And now, Great Sir, what Briton can reflect on the most delightful and almost unbounded Prospect before his Eyes of the Halcyon Days, that Providence has given him, by having placed the Crown of these Realms on the Head of a Prince born amongst us, and whose most gracious Declarations have assured us, that his own Royal Heart is truly British; who can reflect on this, without the utmost Transport and Excess of Joy!

Your Majesty will therefore be pleased to suffer us to lay this our most humble Profession of Duty and Respect at your Royal Feet, and to pray for your long and prosperous Reign over a grateful and most happy People.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Corke, humbly beg Leave to take this first Opportunity of approaching your Sacred Person, and most sincerely condoling your Majesty on the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, the best of Kings; and joyfully to congratulate your Majesty on your peaceable Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

We shall ever have in grateful Remembrance the glorious Revolution of Eighty Eight, which paved the Way for this happy Event, and blessed these Kingdoms with a Race of Kings, who have, by their Wisdom and Valour, and by their unparalleled Victories over our implacable Enemies in all Parts of the Globe, raised the British Name and Dominions to the highest Pitch of Glory.

W

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall, on all Occasions, be ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majesty's undoubted Title; and we have nothing further to add, but to implore the Divine Providence, by whom Kings reign, and Kingdoms flourish, to grant our most ardent Wishes, that your Reign may be long and glorious, and that our latest Posterity may be governed by a Prince descended from the most illustrious House of Hanover.

The following Address of the Mayor and Capital Burgeses, Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Falmouth, Recorder of the said Borough, and the Honourable Major Boscawen, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Capital Burgeses, Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, being truly sensible of the great Loss the Nation hath sustained, by the sudden and unexpected Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on this melancholy Occasion; and, at the same Time, we take the Liberty (amidst the universal Acclamations of a free and united People) to testify our Joy at your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, and to beseech your Majesty to accept our sincere Congratulations on this great Event.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Town of Tenby in the County of Pembroke.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects of this ancient and loyal Borough, beg Leave to unite with the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, in our sincere Congratulations on your Accession to the Throne of these Realms; which has given us great Consolation in our Day of Trouble, for the Loss of our late Sovereign your Royal Grandfather, whose Virtues adorned the Crown he wore, and distinguished it with eminent Lustre amongst all the Thrones of Europe. We must, with great Gratitude, always acknowledge, that He was a very able Pilot to these Kingdoms, in a very stormy and dangerous Season; when several mighty Princes of the Papal Religion had collected their whole Strength to overwhelm the Protestant Interest in Germany. This engaged him in a necessary War in Alliance with the magnanimous King of Prussia; and Heaven has given very fair Testimonies to the Justice of his Cause, by the many signal Victories that he and his Allies obtained in the various Prosecutions of it. But he lived not long enough to see His Labours crowned with a General and Honourable Peace. The Glory of Effecting this, we hope is reserved to the peculiar Felicity of your Majesty's Reign; and your Majesty's known Virtues, formed on the Model of your Royal Grandfather's, afford us the most comfortable Assurances of it. We see, with great Pleasure, your Majesty on your first Entrance on the Throne, recommending to your Subjects the Practice of True Religion and Virtue: May we all unite to promote these gracious and good Designs of your Majesty, that your Throne, already guarded by the Love and Affection, may be further established by the Righteousness of your People. Thus we may hope, that the God of all Mercies will favourably accept our Prayers for your Majesty's long and prosperous Reign over us; and entirely subdue before you those haughty Enemies, who, whilst in a Condition to carry on a War, will not accept of any Terms that may insure us a safe and lasting Peace.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the Ninth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, 1760.

The following Address of the Principal Keeper, Deputy Keeper, Commissioners and Writers to the Signet in North Britain, has been presented to His Majesty by Andrew Fletcher, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Burghs of Lauder, Haddington, &c. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Principal Keeper, Deputy Keeper, Commissioners and Writers to your Majesty's Signet, humbly beg Leave to express our sincere Concern for that affecting Loss sustained by your Majesty and this Nation, in the Death of our late most Gracious Sovereign, whose just and equal Government fixed the Hearts of His Subjects, made His Reign happy at home, and glorious abroad.

Permit us, with unfeigned Joy, and with Hearts full of Loyalty and Affection, to congratulate your Majesty's Accession to the Throne. The Unanimity shewn upon this Occasion, is a sure Proof of the well-founded Opinion which your Majesty's Subjects entertain of your Royal Virtues, and must be productive of the best Consequences.

May the Cause of Liberty still prosper under your Majesty's Government; and the Efforts of its Enemies be happily baffled, till thereby Peace is established upon a solid and lasting Foundation: And may your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous over a free and grateful People.

Signed in Presence, and at the Desire of the General Meeting, by

And. Fletcher, Principal Keeper.

WE the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, one of your Majesty's Cinque-Ports, do, with the most unaffected Grief, condole with your Majesty upon the very great Loss your Majesty and the Nation hath sustained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather; a Loss that could not have been retrieved by any other Means, than your Majesty's immediate Succession, on which happy Occasion, we, with true and

and unfeigned Joy, humbly offer to your Sacred Person, our most sincere Congratulations.

As we are gratefully sensible of the Blessings the Nation hath enjoyed, under the wise and just Government of the two Kings of your Royal House, your Majesty's immediate Predecessors; Blessings, which, in former Times, even the most fortunate, have not, for so long a Series of Years, been, in any Degree, equalled; and as we are confident your Majesty will continue them to us, we, from the Bottom of our Hearts, implore the Divine Providence to permit your Majesty long to reign over us; and, when He shall take you to Himself, in the Fullness of your Days and Honour, that there never may be wanting a Prince of your Royal Line to prolong those Blessings to our latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, the sixteenth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixty, and in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Deeply affected with this Intimation of a Disposition which we love and revere, it is with great Joy, that, to the united Voice of your People, we join the humble Expressions of our Confidence in your Majesty's most gracious and upright Intentions. From such Intentions we are assured, that under your auspicious Reign, all national and important Objects will be happily pursued; Piety, Justice, and Virtue protected, and honoured, and every Branch of Learning or Science, which can invigorate or adorn the Manners of your People, eminently encouraged.

It shall be our constant Endeavour, Great Sir, to instill into the Minds of the Youth, committed to our Charge, just Principles of Religion and Loyalty; and, in every Instance, to give Proof of that Ardour, which we partake in common with your Majesty's faithful Subjects, to support your Government, and to maintain the Protestant Succession to the Crown in your illustrious House. We are,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal
Subjects and Servants, your University of Edinburgh.

This Event, as it has filled the Minds of all your Subjects with the most pleasing Hopes of lasting Honour and Happiness to these Kingdoms, has also served to alleviate the Sense of the unexpected and severe Loss, which they sincerely felt, on the Death of their late great and good Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, whose Memory we revere, and whose gracious Attention to this Part of the Kingdom fills our Hearts with the most grateful Respect.

The united Voice and joyful Acclamations of a free and powerful Nation are the happy Omens, which mark the auspicious Beginning of your Majesty's Reign, and convince us, that our Expectations are well founded, that your Majesty's acknowledged Wisdom and Goodness will ever be employed to maintain the Constitution of Great Britain, to cement the Union of the two Parts of this Island, whose Interests are so inseparably connected together, and to promote the Commerce, and real Welfare, of all your Majesty's Subjects.

Confiding in your Majesty's Royal Virtues, that even the remotest Parts of your Dominions shall share in the Protection and Blessings of your Majesty's Government, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our Loyalty and Fidelity shall be equal to that of the most Loyal of your Majesty's Subjects.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of your August Grandfather, of blessed Memory.

To be deprived of one of the best of Kings, under whose mild and fatherly Government his Subjects enjoyed all the National Blessings a free People could wish for, is an Event so afflicting, as would sink us into the deepest Sorrow, if not immediately alleviated by your Majesty's inheriting not only the Throne, but all the Princely Virtues of your Progenitors.

That your Reign over us may be glorious and happy, and your Days prolonged to the utmost Bounds of human Life, will be our ardent and constant Prayers to Heaven.

The Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, of glorious Memory, which we sincerely lament, must, at such a critical Juncture of the publick Affairs, have filled our Hearts with very alarming Apprehensions, if the Knowledge of your Majesty's eminent Virtues, so early conspicuous, had not dissipated our Fears, and raised our Hopes, which last have been greatly enlivened and confirmed by your Majesty's gracious Declaration in Council, of your warm Affection for this your native Country, published to the great Joy and Satisfaction of all your faithful Subjects.

Permit us, Great Sir, to assure you of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and that we will most readily and cheerfully contribute, to the utmost of our Power, to support your Majesty in the Prosecution of this just and necessary War, hitherto attended with such signal Success, until your Majesty shall be enabled to put an End to it by a safe and honourable Peace.

To secure these invaluable Blessings to this Nation has been the favourite Object of your Majesty's Ancestors upon every Occasion, but of none more, than of those, by whose Precepts and Examples your Majesty's Mind has been so happily formed for the Government of your People.

It is with the most exquisite Pleasure and Joy, we read, in your Majesty's most gracious Speech to your Parliament, "Your firm and invariable Resolution to adhere to, and strengthen this excellent Constitution in Church and State, and to maintain the Toleration inviolable."

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Stirling, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign, whose just and glorious Reign will render His Memory ever dear to these Kingdoms.

With the most sincere Joy we congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Your Majesty's early and repeated Declarations of your firm Resolutions to promote the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects, call for the warmest Returns of Duty and Loyalty from a grateful and affectionate People, and give us the fullest Confidence, that the Happiness and Glory of Britain will be carried to its highest Perfection, under the Rule of a Prince, who is not only Heir to the Crown, but to the Virtues of His illustrious Predecessor.

Permit us therefore, Sir, to express our Zeal and Affection for your Royal Person, and to assure your Majesty, that we will, on every Occasion, exert our utmost Endeavours for the Support and Security of your Majesty's Government.

May your Majesty's Councils continue to be guided by Wisdom, and your Arms to be attended with Victory and Success: May your Majesty long be the great Protector of the Religion, Laws, and Liberty of your Kingdoms; and may there never be wanting a Prince of your illustrious House, to perpetuate those Blessings to a brave, free, flourishing, and loyal People.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council and Community of the Borough of Inverbervie.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Town Council and Community of the Borough of Inverbervie, beg Leave, in the most humble Manner, to join in the universal Condolence upon the Death of your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign, by whose steady Pursuit of Measures most conducive to the Honour of His Crown, and Interests of His People, these Measures have been blessed with Success; and to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

We are happy to see, on this Occasion, Party-Division entirely extinguished, Harmony at home, and Success every where attending the British Arms abroad; which give us Hopes, that the Enemies of Great Britain will soon be satisfied, that their Attempts to encroach on the Rights and Liberties of your Majesty's Dominions are in vain, and make them sue for Peace, and accept of it on Terms suitable to your Majesty's Dignity, the Success of your Arms, and Interest of your Subjects.

We with Joy take this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and of expressing our most ardent Wishes, that Almighty God may grant your Majesty Length of Days to sway the Sceptre of these Realms over a People, whose Loyalty and Affections shall make your Reign happy.

Signed by Appointment, Arbuthnot, Provost.

Hague,

Hague, December 23. By the last Advices from the Army, on the other Side of the Weser, under the Command of Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, we find, that his Serene Highness had been under the Necessity of changing the Cantonments of his Troops, and placing them at a Distance from Göttingen, on Account of the Impossibility of supplying them with Provisions and Forage, in their late Situation, from the Inclemency of the Season, and Badness of the Roads; and that his Highness's Head Quarters were on the 15th at Uslar. We hear likewise from Warbourg, that the Troops that were on the Dymel, are gone into Quarters of Cantonments: The British Guards have theirs at Paderborn, where the Marquis of Granby was soon expected.

The greatest Part of the Corps under the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, is gone into Quarters in the Bishoprick of Munster: And the French on the Lower Rhine are quiet in theirs, which reach from Cleves to Cologne.

Marshal Broglio's Head Quarters are at Cassel, and the Army under him extends itself towards the Upper Rhine.

The Letters from Saxony mention nothing material, that has passed there lately: The King of Prussia was at Leipzig, and General O'Donnel at Dresden.

On Thursday last, the 18th Instant, the Princess of Nassau-Weilbourg was safely delivered of a Son, to the great and universal Satisfaction of the People of this Country.

Whitehall, December 16, 1760.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on the 13th Day of this Instant December, between the Hours of Five and Eleven in the Evening, the Dwelling-house of Isaac Pacatus Shard, Esq; at Peckham in the County of Surry, was maliciously attempted to be burned down, by setting Fire to the Bed and Bed-Cloaths of a spare Bed-Chamber, and to the Toilet in the said Room, which stood at such a Distance from the said Bed, as to have no possible Communication with the same; His Majesty, for the better Discovery, and bringing to Justice, the Person or Persons concerned therein, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, to any one of them, except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Bed, Bedcloaths, and Toilet, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. P I T T.

And as a further Encouragement, I the said Isaac Pacatus Shard, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any of the Offenders.

J. P. Shard.
