

of all the Russias, the most Christian King, the King of Sweden, and the King of Poland Elector of Saxony, has been made and signed on the same Day as this; to wit, That of the Empress of Russia, by Prince D. P. Galitzin; that of the Most Christian King, by the Duc de Choiseul; that of the King of Sweden, by Baron de Scheffer; and that of the King of Poland Elector of Saxony, by M. de Fontenay; and they were all delivered at London at the same Time, that is to say, on the 31st of March, by Prince Galitzin.

THE following Counter-Declaration was signed at London the 3d of April Instant, and was delivered on the same Day to Prince Galitzin, Envoy Extraordinary from the Empress of all the Russias, to be transmitted by him to Paris.

Contre-Declaration.

LES Dispositions de leurs Majestés Britannique et Prussienne, pour le Retablissement de la Tranquillité Generale de l'Europe, ayant été fermes et sincères, Elles n'ont pu éprouver aucun changement par le Cours du Temps, qui s'est écoulé depuis leur Declaration du 25 Novembre, 1759.

Leurs Majestés acceptent, donc, avec Satisfaction, l'Offre de l'Assemblée d'un Congrès dans la Ville d'Augsbourg, reassemblée dans les Cinq Declarations faites à Paris le 26 de Mars dernier, et remises à Londres le 31 du même Mois, au Nom et de la Part de leurs Majestés l'Imperatrice Reine, l'Imperatrice de toutes les Russies, le Roy Très Chrétien, le Roy de Suède, et le Roy de Pologne, Electeur de Saxe.

Les Cours de Londres et de Berlin acquiescent également à la Clause de cette Declaration, qui concerne la Regle, qu'on propose d'établir, par rapport à l'Admission des Plenipotentiaires, qui auront Droit d'être reçus à ce Congrès.

Au reste, comme leur Zèle pour l'Avancement de l'Ouvrage salutaire d'une Pacification Generale, correspond parfaitement à celui qui paroît animer les Cours de Vienne, de Petersbourg, de Versailles, de Stockholm et de Varsovie, Leurs Majestés Britanique et Prussienne ne tarderont pas de nommer incessamment leurs Plenipotentiaires, étant disposées de concourir, d'un Pas commun et égal, à tout ce qui pourra accélérer l'Ouverture de Congrès qui vient de leur être offert.

Par Ordre et au Nom du Roy,

A Londres le 3 d'Avril, 1761.

BUTE.

N. B. La même Contre-Declaration que celle-ci, pour l'Imperatrice de Russie, le Roy Très Chrétien, le Roy de Suède, et le Roy de Pologne Electeur de Saxe, a été faite et signée le même jour que celle-ci; et elles ont toutes été remises, en même Temps, à M. le Prince Galitzin, pour les faire passer à Paris.

TRANSLATION.

Counter-Declaration.

THE Dispositions of Their Britannick and Prussian Majesties for the Re-establishment of the General Tranquility of Europe, having been steady and sincere, could not have undergone any Alteration through the Space of Time, which has elapsed since their Declaration of the 25th of November, 1759.

Their Majesties therefore, with Satisfaction, accept the Offer of the Assembling of a Congress at Augsborg, contained in the Five Declarations made at Paris the 26th of March last, and delivered at London the 31st of the same Month, in the Name and on the Part of their Majesties, The Empress Queen, The Empress of all the Russias, The Most Christian King, The King of Sweden, and The King of Poland, Elector of Saxony.

The Courts of London and Berlin equally acquiesce in the Clause of this Declaration, which relates to the Rule, that is proposed to be laid down, in regard to the Admission of the Plenipotentiaires, who shall have a Right to be received at this Congress.

For the Rest, as their Zeal for the Advancement of the Salutary Work of a General Pacification, perfectly corresponds with that which appears to animate the Courts of Vienna, Petersbourg, Versailles, Stockholm, and Warsaw, Their Britannick and Prussian Majesties will not delay to name incessantly Their Plenipotentiaires, being disposed to concur, with one and the same Pace, in every Thing that may accelerate the Opening of the Congress, which has been offered to them.

In the Name, and by Order, of the King,

London, April 3, 1761.

BUTE.
