

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall, on all Occasions, be ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Majesty's undoubted Title ; and we have nothing further to add, but to implore the Divine Providence, by whom Kings reign, and Kingdoms flourish, to grant our most ardent Wishes, that your Reign may be long and glorious, and that our latest Posterity may be governed by a Prince descended from the most illustrious House of Hanover.

The following Address of the Mayor and Capital Burgeses, Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Falmouth, Recorder of the said Borough, and the Honourable Major Boscawen, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting : Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor and Capital Burgeses, Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn in the County of Cornwall.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Capital Burgeses, Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, being truly sensible of the great Loss the Nation hath sustained, by the sudden and unexpected Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on this melancholy Occasion; and, at the same Time, we take the Liberty (amidst the universal Acclamations of a free and united People) to testify our Joy at your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, and to beseech your Majesty to accept our sincere Congratulations on this great Event.

Permit us, Dread Sir, with all Humility, to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your sacred Person and Government; and that our Prayers and most ardent Wishes will ever be, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and glorious, over an affectionate, dutiful, and obedient People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the fifteenth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Town of Tenby, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Owen, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County of Pembroke, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting : Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Town of Tenby in the County of Pembroke.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects of this ancient and loyal Borough, beg Leave to unite with the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, in our sincere Congratulations on your Accession to the Throne of these Realms; which has given us great Consolation in our Day of Trouble, for the Loss of our late Sovereign your Royal Grandfather, whose Virtues adorned the Crown he wore, and distinguished it with eminent Lustre amongst all the Thrones of Europe. We must, with great Gratitude, always acknowledge, that He was a very able Pilot to these Kingdoms, in a very stormy and dangerous Season; when several mighty Princes of the Papal Religion had collected their whole Strength to overwhelm the Protestant Interest in Germany. This engaged him in a necessary War in Alliance with the magnanimous King of Prussia; and Heaven has given very fair Testimonies to the Justice of his Cause, by the many signal Victories that he and his Allies obtained in the various Prosecutions of it. But he lived not long enough to see His Labours crowned with a General and Honourable Peace. The Glory of Effecting this, we hope is reserved to the peculiar Felicity of your Majesty's Reign; and your Majesty's known Virtues, formed on the Model of your Royal Grandfather's, afford us the most comfortable Assurances of it. We see, with great Pleasure, your Majesty on your first Entrance on the Throne, recommending to your Subjects the Practice of True Religion and Virtue: May we all unite to promote these gracious and good Designs of your Majesty, that your Throne, already guarded by the Love and Affection, may be further established by the Righteousness of your People. Thus we may hope, that the God of all Mercies will favourably accept our Prayers for your Majesty's long and prosperous Reign over us; and entirely subdue before you those haughty Enemies, who, whilst in a Condition to carry on a War, will not accept of any Terms that may insure us a safe and lasting Peace.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the Ninth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, 1760.

The following Address of the Principal Keeper, Deputy Keeper, Commissioners and Writers to the Signet in North Britain, has been presented to His Majesty by Andrew Fletcher, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Burghs of Lauder, Haddington, &c. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Principal Keeper, Deputy Keeper, Commissioners and Writers to your Majesty's Signet in North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Principal Keeper, Deputy Keeper, Commissioners and Writers to your Majesty's Signet, humbly beg Leave to express our sincere Concern for that affecting Loss sustained by your Majesty and this Nation, in the Death of our late most Gracious Sovereign, whose just and equal Government fixed the Hearts of His Subjects, made His Reign happy at home, and glorious abroad.

Permit us, with unfeigned Joy, and with Hearts full of Loyalty and Affection, to congratulate your Majesty's Accession to the Throne. The Unanimity shewn upon this Occasion, is a sure Proof of the well-founded Opinion which your Majesty's Subjects entertain of your Royal Virtues, and must be productive of the best Consequences.

May the Cause of Liberty still prosper under your Majesty's Government; and the Efforts of its Enemies be happily baffled, till thereby Peace is established upon a solid and lasting Foundation: And may your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous over a free and grateful People.

Signed in Presence, and at the Desire of the General Meeting, by

And. Fletcher, Principal Keeper.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, one of the Cinque Ports.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, one of your Majesty's Cinque-Ports, do, with the most unaffected Grief, condole with your Majesty upon the very great Loss your Majesty and the Nation hath sustained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather; a Loss that could not have been retrieved by any other Means, than your Majesty's immediate Succession, on which happy Occasion, we, with true and
