AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th Day of April, 1761.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 27th of October last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, expired upon the 29th Day of this Instant April — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, That no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of this Instant April, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty Ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Hen. Fane.

Hamburg, May 15. Baron Wrangel, appointed Minister in this Residence from the Court of Sweden, delivered the Day before Yesterday his Credentials in that Character to the Senate.

Cologne, May 16. The First Line of Infantry, as well as all the Dragoons of the Prince of Soubise's Army, have received Orders to march forward, and form three different Camps at Duffeldorff, Burich, and Rees, the 14th, 15th, and 16th of this Month. The rest of that Army continue yet in their Cantonnements.

Hague, May 19. They write from Saxony, That the King of Prussia was arrived with his Army upon the Frontiers of Silesia, on the 10th Instant, without any Impediment or Molestation from the Enemy; and that General Laschy followed his Majesty at a Distance. Prince Henry continued in his Camp at Schlettau and Kutzenhausen, and Marshal Daun in his at Plauen: That upon General Hulsens's having quitted Freyberg, and the Austrians taking Possession of it, Colonel Kleist had been detached to dislodge them from thence; upon whose Approach they retreated, and repassed the Moldau with Precipitation. Colonel Kleist brought back to the Camp 84 Prisoners, and above 100 Horses.

Whitehall, May 26.

The King has been pleased to present Thomas Camplin, Doctor of Laws, to the Archdeaconry of Bath, in the County of Somerset and Diocese of Bath and Wells, the same being void by the Promotion of Dr. Samuel Squire to the See of St. David.

Admiralty Office, May 16, 1761.

His late Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinfales; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Charles Fearn, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May Instant; This is to give Notice thereof, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of this Instant, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.
