AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 4th Day of September, 1761,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

This Day the Right Honourable James Stuart Mackenzie, Esq; was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Honourable Other Lewis Earl of Plymouth, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Glamorgan, took the Oaths appointed to be taken, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Magdebourg, August 25. The King had an Advantage in Silesia, on the 15th Instant. The Communication is not yet enough re-established for us to receive here a Relation in Detail. However, we hear in an authentick Manner, and even from the King's Army, by Letters of the 16th, that this Advantage consisted in 30 Squadrons of Austrian Cavalry, followed by 10 Battalions of Grenadiers, which attempted to join the Russian Army, having been attacked by the Regiments of Finkenstern and Czelteritz, and dispersed; inso much, that no more than ten were able to join the Russians; the others, as well as the Grenadiers, being obliged to return to the Austrian Army. The Enemy's Loss is not yet known, but it is certain that the Prussians made some Hundreds of Prisoners. According to the same Letters of the 16th, the King had then his Head Quarters at Closter-Wahlstadt, with Part of his Army posted posted between Nicolstadt and Großen-Wanders, to observe the Russians encamped near Parchwitz. The Main of his Majesty's Army was stationed opposite to the Austrians, who lay between Bogendorff and Freyburg.

By Letters of the 18th, dated from the Camp at Nicolstadt, the Armies appear to continue in the same Position; and by Letters from Glogau of the 22d, nothing had passed to that Time.

The Russians had undertaken nothing against Colberg till the 19th, when General Romanzow began to move, and had just taken Possession of the Town of Collin. Their Fleet continued to shew itself at a Distance.

Hamburg, August 28. Her Most Serene Highness the Princess of Mecklenburgh continued Yesterday, still detained by contrary Winds, at Cuxhaven.

Hannover, August 25. By our last Accounts, Marshal Broglie, with his Army, lay between Furstenberg and Eimbeck. Our Garrison here is augmenting every Day; Prince Henry of Wolfenbuttel's Regiment came in last Night. General Luckner's Corps is at Otterode, and Colonel Freytag has taken Post at Gibelhausen.

Hague, Sept. 1. Though we have not received any direct Accounts from Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters, we are however informed from several Places upon the Weser, and in the Neighbourhood, that, after Marshal Broglie had been obliged to pass that River, and abandon Hoxter to the Allies, his Serene Highness had, by forced Marches, gained the Dymel; and after forcing, in Conjunction with the Hereditary Prince, all the Enemy's Posts on that Side, and particularly at Dringelbourg, where upwards of 300 Men had been made Prisoners, his Highness arrived with a great Part of his Army, on the 26th of August, at Hoff-Geismar in Hesse. We are since informed, that he had pushed a Corps forward to Winter-Kasten near Cassel; and that a large Train of Artillery and Stores were in March to join him from Hameln. In order to secure, during this March, that Part of the Weser between Hameln and the Dymel, Prince Ferdinand left General Sporken with a Body of Troops at Hoxter. These unexpected Motions of the Allied Army, had obliged Marshal Broglie, who occupied with his Army the Country between Furstenberg and Eimbeck, to fall back, and take a Position nearer the Weser, between Göttingen and Münden.

The Prince of Soubise has hitherto contented himself with blockading Munster: He had indeed pushed some Detachments forwards upon the Ems; and towards Osnabrügge; but we are informed, that General Kiemannsfegge, having received some Reinforcements, had obliged the French to retire back upon their main Body. There is not hitherto any Appearance of the French preparing for a Siege.

Admiralty Office, September 3.

Sir Charles Saunders, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships in the Mediterranean, gives an Account, in his Letter dated in Gibraltar Bay the 26th of July last, that on the 30th of June, Capt. Napier, of His Majesty's Frigate the Cygnet, brought in a French Privateer of 18 Carriage Guns and 135 Men, which he took off Cape de Gatte: And that about the same Time, the Favourite Sloop, commanded by Capt. Pownoll, sent in a small Privateer Sloop, which he took about 20 Leagues Westward of Cadiz.

Capt. Mitchell, of His Majesty's Ship Alborough, lately fell in with His Majesty's Sloop Diligence and a small French Privateer which she had taken, and was carrying to Plymouth.

His Majesty's Ship Aquilon, commanded by Capt. Chaloner Ogle, has also taken off Cape Machicaco, the Aurora Privateer belonging to Rochelle, of 10 Guns and 75 Men.

Admiralty Office, September 4.

Lieutenant Barkley, commanding the Fly Armed Cutter, arrived the 2d Instant in the Downs from a Cruise on the Coast of Holland. On the 14th of last Month, being off the Texel, he took the Hazard Privateer of Dunkirk, carrying 6 Swivel Guns, and 15 Men, which had been out three Weeks, but taken nothing. On the 29th, he drove on Shore, and destroyed, the Maria Theresa Privateer, of 6 Swivel Guns, and 17 Men, which left Dunkirk four Days before, and had not taken any Prize.

Admiralty Office, September 4.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Faulkner, of His Majesty's Ship the Bellona, of 74 Guns, to Mr. Cleveland. Dated August 21, 1761, in Lisbon River.

Please to acquaint my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 14th Instant, at Three P. M. saw three Sail in the S. W. Quarter, Cape Finisterre bearing N. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. distant ten Leagues; we immediately gave Chace, and, by their crowding from us, soon suspected them to be Enemies. We came up but slowly with them, but continued the Chace all Night. At Five A. M. we got almost up with the Chace, and found them to be a large Ship and two Frigates. At Six the Brilliant began to engage with one of the Frigates; soon after with the other also. Twenty Five Minutes after Six we came along side the large Ship, and began to engage as near as possible. Thirty Four Minutes after Six, our Mizzen-mast went away by the Enemy's Shot; and at Forty Five Minutes after Six, the Enemy's Mizzen-mast went over the Side. At four Minutes after Seven the large Ship struck, which proved Le Courageux of 74 Guns, commanded by M. Dugué L'Ambert, and had on Board 700 Men from St. Domingo. The Brilliant continued to engage the two Frigates. At Half past Seven, the French Frigates bore away, and neither of our Ships were in a Condition to pursue them. At the same Time the Prize's Main-mast went away. We found our lower Riggging much cut. The Fore-mast, Main-mast, and Main-top-mast, much shattered. We lost in the Action 6 Men, and had 28 wounded. The Enemy had 240 slain, and 110 wounded. We sent our First Lieutenant, Mr. Male, with other Officers, and 150 Men, to take Possession of the Prize, and received 224 Prisoners on Board. The Brilliant sent 50 Men, and received 100 Prisoners on Board. She had 5 Men killed and 16 wounded; among the Slain is the Master.

We have since heard that the above French Frigates are called the Malicieux, Capt. Longueville; and the Hermione, Capt. Montigny, of 32 Guns each.

I must also beg Leave to acquaint their Lordships, that Capt. Loggie, in the Brilliant, on the Day of Action, behaved like a skilful brave Officer, in engaging the two Frigates, and preventing their coming upon me. I also further assure their Lordships, that the Officers and Ships Company of both Ships, behaved with true Bravery. The Wind being strong Northerly after the Engagement, and our Ships much disabled, was the Reason of my bearing up for this Port.

Lisbon, Aug. 21. This Night, at Eleven, her Royal Highness the Princess of Brasil was safely delivered of a Prince, which was immediately published by ringing of the Bells throughout the City.

M. Dugué Lambert, Captain of the Courageux, which was brought in here by His Britannick Majesty's Ship, the Bellona, the 18th Instant, received a Wound in his Neck in the Beginning of the Action, and it is thought cannot live.

The Sloop Orleans, Isaac Sheldon late Master, laden with Sugar from New-York, bound to this Place, was taken the 7th of July, by the Sage, a French Ship of War, of 64 Guns and 400 Men, and retaken the 6th Instant, by the Blonde, Capt. Kennedy, who has brought her into this Port.

We have received the following Account, dated June 22, from Tercira, one of the Azores, or Western Islands.

On the 31st of March, the Sea rose to a great Height all round this Island, and continued rising and falling for upwards of three Hours. On the 14th of April we had three small Earthquakes; and on the 15th, about One in the Morning, had a very tremendous Shock, from which Time the Earth was almost continually trembling, till the Evening of the 17th, when we had two other violent Shocks; and the next morning Accou:ts were brought, that there was a great Smoke seen about three Leagues to the N. W. of this City, which was soon confirmed by Noises like Thunder at a Distance: This continued three Days, in which our Situation was very uneasy, being obliged to quit our Houses, and continually alarmed either with Earthquakes, or the said dreadful Noises. On the 20th, we had three Shocks more violent than any we had yet felt; at which Time the Earth opened in three dreadful Volcanos, about Half a League to the East of the said Smoke, which continued burning with the greatest Fury, and vomiting vast Quantities of liquid burning Matter and glowing Stones for about fifteen Days, during which Time there issued from each of the Volcanos a large River of liquid Fire, which all directed their Courses about N.W. One of them run upwards of two Leagues, and burnt part of the Town of Biscontos, but the other did not go so far. There is nothing issues from the Volcanos now, but a little Smoke; and as it is some Time since we had an Earthquake, the Inhabitants of this City are returned to their Houses.

Hamburgh, August 25.

The following Address from the Right Worshipful Fellowship of Merchants Adventurers of England, residing in Hamburgh, was presented at Buxtehude, the 22d Instant, by their Deputies the Right Worshipful John Hanbury, Esq; Deputy Governor, Thomas Evatt, Esq; Treasurer, Thomas Delarai, Esq; Charles Johnstone, Esq; and the Rev. Mr. Laughn, Deputy Chaplain to her Most Serene Highness the Princess of Mecklenburg, who was pleased to return a very gracious Answer.

MAY it please your most Serene Highness to accept our most hearty Congratulations on the great Prospect of Happiness attending your present Journey and Voyage.

The many eminent, and so particularly distinguished Virtues, adorning the Heart and Mind of our most Gracious Sovereign; the strong Affection for His Subjects, so apparent both at Home and Abroad; the united Endeavours and Wishes of a happy People, for the lasting Prosperity of so great and good a King, are Facts your most Serene Highness will soon have the Pleasure of seeing confirmed.

The British Nation have a fresh Proof of our Monarch's great Wisdom, in the Choice of your most Serene Highness, as his Queen; a Princess affording the highest Expectations of farther Felicity to a Kingdom, that had but one Wish left, and which they will now soon enjoy; a Mother to their Country.

Our Residence in the Neighbourhood of your most Serene Highness's Birth, and Abode, gives us the agreeable Opportunity, prior to our Countrymen at Home, of being apprised of, and expressing our Joy at, a Virtue and Merit, beyond our Power to describe.

May the Divine Providence give you a safe and speedy Passage to that happy Island, to which we belong; and, to make your Happiness complete, may the first of all Blessings, a perfect State of Health, constantly attend our Royal Master, and your most Serene Highness.

We cannot omit our humble Acknowledgments and Thanks to your most Serene Highness, for graciously permitting us to give so early a Proof of our Duty upon this joyful Occasion.

We conclude with humbly begging your Protection to our ancient Society.

IN Pursuance of His MAJESTY's COMMANDS, This is to give Notice, That as there are many Scaffolds built, and are now building, and much Timber lying in Westminster, It is His Majesty's Pleasure, That to prevent any Accidents that may happen from Fires, there should be no Bonfires made, or any Fireworks played off, in any Part of Westminster, from Whitehall to Millbank, and from thence to Buckingham Gate, round the South-West Part of the Artillery Ground, or in any other Place nearer to the Abbey than Whitehall, till seven Days after the Coronation; and that there be no Illuminations within the above Space, except by Lamps with Oil, and those in Lanthorns affixed to the Wall and not to any Wood-work whatsoever.

And the High Bailiff of Westminster, and the Justices of the Peace within the said City and Liberty, are hereby required and commanded to enforce and put in Execution These His Majesty's Royal Commands.

Albemarle-street,
