THE following Address of the States of the Island of Jersey, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albermarle, Governor of the said Island: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal and zealous Subjects, the States of your Island of Jersey, most humbly beg your Permission, to mention the deep and unfeigned Grief, which hath filled our Hearts, upon the Decease of your Royal Grandfather, our late ever venerable Sovereign; and, at the same Time, to express our thorough Sense of the peculiar Blessing to these Realms, by your auspicious Majesty's Accession to the Throne, since your Virtues will intitle your Subjects to proclaim, with Exultation, that their late Sovereign is rather renovated, than removed.

The gracious Protection which we were honoured with so many liberal Proofs of, from your Majesty's August Predecessor, will remain indelibly imprinted on our most grateful Hearts: And we most humbly beseech you, Royal Sir, graciously to receive, and benignly to interpret that Gratitude, as a dutiful Pledge of our most fervent Affection, and zealous Attachment to your most Sacred Majesty's Person and Government.

Permit us, great Sir, to give your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our constant Endeavours to maintain and cultivate that Loyalty, which our Ancestors have ever held inviolable.

That Success may continue to attend your Majesty's Arms, and those of your Allies: That you may soon compleat the glorious and unwearied Endeavours of your Illustrious Grandfather, by procuring to your Subjects, a lasting and advantageous Peace; and that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, over a free and grateful People, is the most fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Sacred Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful,
and ever loyal Subjects.

Island of Jersey, January 19, 1761.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the County of Brecon, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Principal Inhabitants of the County of Brecon, humbly beg your Majesty to accept this Testimony of our unfeigned Condoleance and Congratulation on those two late important Events, the ever to be lamented Loss of your Illustrious Grandfather, and your happy Accession to His Throne.

When we look back, we find ourselves bound by all the Ties of Duty, Loyalty and Gratitude, to keep in Memory the constant Protection and Secu-urity of our Religion, Liberty and Property, we so long enjoyed, during the whole Reign of our late beloved Monarch.

When we look forward, a pleasing Prospect opens before us; we behold a Prince ascending the Throne in the full Bloom of Youth; Heir to all the Virtues and Accomplishments, as well as to all the Power and Greatness of his Royal Progenitor; instructed and initiated in the whole Theory of the best constituted Government on Earth, both for Sovereign and Subjects; we hear him celebrated for private personal Virtues: This moral Character, the richest Jewel that can adorn a Crown, is the Theme of every Tongue; and surely no British Subject can ever forget his declared Attachment to his native Country, nor his dignifying the Name of Briton, by applying it to himself.

Conscious of our Happiness, what Tribute can we offer worthy our King's Acceptance? Accept our Hearts, all true Hearts of antient Britons, famed alike for Bravery and Loyalty; more we cannot: expect it be by adding our Prayers to the King of Kings, to grant his Fiat, to realife, to verify, and ripen those great and glorious Things, we see now only in their Dawn.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Town of Brecon, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bailiff, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of your Town of Brecon, in Common Council assembled, humbly crave Leave to join with our Fellow-Subjects in the general Condoleance on the late melancholy Occasion, by the sudden and unexpected Death of our late most Illustrious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, whose mild and gentle Government always endeared him to his faithful Subjects, and whose long and glorious Reign over a free and united People, will ever appear with the most distinguished Lustre in the British Annals; and with humble Submission also to offer to your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors, to which no Prince ever succeeded with such universal Joy, and general Applause and Satisfaction.

Your Majesty's most gracious and early Declaration of your paternal Love and Affection for this your native Country; of your firm Resolution to preserve and maintain our happy Constitution in Church and State, and ardent Desire to make us a great and happy People, cannot but afford us a most pleasing and agreeable Prospect of the many Blessings we shall enjoy from your Majesty's auspicious Administration and Government; and, at the same Time, must fill the Hearts of all your faithful Subjects with the liveliest Sentiments of Joy and Gratitude, and highly merit their Love and Affection, which your Majesty, in your great Wisdom, justly esteems the best Support and Security of your Crown: So we hope to see your Majesty the most powerful of any of your Predecessors; beloved by all your Subjects at home, and justly revered and regarded abroad, as the chief Head and and Support of the Protestant Interest, which cannot but be safe and secure under your Royal Guardianship and Protection.

On our Parts, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most hearty and sincere Affection and inviolable Attachment to your most sacred Person and Government, and to testify our highest Satisfaction, that the Prince who reigns over us, will make the Laws of the Kingdom the Rule of his Government, as those are the Rule and Measure of our Obedience. To which (Great Sir) permit us to add, what are, and ever will be, our most ardent Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long, very long; happy and glorious, attended with all the Favours and Blessings of Heaven. That your Arms, as hitherto they have been, may be ever victorious and triumphant, both at Sea and Land; your Councils unanimous and successful; and that there never will be wanting one of your Royal and Illustrious Line to fill and adorn the Throne, and sway the Scepter of these Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal this Eighth Day of December, 1760.

The following Address of the Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Denbigh, has been presented to His Majesty by Richard Myddelton, Esq; Lieutenant of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Denbigh, in the County of Denbigh, in Common Council assembled.

The following Address of the Society in Scotland for propagating Christian Knowledge, has been presented to His Majesty by the most Honourable the Marquis of Lothian, President of the said Society: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Society in Scotland for propagating Christian Knowledge.

WE the Members of the Society in Scotland for propagating Christian Knowledge, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Expressions of Duty and Allegiance; to congratulate you on your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors; and to testify our deep Concern for the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, the Friend and Father of His People.

This Society, founded by one of your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, cherished and supported by your Great Grandfather and Grandfather, of blessed Memory, retains the most grateful Sense of the Royal Favours received from them; and is encouraged to hope for continued Protection and Favour from a Sovereign, whose public and eminent Regard to our Holy Religion, and tenderest Affection for His Nature Country, distinguish the Commencement of His Reign with the most auspicious Characters.

To spread, and to promote the Knowledge of Christianity among your Majesty's Subjects in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, to extend that Knowledge even to the Indians bordering on your Colonies in North America, to banish the Errors of Popery, and to root out the Principles of Disloyalty from the most remote Corners of this Part of the United Kingdom; these, Great Sir, are the Objects of the Attention and Labours of this Society; while, at the same Time, co-operating with the wise and gracious Measures of the Legislature, we endeavour to introduce into the most distant Parts of this Island the Arts of Industry, Manufacture, and Agriculture; Arts which continue to flourish in other Parts of your Majesty's Dominions, to an Extant unknown in any former War.

Animated with the Hopes of rendering ourselves still more worthy of your Royal Favour and Protection, encouraged, as we have been, by charitable Aids from your Majesty's Subjects in Great Britain and Ireland, and excited by the good Success we have already had, we go on with Alacrity and Pleasure, humbly imploring the Blessing of Heaven upon our Endeavours; and praying to that God, who hath promised to honour those who honour Him, that He may make your Majesty's Reign long and prosperous, over a free, happy, and united People.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of a General Meeting of the above Society,

Your Majesty's early Declaration, your innate Goodness and virtuous Education, give full Assurance that our excellent Constitution will not only be maintained, but strengthened, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign: That it may be long and glorious, and that your Posterity, inheriting the Virtues of their Ancestors, may ever sway the Sceptre of these Realms, over a free, brave, and united People, is our most fervent Prayer.

The Two following Addresses have been presented to His Majesty by Richard Jackson, Esq; one of the Members in the late Parliament for the Town of Colerain, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most Dutiful and Faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Colerain, do humbly presume to condole with your Majesty on the late melancholy Event of the Death of your Royal Grandfather.

It is with the highest Gratitude we remember the Happiness this Nation enjoyed, under his truly Paternal Government; the most inveterate Prejudice is unfurnished with one single Instance of his deviating from our established Laws. We think it our indispensable Duty, as it is with the warmest Affection, we now offer our Congratulations to your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Realms; and to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government. The Instances you have already given in the Morning of your Reign, afford the happiest Prefages of the many Blessings we may expect under your Auspicious Government, and fill the Heart of every Person who hath any Regard for the Prosperity of these Kingdoms, with the deepest Sense of Gratitude, and the most ardent Zeal for the Welfare of your Majesty.

May Heaven continue the Royal Line of Hanover to the End of Time, to be a perpetual Blessing and Happiness to this Nation. And we humbly intreat your Majesty to accept our strongest Assurances, that as the Continuance of your precious Life is the Subject of our Wishes and Prayers, so the Support of your Government, the Glory of your Auspicious Reign, and the Preservation of the Protestant Succession in your Royal Family, are, and shall be the invariable Principles and Aim of our Conduct. In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of our Corporation to be hereunto affixed, this 5th Day of December 1760.

Signed by Order,
William Kinkead, Chamberlain.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Colerain, and Kingdom of Ireland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Colerain, humbly beg Leave to express the deep Sense we have of the Loss which your Majesty and these Nations have sustained by the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign Lord King George, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, of Glorious Memory; and to offer our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, it being a great Alleviation of our Grief, that all those amiable Virtues which so highly adorned your Royal Progenitors, are so eminently conspicuous in your Majesty.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration in Council, demands the most ample Return of Duty, Gratitude; and Confidence, from all your Subjects: It plainly evincing your warmest Attention to our Constitution in Church and State; a Constitution so excellently formed, that as it gives Liberty to the People, it gives Power to the Prince, and mutually supports the Prerogative of the one, and the Rights of the other.

As, under the Auspices of your Royal Grandfather, Vigour and Integrity in Council, Courage and Activity in Action, have raised the Honour and Credit of these Nations to the highest Extent; so may the God of Unity and Concord crown your Endeavours to restore to them, what was ever his most ardent Wish, that invaluable Blessing, a lasting and honourable Peace.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Wigton, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The most humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Wigton.

May it please your Majesty,
WE your very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of your ancient Burgh of Wigton, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to lay ourselves at your Majesty's Feet, mingling our Sorrow with your's and that of your Dominions, for the Loss of our late most Excellent Sovereign, your Royal and Illustrious Grandfather: A Loss that would have fallen more heavy upon your Majesty's Kingdoms, and all Europe, especially the Protestant Interest therein, had not the early Knowledge of your Majesty's Princely Virtues, manifested by a recent and ready Declaration of your own, since confirmed by every Act of your Administration, satisfied the World, that you were pointed out by Heaven to be a great and worthy Successor to govern a free and happy People, made so by the Paternal Care of your Illustrious Ancestors.

We adopt every Sentiment of Duty, Loyalty, and Congratulation, that have reached your Royal Ear, from our many Fellow-Subjects, on your happy Accession to the Throne, and on the Steadiness and glorious Success of your Councils, rejoicing from the Bottom of our Hearts, that these Sentiments are so universal.

Though in Point of Place, we this your Ancient, and Royal and Loyal Burgh, be distant from the Throne; yet we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our utmost Zeal and Affection for your Royal Person and Illustrious House, even equal to those who are warned by the nearer Rays thereof.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your Royal Burgh of Whitehern.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Whitehern, most humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, to express our sincere Grief for the Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, under whom, for many Years, we were protected in our Civil and Religious Liberties in the most ample Manner: And to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Imperial Throne of these Kingdoms; a happy Pledge, that ourselves and Posterity shall long remain in the same peaceable and prosperous Condition.

With Hearts full of Loyalty we testify our sincere Joy, that in a Juncture so critical, when the Eyes of all Europe are fixed upon the Conduct of Great-Britain, it has pleased the all-wise God, who has endowed your Majesty with so many Royal Virtues, to call you to the Government of a powerful and united People, in this your native Country.

May the same Almighty and Over-ruling Providence inspire your Councils with Wisdom, give Success to your Fleets and Armies, and prosper your Princely Inclinations to restore Peace to Europe: And may we continue to enjoy those Blessings, of which we have so true and grateful a Sense, under a Prince of your Illustrious Line, to the latest Period of Time.

Signed in our Name, at our Appointment, and in our Presence, at Whitehern, this Twentieth Day of January, 1761.

WE the Bailiff, Burgesses, Principal Freeholders and Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Borough of Haslemere, in the County of Surry, beg Leave to express our unfeigned Sorrow for the Loss these Nations have lately sustained.

on your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Illustrious Ancestors.

May God long preserve your Majesty a Blessing to your People, and the Delight of Mankind.

The three following Addresses having been transmitted to His Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Incorporated Society in Dublin, for promoting English Protestant Schools in Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Incorporated Society in Dublin, for promoting English Protestant Schools in Ireland, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere Condolence on the Demise of your Illustrious Grandfather, our late most Gracious Sovereign, whose eminent Virtues will for ever live in the Hearts of a grateful People, and whose Patronage of this Society, founded by His pious Care, and supported by His Royal Bounty, renders His Memory the peculiar Object of our highest Veneration.

Permit us, Sir, at the same Time, with Hearts duly thankful for the Providential Goodness of that Great Being, by whom Kings reign, to join in the universal Congratulations of your Kingdoms upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your August Ancestors.

When we review the Annals of your Majesty's immediate Predecessors, the Guardian Rulers of a free and willing People, and ambitious only to vindicate the Civil and Religious Rights of Mankind: When we reflect, that in your early Years your Majesty's tender Mind was formed with the utmost Care to the Imitation of those shining Patterns; and when with equal Joy and Admiration, we contemplate your Majesty's immediate and earnest Attention to preserve and strengthen our Excellent Constitution in Church and State, and your Royal Authority first exercised in Support of Religion and Virtue, what Blessings may we not assuredly promise ourselves from the benign Influence of your auspicious Government.

May the Stability of wise and able Counsels lighten the Weight of Care incumbent upon Royalty: May your Gracious Intentions and Endeavours for the Prosperity of your People, be crowned with perpetual Success: May your Royal Virtues be the Objects of universal Imitation, as they justly are, of affectionate Respect and Admiration: And may your Reign, through a long Series of Years, be attended with equal Glory to your Majesty, and Felicity to all your People.

It is the great End of this Society to rescue the Children of the Poor in this Kingdom, from Superstition, Sloth, and Disaffection; and, by proper Instruction and early Labour, to make them, in due Time, good Protestants, useful Members of the Commonwealth, and loyal and dutiful Subjects; and we humbly confide in your Majesty's Wisdom and Piety, that an Institution, so highly useful and important, will not be deemed unworthy of your Royal Favour and Protection.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Roman Catholics of the Kingdom of Ireland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Roman Catholics of the Kingdom of Ireland, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with this humble Tender of our unfeigned Loyalty, on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

While your Majesty's Subjects, of all Denominations, are now endeavouring to be foremost in the Execution of every Duty towards your Majesty's Person and Government; and while all Circumstances of Affairs at Home, and Abroad, unite for the present Happiness and future Glory of your Reign; permit us to condole with your Majesty, and to pour out our sincere Sorrow for the Loss we have sustained, by the Death of a Monarch, who hath always approved Himself the Common Father of all His People; a Loss, the more sensible on our Part, as the Repose we have so long enjoyed entirely proceeded from His Royal Clemency, and the mild Administration of His Government in this Kingdom.

Ever since the Accession of your Majesty's Royal House to the Throne of these Realms, we have, in a particular Manner, experienced the Paternal Interposition of your Illustrious Predecessors. We, Most Gracious Sovereign, who are so unfortunately distinguished from the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, cannot subsist without a Continuance of the Royal Favour and Protection.

Sensible of the same hereditary Compassion in your Majesty's Breast, we most humbly hope for that Share in the Happiness of your Reign, which our peculiar Circumstances can admit. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our grateful and constant Return of Affection and Loyalty; a Loyalty, which our Conduct has proved, and our Religion enforces; happy! might it intitle us to express a Wish, that, of all your Majesty's dutiful Subjects of this Kingdom, we alone may not be left incapable of promoting the general Welfare and Prosperity of it.

May the Almighty so influence and direct your Majesty's Counsels, through the whole Course of your Reign, that they may be ever productive of real Happiness to all your People! And may that Reign be as memorable for its Duration and Felicity, as for the Greatness and Variety of those Blessings, which we have already so much Reason to expect from it!

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Dublin Society, for promoting Husbandry, and other useful Arts, in Ireland.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dublin Society for promoting Husbandry, and other useful Arts, in Ireland, with all Humility beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Illustrious Grandfather. His Memory must be ever revered by all who enjoyed the Happiness of His auspicious Government, and more especially by this Society, which was incorporated by His Royal Charter, and honoured with the most illustrious and distinguishing Marks of His Protection and Favour. His Majesty's Gracious and beneficent Intention, and His Majesty's Magnificence, as justly excite in us the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude.

At the same Time we presume, with all possible Zeal and Submission, to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on your happy Accession to the Throne, amidst the universal Acclamations of a loyal and affectionate People, who look up to you as the Guardian of their Religious and Civil Liberties, and reflect, with the utmost Pleasure and Satisfaction, on those early Dispositions, so conspicuous in your Majesty, to promote Religion and Virtue, and whatever tends to the Welfare and Prosperity of your Subjects.

Encouraged by these Considerations, we most humbly approach your Throne, with assured Hopes of your Majesty's most gracious Protection, which will enable us more effectually to put in Execution the well intended Design of this Society, the Encouragement of Agriculture, and other useful Arts.

Animated by the strongest Motives of the most respectful Affection and Loyalty, we embrace this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty, that on all Occasions we shall, every one of us, exert our best Abilities in Defence and Support of your Royal Person and Government; and endeavour, as far as in us lies, to render your Reign happy and glorious.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Newgalloway, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Newgalloway.

MAY it please your most Sacred Majesty, to allow us the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Newgalloway, with great Humility to approach your Throne, in order to condole with you on the Loss of our late Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, and to testify our unfeigned Joy on your Majesty's Accession to the Crown.

The Hopes that your Subjects formed to themselves from the early Display of the many Royal Virtues that adorn your princely Mind, are confirmed by every Act of your Majesty's wife and gentle Government, and give them a Certainty of enjoying, under your Protection, all the Rights they derive from the most excellent of all Constitutions, which is a Blessing peculiar to these happy Kingdoms.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and glorious; may Wisdom preside in all your Councils; may Victory ever attend your Standards; may Peace and Prosperity be the Result of your Success; may our Childrens Children be happy to the latest Times under Monarchs of your Illustrious House; and may they ever persevere in those Principles of Duty, Loyalty, and cheerful Obedience, which we feel in ourselves to a Degree, which we want Words to express.

De Lille, and between Two and Three in the Afternoon, she

Copy of a Letter from Capt. Alexander Hood, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Minerva, of 32 Guns, and 220 Men, to Mr. Cleveland, dated at Spithead the 3d of February, 1761.

I beg you will be pleased to acquaint the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 23d of January, at Day-light in the Morning, being in the Lat. of 45° 22' N. Cape Pinas bearing S. by E. distant 30 Leagues, I saw and gave Chase to a large Ship, steering to the Westward, which I soon discovered to be an Enemy of two Decks. At twenty Minutes after Ten, with a fresh Gale Easterly, and a great Sea, I began a close Engagement with her: At Eleven her Main and Fore-top-mast went away, and soon after, she came on board us on the Starboard Bow, and then fell along Side, but the Sea soon parted us, when the Enemy fell a-stern: About a Quarter after Eleven, the Minerva's Bow-sprit went away, and the Fore-mast soon followed it: These were very unfortunate Accidents, and I almost despaired of being able to attack the Enemy again; however, I cut the Wreck away as soon as possible; and, about One o'Clock, cleared the Ship of it, by the Loss of one Man and the Sheet Anchor. I then wore the Ship, and stood for the Enemy, who was then about three Leagues to Leeward of me. At Four o'Clock I came up close to the Enemy, and renewed the Attack. About a Quarter before Five she struck, when Possession was taken of the Warwick, of 34 Guns, but pierced for 60, the same as when she belonged to His late Majesty, commanded by M. le Veger de Belair, who has a King's Commission to rank as Captain of a Fireship, having on Board two hundred and ninety five Men, seventy four of which are a Detachment of King's Troops from the Company of Besson; with two other Officers, and four Passengers; the Latter were destined for Pondicherry. She sailed from Rochfort the 20th of January, and was bound to the Isle of France and Bourbon, loaded with Provisions, Ammunition, and Stores; and, by the Account given me, the Enemy had fourteen killed, and thirty-two wounded. In His Majesty's Ship, the Numbers are, Mr. George Edwards, Boatswain, and thirteen killed; and Mr. John Darracott, Gunner, and thirty-three wounded: The former died on the 27th, and two Seamen. I have given my Thanks to the Officers and Crew of His Majesty's Ship for their firm and spirited Behaviour; and I have great Pleasure in acquainting their Lordships with it. At Nine o'Clock the Main-mast of the Minerva went away; at Eleven the Mizzen-mast followed it. If the Edgar is arrived, Capt. Drake must have acquainted their Lordships, that I took, on the 8th of January, the Ecureuil Privateer, belonging to Bayonne, of Fourteen Guns, and One hundred and twenty-two Men.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.
