AT the Court of St. James's, the 11th Day of September, 1761,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July last, to promise and declare, (amongst other Things) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twelfth of this Instant, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the said Twelfth Day of this Instant, in like Manner voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who should secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards is now near expiring: And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some longer Time; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited by the said Proclamation, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Twelfth Day of this Instant September, to the Thirty-first Day of October next inclusive. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of your University of Oxford, zealously attached to your Royal Person and Government, and sensibly affected with every Occurrence, tending to the Increase of your Majesty's Glory and Happiness, beg Leave to express our unfeigned Joy on the much-wish'd-for Occasion of your Majesty's Marriage with a Protestant Princess; a Princess illustrious by Descent, and still more distinguished by such personal Accomplishments, and such amiable Virtues, as are truly worthy of a British Crown.

With the utmost Satisfaction we reflect, that your Sacred Majesty, ever since your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, hath fully answered the most sanguine Hopes and Expectations of all your loving Subjects; and nothing seemed wanting to fill up the Measure of their Felicity, but the Prospect of Stability and Perpetuity to the Blessings they enjoy.

The present Occasion affords us this pleasing Prospect, and abundant Matter of the justest Exultation. We are now led to carry our Views to future Ages; and rejoice to consider the Interest of latest Posterity, under the Blessing of God, happily secured by this important Event.

It is therefore our ardent Wish, and daily Prayer, that there never may be wanting a Race of Princes, descended from your Majesty and Royal Consort, worthy their august Parentage, and inheriting all those excellent Endowments, which establish and adorn your Throne: Favourers of Learning and Merit; Friends to Liberty both Civil and Religious, making the Glory of God the End of their Government, and laying the Foundation of their own Greatness in the Happiness and Affection of their Subjects; always recommending to them and enforcing the sacred Obligations of Virtue and Religion, by, That
