N. B. All the Peers, in the Procession, were in their Robes of Estate; and, being Knights of the Garter, Thistle, or Bath, wore the Collars of their respective Orders.

About Half an Hour after One, Their Majesties entered the Abbey, and went to their Seats on the East Side of the Throne. The Archbishop of Canterbury made the Recognition, and then Their Majesties made the first Oblation, and took their Seats on the South Side of the Altar. Then the Litany began; during which, the Regalia were severally presented at the Altar, and the Great Officers retired to their Seats.

The Litany being ended, and Part of the Communion Service read by the Archbishop, Dr. Drummond, Bishop of Salisbury, preached the Sermon; which being ended, His Majesty made the usual Declaration, and took and subscribed the Coronation Oath.

After Veni Creator, His Majesty removed to St. Edward's Chair; and the Unction was performed by the Archbishop, four Knights of the Garter holding a Pall over His Majesty during the Anointing, viz. the Duke of Devonshire, Earl of Northumberland, Earl of Hertford, and Earl Waldegrave. The Spurs were then presented, and His Majesty girt with the Sword, which was afterwards offered and redeemed.

His Majesty was then invested with the Armill, the Purple Robe or Imperial Pall, and Orb, and afterwards receiving the Ring, returned the Orb to the Altar.

The Marquis of Rockingham, Deputy to the Duke of Norfolk, as Lord of the Manor of Workfop, presented a Right Hand Glove to His Majesty, who, putting it on, received from the Archbishop the Scepter with the Cross, and afterward the Scepter with the Dove, into His Left Hand; and the Marquis did afterwards support His Majesty's Right Hand, as Occasion required.

The Archbishop then set the Crown upon His Majesty's Head, about Half an Hour after Three o'Clock, amidst the Acclamations of an infinite Number of Spectators; upon which the Peers put on their Coronets, the Dukes of Normandy and Aquitaine their Hats; the Bishops, Knights of the Bath, and Judges, their Caps, and the Kings of Arms their Crowns.

Then the Archbishop presented the Bible, and pronounced the Benediction; and His Majesty kissed the Bishops, kneeling before Him.

Whilst Te Deum was singing, His Majesty was enthroned; whereupon the Bishops performed their Homage, and then the Temporal Lords; first His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, each for himself. Then the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Chamberlain, pronounced the Words of the Homage for all the Dukes; the Marquis of Rockingham, for the Marquisses; Earl Talbot, Lord High Steward, for the Earls; Viscount Say and Sele, for the Viscounts; and Lord Henley, Lord High Chancellor, for the Barons; every Peer likewise taking off his Coronet, touched the King's Crown, and kissed His Left Cheek.

During the Homage, His Majesty delivered the Scepter, with the Cross, to the Marquis of Rockingham; (officiating as Lord of the Manor of Workfop) to hold.

In the mean Time, Medals of His Majesty and the Queen were thrown about by the Treasurer of the Household.

The Coronation of His Majesty being finished, the Queen removed from Her Seat on the South Side the Area, to a Chair placed before the Altar, and was anointed, (four Ladies holding a Pall over Her Majesty) and afterward invested with the Ring, and crowned by the Archbishop: Upon which the Peereesses put on their Coronets. The Archbishop then delivered the Scepter into Her Right Hand, and the Ivory Rod into Her Left Hand.

Their Majesties then made their Second Oblation, and received the Communion; and the final Prayers being read, they retired into St. Andrew's Chapel, where they were invested with their Royal Robes and Crowns of State.

A Procession was then made back to Westminster Hall, in the same Order as before, except the Regalia, Prebends, and Choirs, which did not return, and the Marquis of Rockingham, who attended His Majesty to support His Right Arm.

Their Majesties retired into the Court of Wards till Dinner was ready; and then sitting in their Chairs of State, the first Course was brought up with the usual Ceremony, his Royal Highness the Duke of York and his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland sitting at the End of the Table on His Majesty's Right Hand, and her Royal Highness the Princess Augusta, at the other End of the Table, on the Queen's Left Hand. Before the second Course, the Champion was brought up between the High Constable and Earl Marshal, followed by four Pages, and preceded by the Herald, who pronounced the Challenge, the Champion's two Esquires with his Lance and Target, two Serjeants at Arms, and the Trumpets, the Knight Marshal going before to clear the Passage.

Immediately after the Return of the Champion, Garter King of Arms, attended by the rest of the Heralds, proclaimed His Majesty's Style in Latin, French, and English, three several Times; first, upon the Top of the Steps near the Table; next, in the Middle of the Hall; and, lastly, at the Bottom of the Hall.

The second Course was then served up in the same Order as the first. The several Services, which had been allowed by the Court of Claims, were performed; and His Majesty was pleased, after Dinner, to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon John Bridge, Esq; Standard Bearer, and Owen Jones, Esq; senior Gentleman of the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, and Charles Townley, Esq; Clarencieux King of Arms.
