AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th Day of April, 1761.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 27th of October last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, expired upon the 20th Day of this Instant April — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, That no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 20th Day of this Instant April, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty Ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Hen. Fane.

By the Lords Justices General and General Governors of Ireland,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

George Armagh. Shannon.

WHEREAS His Majesty's Writs have been issued for calling a Parliament to meet and to be holden at the City of Dublin, on Tuesday the Nineteenth Day of May next; and whereas His Majesty hath thought fit to signify His Royal Pleasure, That the Meeting of the said Parliament be put off until Tuesday the Twenty-third Day of June following:

We do therefore hereby publish and declare, That the said Parliament be prorogued, and the same is hereby prorogued to Tuesday the Twenty-third Day of June next; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses, are discharged of their Attendance on Tuesday the Nineteenth Day of May next, and required to attend on Tuesday the Twenty-third Day of June following accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 23d Day of April, 1761.

By their Excellencies Command,
Tho. Waite.

G O D save the KING.

Whitehall, May 12.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Hesketh, of Rufford, in the County of Lancaster, Esq; and his lawful Issue Male, the Dignity of a Baronet of the Kingdom of Great Britain, and in Default of such Issue, to his Brother Robert Hesketh, of Rufford in the said County, Esq; and his lawful Issue Male.

Member returned for the ensuing Parliament.

County of Sutherland, The Honourable Colonel Alexander M'Kay.

Whitehall, May 5, 1761.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King; That the Magistrate and Council of the Islands of Scilly have transmitted to the Earl of Godolphin, Governor of the said Islands, several Letters and Depositions relative to the Murder of one John Spence, by some of the Crew of His Majesty's Sloop Speedavell: And whereas a Jury, that were summoned on that Account, have found, That the said John Spence was murdered by Persons unknown; but, the Sloop sailing away with all her People, prevented the said Magistrate and Council of Scilly from proceeding any further in the Discovery of them; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Criminals.
