Turks, who have of late greatly infested our Coasts, to the great disturbance of our Navigation. There is still a discourse of certain Proposals on foot for the admitting the Grand Duke of Toscany into our Trade to the East-Indies, but what sliccess this matter will have, is not yet known. It is reported, that a Bull hath been at last obtained at Rome in favor of the Fews, and that the same will be suddenly published here.

Warfam, June 25. The Lecces we receive from Jawarow of the 14 instant, give us an account, That the King of Poland, upon the return of Lieutenant Colonel Greben from the Cham of Tirtary (-who informed his Majesty that the faid Cham had a full and unlimited power from the Grand Signior, to conclude a Peace with this Crown upon such conditions as he should think fit ) had appointed two Commissioners to go and treat with the Cham, but that his Majesty had solemnly declared, that he would not confent to any Treaty, but fuch as brought with it the restitution of Kaminiec; the fame Letters add, That the Turtars, contrary to the promise of the Cham, to observe a Cessation of Arms, had with 7000 Men fallen into Volinia, burnt and plundered that whole Countrey, and carried away with them great numbers of Gentlemen, and others, in Captivity; which delign the Tartars executed with so much the less difficulty, for that the Inhabitants were not upon their Guard, thinking themselves secured by the said promised Ceffation. Letters from Mescouy fay, That the Czar affured the Polish Envoy at his Court, that he would himfelf take the Field this Summer with an Army of 50000 Men, in case the Turks came upon this Kingdom with any considerable Force; but we have so often found the fair promises of that Court to be without any effect, and almost without any intention of performance, that we cannot at present have any great reliance in them.

Madrid, June 27. We have at present a report here, as if the Moors had besieged Oran, the chief Spanish Garison in Barbary, with a great Force; which, if true, will give this Court much disquiet in the present posture of affairs. The Prince of Vaudemont is preparing for his return to Flanders, whither he purposes to pass by the way of England. From Cadiz they write, that the Diamond Frigat, Captain Griffith Commander, was arrived there from New-Tork, where he left Major Andrews, the new Governor, in the quiet possession of that Countrey; the same Letters farther say, that the Drake Frigat had forced two Sully Men of War into Port; and that for fear of her, those people had unrigged again two others they were fitting out: and that young de Ruyter was failed from Cadiz with four Men of War, and several Dutch Merchantmen, bound for Smirna, in company of fix Spanish Men of War, and a Vessel laden with stores, for the use of the Spanish Armada at present at Naples. Since the raising of the siege of Gironne by the Spaniards, not any Action hath passed between the two Armies; We are told that the Miquelets, who are got together in a Body to the number of 2000, greatly incommode the French, and that they have lately cut off two Convoys going to them. It is as yet uncertain when Don Juan will begin his journey for Italy.

Strasburgh, July 8. The Alarum we had, at the going away of our last Letters; of the two Armies being engaged, proves a mistake, and without any the least ground; the Imperialists have at present their Camp at Lichtenam, and the French theirs at Bifcheim, hardly a: League dillant from each other, and yet no Action palfes between them, except now and then with small parties. Monsieur de Turenne has caused several Boars to be brought down from Brifar, with which, it is faid, he intends to make a Bridge over the Rhine beneath this City; but the more likely is, that he will only employthese Boars to hinder all communication between us and the Imperialists by Water, and for the corresponding with the Troops he hath posted in two small lifes in the River for the same purpose. We have advice, that the Duke of Saxen Lamenburgh, Lieutenam General of the Empire, is arrived; with 3000 Men of the Circles at Kaiebis to reinforce the Imperial Army;

Gologne, July 12. The Lunenburgh and Ofnabrugh. Troops, have for fome days past had their quarters near Overlaulen in the Countrey of Juliers, about 4 Leagues. from hence, where on Monday last the Marquis of Borgomanere, who came from Vienna, and the Marquis de Grana, had a Conference with the Duke of Lunenburg and: Bishop of Osnabrugh, and, as is said, resolved that they should take their march towards Treves, whither the Troops of Lorrain are already advancing, though the Duke be still here; and yesterday the said Lunenburgh and Olnabrugh Troops were to begin their march, if the weather hindered nor, which hath been for ainy of lace, that the like has hardly been known at this time of the year. The two Regiments of Wolfembuttel, who revolted at their coming out of their Winter-quarters, are now arrived here, and will join the other tunenburgh Three thousand Men of the Bilhop of wunster are likewise arrived with the same design in the Country of Berg, fo that these Confederates will together make up a very confiderable Body.

Ditto, Fuly 12. The Lorrain, Lunenburgh, Ofnabrugh and Munster: Troops, which together will compose a Body of 18000 Men, are, as we are cold, marching towards Treves; and the general topinion is, that they will fit down before that City, the Capital of the Electorate of Treves. Our Letters from Strasburgh bring us not any thing of News concerning the Armies; it is generally believed here that the French are in no very good condition, but much incommoded with the high waters. From the Moselle they, write, That the Mareschal de Grequi had passed that River at Treves with 1500 Foot, with which he intended to go and reinforce Monsieur de Turinne. Our Letters trom Westphalia not only confirm what we heard before of the successes of the Brandenburghe, but add, That after the
