St. James's, February 21.

HE following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Courtenay, Bart. and Sir Richard Bampfylde, Bart. their Representatives in Parliament, attended by Mr. Courtenay, Mr. Champernowne, General A'Court, Mr. Buller, and Mr. Morshead, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bud-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

A MONGST the Number of loyal and faithful Subjects, who approach your Royal Presence to condole the Demise of our late most gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majesty's happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms; permit us, the High Sherist. Gentlement Cleryw, and permit us, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of your County of Devon, to express the genuine Sentiments of our Hearts on both these most affecting Occurrences.

The Loss of your Royal Grandfather, at a Time when a fleady and uninterrupted Perseverance in those vigorous Measures, which he had so successfully pursued, was of so much Importance to our Country, naturally clouded the Brow of every true Briton: And when we reflected, that this was the same Prince, who, for a long Series of Years, had always consulted the Happiness of His People, no Sorrow could equal that of our grateful Hearts.

But in the Midst of this reasonable Grief, we could not be blind to that indulgent Care of Providence, which so long preserved this precious Life, till Time had matured those Royal Virtues, which wipe all Tears from our Eyes; it seemed an Omen that some mighty Blessing was in Store for us, which was cherished by so signal an Interposition of Divine Fa-

Thus animated, we fee your Majesty ascend the Throne of your Ancestors with perfect Satisfaction; we receive your gracious Assurances of Protection and Love of your Native Country, with that Confidence which is due to your Princely Piety and Virtue; and promise ourselves all that Felicity, which a dutiful People can expect from a tender Father of His Country.

May your Majesty's Reign over us be long and bappy; and may this Æra be marked out to suture Generations, as an Example of Loyalty and Affection in an united People, towards the greatest and best of Princes.

The two following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diccese of Cloyne.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it it please Your Majesty,

If your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Cloyne, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to express the Part which we bear in the common Joy, on Account of your Majesty's happy

Accession to the Crown of these Kingdoms: An Event, which affords to all your faithful Subjects a pleasing Prospect of the Continuance of those signal Blessings, which we enjoyed for many Years, under the wise and equitable Administration of your Royal Predecessor, our late glorious and good King.

Predecessor, our late glorious and good King.

With Hearts, justly sensible of the Gratitude due to the Memory of the best of Kings, we are most truly thankful to Almighty God, for granting us a Successor of His Royal Line, who, directed by His wise Instruction and illustrious Example, hath early cultivated such Principles of Religion and Liberty, and other Royal Virtues, as cannot fail to make him reion in the Hearts of His Subjects.

reign in the Hearts of His Subjects.
Your Majesty's gracious Declaration to your People, and your Royal Proclamation, for the Suppressing Profanencis and Immorality, are to us the most comfortable Pledges, that the same worthy Sentiments, which were early impressed on your Royal Mind; are intended by your Majesty, as the fixed Basis of your suture Reign.

Not to concur with your Majesty's pious and generous Intentions for the Happiness of your People, as far as it is in our Power, would be in us a grievous Neglect of that Duty, which we owe to God, and to your Majesty. We shall therefore, together with our constant and servent Prayers to Almighty God, that He would shower down His choicest Blessings on your Majesty, during the Course of a long and happy Reign, consider it as our indispensible Duty, and make it our constant Care, with the warmest Zeal, to inculcate on the Minds of those committed to our Charge, those Principles of true Religion and Loyalty; which, if duly observed, not only are the surest Means, to obtain us the Protection of that Providence, by which Princes reign, but also have a natural Tendency to make us an happy People, under the Administration of a Wise and Religious King.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgesses and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Y É your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to express our deep-Concern for the Loss of our late most gracious Sovereign.

The uniform and uninterrupted Enjoyment of all our Rights, Civil and Religious, during His benign Reign, His Paternal Care for the Welfare of His People, and His many Royal Virtues, shall ever be had in most grateful Remembrance by us.

Divine Providence hath referved it for your Majesty to supply this great Loss; permit us therefore, Royal Sir, to join in Congratulations on your Accession to the Throne of these Realms, and humbly to tender our Hearts inviolably attached to your Majesty's Sacred Person, the Support of your Majesty's Government, and the Succession of the Crown in your Illustrious House.

May your Majesty long reign in the Hearts of a faithful People; and may your Reign be prosperous and glorious in War, and happy and honourable in Peace.

In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, the Sixteenth Day of January, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and fixty-one.
