THE following Address of the Painters, Sculptors, and Architects, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

AMIDST the general Emulation of Loyalty with which all Orders of your Majesty's Subjects have testified their Duty, Zeal, and Veneration, to receive this humble Address from those who must owe, in a particular Manner, their Success and Eminence to Royal Notice.

Your Majesty's early Patronage of the politer Arts has given the Painters, Sculptors, and Architects, Confidence to express, in your Royal Presence, their Sorrow for the Death of their late gracious Sovereign, and their Joy for your Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

It is our Happiness to live in the Age, when our Arts may hope for new Advances towards Perfection, assisted by the Favour of a British King, of a Monarch no less judicious to distinguish, than powerful to reward; who knows the Usefulness and Value of that Skill, which delights the Eye with Beauty, but not corrupts the Manners by unlawful Passions, and which has been hitherto learned in Foreign Countries, for Want of sufficient Encouragement in our own.

The present Felicity of your Majesty, who rules over a People, blessed at the same Time with the Triumphs of Conquest, and the Plenty of Peace, leaves us nothing to desire but its long Continuance. May You live many Years to reform our Manners, and regulate our Taste; to make the Arts of Elegance subservient to Virtue and Religion; to bestow Happiness upon us, and teach us to enjoy it.

The following Address of the Magistrates, Town-Council, and other Inhabitants of the Burgh of Cullen, having been transmitted by the Lord Deskford, to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Town-Council, and other Inhabitants of the Burgh of Cullen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly presume to approach your Majesty, and to express our deep Concern for the Death of our late Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, and to offer our humble Congratulations to your Majesty, upon your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

This Burgh was zealous for the Union, by which the Succession in your Majesty's Royal Family was established, and the inward Peace and Prosperity of Great Britain put upon the most secure Footing.

It has been uniformly and inviolably attached to your Royal Progenitors; and we will constantly pray for the Glory and Happiness of your Majesty's Reign, and that your Descendants may possess this Crown undisturbed to the latest Posterity.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Cullen, December 29, 1760, by James Hope, First Magistrate.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Principal Burgesses, and Assistants, of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, has been presented to His Majesty, by the Right Honourable William Pitt, Esq; one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Principal Burgesses, and Assistants, of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Principal Burgesses, and Assistants, of your Town and Borough of Okehampton, in the County of Devon, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty, on the great Loss this Nation has sustained, by the Death of our late most gracious King your Royal Grandfather; a Loss which could only have been supplied by the Accession of one, of your Majesty's princely Virtues, and Integrity of Heart, to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, heartily to congratulate your Majesty, and sincerely to rejoice with the rest of your honest Subjects, in your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

From your Majesty's Declarations to your faithful People, we have no Doubt of enjoying, under your Majesty's Guardianship and Protection, both our Religious and Civil Rights, in their full Extent. And, as the Business of Government is naturally accompanied with much Care and Trouble, and frequent Disappointments, we will exert our utmost Duty, to render your Majesty's Reign, which we earnestly trust will be long and glorious, as easy and happy, as the Nature of your Royal Office will admit; and when your Majesty's Labour and Toil shall be finished here; we sincerely wish and pray that your Majesty may inherit that Crown which can alone be enjoyed in full Happiness.

Signed,

Tho. Pitt, Recorder.

By his Deputy, and by the Direction of the Mayor and Corporation.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of Nairn, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable William Pitt, Esq; one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of Nairn.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your Town of Nairn, in the humblest Manner, beg Leave to lay before your Majesty, the most sincere and hearty Acknowledgments of our zealous and inviolable Attachment to your sacred Person and Government; and, at the same Time, to present our most hearty Congratulations upon your Majesty's Succession to the Throne, long happily filled by your most illustrious Grandfather, our late gracious Sovereign of blessed Memory! A Prince whose paternal Goodness, splendid Virtues, and admirable Endowments, did strengthen an excellent Constitution, made happy, for many Years, a grateful People, and are now set up a glorious Pattern of Imitation to Kings desirous to approve themselves to the great Ruler of Heaven and Earth, and to the Nations over which they may be appointed to sway the Sceptre.

The affecting Death of a Sovereign, so good, so much beloved, unfitted us, sooner, to testify our Comfort in the Succession of a Prince, who, by the united Voice of the Nation, would have been pointed out as Heir to his Virtues. We now, Sire, Joy to find your happy Subjects blessed in the Fruition of what was then in Prospect. As Britons, we exult in the singular and unprecedented Honour conferred on that Appellation, by your Majesty's vouchsafing to glory in it. As Christians, we rejoice in your professed Patronage of Piety and Virtue. As Protestants, in the Security of the established Churches, and of a prudent Toleration. As free Subjects, we triumph in the Assurance of your Majesty's Love of Liberty, of your maintaining inviolable the Rights of your People, and of your making their Happiness and Interest a Rule of Government.

The Prince, blessed with such Goodness of Heart and Discernment to adopt and establish so wise and constitutional a Plan of Government, stands insured of the Divine Assistance to enable and direct him in the Execution of it, and effectually secures to himself the Love, Affection, and cheerful Obedience of a free, happy and grateful People; and being thus strengthened and supported, he will be glorious in Peace, and, to his Enemies, terrible in War.

Given at Nairn, the Twentieth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixty Years, and signed, in Name and Presence of the Magistrates and Town-Council, by

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Dorset, has been presented to His Majesty by Ralph Willet, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, accompanied by George Pitt, and Humphry Sturt, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen and Clergy of your County of Dorset, humbly beg Leave to entreat your Majesty to accept our Condoleance upon the great Loss this Kingdom has sustained by the Death of our late Gracious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather; and likewise our faithful Expressions of unfeigned Joy, at seeing this Loss happily supplied by the Accession of your Majesty to the Throne.

Permit us, likewise, to tender our humble and most sincere Assurances of Duty and Affection; and suffer us to add, that the truly magnanimous Regard which your Majesty has so generously shewn to your People, fills our Hearts with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude and Veneration.

We further crave Permission to assure your Majesty, that it is our earnest Desire, to the utmost of our Power in our several Capacities, to discharge the Trusts committed to our Care with Diligence and Effect; and agreeably to your Majesty's Royal Injunction (and most illustrious Example) to promote true Religion, to preserve good Order and Decency, to suppress Vice and Immorality; and, in every Respect, to contribute our best Endeavours towards carrying on your Majesty's Government.

We shall pray, that the Joy with which you have filled all Hearts, may be the constant Companion of your own, through a long, and, by every great and good Event, a distinguished Reign; and that there never may be wanting, in your illustrious House, a Prince to perpetuate the Virtues and amiable Endowments of your Majesty, your Royal Grandfather and Father; and to transmit our present Felicity to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Derby, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Derby.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Derby, beg Leave most humbly to present to your Majesty our hearty and united Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

We acknowledge and adore the Goodness of Providence in the great and signal Blessings vouchsafed to these Nations, throughout the long and glorious Reign of our late most Excellent Sovereign, your Majesty's illustrious Grandfather. And whilst we feel the severe and affecting Loss which your Majesty, your Kingdoms, and all Europe have sustained by his Death, we cannot but exult in the pleasing Confidence that his Virtues still live in your Majesty; and, that the same Justice, Mercy, and Truth, the same Wisdom, Firmness, and Magnanimity, by which his Memory is rendered for ever dear and sacred to his People, are innate Principles in your Majesty's Royal Breast, and a sure Pledge of Glory and Happiness to all your Subjects.

Bound by all the Ties of Duty and Affection to your Majesty's sacred Person, and filled with humble Gratitude for your most gracious Declarations to your Parliament, happy are we in offering to your Majesty a Tribute ever acceptable to the true Father of his People, that of our Hearts; there your Dominion

nion is absolute, where alone it would be grateful to your Majesty.

Truly sensible therefore of our national Happiness as Britons, and confident of enjoying it in the utmost Extent under a Prince, who himself glories in that Name, we humbly assure your Majesty, that our Lives and Fortunes will ever be most cheerfully devoted to defend your sacred Person and Government; and we humbly beg, that your Majesty will graciously please to accept this our first Testimony of Allegiance as an earnest Assurance of our future Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, Nobility, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Stafford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl Gower, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, Nobility, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Stafford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
W E your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, Nobility, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Stafford, beg Leave to express our Concern for the Death of His late Majesty your Royal Predecessor, under whose mild and glorious Government we have been blessed with the Enjoyment of our Civil and Religious Liberties.

Permit us, at the same Time, Great Sir, to congratulate you upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, and to express our highest Veneration for those great and amiable Accomplishments, which are so conspicuous in your Majesty, and demonstrate to us, that you not only inherit the Crown of Great Britain, but all the Virtues that ever adorned it.

We cannot reflect on the dreadful Calamities attending this most just and necessary War, though crowded with the utmost Successes, without wishing for the Return of Peace, and a Period to the Effusion of Christian Blood. We know how warmly these Sentiments are cherished in your Royal Breast, and rely upon your Majesty's Wisdom, directed by the Providence of God, and assisted by the ablest Councils, to restore, in due Time, the Tranquillity of Europe upon a firm and lasting Foundation.

It gives us great Pleasure, and must afford your Majesty the highest Satisfaction, to find no other Content amongst your Subjects, than what arises from a noble Emulation to excel each other in Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We wish this Harmony may long continue, and that your Majesty's Reign may be happy and prosperous over a brave, glorious, and united People.

Dated at Stafford the Twenty-ninth Day of December, in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders of County of Selkirk, has been presented to His Majesty by Gilbert Elliot, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Selkirk.

It please your Majesty,
U S permit us, your faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Selkirk, to approach the Throne, under the unfeigned Impression of Grief, for the Loss which these Kingdoms have sustained, by the Death of His late Majesty.

To be deprived of a King, whose Heart was actuated by every Princely Virtue; who loved, and was beloved by His Subjects; who raised these Realms to their present Height of Glory; and who was snatched from us, before he attained the darling Object of His Victories, the procuring to His People, and to all Europe, the Benefit of a just and solid Peace, must, in a sensible Manner, affect the Minds of grateful Subjects, who lived and rejoiced under the benign Influence of such a Reign.

But, from these melancholy Views, we naturally turn our Eyes towards the Royal Successor on the Throne. We see your Majesty assuming the Reins of Government with such pious Regard to Religion and Morality, such firm Resolutions to secure and maintain the happy Constitution of this Kingdom, as denote a superior Greatness of Mind, cultivated by all the Advantages of a Princely Education, and excited by the Example of your Illustrious Ancestors. A Reign, begun under these happy Auspices, must gladden the Hearts of your dutiful Subjects, and afford certain Presages of their enjoying the Happiness, of living under a truly Patriot King.

In Confidence that we, and our Posterity, shall, under the Protection of your Majesty's Government, continue a free and flourishing People, we beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, upon your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, to assure your Majesty of our invariable Duty and Obedience, and to join in the unanimous Prayer of your Subjects, that a Prince, who glories in being a Briton, may enjoy a long, illustrious, and happy Reign over British Subjects.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting at Selkirk, the Twenty-second Day of December, 1760.

As we are desirous of being equally engaged in the universal Joy which now overspreads the whole Nation, on your Majesty's ascending the Throne of these Kingdoms, permit us therefore, among the numerous and hearty Congratulations of the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, to beg your Majesty's Acceptance of these, which we here most humbly presume to lay at your Royal Feet.

Happy are we in seeing the glorious Plan laid by your Majesty's Royal Ancestor, now handed down to your Majesty, as it were the Divine Will, that your Majesty should perfect what He began.

The Regard your Majesty hath been pleased to express for your native Country, and the early Hopes your Majesty has given, of protecting the Religion, Laws, and Liberties, and of securing the true Interest and Prosperity of your Kingdoms, are distinguishing Marks of your Majesty's upright Intentions: Such invaluable Blessings fill our Hearts with the most sincere Affections and warmest Attachments to your Majesty's most Sacred Person, and demand the most dutiful and grateful Acknowledgments of your faithful Subjects, and cannot fail of producing the most sanguine and ardent Wishes of every true Briton, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People.

Given under our Hands at the Borough aforesaid, this nineteenth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriff, Bailiffs and Burgeses of your Town, and County of your Town of Haverfordwest, beg Leave to condole your Majesty upon the Loss of our late most Excellent Sovereign, and also to congratulate your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, the only Relief of your Subjects under so afflicting a Disaster.

The many Princely Qualities wherewith your Majesty is naturally endowed; the constant Improvement in all virtuous Principles, under the Care and Example of your late Illustrious Grandfather, and of that most Incomparable Princess your Mother (whom God long preserve) that amiable Declaration of Love to your native Country; and fixed Resolution to support and strengthen the national Constitution in Church and State; and, above all, that Christian Zeal for true Religion, so amply testified by your Majesty's Proclamation for the Encouragement of Piety and Goodness, and discountenancing of Vice, are such promising Tokens of the Continuance of Divine Providence in our Favour, as justly fill our Hearts with the greatest Hopes, and most sanguine Expectations.

In Return for which, and to alleviate, as much as in us lies, the Burthen devolved upon your Majesty, we do solemnly assure your Majesty of an affectionate Attachment to your sacred Person and Government; a cheerful and invariable Loyalty, and an ardent Contention, to the utmost of our Power, to render your Majesty, as you are the Delight of your own People, so the Glory of all the Earth.

May the Supreme Being, whose Honour your Majesty has so much at Heart, make us long happy in your personal Government; and after a late Translation of your Majesty to His eternal Kingdom, may He still vouchsafe to these Nations the Blessing of being governed by one of your August Family till Time shall be no more.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of our Corporation to be hereto affixed, this Twenty-ninth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

From the tender Regard which your Majesty has graciously professed for your native Country, and from your Majesty's many eminent Virtues, we have the greatest Reason to expect a Continuance and Improvement of these Invaluable Blessings which we have enjoyed under your glorious Ancestors.

We add our Prayers to the Almighty, that He will be pleased to pour down His choicest Blessings on your Majesty, and make your Majesty's Reign long and prosperous over a loyal, grateful, and affectionate People.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Forfar.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Borough of Forfar, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, in the most humble Manner, to express our deep and sincere Concern for the Death

Death of our late Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, of glorious Memory, under whose mild and just Administration his People have been made happy, by a steady Pursuit of Measures at once conducive to the Interest of the Nation, and to the Glory of his Reign.

At the same Time we cannot fail to testify our grateful Sense of the Divine Goodness, in alleviating our Grief, upon this sudden and important Loss, by the Accession of a Prince, the Heir of his Virtues, as well as his Kingdoms.

Permit us therefore to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Crown of these Realms, at a Time when all Party Divisions are at an End; when all Hearts are animated with Loyalty to their Sovereign, and Love to their Country; and when the Councils and Arms of Britain are crowned with Success and Honour.

We, with Hearts full of Joy, take this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and of expressing our most ardent Wishes, that the same kind Providence which has raised your Majesty to the Throne, may render your Reign, over a grateful People, long and prosperous, and continue the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House to the End of Time.

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Provost, Magistrates, and Council of Forfar:
Signed in their Name, and by their Appointment,
Forfar, Dec. 19, 1760. John Ure, Provost.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Clackmannan, beg Leave to express to your Majesty the due Sense we have of the great Loss which these Kingdoms have sustained by the Death of our late most excellent Sovereign. The long Experience which we had of His gracious, wise, and equitable Government, will render His Memory ever most dear to us.

So great a Loss, at this critical Conjunction, would be severely felt, did we not see the Throne again filled by a Prince, whose early Virtues inspire us with the greatest Hopes; and your Majesty's repeated Declarations give us the fullest Assurance, that the Liberties and Interest of these Nations will be secured, and their Glory receive Addition under your auspicious Reign.

Permit us, therefore, with the greatest Duty, Affection and Loyalty, to congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and to assure you, that, at all Times, we will most cheerfully join our utmost Endeavours for the Support and Defence of Majesty's Person and Government.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous over a free, happy and grateful People; and the Crown of these Realms descend to your Posterity to the latest Ages.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment,
December 20, 1760. T. Erskine, Preses.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Banff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Banff, with Hearts full of Duty and Affection, beg Leave to address your Majesty on this most interesting and important Occasion.

Your Majesty's Subjects in this Part of the united Kingdoms, have the justest Cause to join the general Condolence, and to lament the Loss of our late most Excellent and Gracious Sovereign; and we are also bound to offer a particular Tribute of Gratitude to his Memory.

We shared, in common with all His People, the Glory and Benefit of His successful Achievements in War, and the Protection of Laws, with the secure Enjoyment of Liberty and Property, in Peace. But we must ever, with the warmest Gratitude, remember, that, under His Reign, those inestimable Blessings of Liberty and Property were farther secured, and improved among us, and were extended to the remote and uncivilized Parts of this Country.

His late Majesty, ever averse to severe Measures, by Clemency and generous Treatment conciliated the Minds of His offending Subjects; He hearkened to the Counsels of wise and good Men; and excellent Laws were made, by which many of the Inhabitants of the Highlands, unaccustomed to Civil Government, became an active and useful People. By those Laws they were relieved from Oppression, encouraged and incited to Industry; reformed from lawless Disorders; and, by those Means, the Interest of Scotland was greatly advanced, and the happy Union of both Kingdoms was rendered more complete.

It pleased Heaven to crown those wise and gracious Measures of Government with remarkable Success; His Majesty lived to experience the happy Consequences of them: He lived to see an End of lawless Power and barbarous Manners in every Part of the Island: To see the Property and Possessions of those People secured, the Laws enforced, and Industry prevailing among them; and to behold, with Pleasure, many of those, whom His Mercy had spared, become distinguished for their Fidelity and Vigour in His glorious Service.

We have the firmest Confidence, that the same illustrious Principles of Government; the same Magnanimity in the Protection of War; and the same Justice and Moderation in the Administration of Peace, will continue to be the distinguishing Characters of your Majesty's Government; and, indeed; that the whole Nation have Assurance of every public Blessing, by your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your native Country. And, when other Nations behold your Majesty's Measures uniformly directed for the Glory and Service of your native Kingdom, they will envy the Felicity of your People, who ought always to be sensible of the great Happiness they enjoy, in being governed by a Prince, who will make the Laws the Rule and Measure of His Government.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment,
Alex. Innes, Provost.

Banff, December 19, 1760.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Paisley, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously,

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Paisley.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Paisley, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person, with our Expressions of Condolence, on the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign; whose Loss we cannot but sensibly feel, when we reflect on his long and glorious Reign, over an united, prosperous, and happy People.

At the same Time, we must acknowledge the Goodness of Almighty God, in your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors: As we do humbly congratulate you upon that Event, which is attended with every Circumstance that can render it agreeable to yourself, happy and promising to your People. It gives us Pleasure to observe, That no Prince ever came to a Throne more to the Satisfaction of his Subjects in general; and that the numerous Addresses presented to your Majesty on this Occasion, from so many Bodies, are the sincere, joyful, and unsolicited Expressions of their Loyalty and Love.

We cannot omit taking this Opportunity to say, That, as few Places in your Dominions have more sensibly felt the happy Effects of the Revolution, and the Settlement of the Crown in your Illustrious House, than this Corporation: So, there is none to which we will yield in a firm, unsuspected, universal Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

That your Reign may be long and glorious; That your Kingdom may be still the Seat of Religious and Civil Liberty; and, That you may have the Pleasure to see Piety and Industry ever united, and improving each other by their Union, under your Administration, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and obedient Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of Paisley.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and at our Appointment, by William Caldwell.

The following Address of the Mayor, Common-council, and Burgesses, of the Corporation of Pembroke, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Owen, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County of Pembroke, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Common-Council, and Burgesses, of the Corporation of Pembroke.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to offer our Condolence, for the great Loss of our late and glorious King, your Royal Grandfather, under whose auspicious Reign, we have enjoyed our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, in their full Extent, and the National and Military Glory of this Kingdom has been advanced to such a Degree of Splendour, unknown to former Ages. But Divine Providence, particularly indulgent to the Prosperity of these Kingdoms, has been pleased to alleviate our Afflictions, and to compensate for our Loss, by blessing us with your Majesty; a Prince, who glories in the Name of Briton, equally zealous for the Religious and Civil Liberties of His People; a Prince, possessed too of such amiable and excellent Endowments of Mind, as cannot fail to make a Nation happy. As we rejoice in these glorious Presages of Happiness to your Majesty, and to your People, your Enemies must be greatly dejected at the mortifying Prospect; they must tremble at the Repentment of Britons, unanimous in Affection and Loyalty to their Sovereign, the principal objects of whose paternal Care, appears to be the Honour of God, and Prosperity and Happiness of His Allies, and People.

Long may your Majesty reign over us; and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Offspring to perpetuate the present Lustre and Dignity of the British Throne.

The following Address of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton.

S I R,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Bailiff, and other Principal Inhabitants of your antient Borough of Honiton, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty, on the Loss of our late most excellent Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, whose Reign will be ever recorded as an Era of Happiness and Glory to these Kingdoms.

The Accession of your Majesty to the Throne of your Ancestors, alleviates our Grief on this melancholy Event; as from your innate Goodness, and avowed Regard to Religion, Virtue, our Rights and Liberties, we are encouraged to hope for all the most valuable Blessings a Nation can enjoy.

Permit us to assure your Majesty of our Zeal and unfeigned Loyalty to your Person and Government, and of our ardent Wishes, that your Reign may be long, and in all other Respects attended with the greatest Felicity.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twentieth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

Hague, Jan. 6. By the last Letters from Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Uslar, of the 20th inst, we have an Account of an Affair that passed on the 23d, at Heiligenstadt, where General Luckner, who was posted there with a Corps of between 3 and 4000 Men, was attacked by a Body of 10000 French, under the Command of Count Broglie. The Town being nearly invested on all Sides, General Luckner had no other Method of Retreat, but by the Road that leads to Witzzenhausen, where he gained an advantageous Eminence, from whence he cannonaded the French with such Success, that he secured his Retreat to Scharffenstein without the Loss of a single Man or Horse killed or taken, only of a few wounded in the Affair. But an Officer, with 34 Militia Men, who were left in the Town, were taken. The Loss of the French upon this Occasion, is reckoned at above 300 Men. On the 24th, General Luckner was detached to Heiligenstadt, and, finding the French had left it, retook Possession of it. The other Quarters of Cantonments of the Allied Army have been unmolested. The Marquis of Granby was in his Quarters at Corvey on the Weser, on the 30th inst.

We learn, that the young Prince of Wirtemberg was marched into Swedish Pomerania, to act against the Swedes in those Parts; and that the Duke of Wirtemberg with his Troops, was returned into his own Country.

The last Letters from Leipzig, of the 28th inst, say, That every thing remained in a State of Inaction in that Country.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at s. s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.

The Tincture for Preserving the Teeth, cleanses and takes off all their Foulness, renders them white and beautiful, fastens such as are loose, prevents their Decaying, and entirely cures the Scurvy in the Gums.

The Tincture for the Tooth-ach removes the most raging and violent Pain in a few Minutes, without either corroding the Teeth or affecting the Gums.

The great Demand for these Tinctures having induced several Persons to attempt to counterfeit the same, (some of whom are now under Prosecution) the Publick are desired to observe, that for the Future the Patentee will inscribe his Name on a Label on each Bottle, in the following Manner, T.
