AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 4th Day of September, 1761,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

This Day the Right Honourable James Stuart Mackenzie, Esq; was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Honourable Other Lewis Earl of Plymouth, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Glamorgan, took the Oaths appointed to be taken, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Magdebourg, August 25. The King had an Advantage in Silesia, on the 15th Instant. The Communication is not yet enough re-established for us to receive here a Relation in Detail. However, we hear in an authentick Manner, and even from the King's Army, by Letters of the 16th, that this Advantage consisted in 30 Squadrons of Austrian Cavalry, followed by 10 Battalions of Grenadiers, which attempted to join the Russian Army, having been attacked by the Regiments of Finkenstern and Czelteritz, and dispersed; inso much, that no more than ten were able to join the Russians; the others, as well as the Grenadiers, being obliged to return to the Austrian Army. The Enemy's Loss is not yet known, but it is certain that the Prussians made some Hundreds of Prisoners. According to the same Letters of the 16th, the King had then his Head Quarters at Closter-Wahlstadt, with Part of his Army posted
