AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th Day of August, 1761,

By the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council appointed to consider of His Majesty's Coronation.

IT is this Day Ordered by their Lordships, That upon the Day of the Coronation no Fires whatever be made, either in, under, or near any Part of the Scaffolding erected, or to be erected, on Account of the said Coronation, in Westminster Hall, the Abbey, or elsewhere, upon any Pretence whatsoever: And in Case there should be a Necessity for Persons to go under the Scaffolding with Lights, that they be obliged to make use of Lanthorns. And the Lord Great Chamberlain, the Earl Marshal, the Dean and Chapter of Westminster, and the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Works, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Hen. Fane.

Dusseldorff, Aug. 10. Yesterday the Prince of Soubise made another Detachment from his Army to reinforce Marshal Broglio's: It consists of 14 Battalions, viz. eight Royal Grenadiers, four of Talliaru, one of the Queen, and one of Forest, and in four Squadrons of Thianges's Dragoons.

Brunswick, Aug. 11. The melancholy News arrived here this Morning of the Death of Prince Henry of Brunswick, of the Wound he received the 20th of last Month. He died in the Night, between the 8th and 9th, at Ham; where he had been attended by the best Surgeons, both of the British and French Armies.

The Enemy has attempted to establish a Communication for the Subsistence of their Army, between Gotingen and Hoxter; but the first Convoy, consisting of 250 Waggons was taken the 6th, by a Detachment of Hunters of Col. Freytag's Corps, going towards the Weser. The Meal and Bread was dispersed and given to the Country People; and the Waggons and Horses sent back to their respective Villages. The Desertion is very great in the Enemy's Army, and the Want of Provisions of all Kinds, is assigned as the Reason of it. At Cassel it has been published, by Sound of Trumpet; that no one should speak of the Affair of the 16th past, under very severe Penalties.

Hamburg, Aug. 11. The Advice of General Buterlin's Retreat towards Wartenberg, upon the Confines of Poland, is not confirmed, he remaining still at Namslau; but according to Advices received this Afternoon, his Prussian Majesty continued in the advantageous Post which he had taken at Neustadt, after dislodging General Drawkowitz from it.

The Russians attacked, the 2d Instant, a Prussian Magazine between Weida and the Oder, but were repulsed with considerable Loss.

Cologne, Aug. 11. Last Night the Bridge of Boats that were thrown over the River between this Place and Deutz, was broke up in great Hurry.

Forty Pieces of heavy Cannon were taken out of our Arsenal, and planted on the Redoubts opposite to Deutz; and this Morning the French Commandant has ordered all the Vessels and Boats on the Right to be brought to the Left of the Rhine, to prevent the Allied Troops from passing the River.

Prince Clement, Youngest Son of the King of Poland Elector of Saxony, is arrived here.

Liege, Aug. 14. The French Troops, that were cantoned in this Bishoprick in the Spring, then demanded of the States the Rations that were necessary for their Subsistence; but the Prince's Privy Council desired they would first consume the Magazines they had here, as they were in Danger of being spoilt, and they promised to replace them whenever it should be required. In consequence of that Engagement, the Prince of Soubise now demands Four Hundred Thousand Rations, which distress us very much at this Time, as the Clergy have refused to continue the extraordinary Taxes, that were to answer the Expence occasioned by this War.

Wesel, Aug. 14. Yesterday the Army under the Prince of Soubise arrived between Dorsten and Halteren: The Head Quarters are at Marie. It was necessary to approach the Rhine to facilitate the Arrival of above 120 large Vessels, that were loaded with Forage and Provisions for the Use of the King's Troops, and which have lain for above a Month, watching a favourable Occasion to proceed to Rees.

Brunswick, Aug. 14. Last Night Col. Schlieffen, Commandant of the First Battalion of the Landgrave's Guards, and M. de Wittorf, First Gentleman of the Bedchamber to the Duke of Brunswick, set out for Lüneburg, in order to compliment, on the Part of their respective Masters, her Serene Highness the Princess of Strelitz, on her Passage through that Place.

Hague, Aug. 14. The Armies in Westphalia have continued observing each other till within these few Days, when the Prince of Soubise, who had retired farther down the Roer, repass'd that River at Schwiert, and marched to Dortmund. The Hereditary Prince, upon these Motions, is said to have marched to Unna; and, by that Means, keeps between that French Army, and the Bishoprick of Munster.

We have this Evening received Accounts from the Allied Army of the 11th Instant, dated from Stuckenbroeck, which lies North of Paderborn; at which Time they were in full March. By these Accounts, we are informed, that Lieutenant General de Stanville had occupied his Camp at Kleinenberg, with a flying one at Driburg: That the Corps of Count Luface, Clofen, and Chabot, occupy three separate Camps at Merlsen, Poinen, and Niem. M. de Vaux commands a Corps at Hoxter; and M. de Belzuncé in the Solling.

Letters from Paris are full of the Resolutions of the Parliament of Paris against the Jesuits, depriving them of all their Privileges and Prerogatives.

By a Letter of the 12th, from Munster, we learn, that the Hereditary Prince was gone from that Side to join the Grand Army; that General Kielmansegge remained with a Corps at Kaeren to observe the Prince of Soubise, who was at Essen, and was expected to march to Wesel; having first sent off a second Detachment to join Marshal Broglio.

Hague, Aug. 18. Since the Eleventh Instant, Prince Ferdinand had marched to Dermold and Bellen, which is upon a Line with Hoxter. General Luckner had passed the Weser with his Corps at Hamelen, where he was to join Col. Freytag, and to endeavour to dislodge the Enemy, from the Post they are fortifying on the right Bank of that River.

The Prince Soubise was on the 13th at Marie, between Dorsten and Halteren. It is said, that he has since crossed the Lippe at Rettinghausen; and that General Kielmansegge, whom the Hereditary

Printed

Prince had left with Part of his Corps, to oppose him, had thereupon thought it necessary to throw a large Garrison into Münstér.

Letters from Hamburg of the 14th Instant, say; that the Russian Fleet, consisting of 32 Sail of Ships, were seen the 2d Instant off Rugenwald, at about Six German Miles from Colberg; but that, on account of contrary Winds, they had only been able as yet, to debark 500 Land Forces.

Letters from Silesia of the 6th say, that General Laudohn, not having succeeded in his Views of joining the Russians, had quitted his former Position, and marched towards Lower Silesia; and that the Russians too had left their Camp at Namslau, and advanced to Hunsfeldt near Breslau: Upon which his Prussian Majesty was gone with his Army to Strehlen, where he continued when those Letters came away, and had from thence detached a Corps to cover the City of Breslau.

The King has been graciously pleased to restore Thomas Fowke, Esq; to his former Rank and Precedency of Lieutenant-General in His Majesty's Army, and also to constitute and appoint the said Thomas Fowke to be a Major-General on the Establishment of Ireland, in the Room of Major-General Archibald Douglas, who is employed in Germany.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint John Barrington, Esq; Major General of His Majesty's Forces, to be a Major-General on the Establishment of Ireland, in the Room of Sir John Cope, Knight of the Bath, deceased.

The King has been pleased to order a Congé d'Élire to the Archdeacon and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Landaff, to elect a Bishop of that See, the same being void by the Translation of the Right Rev. Father in God Richard late Bishop thereof, to the See of St. Asaph. And also a Letter recommending to the said Archdeacon and Chapter, John Ewer, Doctor in Divinity, to be elected and chosen to the said Bishoprick of Landaff.

Admiralty Office, August 22.

Extract of a Letter from Sir Charles Saunders, Vice-Admiral of the Blue, to Mr. Cleveland, dated in Gibraltar Mold, on board His Majesty's Ship the Neptune, July 20, 1761.

It is with the greatest Pleasure that I desire you will acquaint their Lordships, that Captain Proby, in the Thunderer, who was cruising off Cadiz with the Modeste, Thetis, and Favorite Sloop, in order to intercept the Achilles and Bouffon, has fallen in with and taken those Ships, and brought them into this Bay.

On looking into Cadiz on Thursday Morning, the 14th Instant, he missed the French Ships, and, at Two in the Afternoon of the 16th, he discovered them, Cadiz then bearing E. N. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  E. distant 9 Leagues: About One in the Morning, of the 17th, the Thunderer came up with and began to engage the Achilles, who struck after an Action of about half an Hour, Cadiz then bearing E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  S. distant 19 Leagues.

The Thetis came up with the Bouffon about Seven the same Morning: They engaged also about half an Hour, when the Modeste coming up, and firing some Guns, the Bouffon struck.

The Thunderer is pretty much damaged in her Masts, Yards, Sails, and Rigging, had 17 Men killed in Action, and 113 wounded, 17 of which are since dead.

The Thetis had also suffered in her Masts, Rigging, &c. but had not one Man killed or wounded.

I cannot yet ascertain the Loss of the Enemy; we are sending their Wounded to the Hospitals, of which I will send a more particular Account as soon as possible.

The Second and Third Lieutenants of the Thunderer are among the Wounded, and the former of them is in a very dangerous Way. Captain Proby also received a slight Wound in his Right-Hand.

Christ Hospital, London, August 21, 1761.

*Whereas John West, late of London, Scrivener, and Frances his Wife, both deceased, did, in their several Life-times, settle on the Governors of the said Hospital, divers Estates in and about the City of London and elsewhere; and the said Frances West did also by her Will give a Sum of Money to the said Governors, to be laid out in the Purchase of Lands, &c. ## DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS;

And other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT; will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions; Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuristies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses; with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.
