

is appointed to be particularly prayed for, the following Form and Order shall be observed, viz.

*Our Gracious Queen Charlotte,
Her Royal Highness the Princess
Dowager of Wales, and all the Royal Family.*

And His Majesty doth strictly charge and command, that no Edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforth printed, but in the Form abovementioned; and that in the mean Time, and until Copies of such Edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, within this Realm, do (for the preventing of Mistakes) with the Pen, correct and amend all such Prayers in their Church Books, according to the foregoing Direction. And for the better Notice hereof, that this Order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several Parishes; and that the Reverend the Bishops do take Care, that Obedience be paid to the same accordingly.

AT the Court of St. James's, the 11th Day of September, 1761,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July last, to promise and declare, (amongst other Things) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman should be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twelfth of this Instant, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the said Twelfth Day of this Instant, in like Manner voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who should secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards is now near expiring: And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some longer Time; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited by the said Proclamation, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Twelfth Day of this Instant September, to the Thirty-first Day of October next inclusive. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

By the KING,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

Declaring His Majesty's Pleasure touching His Royal Coronation, and of the Coronation of His Royal Consort the Queen.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Eighth Day of July last, We did (amongst other Things) publish and declare Our Royal Intention to celebrate the Solemnity of

Our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the Twenty-second Day of September Instant, at Our Palace at Westminster: And whereas Our Royal Nuptials have been since celebrated with the Princess Charlotte of Mecklenburgh Strelitz: We have therefore resolved, by the Favour and Blessing of Almighty God, to celebrate the Solemnity of the Royal Coronation of Our dearly beloved Consort the Queen, upon the said Twenty second Day of September Instant, at Our said Palace at Westminster. And We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, give Notice of, and publish Our Resolution therein. And Our Royal Will and Pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Persons of what Rank or Quality soever they be, who either upon Our Letters to them directed, or by reason of their Offices, or Tenures, or otherwise, are to do any Service at the Time of such Coronation, that they do duly give their Attendance at the said Solemnity, upon Tuesday the said Twenty Second Day of September Instant, in all Respects furnished and appointed as to so great a Solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the Dignities and Places which every One of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth; and of this they or any of them are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their Perils, unless upon special Reasons, by Ourselves, under Our Sign Manual, to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their Services or Attendances.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Eleventh Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one, in the First Year of Our Reign.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 11th of September, 1761.

By the Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, appointed to consider of their Majesties Coronation.

Information having been received at this Board, that divers Hackney Coachmen and Chairmen have entered into a Combination not to work their Coaches and Chairs on the Day of their Majesties Coronation, without exorbitant Rates for their Hire: It is this Day ordered by their Lordships, that the Commissioners for licensing Hackney Coaches and Chairs do publish an Advertizement, requiring all Hackney Coachmen and Chairmen to be out with their Coaches and Chairs (having their Figures placed in the usual Manner) by Four of the Clock in the Morning of the said Day, in the most convenient Stations: and that, unless they shall produce proper Proofs, when required, of their having faithfully discharged their Duty, without making any exorbitant Demands, they will be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

W. Blair.

In Obedience to the Commands of the Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, appointed to consider of their Majesties Coronation, We the Commissioners, authorized and appointed for regulating and licensing Hackney Coaches and Chairs, do hereby give Notice to all Hackney Coachmen and Chairmen, that they are required to be out with their Hackney Coaches and Chairs (having their Figures placed in the usual Manner) by Four of the Clock in the Morning, on the Day of their Majesties Coronation, in the most convenient Stations; and that, unless they shall produce proper Proofs, when required, of their having faithfully discharged their Duty, without making any exorbitant Demands, they will be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.
