AT the Court at St. James's the 31st of December, 1760,
 The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council.

WH E R E A S the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt hath this Day laid before the Council, a Printed Paper, dated the 27th of November, 1760, containing the Resolutions of the Board of Health at Venice; which had been delivered to him by M. Colombo, the Venetian Resident here; whereby it appears, That a Contagious Distemper had broke out at the Town of Sarlata, in the Island of Cephalonia, and that thereupon the Quarantine upon Ships coming from the Islands of the Levant, subject to that Republick, had been increased to Forty Days:—Which Paper being taken into Consideration—It is hereby ordered in Council, that the Quarantine at present subsisting upon all Ships and Vessels coming from those Parts, and from, or through the Mediterranean, be duly and punctually complied with: And that the Officers appointed for the Service of Quarantine, do use their utmost Care and Diligence in causing the several Rules and Regulations established for the due Performance thereof, to be strictly pursued and carried into Execution.—Whereof the said Officers, and all others whom it may concern, are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

TH E following Address of the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer and Governors of the Small-Pox Hospitals, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.
 To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
YO U R Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors of the Small Pox Hospitals, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of our late most excellent Sovereign; and to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, amidst the universal Joy and Acclamation of all your Subjects.

The cheerful and ready Benevolence, with which your Majesty, when Prince of Wales, was pleased to accept the Patronage of the Small Pox Hospitals, encourages us to hope, from your experienced Piety and Humanity, that you will continue your special Protection to these compassionate Establishments, which are the Refuge, and often the Cure of human Wretchedness. We more than hope it, Sir; It were injurious not to be sure of it from a Prince, whose Nature inclines, and whose Power enables him, to relieve, protect and preserve the unhappy,

As your Majesty's Metropolis justly boasts the Honour of having first opened a Mansion for the Reception of poor Persons, desirous of being inoculated: And, as to the great Example of your Majesty's own August Family, destined by Divine Providence to diffuse a Variety of Blessings through these happy Nations, we owe the first publick Sanction given to this salutary Practice; may it be reckoned amongst the future and amiable Triumphs of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, to have finished the great Work which has been begun amongst us with so much disinterested Benevolence, to have conquered the Remains of Prejudice in your People; and, by the Influence and Authority of your revered and beloved Name, to have occasioned the universal Observation of a Practice so well calculated for the Preservation of the human Species.

We join our sincere Prayers to the united Vows of all the rest of your Subjects; that your Majesty may enjoy every Happiness in this Life, which Peace, Health, Riches, Length of Days, and, what is more than all of them, conscious Virtue can procure; and, in the next, may be crowned with a blessed Immortality.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
 The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings in the County of Suffex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person, with our sincere Condoleance on the great Loss which your Majesty, and this Nation, have sustained by the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign; and, at the same Time, humbly to offer our most zealous and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

Your Majesty's known Regard for, and declared Resolution to support our Excellent Constitution in Church and State; and the many amiable and Princely Qualities, conspicuous in your Majesty, from your earliest Youth, concur to render you the Object of the universal Love and Admiration of your Subjects, who may justly promise themselves the Enjoyment of all possible Happiness, in the Course of a Reign, the Beginnings of which are so eminently distinguished by the most signal Successes abroad, and the most perfect Unanimity at home.

May a Continuance of the Divine Blessing upon your Majesty's Arms and Councils, enable you soon to put an End to a burthensome, though glorious, War, by an honourable and lasting Peace; and may your Majesty's Reign over us be as long, and as prosperous as that of any, the most renowned of your Royal Predecessors.

Given under our Common Seal the Tenth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Capital Inhabitants of the Villages and Parishes of Gravensend and Milton, in the County of Kent, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of Condoleance and Congratulation of the Corporation of Gravensend and Milton, in the County of Kent.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Capital Inhabitants of the Villages and Parishes of Gravensend and Milton, in the County of Kent, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to express the deep Sense we have, of the great Loss the Nation, and we in particular ticular have sustained, in the Death of your late Royal Grandfather.

Permit us, dread Sir, to pay this grateful Tribute to the Memory of a Prince, whose gracious Presence has often filled our Hearts with Joy; and whose unexampled Goodness (when a dreadful Fire had laid our Towns in Ashes) relieved our Wants in our Distress, and raised us from Despair.

Highly sensible of our present Blessings, we congratulate your Majesty on your glorious Accession to the Throne of your Illustrious Ancestors: The happy Prefages of your Majesty's future Conduct, elevates our Minds with the most exalted and pious Expectations; and your most gracious Declaration of your Majesty's tender Affection for your native Country, must for ever warm the Heart of every honest Briton, with uncommon Rapture.

May God grant your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign, over a grateful, obedient, and united People: That your Enemies (sensible of your Strength in that Union) may soon be reduced to Reason; and that a solid and lasting Peace may be the Issue of your Majesty's wise and prudent Measures.

Given under our Common Seal the Second Day of December; One Thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, having been transmitted by Gavin Mitchell, their Moderator, to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Allow us to express our deep Sorrow, and to condole with your Majesty upon the Death of our late Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, whose mild and good Government rendered him also the common Father of all his Subjects; and whose many Virtues, together with that remarkable Success, with which God blessed his Designs for the Good of his People, make us remember his Reign with Gratitude and Pleasure, and will make all Posterity look back to it as a most shining and happy Period in the British History.

But, while we justly lament this Loss, we rejoice in the Goodness of God, who hath raised up a Prince among ourselves, a Briton to reign over us, who is not only the Heir of the Family, but likewise of the Virtues of his illustrious Predecessor; one who hath already convinced even the meanest Subjects in this distant Part of His Dominions, that He highly regards the Religion and Liberties of His People, which He hath declared to be as dear to Him as the most valuable Prerogatives of His Crown.

Permit us to thank your Majesty, in Name of all Lovers of Religion, in this Part of your Dominions, for that publick Concern you have already shewn for the Cause of Religion and Virtue. This gives us the most pleasing Prospect, that, (when, in your early Years, Piety appears so eminently in your Character) Righteousness shall exalt her Head, and all Impiety and Vice be ashamed. That Religion, shining from the Throne, shall extend its Influence, till it become universal: And that, that God, who regards those who seek Him, will perfect what concerns us as a People, and, by your Majesty's Administration, defend us from all Attempts which may be formed against our valuable Rights.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, as your Royal Proclamation strengthens our Hands in what it is most our Desire to promote, we shall the more eagerly apply ourselves (with God's Assistance) to co-operate with your Majesty's laudable Intention, for encouraging Piety and Virtue, and for preventing Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality: And we shall not fail to use the additional Arguments, with which this supplies us, for recommending, in the strongest Manner, Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

It is our constant and earnest Prayer to God, that Wisdom from above, may guide your Majesty's Councils, and the Divine Aid may support your Administration. That your Throne may be greater than the Throne of your Ancestors: That you may reign till you are full of Days and Honour, a Blessing to your Subjects, and all Mankind; and obtain at last a Crown of Glory that fadeth not away: And that Britain may, till latest Posterity, remain a free and happy People; under a Succession of Princes of your August Family.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Synod at Aberdeen, the Twenty-third Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixty, by

Gavin Mitchell, Moderator.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Free-Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltash, in the County of Cornwall, has been presented to His Majesty by John Cleveland, Esq, Recorder of the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Free-Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltash, in the County of Cornwall.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Free-Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of this Borough, beg Leave to express our Sorrow for the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather; and, at the same Time, to assure your Majesty, that our Hearts are filled with the greatest Joy on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

We desire, in the most grateful Manner, to express our unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, that you will, in every Thing, promote the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, and strengthen the Constitution both in Church and State.

We, on our Parts, will always, to the utmost of our Power, cheerfully contribute to the Support of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown in your Illustrious House; and, on all Occasions, give incontestable Demonstrations of your Loyalty, Zeal and Obedience to your Majesty.

That your Majesty may long be a Blessing to these Kingdoms; that you may be able to shew all Europe the Power of a British King, when supported with the Hearts of His Subjects; and that you may never want One of your Illustrious Family to reign over us, shall be the continued Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall, the first Day of January, 1761.

St. James's, January 5.

Whitehall,

Whitehall, January 3, 1761.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Wednesday Night, the 17th of December last, a Fire broke out in a Barn, in Spinham Land, near Newbury, Berks, belonging to James Payton, in the Occupation of Adam Andrews, which there is great Reason to believe was wilfully set on Fire; and, on the succeeding Night, a Barn, near, adjoining to the above, belonging to Joseph Andrews, Esq; in the Occupation of Abraham Sandy, was attempted to be set on Fire by some malicious and ill-disposed Persons; His Majesty, for the better Discovery, and bringing to Justice, the Person or Persons concerned therein, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person that actually did set Fire to the said Barn) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so as he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. PITT.

And as a farther Encouragement, the above Joseph Andrews, Esq; of Shaw near Newbury, Berks, and James Payton, of North Folgate, in the County of Middlesex, do promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid on the Conviction of any of the Offenders.

Jos. Andrews.
