AT the Court of St. James's, the 11th Day of September, 1761,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July last, to promise and declare, (amongst other Things) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman should be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twelfth of this Instant, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the said Twelfth Day of this Instant, in like Manner voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who should secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards is now near expiring: And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some longer Time; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited by the said Proclamation, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Twelfth Day of this Instant September, to the Thirty-first Day of October next inclusive. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

St. James's, September 22.

This Day the Ceremony of their Majesties Coronation was performed in the Abbey Church at Westminster.

St. James's, September 22.

The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons, of the City of York, has been presented to His Majesty by Robert Lane, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons, of the City of York, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons, of the City of York, most humbly congratulate your Majesty on that Auspicious Subject of universal Joy, your Majesty's happy Marriage with so Illustrious and Amiable a Consort.

We should be insensible to our own Happiness, if our Hearts did not exult with Joy on this interesting Occasion; if we did not feel every Sentiment of Duty and Gratitude, every humane and generous Affection rising in our Breasts, and prompting us to express our warmest and most loyal Wishes on the Nuptials of our glorious Monarch, crowned, as they are, with Victory and Triumph Abroad, and with Union and Harmony at Home.

How gracious was your Majesty's Conduct, how glorious your Example, in making the Welfare and Happiness of your People the first Object of your Care, in the Choice of a Royal Consort: And how wisely has your Majesty provided for those great Ends, by the Espousal of a Princess, equally desirable to yourself, and to your Kingdoms; a Princess, whose personal Graces and superior Merit add Lustre to Her high Descent, and dignify the most splendid and exalted Station.

In Return for so striking an Instance of your Royal Goodness, we owe to your Majesty the Tribute of the most dutiful and grateful Affection; a Tribute ever most willingly paid by Britons to good and beneficent Princes, and due by a peculiar Right to your Majesty. Deign, Sir, to receive this humble Offering from us, and to accept our most sincere and ardent Wishes, that your Majesty and our gracious Queen may enjoy a long and happy Life, blessed with the truest Conjugal Felicity, and graced with an Illustrious Offspring, emulous of your Virtues, and formed by your Example; that the Protestant Succession may ever be supported by your Royal Line; and that the remotest Ages may experience, under your Majesty's Descendants, the same Blessing we now enjoy under your propitious and glorious Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Shafton, otherwise Shaftesbury, in the County of Dorset, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable able the Earl of Shaftesbury, Recorder of the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Capital Burgeses of your ancient Borough of Shafton, otherwise Shaftesbury, in the County of Dorset.

May it please your Majesty,

A MIDST the universal Acclamations of your People, we beg Leave to offer this publick Testimony of our Joy on your Majesty's Marriage. An Event! highly interesting to all your Subjects, by giving us a Prospect of the Permanence of those Blessings, the Security of our Constitution, and the firm Establishment of the Protestant Religion. This appears to have led your Majesty to the happy Choice you have made. This gives your People a Promise of the highest future Felicity; for we have seen, in one great Instance, the glorious Effects of such a Choice; of so much Consequence is the early Sowing the Seeds of Virtue and Religion, even in the noblest Dispositions.

May that complete Happiness, which your People enjoy, encircle the Throne of your Majesty and your Royal Consort! May this be the Issue of all your Undertakings in War, or for Peace! May your Majesty be blessed, like your Royal Parents, with a numerous Offspring, who shall imitate those Virtues, which give such a Lustre to the Crown!

In Witness whereof, we the said Mayor, Recorder, and Capital Burgeses in Common Council assembled, in the New Guildhall for the said Borough, have hereunto set our Hands, and caused our Common Seal to be affixed the Sixteenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

Dublin Castle, September 14.

Yesterday, upon the Arrival of the Packet with an Account, that Her most Serene Highness the Princess Charlotte of Mecklenburg was safely arrived at St. James's, the Flag was displayed on Birmingham Tower: At Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, the Great Guns in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix fired three Rounds of Twenty-one Guns each, and were answered by Volleys from the Regiments drawn up in the Royal Square at the Barracks. In the Evening the Great Guns were fired three Rounds again, and the Regiments in the Barracks fired a Feu de Joye after each Round, and the Night concluded with Ringing of Bells, grand Illuminations, and every other Demonstration of Joy.
