

excellent Princess your Mother, distinguished a Midwife for Greatness, and like yielding Wax received the Impression of every Virtue capable to adorn a Throne. From such early Presages as these, what Blessings may we not expect?

Permit us, Royal Sire, however distant from your Royal Presence, to assure your Majesty that our sincerest Wishes are, that your Majesty's Crown may sit with Ease and Glory on your Royal Head, through a long Series of happy Years; and that Peace may secure, to Britain's Laws, the Conquest of her Arms.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Speaker and Gentlemen of the Assembly of the Island of Montserrat.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Representatives of your Majesty's Island of Montserrat, in Assembly met, having a deep Sense of the unspeakable Loss, the Nation has sustained by the Death of our late Sovereign Lord King George the Second, of glorious Memory, humbly crave Leave to condole with your Majesty, and express our Sorrow on this melancholy Occasion.

The Loss of a Sovereign, whose exemplary Piety and Virtues endeared Him to His People, and whose Memory will be ever had in the highest Regard, could no otherwise be repaired but by your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne; which we do, at the same Time, most heartily congratulate.

Your Majesty's Princely Virtues moderate our Grief, and open to us a fair Prospect of future Happiness, in the Continuance of the Benefits and inestimable Blessings, which the British Subjects have ever enjoyed since the Succession of the Crown in the most illustrious House of Hanover.

We also crave Leave, on this Occasion, to congratulate the wonderful Progress of your Majesty's Arms, and the prosperous Condition the Nation is now in, by the Protection and Security of her Trade, which we acknowledge is owing to the great Wisdom and good Conduct of our late Majesty and His Ministers; who, ever mindful of their Country, and studious to preserve the State, the Honour, and the Lustre, which the Crown of Great Britain deserves, have signally revived the ancient Honour and Glory of the English Nation.

We presume to assure your Majesty, that our Zeal and Affection for your Service is such, that when it shall be your Pleasure to command us, we will exert ourselves with the utmost Vigour, not doubting that the Work, which seems reserved for your Majesty, will, with the like equal Zeal and Unanimity of your Subjects in Great Britain, be brought to a speedy and happy Conclusion, the Reputation of the English Name preserved, the exorbitant Power of France subdued, and the Balance of Europe maintained.

John Davis Molineux, Speaker of the Assembly.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Assembly of the Island of Nevis.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Assembly of your Majesty's Island of Nevis, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to condole the Death of our most Gracious and illustrious Sovereign your Royal Grandfather, whose Loss would render us inconsolable, but that it is so happily supplied by your Majesty's Accession to His Crown and Dignity. We therefore most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on this great and momentous Occasion; an Event so much the more desirable; as we have your Royal Assurance of your Care and Concern for your Native Country. We humbly assure ourselves, that by a constant and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty, the same Care and Concern will be extended to all your Majesty's Kingdoms and Dominions, as they ever to remote or inconsiderable. We therefore, most Gracious Sovereign, implore the Majesty to continue your Successes, to prosper your Endeavours, to give you Health and long Life, and grant an Heir may not be wanting, to the British Throne, from your Royal Person, till Time shall be no more.

Josiah Webb, Speaker.

Hamburg, May 22. The Body of Prussian Troops, under the Command of the Prince of Wurtemberg, which has been for some Time in the Dutchy of Mecklembourg, is now marched towards Stettin, in order to draw nearer to General Werner, and to prevent the Russians, who are assembling themselves near Dirschau, from advancing towards Prussian Pomerania. Colonel Belling remains in the mean while in Mecklembourg, with a Corps of between 2 and 3000 Men, to observe the Motions of the Swedes.

His Royal Highness Prince Ferdinand of Prussia is set out from Berlin for Magdebourg.

M. de Puschkin, who has been named some Time ago to reside here, as Minister from the Court of Russia, in the room of M. de Soltikoff, arrived in Town this Morning.

Leipzig, May 23. We hear from Silesia, that the King of Prussia's Head Quarter, on the 14th instant, was at Hawidorf, between Strigaw and Hohenfriedberg.

Aix la Chapelle, May 24. This Day the Regiment of Tresignies Cavalry, with that of Alsace, and some Companies of Militia, marched hence towards the Lower Rhine. To-morrow Conti Cavalry will arrive here in their Way to join the Army commanded by the Prince of Soubize. The Cavalry, in general, are very ill mounted; and very incomplete.

Liege, May 25. The Regiments of Chartres and Vogué marched hence this Morning, to join the Army on the Lower Rhine. The Desertion has been very great in the Cavalry that was quartered in this Bishoprick.

Cologne, May 26. The Regiments of Cavalry, Royal, Damas, and Orleans, who made Part of Marshal Broglio's Army, have been detached from Hesse to join the Prince of Soubize's Army; but as they have been continually in the Field for near 12 Months, they are put into Quarters of Refreshment near Kerpen.

Hague, May 29. We hear that a considerable Number of Battalions, belonging to the Prince of Soubize's Army, are ordered home, to replace the Troops which have marched from the Neighbouring Provinces into Bretagne. They add, that the Prince of Soubize was at Cologne, and was going to meet Marshal Broglio at Coblentz.

Letters from the Army on the Dimel say, that all was quiet in those Parts; and that Marshal Broglio was endeavouring to establish new Magazines at Cassel, Ziegenhain, and Hirschfeldt.

Members returned for the ensuing Parliament.

- County of Argyle,* Colonel Dagald Campbell.
- County of Forfar,* The Right Honourable William Earl Panmure.
- County of Linlithgow,* The Honourable Charles Hope Weir.
- County of Wigton,* John Hamilton, Esq;
- Burghs of Wigton,* The Honourable Archibald Montgomery.
- County of Aberdeen,* The Right Honourable Adam Gordon, commonly called Lord Adam Gordon.
- Burghs of Aberdeen, &c.* David Scott, Esq;
- County of Lanerk,* Daniel Campbell, Esq;
- Burghs of Lanerk,* John Ross, Esq;
- County of Ross,* The Honourable James Stewart Mackenzie, Esq;
- Burghs of Tain, &c.* Colonel John Scott.

Whitehall