

Tuesday, September 26, 1761.

THIS Day His Majesty King George the Third, and Queen Charlotte, were crowned in the Abbey Church of Westminster, with the Ceremonies accustomed upon that Great and Glorious Solemnity.

His Majesty came privately to the Prince's Chamber, and the Queen to Black Rod's Room near the House of Peers, about Nine o'Clock. The Peers assembled in their own House, the Peeresses and the Dukes of Normandy and Aquitaine in the Painted Chamber, the rest in the Court of Request.

About Eleven o'Clock the Procession was drawn out into Westminster Hall, which was soon after followed by their Majesties, who seated themselves in the Chairs of State under their Canopies.

Then the Swords and Spurs were presented and laid upon the Table, and the Regalia brought up in Procession by the Dean and Prebendaries of Westminster; which, being severally presented and laid upon the Table, were afterward delivered by the Lord Great Chamberlain to the Lords appointed to carry them, being summoned by Garter; as also the Bishops appointed to support their Majesties, and who were to carry the Bible, the Chalice, and Paten.
