By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

Declaring His Majesty's Pleasure for Continuing Officers, not already removed or discharged, in Great Britain, Ireland, and the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of our late Royal Predecessor Queen Anne, (intituled, An Act for the Security of Her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of Great Britain in the Protestant Line) it was enacted, (amongst other Things) That no Office, Place, or Employment, Civil or Military, within the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, should become void by reason of the Demise of Her said late Majesty, Her Heirs, or Successors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, but that all and every Person and Persons, in any of the Offices, Places, and Employments aforesaid, should continue in their respective Offices, Places, and Employments, for the Space of Six Months next after such Death or Demise, unless sooner removed or discharged by the next in Succession, to whom the Imperial Crown of this Realm was limited and appointed to remain and descend: And whereas the Space of Six Months, from the Time of the Demise of our Royal Grandfather, of glorious Memory, was found not sufficient for passing and compleating new Grants, Commissions, and Appointments, for all the said Offices, Places, and Employments; We, for preventing the Inconveniencies that might have happened by the same becoming void, out of Our Royal Wisdom and Care of the State, (reserving to Our Judgement hereafter, the Reformation and Redress of any Misbehaviours or Abuses, upon due Knowledge and Examination thereof) were pleased, and did, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, by Our Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twentieth Day of March last, Order, Signify, Grant, and Declare, That all Persons who, at the Time of the Demise of Our said Royal Grandfather, were duly and lawfully possessed of, or invested in, any Office, Place, or Employment, Civil or Military, within our Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, or Sark, and had not been removed or discharged from such their Offices, Places, or Employments, should be adjudged and taken to be continued in, and hold, and execute, such their respective Offices, Places, and Employments, in like Manner, as at the Time of the Demise of Our said Royal Grandfather, they held, enjoyed, and executed the same, for the Space of Four Months from the Date of Our said Royal Proclamation, unless sooner removed and discharged by Us: And, in regard that the said further Space of Four Months, by Our said Royal Proclamation granted, hath been found not sufficient for passing and compleating new Grants, Commissions, and Appointments, for all the said Offices, Places, and Employments; We, for preventing the Inconveniencies that might happen by the same becoming void, out of Our Royal Wisdom and Care of the State, (reserving to Our Judgement hereafter, the Reformation and Redress of any Misbehaviours or Abuses, upon due Knowledge and Examination thereof) are pleased, and do hereby, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, Order, Signify, Grant, and Declare, That all Persons who, at the Time of the Demise of Our said Royal Grandfather, were duly and lawfully possessed of, or invested in, any Office, Place, or Employment, Civil or Military, within Our Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, or Sark, and have not since been removed or discharged from such their Offices, Places, or Employments, shall be, and shall be adjudged and taken to be, continued in, and hold, and execute, such their respective Offices, Places, and Employments, in like Manner, as at the Time of the Demise of Our said Royal Grandfather, they held, enjoyed, and executed the same, for the Space of Four Months from the Date hereof, unless sooner removed and discharged by Us: And, in the mean Time, for the Preservation of the Peace, and necessary Proceedings in Matters of Justice, and for the Safety and Welfare of the State, We do hereby strictly Command all the said Persons, of whatsoever Degree or Condition, That they do not fail, every one severally, according to his Place, Office, and Charge, to proceed in the Performance and Execution of all Duties thereunto belonging, as formerly appertained appertained unto them, and every of them, while Our said Royal Grandfather was living. And further, We do hereby Will and Command all and singular Our loving Subjects, of what Estate or Degree they, or any of them, be, to be aiding and assisting, at the Commandment of the said Officers, in the Performance and Execution of the said Offices, Places, and Employments, as they tender Our Displeasure, and will answer the Contrary at their utmost Perils.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Twentieth Day of June, 1761, in the First Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

Liege, June 22. The Burghers of this Town having refused to lett their Granaries to the French for their Flour, they asked for the Granaries of the Convents, which were granted: But those not being sufficient for the vast Quantities they have here, they demanded the Cloisters of the Canons of St. Paul, but were refused; on which, this Morning they broke open the Doors, and carried in their Sacks by Force.

Hague, June 26. We have no Letters from the Allied Army: But what we hear from Westphalia is, that the Prince of Soubize was still at Dortmund on the 23d; but had pushed a Vanguard forward to Unna, Camen, and Buymen. Those Accounts mention besides, that the Hereditary Prince had sent away his heavy Baggage; and Prince Ferdinand had advanced from Paderborn to Geseke, so as to support his Serene Highness. It is supposed, that the French Army is delayed for Want of Subsistence, which the late Rains have made it difficult to procure from Wesel. Marshal Broglie is said to be marching on his Side towards Westphalia.

Letters from Magdebourg say, that the King of Prussia and Prince Henry still remained in their former Position.

Prince Frederick Eugene of Wurtemberg is entrenched before Colberg for the Defence of that Place. And the Russian Army had advanced to Landsberg and Driefen.

The Army of the Empire are moving slowly towards the Frontiers of Saxony and Franconia.

To which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Bute, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

General Post-Office, London, May 29, 1761.

Whereas a Bank Note of Thirty Pounds, found in the Yard of this Office, some Time ago, has been frequently advertised in the Daily and Evening News Papers, without having been yet claimed by the Person who lost the same; This farther Notice is hereby given, That in Case the said Note is not soon demanded, the same will be delivered to the Person who found it.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuritis, Quincies, acute Rheumatism, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers; which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.
