fmallRiver Rench, and laid two Bridges over it, formed thereupon a defign upon Oberkirken, which he underflood was only guarded by the Boors; and accordingly on the 19 inftant, fent out 4000 Horfes Foot and Dragoons, under the command of the Marquis de Vaubrun, who having paffed the Rench, 2000 of them advanced towards Urlaf or Orlaw, with intention to pass through the narrow way that is there, to Oberkirken; but 2000 Imperialifs, who lay in Ambuscade, on the fudden charged, and routed them ; of which, the other 2000 that were behind, having advice, came up, and engaged the Imperialing very briskly, but were likewife forced to give ground, having loft in all about 800 Men. The 20 inftant, we hear three Officers of Note were brought wounded to Willter; and, it's faid, that at Colmar , and at Schleftadt , are many wounded French Soldiers. For the reft, the two Armies continue in the fame quarters as formerly. Yesterday, and this day, we hear the French have been hard at work to fortifie their Camp. The 20 inftant, an Imperial party paffed the Rhine in the night, and fell upon 300 French at Overmarck, and totally defeated them.

The Troops of Munster remain Cologne, July 26. on the other fide of the Rhine, and, as we are told, abfolutely refuse to pass it, till they have received the monies promised them, which the Marquis de Grana is endeavoring to procure here; they are 2500 Foot, and 500 Horfe. The Troops of Lunenburg and O [nubrug- cecamped yesterday, and are marched higher up towards the Countrey of Eyffelt, where they will make a halt, so expect the coming up of the Munster Troops, who, it's Hkely, will pass the Rbine to morrow. Our Letters from the Imperial Camp, of the 22 infant, fay, That feveral Rencoi nters pass between the French and Imperialists, in parties, for the most part to the advantage of the latter; That they took daily feveral French Foragers, who; it feems, are forced to go pretty far to feek Forage; and that General Caprara was gone our with 1500 Horfe, and 500 Foot, towards Oberkirken, We have the confirmation of the Suedes having been declared by the Dyet at Ratubonne, Enemies of the Empire, with confifcation of their Territories in the Empire ; in which, it's faid, the new Elector of Mentz, as Chancellor of the Empire, has had a great hand.

Bruffels, July 30. The Prince of Oranie continues encamped near Hall, and has caufed his Camp to be fortified, to prevent any furprize of the Enemy, who lies ftill between Cambron Abby and Aeth; his Highnefs, to prevent (for the future) the great diforders of the Soldiers, hath commanded, that none shall pass beyond the great Guard ; and about 20 that have been taken roving up and down the Countrey, have been already executed : and the Provost and his men have orders, wherever they take any out of the Camp, to hang them on the next Tree they meet, without any farther Pro-We reckon here the Army to confift in about cefs. 17000 Foot, and 12000 Horfe, with the spaniards ; and that it will be ere long ftrengthned by 15 Regiments more, some of which are already on their march from Our Letters from Germany tell us, That the Holland. Armies continue in their old quarters near Straspargh; That the Imperialists have lately defeated the Van of a Body of 4000 French Horfe, killing and taking Prifoners about 700 of them. The Duke of Lorrains Troops have paffed the Mofette, but march flowly, in expectation of the Lunenburg and Ofnabrugs, who, according to our last advices, had their quarters still a little above Bonne. From Liege of the 27, they write, That 3000 Men were marched out from Maestricht, but upon what defig'n was not known.

To morrow the States of Holland will be assembled on this Subject. We have news that the Cantons of Suifferland have refolved in their late Affembly, not to fuffer any Recruits to be railed within their lerritories, for the fervice of France; and that the Forces which they have in the fervice of the Moft Chriftian King, fhall not be employed against the Empire. ... We have advice from Germany, That the Duke of Lorran will act apart with his 1 orces, while the Lunenburg and Munfter Troops give the trench fome other divertion. We are told of 14 or 15 Regiments that are drawing together, to form a Looy to be commanded by Prince Maurice, the Rendezvous is to' be near Grave.

Paris, fuly 31. On Monday laft, his Majefty received an'ac-count of the death of that great and famous General, Mon-fieur de Tu. mue, who was killed the 23 inftant, in the 64 year this age, and after having been Marefehal of France 32 years. The manner is thus related : That Monfieur de Turenne having for some days tefore caused his Camp to be intrenched, with defign that the Imperialifts might from thence argue his Army to be weak, in an ill condition, and fearing an attack, and be thereby encouraged to affault him, or otherwife be more and be thereby encouraged to anialt him, or otherwise be more fecure in their own Camp, and lefs upon their Guard, and to give him an opportunity to attack them; accordingly on the 23 in the morning, he had caufed fome of his Troops to pais the River Rencher, by means of two Bridges he had over it at the River Rencher, by heats of two Bridges he had over it at the Village Renchen, which he had poffessed himself of some dayes before; and being informed that the Imperial fis had laid an Ambuscade on the other fide, he went himself to the laid an Ambuicade on the other files, he went himlelf to the faid Bridge, to fee if from a certain height near it, he could dif-cover the Enemy; who having planted two fmall Pieces in a Wood hard by, fired first one of them, without any confidera-ble execution, shat we hear of; but the facond being charged with fmall pieces of Iron, put the facal period to the life of the mean Marsher Marsher and the facal being for the this great Man, the fliot friking him upon the full ftomack, that he dyed immediately; Monfieur de St. Hillaire, Lieutenane General of the Artillery, was like it for killed by him, and one or two wounded. It is farther faid, that the Marquis d. Vaub. nn and two wounded. It is farther faid, that the Marquis acvance an and Moh. de Montargy, were wounded, and Mon. Hogune car killed a days before, 19 inft having been out with a design to take fome Pals from the Enemy, which, it ferms, fucceeded, not. Thafe are the particulars which we are told at prefent, which by our next we fhall have more certain. This News has very much are the particulars which we are tood as present, which by our next we fhall have more certain. This News has very much troubled the King, and the whole Court and, it's faid, the Ma-refchal de Grequi is appointed to fucceed Monfieur de Turcunc, in the command of the Kings Army on the Rbin. We are told, that yefterday the King made eight Mareichals of France, with the Duke de Durst, the Duke de Luxamburg, the Duke de Luxamburg, the Duke de Kings and the Court of the duke de la Feuillade, the Duke de Vivonne, the Count & Ffrades, Monfieur de Rochefori, the Count de Lorge. & C. From Flander, they write, That the Prince of Conde was marching towards the Prince of Orange, but that he had fent from his Army 2000 Horle, and 2000 Foot. We are sinformed that 6000 Men are marched towards Britany, for the quieting the diforders there; and that 4000 more are embarked at Dunkirk, to be fent on the same service.
