AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 9th Day of April, 1761,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council.

This Day the two following Lords Lieutenants took the Oaths appointed to be taken, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, viz.

Essex, William Henry Earl of Rochford.
West Riding of York, and City of York, and County of the same, } Charles Marquess of Rockingham.

St. James's, April 11.

The four following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty, to express our deep and sincere Concern for the Death of our late most excellent Sovereign, your Royal Grandfather, under whose glorious Administration we enjoyed all the Blessings of Freedom, Security, and Happiness.

The heavy Affliction that oppressed us on this melancholy Occasion, could only be removed by our Dependance on your Majesty, whose eminent and conspicuous Virtues insure to us all the Happiness that an indulgent Prince can confer on a loving and grateful People.

We most humbly entreat your Majesty to accept our unfeigned Congratulations on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, which must ever retain its present Splendor, when filled by a Prince of your distinguished Abilities.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall constantly endeavour, by our Loyalty to your Sacred Person, and Zeal for your Service, and the Support of your Government, to deserve and obtain the Continuation of your Royal Favour, and Protection, which we have so happily enjoyed under your glorious Ancestors; and that we shall ever be ready to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, our present happy Constitution in Church and State, which we can only hope to maintain, under a Prince of the Illustrious House of Hanover.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Gentlemen of the Queen's County and Kingdom of Ireland, at a General Assizes and General Goal Delivery held at Maryborough, in and for the said County, the 20th Day of March, 1761.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of these your Kingdoms; a Blessing, which only could retrieve the great Loss of our most excellent Sovereign of glorious Memory.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and happy, that so inestimable a Blessing may be continued to your People: And may we never want one of the Illustrious House of Hanover to sway the Sceptre of Great Britain and Ireland.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, of the County of Meath, assembled at an Assize held at Trim the 28th of February, 1761.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects of the County of Meath, take the earliest Opportunity to express our Loyalty to your Sacred Person, and our Attachment to your Illustrious Family.

The Necessity of raising a Protestant Succession to the Throne of these Realms, for Preservation of Religion and Liberty, cast all discerning Eyes upon your Majesty's Illustrious House: Happy for these Kingdoms, that the next Protestant Heir to the Crown was of an House, where Justice, Mercy, Courage, and every Virtue, were united by Providence, to save from Destruction the only Nations of Spirit to retain the ancient Parliamentary Form of Government; once a general Blessing to Europe, now the manifest Foundation of that permanent Wealth, Strength, and Dignity, conspicuous in the Monarchy of Britain.

No Part of your Majesty's extensive Dominions felt higher Joy than the Protestant Subjects of this Kingdom, at the Accession of King George the First; nor could that happy Event be more animating to any of his Subjects, than it was to the Protestants of this County, who, for a Series of Years, incessantly exerted themselves in Support of the Protestant Succession.

A just Sense of the last Reign must raise in every generous Mind, the most grateful Remembrance of that upright and merciful Prince, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather; under whom the Subjects of this Kingdom freely enjoyed their Publick and Private vate Rights, little then or now remaining, but to participate of those Benefits which flow on a Sister-Country, from a Constitutional Limitation of Parliaments.

Subjects cannot have stronger Confidence or higher Hopes in a Monarch, than we have in your Majesty. Our Confidence and our Hopes are justly founded on your Majesty's singular Virtue, and your early Efforts to suppress National Vices: Unconquerable, in human Appearance, but by Royal Example. Your most auspicious Example portends no less than Restoration of the Morals of your People, which cannot fail to produce every Thing great, happy, and glorious, to your Dominions, and render your Reign most eminently distinguished in the British Annals.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff, the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Lowth, assembled at an Assizes held in and for the County of Lowth, the 6th of March 1761.

May it please your Majesty,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Lowth, in your Kingdom of Ireland, at their first General Meeting since your Sacred Majesty's happy Accession to your Throne, moved with the deep Sense of Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoyed under the Government of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, beg Leave to condole with your Majesty on the Loss of a Life so valuable and important; and at the same Time to offer our Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors of these Kingdoms.

We feel, in common with all our Fellow Subjects, the highest Satisfaction from those gracious Declarations so early made, of your Majesty's tender and paternal Care of our civil and religious Rights and Liberties, from your Majesty's peculiar Virtues, so early inculcated from good Example in discountenancing national Vices, the surest Method to promote national Virtues.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as far as in us lies, we will, with all Cheerfulness, and to our utmost Ability, maintain and support your Majesty's Rights, and those of your Royal House, in Succession to the Throne of these Kingdoms; and pray, that by a long and glorious Reign, your People may feel all those Blessings which cannot fail to be showered down upon them from so gracious and so good a King.

Dantzic, March 25. M. D'Osten, who has been for some Time at the Court of Petersburg, as Envoy from his Danish Majesty, is now here on his Way Home.

We have had great Overflowings of all the Rivers in these Parts, by which the poor Inhabitants have suffered very much.

Hamburg, April 3. According to Advices which we have received here from Dantzic, the Russians, who have been quartered, during the Winter, in that Neighbourhood, now begin to draw nearer to Pomerania.

We hear from Copenhagen, that the King of Denmark was so far recovered from his late Accident, as to set up several Hours in the Day, and to see his principal Ministers and Servants.

Hague, April 7. The Earl of Pembroke and Lord George Lenox have passed through the Hague in their Way to the Army: And Lieutenant General Conway is just arrived.

We have not a Word of News from any Part.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder; the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6 d.

Poole, March 11, 1761.

ESCAPED out of the Town Goal, sometime in the Night of the 10th Instant, William Milner, who was detained there by an Attachment from the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for Non-Payment of the Sum

Sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Pounds, pursuant to an Order of that Honourable Court.

William Milner is a Man about Five Feet Six Inches high, thin grown, of a dark Complexion, about 37 Years old; had on when he went away, a dark Mourning Frock Cloth Coat. Whoever therefore will apprehend the said William Milner, and detain him in Custody, so as he may be delivered to John Green Esq; Sheriff of Poole aforesaid, shall, upon such Delivery, be intitled to Fifty Guineas Reward, and all Expenses by JOHN GREEN.

As there is the greatest Reason to believe he is refused by Numbers; if any Person will give Information of any of the Rescuers, they shall be intitled to a considerable Reward.

For the Teeth, Scarvy in the Gums, and Tooth-ach.

TWO Tinctures of known and established Reputation, which have been long successfully used by the Nobility and Gentry, both of this Kingdom and of Ireland, and for which His Majesty has been pleased to grant His Royal Letters Patent, are sold by the Patentee, THO. GRENOUGH, Apothecary, at the King's Arms and Pestle and Mortar in Lucgate-street; and by J. NEWBURY, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, Price 1 s. a Bottle.

The Tincture for Preserving the Teeth, cleanses and takes off all their Foulness, renders them white and beautiful, fastens such as are loose, prevents their Decaying, and entirely cures the Scarvy in the Gums.

The Tincture for the Tooth-ach removes the most raging and violent Pain in a few Minutes, without either corroding the Teeth or affecting the Gums.

The great Demand for these Tinctures having induced several Persons to attempt to counterfeit the same, (some of whom are now under Prosecution) the Publick are desired to observe, that for the Future the Patentee will inscribe his Name on a Label on each Bottle, in the following Manner, T. GRENOUGH, and none but what are so inscribed are genuine.

By the KING's Patent,

DR. COLLET's Antiarthritic Wine, which is an effectual Remedy for all Symptoms of the Gout or Rheumatism. It is safe and efficacious, and, if properly taken, will eradicate the Cause, so as never to return, at least with any Severity, as has been experienced by many hundred Persons of Fortune and Distinction, as may be further known, by enquiring (Post paid) of any of the following Gentlemen, viz. The Rev. Mr. Gage, at Little Marlow in the County of Bucks; Major-General Carr, in Great Maddox-street; John Madders, in Berkeley-square, Gent.
