By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For a General Fast.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged with the French King, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that He will vouchsafe a special Blessing on Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy-Council, hereby command, That a Publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon Friday the Thirteenth Day of February next; That so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins; and may, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments, which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved, and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety, and Prosperity to Us, and Our Kingdoms: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so Religious and Necessary a Duty. And, for the better and more orderly Solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Publick Worship; and to take Care the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fourth Day of December, 1760, in the First Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For a General Fast.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged with the French King, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that He will vouchsafe a special Blessing on Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a Publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, on Thursday the Twelfth Day of February next; That so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins; and may, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved, and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety and Prosperity, to Us and Our Kingdoms: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so Religious and Necessary a Duty. Our Will is therefore, and We charge, That incontinent this Our Proclamation seen, Ye pass to the Market-Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful; and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance. And Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewarts, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send Doubles hereof to the several Paroch Kirks within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day abovementioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fourth Day of December, 1760, in the First Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

St. James's, December 24.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to Order, That a like Fast should be observed throughout His Kingdom of Ireland, upon Friday the Thirteenth Day of February next, being the Day appointed for the Fast in England. And to that End, His Majesty hath thought proper to direct the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to cause a Proclamation to be forthwith published in that Kingdom.

St. James's, December 27.

THE following Address of the Governors and Guardians of the Hospital for the Maintenance and Education of Exposed and Deserted Young Children, was on Monday last presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Dartmouth, Vice-President, the Treasurer, and Gentlemen of the Committee of the said Corporation.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Governors and Guardians of the Hospital for the Maintenance and Education of Exposed and Deserted Young Children, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, deeply affected with the Loss of your Royal Grandfather, our most Gracious Sovereign, Founder, and Patron, whose Memory we revere with the greatest Gratitude.

At the same Time permit us to express our Joy, in seeing your Majesty succeed to the Throne of these Realms, amidst the universal Acclamations of your Subjects, who consider your Majesty as the Protector and Defender of their Religion, Rights, and Liberties. But it is with peculiar Pleasure we behold on the Throne, a Prince, whose Royal and Illustrious Parents bestowed Marks of Favour and Approbation on this Corporation, immediately after its Institution.

When with Pleasure and Gratitude we beheld them them express their Compassion for the helpless Objects of this Charity, we were the more strongly excited to use our utmost Endeavours to attempt their Relief; and encouraged to support great Numbers of miserable Infants, who otherwise must inevitably have perished, or become burthenfome to the Publick.

For these, and others in the like miserable Circumstances, we are Supplicants to your Majesty; that you would be graciously pleased to take this Corporation under your Royal Protection, and honour us, by declaring yourself our Patron; that thereby we, and others, may be encouraged to execute the good Purposes for which we were incorporated; by saving the Lives of many poor Infants, and Educating them in the Principles of Religion, and the Practice of Virtue and Industry.

And we most fervently beseech the Almighty, to pour down on your Majesty, all those Blessings which attend true Piety and Charity, and to continue them to your latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal this 17th Day of December, 1760.

Signed by Order of the General Court,
Tho. Collingwood, Secretary.

Which Address His Majesty was pleased most graciously to receive, and to declare Himself Patron of the said Corporation; and they had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

After which they had the Honour to wait on her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales; when the Earl of Dartmouth made the following Compliment.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE the Governors and Guardians of the Hospital for the Maintenance and Education of Exposed and Deserted Young Children, beg Leave to condole with your Royal Highness, on the Loss which these Kingdoms in general, and we in particular, have sustained by the Death of His late Majesty. As Subjects, we have lost a mild and gracious Sovereign; and as Guardians of this Royal Foundation, a Munificent and Compassionate Patron.

At the same Time permit us to rejoice, that we see a Prince upon the Throne, whose early Disposition to promote Virtue, and discourage Vice, gives as the most pleasing Prospect of the Glory of His future Reign, and the Happiness of all that live within the Reach of His Authority.

We cannot forget the tender Commiseration expressed by your Royal Highness, and your late Royal Consort, at the Institution of this Charity; nor the generous Support which your Royal Highness has shewed us ever since; both which give us the strongest Encouragement to ask, and the most solid Ground to hope, for the Continuance of your Royal Highness's Favour and Protection.

They were received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

The following Address of the Episcopal Clergy, qualified according to Law, in the Counties of Aberdeen, Kincardin, Forfar, Banff, and Murray, North Britain, has been presented to His Majesty by the most Reverend Father in God the Archbishop of Canterbury: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Episcopal Clergy, qualified according to Law, in the Counties of Aberdeen, Kincardin, Forfar, Banff, and Murray, North-Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Episcopal Clergy, qualified according to Law, in the Counties of Aberdeen, Kincardin, Forfar, Banff, and Murray, North Britain, most humbly beg your Royal Permission, amidst the just and general Congratulations of your loyal and faithful Subjects on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, to join our warmest Expressions of the most zealous Affection and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

As the Royal Virtues of our late most Gracious Sovereign, every where shone with the brightest Lustre; so His Death has been universally felt, and sincerely lamented, in the most remote Parts of His Dominions; and nothing but the many amiable Endowments your Majesty possesses, can compensate the Loss we have so lately sustained by that melancholy Event.

Under the happy Influences of our late most Gracious Sovereign's Paternal Care and Protection, we enjoyed the free Exercise of our Holy Religion, and have Reason to hope for the Continuance of that invaluable Blessing by your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, which claims our most grateful Acknowledgments; and which we shall carefully study to deserve, by inculcating on the Minds of our People, Piety towards God, Loyalty to your Majesty, and Peace and Unanimity among our Fellow-Subjects.

Engaged by every principle of Duty, we will not fail to offer up our most devout and fervent Prayers to the Throne of Grace, that Almighty God may bless your Majesty with a long and glorious Reign, direct your Counsels, continue Success to your Arms, for the Establishment of a lasting and honourable Peace; and that the Sceptre of these happy and united Kingdoms may be swayed, to latest Posterity, by a Prince of your Majesty's Royal and August House, so distinguished for its Attachment to the Protestant Interest, and Regard for the Liberties of Mankind.

Signed and subscribed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Aberdeen, this 2d of December, in the Year of our Lord 1760, by

John Gordon,
James Riddoch,
George Farquhar, } Ministers of the Chapels in Aberdeen.

The following Address of the Bishop of Offory, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Canice, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Offory, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop of Offory, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Canice, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Offory.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to condole upon the Death of our late most Gracious Sovereign of happy Memory; and to congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Crown of these Realms. Your Majesty sitting on the Throne, in the Enjoyment of the warmest Affections of your People, affords a most agreeable Prospect; as your Majesty has always given the strongest Proofs of a steady Inclination to promote every Publick Good; and more especially to countenance Religion and Virtue; which are the most solid Foundation for the Happiness of the publick Weal.

We expect, by the Favour of Divine Providence, to see the British Empire, under your Majesty's Government, arrive at the highest Degree of Glory, through future Successes, by a wise Settlement in an happy Peace; and in such Prosperity, as will either prevent the Attempts of our Enemies, or most effectually secure us against them.

We shall never cease our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may long reign over us in the Enjoyment of every Blessing; and that there never may be wanting one of your Royal Family to govern in the same Manner your Majesty's Dominions, and to continue these Blessings to latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Sovereign, Burgesses, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Belfast, has been presented to His Majesty Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Sovereign, Burgeses, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Belfast, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgeses, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of Belfast, after expressing our deepest Concern for the Death of His late most Excellent Majesty, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Duty and warmest Affections, to congratulate your Majesty, upon your Accession to the Crown of these Realms.

Inviolably and unalterably attached to your Majesty's most Illustrious Family, which, by many Years happy Experience, we have found to be the true Support of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, we behold, with infinite Joy, your Majesty ascending that Throne, to which your Royal Ancestors have added such Lustre, by their personal and eminent Virtues.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration; the Love your Majesty is pleased to express for your Native Country; the generous Principles of Liberty you have so early imbibed and discovered; your Majesty's Gentleness, Affability, Justice, and Love of Virtue, are to all your dutiful and loyal Subjects, sure Indications, that the same Glory that attended His late Majesty's Reign, of blessed Memory; the same constant Endeavours to procure the Happiness of a Free People; the same watchful Care, that has distinguished His Government, and rendered it forever memorable in the Annals of Great Britain, will be equally conspicuous in your Majesty, and transmit down your Majesty's Name, and the Fame of your great and good Actions, to remotest Ages.

Dated at Belfast, the 25th Day of November, 1760.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Free-Tenants of the County of Radnor, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and your Majesty's Free Tenants, in the County of Radnor.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and your Majesty's Free Tenants in the County of Radnor, and of all your Majesty's Lordships and Estates there (which your Majesty, in Right of your Crown, is seized of) with the utmost Humility, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Sacred Person, among the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, sincerely to condole with your Majesty on the Death of our late glorious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, as well as to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the British Throne, with the universal Voice of a most happy and united People.

The princely Virtues, early sown in your Majesty's tender Years, are now grown up to so much Maturity, as gloriously to shine in your Royal Person, and endear our Hearts, with the Hearts of all your British Subjects, to their native Briton, our Lord and King.

As Religion is the best Diadem belonging to your Crown; so the Encouragement of it, according to your Royal Word, will prove the brightest Lustre to it.

It is, Sir, a most glorious Reflection to us, that such prodigious Colonies and Countries have been of late added to your Majesty's Dominions; and we shall, to the utmost of our Power, cheerfully contribute to the Preservation of the same, and for the Addition of others, as long as your Majesty continues the necessary War against perfidious Enemies.

The ancient Britons have rendered their Memories Immortal in the Gallic Plains; and as Wales has the Honour to say, that two of your Majesty's Ancestors were born in the Principality, they have also the Satisfaction of seeing a Prince upon the Throne equal to any of them.

May all the Blessings and Glories that Heaven can bestow, attend your Majesty's sacred Person, your Expeditions and Armies, and grant your Majesty a long and most prosperous Reign over us; and may some of your Illustrious Family continue so to do, till Time shall be no more.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Steward, Approved Men and Burgeses of the Borough of Andover, has been presented to His Majesty by Francis Blake Delaval, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bailiff, Steward, Approved Men and Burgeses of the Ancient Borough of Andover in the County of Southampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Steward, Approved Men and Burgeses of the Borough of Andover in the County of Southampton, humbly approach your Throne, most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession, and to express the deep Sense we have of the afflicting Loss which your Majesty and your People have sustained, by the Death of our late Sovereign, your illustrious Grandfather, whose Reign will ever be remembered with Honour and Gratitude.

Such a Loss could only be repaired by your Majesty, whose early Virtues have been so conspicuous, and whose most graciously declared Intentions have filled our Hearts with Joy, and given us a firm Confidence, that the inestimable Blessings your People enjoyed under his late Majesty's auspicious Reign, will not only be continued, but carried to a still greater Height, under that of your Majesty.

We are therefore engaged, by every Consideration, to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Loyalty, and invariably Zeal and Attachment; and to wish that your Majesty's Reign may be long and glorious; and that the British Sceptre may ever remain in the Hands of your Majesty, and your August House, to the perpetual Security of the Religion and Liberties of this great and happy Nation.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, the Twenty-fifth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Stratford upon Avon, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Charles Mordaunt, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Warwick, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Stratford upon Avon in the County of Warwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of your ancient and loyal Borough of Stratford upon Avon, humbly beg Leave to express our feigned Sorrow on the Death of our late Excellent King your Royal Grandfather, whose Reign was as glorious to himself, as happy to His Subjects, and whose Memory will be revered to latest Ages. Such a Loss, at so critical and so unexpected a Time, could not have been alleviated but by your Majesty's most happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, to rule over a free People, in whose Hearts you already reign.

To be governed by a King, (by a Briton) who has already discovered so many amiable Virtues, and declared the Happiness of His People to be the Rule of His Actions; who has been pleased to express His Royal Approbation of those wise Counsels, and that intrepid Conduct by which so many great and signal Advantages have been gained to these Nations; a Consideration of such your gracious Approbation of these salutary Views and Measures, justly demands the ardent Zeal of all your Subjects, to contribute to their utmost, in their respective Stations, that your Majesty may be enabled to continue and compleat what has been so auspiciously begun.

May the God, by whom Kings reign, greatly prolong your Majesty's Days with Glory and Happiness; and may there never be wanting one of your Illustrious Family to preside over us till the End of Time.

Given under our Common Seal this Thirteenth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Noblemen, and Gentlemen, of the County of Perth, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, and Gentlemen, of the County of Perth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, and Gentlemen, of the County of Perth, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to condole the great Loss which your Majesty and these Kingdoms have sustained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most Excellent Sovereign; and, at the same Time, to congratulate your Majesty on ascending the Throne of your Ancestors.

When we reflect upon His late Majesty's unshaken Integrity, and Greatness of Mind; His Love for His People; His mild Government, and His inviolable Regard for our sacred Constitution; when we think of the Happiness we have enjoyed, and of the Glory to which these Kingdoms have been exalted, during His long and prosperous Reign, our Hearts are at once filled with the deepest Grief, and most sensible Gratitude.

At the same Time, the Consideration of your Majesty's many Princely Virtues, and of your real Affection for our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, gives us the most pleasing Hope of enjoying Freedom and Happiness under your Majesty's Government, and excites in us the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Loyalty to your Royal Person and August House.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that our constant Endeavours shall be, to support your Majesty's Government; and that our most ardent Wishes shall ever be, for the long Continuance and Prosperity of your Majesty's Reign.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting,
Gray, Preses.

The following Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, assembled at Kirkcudbright on the 10th of December 1760.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, most humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the late mournful Event of your Royal Grandfather's Death; whose mild and gentle Government of these Kingdoms will ever be remembered with Gratitude and Satisfaction.

We beg Leave at the same Time to offer, with all Humility, our most respectful and sincere Congratulations to your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne.

The well grounded Confidence which we have in your Majesty's great and uncommon Virtues, fills our Hearts with the most unfeigned and real Joy, at the happy Prospect before us; permit us therefore to express our most earnest Wishes for your Majesty's Prosperity; and to assure you of our dutiful and firmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

May it please Almighty God to continue to bless your Majesty with that most exalted and supreme of all human Virtues, the Inclination and Ardour to do good to your Country; and in Kindness to these Kingdoms, may He grant you the Happiest of all Enjoyments, by bestowing upon you, through a long and prosperous Reign, the Power of Accomplishing that Good.

May the Liberties of the People, and our excellent Constitution, become more strongly fortified under your Majesty's auspicious Influence, by wise and salutary Laws, and many Institutions, adapted for the Preservation of the sacred Rights of a free People; the cherishing and protecting of which, appears to be the Basis on which your Majesty means to build up a true and lasting Glory, becoming the Wisdom and Virtue of a just and good King, who wishes to establish his Throne in the Love and Affection of his Subjects. May your Majesty therefore find, from a happy Experience, that it is the Freedom alone of our Constitution which gives genuine Strength, Security and Greatness to a British Monarch; and may you ever, as now, reign in the Hearts of a free, affectionate, and grateful People.

Signed by Appointment, and in Name of the Meeting, Selkirk.

The following Address of the Noblemen, and Gentlemen, of the County of Fife, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Lieutenant General St. Clair, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, and Gentlemen, of the County of Fife.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, and Gentlemen, of the County of Fife, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, having our Minds filled with a just Sense of the inexpressible Loss your Majesty and these Kingdoms have sustained by the sudden Death of our most Gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, under whose most auspicious and benign Government we enjoyed so long a Series of inestimable Blessings, and who had raised the Greatness of these Realms to that Height and Splendor, which will render His Memory dear and glorious to all Posterity.

It would be to aggravate our Sorrows, particularly to enumerate the Virtues so conspicuous in that most Excellent King: The Duty we owe to your Majesty obliges us to moderate our Grief, and with grateful Hearts to congratulate your Majesty on your happy and peaceable Accession to the Imperial Crown of your Royal Ancestors.

The many Princely and Amiable Endowments, which adorn your Royal Breast, and your glorying in being born and educated in Britain, give us a certain Prospect of future Happiness, in the Security of our Religion, Laws, and Liberties.

The vigorous Measures, by which your Majesty is determined to prosecute so just and necessary a War, gives us the most promising Assurances of its speedy terminating, by the Blessing of God, in a safe, lasting, and honourable Peace, so desirable to these Kingdoms, and all Europe.

Permit us, Sir, in the Sincerity of our Hearts, and with with all Humility, to assure your Majesty of our ardent Zeal and inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government; and that, in our several Stations, we will contribute, to the utmost of our Power, to render your Reign happy, as we pray for its long Continuance.

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, in the Province of Ross, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John Gordon, Representative in Parliament for the County of Cromarty, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, in the Province of Ross, in Synod assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Ross, beg Leave humbly to present to your Majesty our hearty and sincere Condolence, on the great Loss your Majesty and this Nation have sustained by the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather; and, at the same Time, to express the Sense we have of our Happiness, that we can congratulate the British Dominions, as well as your Majesty, on your happy Accession to the Crown of your August Ancestors, which has descended to your Majesty in the Height of its Glory.

We should be insensible of the greatest of human Blessings, if we did not gratefully remember the gentle and equal Government of His late most sacred Majesty. Under it we have long enjoyed our valuable Rights, Civil and Religious, with the most inviolate Security; and his Reign will shine in future Ages, with the unexampled Victories of the British Arms, over the restless Enemies of the Liberties of Europe, the Invaders of our just Rights and Possessions. But we should fail in our Duty, if we did not also, with the highest Gratitude, adore the Goodness of Almighty God, for raising up a Prince to fill the Throne, possessed with the tenderest Affection for this his native Country; and endowed with every Virtue and Accomplishment which can encourage us to hope for the Continuance and Increase of the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, to promote which, it was the first Act of your Majesty's Reign, most graciously to plight your Royal Faith. And we most cordially join with the rest of your Majesty's dutiful Subjects in the sincerest Assurances of our unalterable Duty and Affection to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; and should reckon ourselves highly inexcusable, if we did not persist to inculcate the Principles of Religion and Loyalty on those committed to our Care, of whose Affection and Fidelity we can assure your Majesty.

The happy Prospect, which, through the Divine Blessing, we have of a long auspicious Reign to your Majesty, over the Hearts of an affectionate People, consoles us under our late Loss, and keeps us from feeling afresh the former great one, which the Nation suffered by the Death of your Majesty's Royal Father, who was long the Hope and Darling of the People, whose Affection your Majesty has inherited with the Scepter, which he did not live to sway. It also calls for our warmest Gratitude to the Illustrious Princess your Majesty's Royal Mother, who will justly reign without a Crown, in the Hearts of all your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, from a tender Sense of the Blessings they derive from her Royal Highness's conspicuous Care and pious Example, which have had the happiest Influence in forming your Majesty's Royal Mind, so much to the Wishes of your People.

Your Majesty has already justified our fondest Expectations, by the signal Marks you have given of your Royal Regard for Religion and Virtue; and as nothing can so effectually procure a Blessing upon your Majesty's gracious Endeavours for the Welfare and Happiness of your Kingdoms, we hope it will be the Reward of your own Piety, to see, that, by the Influence of your Majesty's good Example, and the just Exercise of your Authority, the open and profligate Practice of Vice and Corruption, will be suppressed; its Progress not only checked, but every where made to hide its Face, and both publick and private Virtue and Righteousness to surround and establish your Throne. In this, and in every other Part of an Administration, which promises to be so wise and good, all honest Men will vie with each other in giving that Support and Assistance, which has been so early, and in so tender a Manner called for from the Throne.

May your Majesty, by the Blessing of the Almighty, who delighteth to honour those who honour Him, be richly furnished with every gracious and Royal Endowment to enable you to perfect the Glory of your August Progenitor's Reign, by happily restoring the Peace, and confirming the Security of your Majesty's Dominions. May it be the distinguishing Honour of your Majesty's own Reign, to be the Protector and Defender of the Rights of Mankind; and to spread the Blessings of the glorious Gospel of Christ, far and wide for the Happiness of the human Race. And may the Crown to which your Majesty has succeeded, with the united Wishes of a great and free People, long flourish on your Royal Head; and never want a Prince of your Illustrious House to wear it; when your Majesty shall, as we pray, after a long and prosperous Reign on Earth, be raised to a Crown of Glory which fadeth not away.

Harie Gordon, Moderator.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council and Community of the City of Brechin, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Panmure, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council and Community of the City of Brechin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council, and Community of the City of Brechin, beg Leave, with all Duty and Humility, to testify our sincere and unfeigned Concern for the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather.

At the same Time we desire to express our grateful Sense of the Divine Goodness, in so highly compensating this sudden and important Loss, by the Accession of a Prince, the Heir of his Virtues, as well as his Kingdoms.

Permit us therefore to congratulate your Majesty upon your most auspicious Accession to the Government of a free and loyal People, at a Time when all Differences amongst them are extinguished; and the wise and spirited Councils with which this just and necessary War has been pursued, have, by the Blessing of God, been crowned with such Glory and Success, as to leave no other Contention amongst us, than who shall give the strongest Proofs of his Zeal and Affection to our King and Country.

As we most sincerely wish every Accession of Happiness to your Majesty's Reign, so we desire, in the most dutious and respectful Manner, on this Occasion, to express our Zeal and Affection to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government; and our sincerest Wishes that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a dutiful, loyal and happy People.

Brechin,

Dec. 11, 1760.

Signed by Appointment,

Jo. Malison, Provost.

The

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Dundee, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Thomas Leslie, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town-Council of Dundee, beg leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors; and, at the same Time, to testify our deepest Concern for the great Loss which these Nations have sustained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather.

The invariable and affectionate Regard shown by his late Majesty for the Good of his Subjects; the Care taken by him to promote Religion, and to encourage Arts, Industry and Commerce, in every Part of his Dominions; the glorious Triumphs of the British Arms abroad, under his wise Direction; the Wisdom, Justice and Clemency of his Government, demand the most grateful and lasting Remembrance, and have had the most desirable Effects, upon many, who were blinded with unreasonable and unhappy Prejudices against our present excellent Constitution.

We cannot but rejoice in the Prospect of the Continuance of this Happiness under your Majesty's Reign, especially when we consider, that your Majesty has given such agreeable Proofs of your being animated by so great and amiable an Example, and of your so very early entertaining Sentiments no less great, wise and good.

Your Majesty's Princely Virtues, and the glorious Success of your great Ally in the Beginning of your Reign, fill us with the most pleasing Expectations; and, particularly, incline us to hope, that the present War will, in due Time, end in a safe and honourable Peace.

It is our earnest Prayer to Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree Justice, that He would bestow His best Blessings upon your sacred Majesty; that He would give Success to your Majesty's good Intentions; that you may long reign in the Hearts of a free and happy People; and that the Succession to these Kingdoms may be perpetuated in your illustrious House.

Signed in our Name, by Patrick Geaman, Provost.

The two following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty by John Murray, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Selkirk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Selkirk, deeply impressed with a lively Sense of the unspeakable Loss your Majesty and these Kingdoms have sustained by the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on an Event so mournful and disastrous. In every Action of His Life, Goodness and Virtue shone conspicuous; and, in Return, Heaven blessed Him with Length of Days, and crowned His Years with Glory.

But what helps to dispel these Glooms of Sorrow, that fill our Minds on this Occasion, is to see your Majesty, the undoubted Heir of his Virtues as well as Crown, mount the Throne thus by a double Title so justly your's. This fills our Minds with the amplest Joy, and bids us triumph in the pleasing and delightful Prospect of future Happiness, and Felicity under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

That Victory and Success may every where attend your Arms, till your Majesty's and Freedom's Foes, able no longer to maintain the unequal Contest, shall (prostrate before your Throne) sue for Peace; That you may long live the happy Monarch of a free and grateful People; and that Heaven may transmit your Crown to one of your Royal Race, free and independent, to latest Ages, as it must constitute our truest Happiness, so shall ever be our most sincere and ardent Wish.

Signed by Order, and in Presence of the Magistrates and Town-Council, this Eighth Day of December, 1760. And. Henderson, Preses.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Borough of Peebles, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Town of Peebles, in Council assembled, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Condolence for the Death of our late Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather; and most hearty Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

Under the auspicious Reign of your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, Arts were improved, Manufactures increased, and Trade extended; and by His tender Care of the Constitution of our Country, our Privileges were preserved inviolate, our Rights and Liberties supported and enlarged.

These Blessings we find insured to us by your Majesty, the Heir of His Royal Virtues and Crown.

May the Exertion of that early Knowledge your Majesty has acquired of the Commercial Interest of these Kingdoms be supported by the Industry of your Subjects, and rewarded with their grateful Acknowledgments.

May it please Almighty God to grant a Continuance of that Success, which has hitherto attended your Majesty's Armies, employed in defending the Rights of your Native Kingdoms, and protecting the Liberty of Europe; and may your Majesty be long preserved the Darling of your faithful Subjects, and Asserter of the Liberties of Mankind.

These, most gracious Sovereign, be pleased to accept, the dutiful Expressions and grateful Dictates of our loyal Hearts.

Signed at Peebles the twentieth and ninth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty Years, by Appointment, and in Name of the whole Community,

James Ballantyne, Provost.

Leicester-House, December 24.

This Day the Baron de Cramm, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Brunswick, had a private Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

To which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, Decemer 13, 1760.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, in the Night, between the 5th and 6th Days of this Instant December, some wicked and evil disposed Persons, at present unknown, broke down the Banks of his Grace the Duke of Bridgewater's Navigation at Barton, in the County of Lancaster, which were made upon an Arch over a Public Highway there; by which Means the Water was discharged from the said Navigation, and considerable Damage done thereto; Which Offence was made Felony by two several Acts of Parliament, passed in the two last Sessions; His Majesty, for the better Discovery, and bringing to Justice, the Person or Persons concerned in the said Felony, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so as he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
W. PITT.
And as a further Encouragement, I Francis Duke of Bridgewater

Bridgewater do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any of the said Offenders.

BRIDGEWATER.

Whitehall, December 16, 1760.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on the 13th Day of this Instant December, between the Hours of Five and Eleven in the Evening, the Dwelling-house of Isaac Pacatus Shard, Esq; at Peckham in the County of Surry, was maliciously attempted to be burned down, by setting Fire to the Bed and Bed-Cloaths of a spare Bed-Chamber, and to the Toilet in the said Room, which stood at such a Distance from the said Bed, as to have no possible Communication with the same; His Majesty, for the better Discovery, and bringing to Justice, the Person or Persons concerned therein, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, to any one of them, except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Bed, Bedcloaths, and Toilet, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. PITT.

And as a further Encouragement, I the said Isaac Pacatus Shard, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any of the Offenders.

J. P. Shard.
