From Saturday July 18, to Tuclday July 21, 1761.

Whiteball, July 21, 1761. AST Night Captain Douglas arrived with the following Letter from the Right Honourable Lord Rollo, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt.

Roseau in the Island of Dominique, June 8, 1761. S I R.

Had the Honour of writing to you on the 3d Inflant from Guadeloupe; and I then informed you of the Refolution I had taken to proceed directly to attack the Island of Dominico, with the few North American Troops which had arrived, and the Reinforcement furnished by Governor Dalrymple, under the Command of Lieutenant Governor Melvill. I accordingly failed from the Road of Baffeterre, under the Efcort of Commedere Sir James Douglas, with four Ships of the Line, and fome Frigates, on His Majesty's Birth-day, and arrived within a League of Roleau about Noon on the 6th ; when we judged it belt to fend a Summons to the Inhabitants ; to which, after their recovering fomewhat from their Confternation, and having fent off two Deputies, probably; to amufe us, they returned a Negative Anfwer, mann'd their Entrenchments and Batteries at and above Rofeau, and prepared to fand on their Defence: I thereupon gave immediate Orders for the Troops to land; which was effected very speedily, and in the best Order, much owing to the Disposition of the Boats, and Position of the King's Ships, very judiciously di rected by the Commodore; and, agreeably to O:ders given, there was not one fingle Cannon or Mulquet difcharged, till the Enemy began to fire juft before our Landing. The Troops formed quickly on the Beach, and while Part foon after ; poff fied the Town, the Corps of Grenadiers. con-fifting of the Companies of the Fourth and Twentyfecond Regiments, commanded by Colonel Melvill, feized a Fl-nking Battery, and Part of an adjoining Entrenchment, which had been abandoned. The Enemy annoyed us with fome popping Mufquetry from behind Trees and Bushes, and fired from Time to Time from their Battery, over-looking their Entrenchments, the Town and Shore. It was now pretty late, and it appeared to me, that the Troops might be extremely harrafied, and suffer even great Loss, during the Night, by the Cannon and Muf-quetry of the Enemy, from the Entrenchments overlooking the Town; as alfo, that the Enemy might be much reinforced before Morning ; and having an excellive strong Country in their Favour, with four Entrenchments behind, and above each other, might make a great Defence. I judged it best therefore to order them to be immediately attacked by the Grenadiers, supported by the Battalion Troops, which was accordingly done, with so much Order, Rapidity, and Refolution, that the Enemy, with very little Lofs, were driven fuccesfively, in great Confusion, from all their Entrenchments, from their Batteries, and from the Head-Quarter above it, where Colonel Melvill immediately took Poff, with the Grenadiers. We took there, M. de Longprie, the French Commandant; their fecond Officer, M. de la Couche, and fome others, with a Quantity of Powder.

[Price Three pance]

I lay myfelf at their advanced Poft during the Night, having eftablished a Communication, by proper Guards, with the reft of the Troops who possible the Town. Next Day I eftablished my Head Quarters in Roseau; and have been fince much employed in receiving the Oaths of Submission and Surrender of Arms from the nearest Inhabitants, as well as in dispatching Orders for that Effect to the distant Quarters; the Landing of Military Stores and Provisions, the Quartering of the Troops, and the Preparations to occupy and entrench a defensible Post, have been the chief Objects of my Attention hitherto.

I thail foon have the Honour of transmitting to you, more particular Accounts of this Island; but must inform you, in the mean Time, that as it was carried by Affault. I gave them no other Terms than a Protection, till His Majetly's Pleafure fhould be known, obliging them first to deliver up all their Arms, and to fwear Allegiance to His Majetly. Five Hundred of the Inhabitants, among which are the Captains and Mili-ia Officers of the Quarters, with most of the principal Flanters, have delivered up their Arms, and fworn Submiffion, for which I have granted them a Protection, till His Majetly's further Pleafure thall be known. The native Caraibs, who inhabit a rugged Quarter on the Windward Part of the Hand, from to like their new Matters, and are to caliver up their Arms in a Body.

I cannot conclude without having the Pleafure of affuring you, that the greatest Harmony has fubfilted between His Majefty's Squadron, and the Troops under my Command; and that I have experienced the greatest Zeal, and most chearful Support from the Commodore, who alfo very much favoured the Attack, by a b.k and well directed Cannonade. As to the King's Troops, I cannot enough applaud the Coolne's and Intrepidity with which they acted on the Occafion.

It is probable, that this will be delivered to you by Captain Douglas, of His Majefly's fourth Regiment, who, notwithfranding very bad Health, came upon this Service, and was pretent in the Attack; but, being become much worfe, now returns, with my Leave, to Guadeloupe.

I am, &c.

Rollo.

Admiralty Office, July 21, 1761.

Captain Innis, of His Majefly's Skip the Arundell, arrived here last Night, with the following Account transmitted by Commodore Sir James Douglas, to Mr. Clevland, dated in Board the Dublin, in the Road of Roseau. Dominique, the 13th of June, 1761.

ON the 4th of June I failed from Guadeloupe with the Troops we had for Dominique, with the Dublin, Belliqueux, Sutherland and Montagne, and on the 6th in the Forenoon arrived off Roleau, when I fent a Lieutenant on Store, accompanied by a Land Officer, with a Manifelt, figned by Lord Rollo and myfelf, addreffed to the Principal Inhabitants, and all others refiding in the Neutral Islands of Dominique; which was read by the Officer to the People in the Town 4 and foon after two of the Inhabitants of moft Note came off in the Boat to me, who feemed, upon the Whole of their Conversation, not to be displeased at our coming to take Possellion of the Island; but in the Afternoon, when they were put on Shore, we found the People were spirited up by the Governor, Monfieur Longprie, to stand upon their Defence, and declared they had come to a Determination to defend themfelves : Upon which I ordered the Ships to anchor as close in as polfible, and the necessary Dispositions were accordingly made for landing the Troops, which was effected about Five in the Evening, under Cover of the Shipping; and notwithflanding the Enemy had four Intrenchments upon the Face of a fleep Hill, with 2 Nine Pounders in the upper one, Lord Rollo, at the Head of his Troops, and Colonel Melvill, at the Head of the Grenadiers, with a furprizing Alertnefs and Intrepidity, drove the E-nemy from their Intrenchments and Battery, with the Lofs only of about eight Men killed and wounded, and made themfelves Masters of Rofeau, and the adjacent Places of Defence, in a Time too fhort to be conceived from the Difficulty of the Undertaking. The Refitance the Enemy made, has put it in our Power to bring them to fuch Terms as we please; and they are flocking from all Parts of the Island, to take the Oath of Allegiance to His Majefty King George.

M. Lemprie is a Prisoner, with three other of the principal People.

It is with Pleafure I affure their Lordships of the good Understanding subfilting between the Officers and Men of the Navy and Army.
