

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 21, to Saturday July 25, 1761.

St. James's, July 25.

THE following Address of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland, having been transmitted to the Earl of Bute, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's truly dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Representatives of the Royal Burrows of Scotland, in a General Convention assembled, beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity, at our first Meeting, with grateful Hearts, to congratulate your Majesty, and the Nation, upon your happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms; and, at the same Time, to condole the Loss of our late most Gracious Sovereign, whose Princely Virtues, and Paternal Care of the Honour and Interest of these Kingdoms, will for ever secure the amiable Appellation of Father to His People, and distinguish his Glorious Reign in the Annals of Europe.

It is the publick Happiness, that your Majesty, in your earliest Years, has discovered the warmest Attention to the Laws and Constitution of these your Dominions. It must fill the Heart of every honest Man with the most ardent and lasting Gratitude, that your Majesty seized the first Opportunity of declaring the Royal Sentiments of a truly Patriot King. "That you will make it the Business of your Life to promote, in every Thing, the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, to preserve and strengthen both the Constitution of Church and State."

Your Majesty's auspicious Reign, begun with universal Joy, and the united Hearts of your People, cannot fail, at this Critical Juncture, to awaken and fix the Attention of all Europe. May the Effects of your Majesty's Endeavours, to extend and protect the Commerce of your Subjects, and to promote the Protestant Interest, and cause of Liberty, be long happily felt.

The distinguished Conquest of Belleisle, almost at the Commencement of your Reign, is a happy Pre-fage of what may be expected and dreaded by your Enemies, from your known Attention to the Interest and Honour of Great Britain. While the War lasts, may Success attend your Majesty's Fleets and Armies in every Quarter of the Globe; and may it, by the Divine Blessing, be the Glory of your Reign to restore Peace to Europe on the most equitable and lasting Foundation, and to secure the Honour, Trade, Rights, and Liberties, of these Kingdoms.

Your Majesty's declared Intention, of choicing for your Royal Consort, a Princess distinguished by every eminent Virtue, and amiable Endowment, descended from an Illustrious Line firmly attached to the Protestant Interest, and your Royal House, must fill the Heart of every true Briton with unfeigned Joy, more especially when resulting from so endearing a Motive, as to procure the Welfare and Happiness of your People, and to render the same stable and permanent to Posterity.

Permit us, Great Sir, to express our unalterable Zeal for your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government; our warmest Wishes, that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of your People, and that the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms may lineally descend to one of your Majesty's Illustrious House, to latest Posterity, which is the ardent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful, faithful, and loyal Subjects,

The Representatives of the Royal Burrows of Scotland in a General Convention assembled.

Edinburgh, July 16, 1761.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment, of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland, by Geo. Lind, Praeses.

The following Address of the Governours of the College in the Province of New York in America, has been presented to His Majesty by the most Reverend Father in God the Archbishop of Canterbury: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Governours of the College in the Province of New York in America.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governours of the College of the Province of New York in the City of New York in America, (called King's College) incorporated by Royal Charter, humbly beg Leave, though at this great Distance, to join with the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, who more nearly surround your Throne, in paying our Tribute of the most affectionate Grief, on the Decease of our late Gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory; and of the most dutiful and affectionate Joy, upon your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors; an Event, which is attended with the highest Joy, and Satisfaction, to these remote Provinces of your Majesty's extensive Dominions, as well as to our indulgent Mother-Country.

It was with the greatest Pleasure that we observed, from your Majesty's most excellent Proclamation immediately upon your happy Accession, that it was your firm Resolution to promote and support the Interest of Religion and Virtue throughout your Dominions. And inasmuch as True Religion, and a good Education, are so closely connected, we cannot doubt of your Majesty's gracious Disposition equally to patronize the Means of Education. Since therefore we have undertaken to Found a College in this Province for the Promoting of good Literature, in order the better to support the Cause of True Religion, (as well as for many other important Purposes, in this uncultivated Country, where there was the greatest Need of it) and have not long since been incorporated for this Purpose, we humbly beg Leave to recommend this our Infant Seminary to your Majesty's most Gracious Patronage, in the most submissive Manner, imploring your benign Notice of it, and favourable Regard to it.

That