From Saturday December 20, to Tuesday December 23, 1760.

Westminster, December 23.

HIS Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Henry Bellen-den, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal assent to,

An Act to enable His Majesty to be Governor of the South-Sea Company.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

An Act to continue for a limited Time, the Importation of salted Beef, Pork, and Butter, from Ireland.

An Act for Repairing and Widening several Roads leading to and through the Towns of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis and Dorchester in the County of Dorset.
And to two private Bills.

St. James's, December 22.

The following Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, Principal, and Professors of the University of Glasgow, having been transmitted to the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been this Day presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, Principal, and Professors of the University of Glasgow.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculty, Principal, and Professors of the University of Glasgow, most humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the sudden and unexpected Death of our late most Gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's Illustrious and Royal Grandfather. The united Kingdoms of Great-Britain must always reverence the Memory of a Prince, under whose equitable and just Administration, they have enjoyed so much internal Peace and Security, and whose long and prosperous Reign, has been concluded by a Series of Events, which have both enlarged the Dominion, and augmented the Renown of the British Nation.

We beg Leave at the same Time, with Hearts full of the most respectful Affection, to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Your Majesty's faithful Subjects cannot avoid conceiving the most flattering Hopes of Happiness, from the Reign of a Prince, born and educated among themselves, accustomed to their Manners, acquainted with their Laws, fond of their Constitution, and desirous to govern them as it becomes a generous, a martial, and a free People to be governed.

Such is the high Opinion which your Majesty's now united and most affectionate Subjects universally entertain of your Majesty's Magnanimity and disinterested Virtue, that they have the firmest Conviction that you desire that you wish to govern them in no other Manner; that the Privileges of your Subjects are as dear to you as the Prerogative of your Crown; that your glory in being the King of a free People; and that far from being jealous of that ardent Spirit of Liberty, which naturally animates the Breast of every Briton, it is your generous Ambition to cherish and to support it.

All the Members of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal University regard it as their chief Merit, that they have always been sincerely and warmly attached to the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's illustrious Family; that they have always considered the Law which established it, as the surest Basis of the Religion and Liberty of Great Britain; and that they have constantly endeavoured to inculcate upon the Youth entrusted to their Care, such Sentiments of Loyalty, as it becomes the Subjects of a Monarchy founded upon the Principles of Liberty to entertain.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, beg Leave, with all Humility, to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Government of these Kingdoms, and to express, after the many Tears shed over the Grave of our late good Sovereign, our Consolation and Joy in seeing Him succeeded in the Throne by the Heir of His Virtues as well as of His Crown.

And when we call to Remembrance all the humane Virtues of your Majesty's Great Grandfather, Grandfather, and Father, which we are persuaded, from your early Piety, are also deeply implanted in your Royal Breast, we cannot but have the most entire Confidence in your Goodness, for the Support of our happy Establishment in Church and State.

And we, on our Part, Sir, will not be wanting in our Duty to seek all Occasions of instilling, from our Pulpits, into the Hearts of our People, a Veneration for your Majesty's Sacred Person, and of exhorting them to lead quiet and peaceable Lives in all Godliness and Honesty, to render that Government easy, which will make us happy.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Exeter, and of the Archdeacons and Clergy of the said Diocese, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Exeter, and of the Archdeacons and Clergy of the said Diocese.

MA Y it please your Majesty graciously to accept this Testimony of our deep and most unfeigned Sorrow for the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most Gracious Sovereign; whose Life, ever dear to his faithful Subjects, and rendered more precious in their Eyes by the unexpected and afflicting Loss of your Princely Father, was happily preserved preserved to these Kingdoms, till the Divine Providence, by giving early Maturity to your Majesty's Virtues, qualified you to fill and adorn the Throne of your Ancestors.

Whilst we congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to these your Kingdoms, we do, at the same Time, felicitate ourselves on the pleasing Prospects which open to us with your Majesty's auspicious Reign, which we beseech the Almighty to crown with Honour and Glory, Peace and Length of Days.

The gracious and repeated Declarations which your Majesty has been pleased to make of your Love and Affection to your faithful Subjects; your Zeal for promoting their Welfare; your tender Regard for their Civil and Religious Rights; and your firm Resolution to adhere to, and strengthen this excellent Constitution both in Church and State, demand the warmest Returns of Duty and Gratitude from a loyal and affectionate People; whose Security and Happiness, together with the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, are founded in the Establishment of these excellent Principles.

We are persuaded, that we cannot give a more convincing Proof of our Duty to your Majesty, and of our Regard for our Holy Profession, than by exerting our constant and most zealous Endeavours in the Cause of Religion and Virtue, to which your Majesty has so graciously promised your Royal Encouragement. We revere the innate Goodness of your Majesty's Heart, cultivated by the pious Care of an excellent Prince, whose illustrious Ancestors were early and remarkably distinguished by their vigorous Defence of the Protestant Faith, and their heroic Sufferings in that glorious Cause.

Blessed with the Influence, and encouraged by the Example of so good a King, we beg Leave, with due Humility, to assure your Majesty, that we will study to deserve your Royal Protection and Favour, by inculcating the Principles of true Religion, the Practice of Virtue and Morality, and the necessary Duties of Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government; endeavouring, at the same Time, to recommend them by that persuasive and engaging Motive, our own Example.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Westmorland, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir George Dalton, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, and Sir James Lowther, Bart. Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Westmorland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Westmorland, most humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the sudden and affecting Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, whose mild, just, and glorious Reign, must render His Memory ever sacred and dear to us; and, at the same Time, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, with the universal Approbation and Joy of your Subjects.

That good and amiable Disposition, of which your Majesty, in your earliest Years, has given so distinguished Proofs, fills us with the most assured Hopes, that you will adorn the Crown you wear, by the Exercise of every Royal and Princely Virtue; and through the whole Course of your gracious and auspicious Reign, with an affectionate and paternal Care, pursue the Welfare and Happiness of your People.

Happy in these pleasing and well-grounded Expectations, we humbly beg Leave, with all Warmth and Sincerity of Heart, to profess our most steady and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's most Sacred Person and Government; and to assure your Majesty, that it shall always be our most zealous Endeavour, by every Act of Affection, Duty, and Obedience, to promote the Ease, Prosperity, and Glory of your Reign.

May your Majesty long continue to reign a Father, Protector, and Blessing to your Subjects! And may these Kingdoms be blessed with a perpetual Succession of Princes of your Illustrious House, endowed with your Royal Virtues, and reigning, like your Majesty, in the Hearts and Affections of a free, loyal, and united People!

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Kirkby, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Lowther, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Westmorland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Borough of Kirkby in Kendal, in Court assembled, with the sincerest Duty, and the greatest Humility, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the severely afflicting Death of our late most Excellent King. The all-concerning Loss of so inestimable a Blessing, is a publick Calamity; affects every Heart with deep-seated Regret; and makes every House truly the House of Mourning. Yet though the all-powerful Disposer of Events hath taken from us the Person of the best of Kings, His Perfections will remain ever meritorious, ever memorable, as he was the tender Father of His Country, the assiduous Promoter of Publick Good, the constant Protector of Trade, Navigation, and maritime Commerce; the gracious Patron of religious and civil Liberty; and the generous Friend of Mankind. Disconsolate and melancholy indeed would be the Death of so amiable, so beloved, so beneficent a Monarch, had not we the strongest Assurances, justly raised in our Breasts; that your Majesty does not only inherit His Dominions, but all those His Royal Virtues which adorned His Reign, dignified His Administration, eminently advanced the Honour and Happiness of His Kingdoms, and signally distinguished him as a Patriot and a Sovereign.

Comforted by this auspicious Reflection, and inspired by your Majesty's gracious Declaration, our drooping Heads and depressed Hearts are lifted up; and we unfeignedly rejoice in your happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of Great Britain, the Place of your Illustrious Birth, where your Majesty's Mind was early and happily formed to good, to great, and exalted Principles; where were seasonably implanted in your Heart the sublime Virtues of a warm Love of your Parent Country, a reverential Affection to her holy Religion; and an invariable Adherence to her most excellent Constitution in Church and State. We are truly sensible, that, as the Knowledge of this pre-eminent Constitution has been your peculiar and attentive Study, the Preservation of it in Purity and Vigour, will be your principal and paternal Care.

Happy Britons! We have no sooner endured the Loss of one excellent Sovereign, than we enjoy the Repair of it, by the Accession of another, who has been trained up in the Paths, where Wisdom, Virtue, uniform Magnanimity, and genuine Patriotism, led the Way; who has, with an ardent Publick Spirit, declared in Council, "That he will make it the Business of His Life, to promote, in every Thing, the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms." Thus we have a well-grounded Confidence, that your Majesty will be the Blessing of your Subjects, the Dread of your Enemies, the Delight of your Allies, and the Admiration of Europe.

Permit

Permit us, most Gracious Sir, to add and offer up our earnest and dutiful Assurances to your Majesty, that we, firmly united in loyal Resolutions, will ever persevere in zealous Affection, and inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government; and it is, and ever shall be, our devout and fervent Prayer to Almighty God, that you may reign long, very long, adorned with the brightest Glory, and blessed with the greatest Happiness.

In Testimony of our Duty, Loyalty, and Affection, we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, this Twenty-fourth Day of November, 1760.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Free-burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Free-burgesses and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Colchester in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE are pleased to permit us your dutiful and loyal Subjects, to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Condolence on the Demise of your Royal Grandfather, whose sudden Departure had been still a deeper Grief to us, had not the Blessing of Heaven furnished his mild and auspicious Reign with a Glory unequalled in any former Times.

It is our Happiness to have the highest Consolation for our Loss, while we beg Leave, with warmest Hearts, to congratulate your Majesty's Accession to the Crown of these Kingdoms: And our most ardent Prayers to the Almighty are, that your Majesty may add still new Lustre to your Crown, by such a vigorous Prosecution of the present War, as may procure a solid and lasting Security against those, whose ambitious Attempts have been leveled at the common Rights of Mankind.

Both our Interest and our Duty require our earnest Wishes, that your Majesty may ever continue in the highest Sense illustrious, by promoting true Religion and Virtue among your People, and thereby procuring Felicity to your own Reign, and a happy Succession of it to your August Family.

The following Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Boroughs of Aldburgh and Boroughbridge, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff and Burgesses of the most ancient Borough of Aldburgh, and also of the Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Boroughbridge, in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Bailiff and Burgesses of the most ancient Borough of Aldburgh, and the Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Boroughbridge, in the County of York, with due Submission approach your sacred Person, to present our sincere Condolence, on the Loss to your Majesty, and the Nation, of the most excellent King your Grandfather of glorious Memory: Nothing but the entire Confidence we have in a Successor of the same illustrious House could, at this juncture console us.

It is, with the greatest Satisfaction, we heartily congratulate your Majesty, and the World, upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms: Your faithful Servants trust we have a Sovereign, under whose auspicious Government all the Blessings Providence has granted to, and designed for this Country, will be maintained, and gratefully enjoyed, and under whose gracious Protection, we shall always be encouraged cheerfully to do our Duties in our stations, in which we are at all Times ready to exert our utmost Abilities to shew, that we are desirous to be numbered amongst the most faithful, most loyal and dutiful Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Portreeves and Burgesses of the Town of Henley, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Portreeves and Burgesses of the Town of Henley upon Thames in the County of Oxford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, remembering with grateful Hearts the many Blessings we enjoyed under the Government of your late most excellent Grandfather, beg Leave to approach your Majesty in the most humble Manner, with our sincere Condolences on his Death, which we cannot but consider as a Loss to these Kingdoms, which your Majesty alone can repair.

The many Princely Virtues, which have distinguished and adorned the early Years of your Life, joined with your most gracious and affectionate Declarations since your Accession to the Throne in Favour of this your Native Country, have given us, and cannot fail to have given all your Subjects, the fullest Satisfaction, Content, and Comfort. And though we cannot look backwards upon the Loss we have sustained without Regret, we can and do look forwards, with Hearts full of Joy, on the pleasing Prospect that is before us.

In this Prospect, among many other Views of National Blessings and Prosperities opening upon us on every Side, we behold your Majesty uniting the Hearts and Hands of a great and grateful People, establishing your Throne in the Affections of your Subjects, and wisely planning and steadfastly pursuing that System of Rule and Government, which alone can make yourself great and good, and your People truly happy.

Given under our Common Seal the 4th Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1760.

The following Address of the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Freemen of the Borough of Port-Arlington, having been transmitted to His Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Freemen of the Borough of Port-Arlington.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgesses and Freemen of the Corporation of Port-Arlington, most humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the great and affecting Loss, which your Majesty and this Nation have sustained by the Death of your illustrious Grand-Father, whose just, equal, and mild Government will ever be remembered with the most sincere Veneration, and respectful Gratitude.

The Affliction necessarily attending this interesting Event, could only be softened by the firm Persuasion of your Majesty's many great and Princely Virtues, and which is now confirmed in the strongest Manner by your Majesty's most gracious Declaration.

Permit us, therefore, at the same Time that we lament our Loss, to express our most sincere Joy at your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Your faithful Subjects the Members of this Corporation, ever desirous of testifying, in the warmest Manner, their firm and inviolable Attachment to the Succession of the Crown in your Royal Family, humbly desire, upon this Occasion, to give your Majesty the strongest Assurances of their Duty, Fidelity and Affection to your Sacred Person and Government.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of East Loos, has been presented to His Majesty by John Buller, Buller, Esq; Recorder of the said Borough, and one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of East Looe in the County of Cornwall, humbly beg Leave to express our deep Sorrow and Concern for the great Loss this Nation hath sustained by the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign; and, at the same Time, with the sincerest and warmest Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

That your Majesty, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, may long reign over a loyal and happy People, is our ardent and constant Prayer.

Given under the Seal of the said Borough, and signed at the Guildhall thereof, this second Day of December, 1760.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Port Byhan, otherwise West Looe, has been presented to His Majesty by William Trelawny, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of Borough of Port Byhan, otherwise West Looe, in the County of Cornwall, being deeply affected with the great Loss this Nation hath suffered by the Death of our late most gracious King, of blessed Memory, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on this melancholy Event.

Permit us also to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Crown of these Kingdoms.

May the Almighty preserve your Sacred Person, prosper your most auspicious Government, and grant you a long and glorious Reign, over a loyal and happy People.

Given under the Seal of the said Borough, and signed at the Guildhall thereof, this second Day of December, 1760.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council and Community of the Borough of Aberbrothock, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Panmure, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council and Community of the Borough of Aberbrothock.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council and Community of the Borough of Aberbrothock, truly sensible of the great Loss which your Majesty and the Nation have sustained by the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory, do humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on that melancholy Event; and to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Government of these Realms.

We rejoice, that it is the peculiar Happiness of your Majesty to ascend the Throne of these Kingdoms at a Time when all Party-Divisions are utterly extinguished; when all Hearts are animated with Loyalty to their Sovereign, and Love to their Country; and when the Councils and Arms of Britain are crowned with Glory and Success.

Permit us therefore, Sir, on this Occasion, to express our Zeal and Affection to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and our sincerest Wishes for every Accession to the Happiness of your Majesty's Reign, and that it may continue long over an united and grateful People.

Signed by Appointment;

Alex. Keith, Provost.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of St. Andrews, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Thomas Leslie, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of St. Andrews, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Loyalty and warm Affection, to express our Joy upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne.

None of your Majesty's Subjects can be more sensibly affected than we are, by the sudden and unexpected Death of our late Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, of glorious Memory, who has long made His People happy by his mild and just Administration, and whom it hath pleased God to take from us, at a Time, when His Subjects Hearts were filled with Joy; when His Arms were crowned with Victory and Success; and when He had the comfortable Prospect of reaping soon the Fruits of those wise and prudent Councils, by which His Reign has been so illustriously distinguished.

Nothing could have so much alleviated the Grief with which this melancholy Event has filled our Hearts, as the Goodness of Divine Providence in placing your Majesty upon the Throne; whose known Regard to Religion and Virtue; whose early Attachment to our most Excellent Constitution, and whose zealous Concern for the true Interest and Welfare of your People, present us with the joyful Prospect, that all these Blessings shall be continued with us, by which it has pleased God so remarkably to distinguish this above other Nations.

We beg Leave, with the greatest Humility, to testify our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government: And we pray, that the same kind Providence, which has raised you to the Throne, may render your Reign long and prosperous.

We pray that God may pour down His best Blessings upon her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, and all the rest of the Royal Family; that He will continue to give Success to your Majesty's Arms in the present just and necessary War; and thereby enable your Majesty speedily to bring about a safe, lasting, and honourable Peace. These are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Provost, Magistrates and Council of St. Andrews.
Signed in their Name and by their Appointment,
George Demster, Provost.
