St. James's, June 23.

THE two following Addresses having been transmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the King's County.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, truly sensible of the Happiness enjoyed by your People of this Kingdom, under the wise, gracious, and mild Government of your Royal Ancestors of the House of Hanover, are only consoled for the Loss of our late most Excellent King, by being firmly convinced, from the auspicious Dawn of your Majesty's Reign, that Posterity will have Reason to look on your Majesty's Government as the most glorious in the Annals of England.

We therefore beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Accession to the Throne of these Realms; and to assure your Majesty, that we will, on all Occasions, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, support and defend the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Kingdoms; religiously confiding, that Providence, as a Blessing to these Nations, will long continue the Sway of the British Sceptre to your Majesty, and to your Posterity for ever.

And we, with great Humility, rely on your Majesty's Concurrence to such Law as may be thought expedient to limit the Duration of Parliaments, and on your Majesty's paternal Care and Concern for the Prosperity of your Kingdom of Ireland, whose Protestant Inhabitants in general, and those of the King's County in particular, glory in their Duty, Loyalty, and Affection to your Majesty and your illustrious House.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wicklow, at an Assizes held at Wicklow the 3d Day of March, 1761.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wicklow, filled with a due Sense of the many Blessings we have experienced under your Majesty's Illustrious House, embrace this first Opportunity of a General Meeting of our County, to express the deepest Sorrow for the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most Gracious Sovereign, whose long and glorious Reign will ever stand distinguished in the Annals of Europe.

So affecting a Loss could only be repaired by your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors amongst the General Acclamations of a Loyal People.

We beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on that happy Event, which (as by it our Religion and Liberties are fixed upon the most solid and sure Foundations) produces in us such Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection, as can never be shaken or impaired.

May God prosper your Majesty's Arms in the Prosecution of the present just and necessary War, so unavoidably entred into, and carried on with such remarkable Vigour and Spirit; and when it is His good Pleasure to restore us to Peace, may it be safe, lasting, and honourable.

May your Majesty long continue to rule over an affectionate and dutiful People, who, secure of your Royal Protection and Favour, will always be ready to lay down their Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government.
