The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of St. Andrews, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Thomas Leslie, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of St. Andrews, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Loyalty and warm Affection, to express our Joy upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne.

None of your Majesty's Subjects can be more sensibly affected than we are, by the sudden and unexpected Death of our late Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, of glorious Memory, who has long made His People happy by his mild and just Administration, and whom it hath pleased God to take from us, at a Time, when His Subjects Hearts were filled with Joy; when His Arms were crowned with Victory and Success; and when He had the comfortable Prospect of reaping soon the Fruits of those wise and prudent Councils, by which His Reign has been so illustriously distinguished.

Nothing could have so much alleviated the Grief with which this melancholy Event has filled our Hearts, as the Goodness of Divine Providence in placing your Majesty upon the Throne; whose known Regard to Religion and Virtue; whose early Attachment to our most Excellent Constitution, and whose zealous Concern for the true Interest and Welfare of your People, present us with the joyful Prospect, that all these Blessings shall be continued with us, by which it has pleased God so remarkably to distinguish this above other Nations.

We beg Leave, with the greatest Humility, to testify our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government: And we pray, that the same kind Providence, which has raised you to the Throne, may render your Reign long and prosperous.

We pray that God may pour down His best Blessings upon her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, and all the rest of the Royal Family; that He will continue to give Success to your Majesty's Arms in the present just and necessary War; and thereby enable your Majesty speedily to bring about a safe, lasting, and honourable Peace. These are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Provost, Magistrates and Council of St. Andrews.
Signed in their Name and by their Appointment,
George Demster, Provost.
