

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 10, to Saturday February 14, 1761.

St. James's, February 14.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Lynch Salisbury Cotton, Bart. their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, beg Leave to express our due Sense of the Loss we have lately sustained, by the Death of our most gracious Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather; a Loss we could not sufficiently lament, had it not been alleviated by your Majesty's happy Accession to the Crown of these Kingdoms.

The benign Sentiments, which your Majesty has been already most graciously pleased to declare, fill the Hearts of your most faithful Subjects with the highest Sensations of Joy and Gratitude; and we humbly return your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for your Paternal Goodness, in giving us the earliest Expectations of those Blessings, which we shall undoubtedly enjoy under a King, who, born and educated in this Country, glories in the Name of Briton.

We most sincerely pray, that the Divine Providence may continue to bless your Majesty's Arms with uninterrupted Success; and that by a vigorous Exertion of our National Forces, (conducted with Prudence and Economy) a lasting and honourable Peace may soon be obtained under your Majesty's Auspices, equally conducive to your Majesty's Honour, and the natural Interest of these Kingdoms.

May your Majesty ever reign in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects, and long live to experience the inestimable Blessings arising from the Affections of a great, loyal, and free People.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Flint, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Roger Mostyn, Bart. their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your faithful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, do with all Humility beg Leave to present to your Majesty this Tender of our Duty and Affection.

Be pleased to accept our sincere Thanks for your Majesty's most gracious Concern for the Prosperity of your People. Confident of your Integrity, we love and honour you; and while we lament the Loss of your Royal Grandfather, we do most humbly acknowledge the Goodness of Divine Providence, who, under your Guidance, is pleased to promise us a blessed Continuance of His Care and Protection.

May the King of all Kings continue to direct your Councils; may your Ministers and Servants be faithful to their Trusts; and nothing interrupt the mutual Love between our good Sovereign and his grateful People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Chamberlain, Assistants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Hertford, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Chamberlain, Assistants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Hertford in the County of Hertford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the numerous and repeated Congratulatory Addresses that have been presented to your Majesty from all Parts of your Royal Dominions, permit us, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Chamberlain, Assistants, and Principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Hertford, with the utmost Duty and Loyalty, to join, and to assure your Majesty, with the greatest Sincerity, that our Zeal for your Royal Person, and our Attachment to your Illustrious Family, cannot be exceeded by any of your Majesty's most loyal Subjects.

Gratitude for Benefits received will never suffer us to forget the long Series of Tranquility, which this Nation enjoyed during the just, mild, and glorious Reign of your Royal Grandfather, our late good and gracious Sovereign, whose Paternal Affection for His Subjects, and constant Care of their Welfare, will ever be most gratefully remembered.

A Loss so afflicting, we should never cease to deplore, were we not assured, by your Majesty's earliest Declarations, that the real Good of your People, the Promoting of Religion and Virtue, and the Preservation and Support of our excellent Constitution, are the fixed and determinate Objects of your Majesty's Care and Attention.

And permit us, Great Sir, to add, that a Reign, which begins with such endearing and gracious Declarations, and such prudent and virtuous Resolutions, so greatly conducive to the Publick Welfare, cannot fail to inspire us with the most ardent Wishes for its Continuance; nor can we, in the Fulness of our Hearts, forbear to congratulate our Fellow-Subjects upon the pleasing and happy Prospect which we all have of the Establishment of every Thing most dear and valuable to us, under your Majesty's auspicious Government.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Kildare, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Kildare, in your Kingdom of Ireland, beg Leave to condole with