From Tuesday September 29, to Saturday October 3, 1761.

St. James's, September 29.

THE following Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, the Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Middlesex, and City and Liberty of Westminster in the said County, has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, the Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Middlesex, and City and Liberty of Westminster in the said County.

Most gracious Sovereign,

SHARING in that unfeigned Joy, which at present so sensibly affects the Hearts of all British Subjects! animated by that Duty and Affection we owe to your Sacred Majesty! and warmed by the most lively Sentiments of Gratitude! We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, most respectfully approach your Throne, with the sincerest Offerings of Congratulation on your Majesty's Marriage with a Princess, adorned with Accomplishments which render Her worthy to be the Consort of the King of Great Britain; An Event enriched with every Prospect of Happiness, and prefiging every Advantage to our Country; as it gives us just Reason to hope that our latest Posterity will partake of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government.

Permit us therefore to pray, that from this illustrious Union, these Kingdoms may be blessed with a Race of Princes, inheriting the Virtues of their Royal Parents; who may deliver down, to the Extent of Time, the Religious and Civil Rights of a free and grateful People.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing shall be wanting on our Part, to preserve that Peace, and good Order; and to promote that Piety, and Virtue, which for the Happiness of your People, and to your own Glory, have ever been the favourite Objects of your Ambition. And as National Happiness depends on National Piety and Virtue; We doubt not, but such distinguished Examples of both from the Throne, will spread their happy Influence to the remotest Parts of your Kingdoms.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council, of the City of Exeter, has been presented to His Majesty by John Walters and John Tuckfield, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council, of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

GRACIOUSLY to permit your ever faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of your City of Exeter, joining in the universal Acclamations of your People, to express the Transports of their unfeigned Joy, and offer up, at your Throne, their most dutiful and most respectful Congratulations, on this most interesting Occasion of your auspicious Nuptials.

We beg Leave to add our most ardent Prayers to the Great Author of all Blessings, that your Majesty's Patriot Virtues, and unwearied Labours, in promoting the Welfare, and providing for the Security of these your Kingdoms, may be rewarded with the most entire Conjugal Felicity, and with every domestick Comfort: That your Majesty's superior Talents and amiable Qualities, together with the celebrated Virtues of your Royal Consort, may be transmitted down through a long Series of your illustrious Progeny, to be a continual and uninterrupted Source of National Happiness to the most distant Posterity.

Sealed in Chamber, with our Common Seal, this 26th Day of September, 1761.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty, of the City of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by Coningsby Sibthorp, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty, of the City of Lincoln, in Common-Council assembled, filled with a due Sense of the many Blessings derived to us from your Majesty, embrace this Opportunity of joining with the general Acclamations on your Royal Nuptials, with a Princess distinguished by every Virtue and amiable Endowment, and, by this Means, the Welfare and Happiness of your People, rendered stable and permanent to Posterity.

Permit us, Sire, at the same Time, to congratulate you on your Coronation; that Compact with your Subjects, which, under the Divine Providence, will ever prove the best Security to your Majesty's Sacred Person, and the Succession in your illustrious House.

A Spirit of Harmony and Virtue, and a National Capacity felicitates this Island under your Auspices; in whose Reign, and for Ages to come, by a continued Exertion of that Spirit, the British Empire will hold the Balance of Power, and give Laws to Europe.

May you long live to enjoy in Conjugal Felicity, with a Progeny of Princes, a Kingdom and People cordially united in the Principles of Loyalty, Affection, and dutiful Attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the City of Lincoln aforesaid, the twenty-sixth Day of September, in the First Year of your Majesty's Reign,

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens, of the City of Hereford, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Oxford, their High Steward, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens,

Citizens, of the City of Hereford, in Common-Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens, of the City of Hereford, to present their sincere Congratulations to your Sacred Majesty, on Occasion of your Auspicious Nuptials.

Your unvaried Attention to the Good of your People, inspires them with the warmest Gratitude to acknowledge your Paternal Care for their future as well as present Happiness. Your Majesty, in your most gracious Choice of a Royal Consort to your Throne, has gratified the most ardent Wishes of your Subjects, and extended the Prospect of the publick Welfare to After-Ages.

With joyful Hearts we see your Majesty's pious Regard for the Religious as well as Civil Concerns of your People, by your Union with a Princess, who is firmly attached to the Protestant Religion, and whose Virtues will be an Ornament to it. Bright Examples of Goodness, shining from a Throne, cannot fail of having a due Influence on the Manners of your People, and of promoting their true Happiness.

May Length of Days, and encreasing Felicity, attend your Majesty and your Royal Consort; and may your Kingdoms be long happy in having Successors to the Throne of your Royal Progeny, and inherit your distinguished Virtues.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty-fourth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpool, has been presented to His Majesty by Owen Salusbury Brereton Esq; their Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council, of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpool, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Council, of your ancient Borough and Town Corporate of Liverpool, actuated by every Motive of loyal and grateful Duty, humbly beg Leave thus to approach your Sacred and Royal Person with their most ardent Congratulation upon your happy Marriage.

Your Majesty's Choice of a Princess out of an ancient Protestant House, demonstrates your Wisdom and Care for the Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties of your Subjects, and gives them the pleasing Expectation, that these will remain secure to latest Posterity.

The many transcendent Virtues and amiable Qualities, which Her Majesty possesses from Her Princely Birth, Her Virtuous Education, and Natural Genius, promise to your Majesty the greatest Felicity the Marriage State can afford.

That She may be to your Majesty a true Friend and Partner in the Labour of Government, and the happy Mother of a Race of Princes to follow and imitate the glorious Deeds, the virtuous Sentiments, and pious Actions, of their Royal Parents and Ancestors: That You both may long live in true Happiness and Harmony, beloved by all your Subjects, till it shall please the Almighty to bless your Majesties with Eternal Crowns of Glory and Righteousness; and that your Royal Posterity may inherit these Kingdoms in the entire Love of a Great and Free People, till Time be no more, is the fervent Wish and most sincere Prayer of your ever loyal and devoted Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council, of Liverpool.

Passed under the Common Seal of the said Borough and Corporation of Liverpool, the Twenty-third Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one. And signed by Order of the said Common-Council, Fran. Gildart, Town Clerk.

The following Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and Assistants of the Borough of Tiverton, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Edward Montagu, Knight of the Bath, and Nat. Ryder, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgesses and Assistants of Tiverton.

AMIDST the warm Testimonies of publick Joy, permit us, most gracious Sovereign, with Hearts full of Duty and Loyalty, to congratulate your Majesty on your Nuptials with a Princess of such distinguished Merit, and to express our grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government.

May the Almighty, in His great Goodness to this Country, long preserve your Sacred Life, and that of your illustrious Consort: May you continue triumphant and respected Abroad, gracious and beloved at Home; and may those Virtues, which now add a Lustre to the Crown in your Majesties Persons, be transmitted, in your Royal Progeny, to latest Posterity.

Given under our Seal at the Guildhall, this Twenty-ninth Day of September, 1761.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe in the County of Bucks, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe in the County of Bucks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, humbly beg Leave to express our Joy and Congratulations on your Majesty's Marriage to so illustrious a Protestant Princess; an Event so answerable to our just Expectations from your Majesty's paternal Regard for the true Welfare of your People, which we have experienced since your Majesty's Auspicious Accession.

We have now the pleasing Prospect, the most ardent Wishes, that this Nation may long enjoy the same Blessings from your Majesty's Descendants following your glorious Example: Which are the daily Prayers of your most faithful Subjects.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Ludlow in the County of Salop, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Powis, and Edward Herbert, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty, of the Borough of Ludlow in the County of Salop, with all Humility beg Leave to offer our Congratulations to your Majesty, upon your auspicious Marriage with our most gracious Queen; a Princess illustrious for Her Virtues, and for Her Descent from Princes renowned for their Courage and Zeal in the Protestant Cause.

As we have enjoyed an envied Freedom and Prosperity since the Accession of your Royal House to the Throne, Throne, such as no other Nation can boast, for History records, we cannot but testify our Joy, at the Prospect of the Increase of the Princes of your august House, and from thence preiudge the Stability and Continuance of the Blessings we now possess, to ourselves, and latest Posterity.

That the Divine Providence, under whose immediate Protection good and beneficent Princes reign, may shower down upon your Majesty and your Royal Consort the utmost Felicity, and that you may long reign the Joy and Delight of your People, are the ardent Vows of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal at Ludlow this 24th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1761, and in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Merchants, and principal Inhabitants of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Sir Edward Walpole, Knight of the Bath, and Charles Townshend, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth, humbly beg Leave to present our sincere Congratulation upon the late most joyful Event of your Majesty's Marriage.

We wished for it, as a public Blessing, before we heard of the Fame of the illustrious Princess, whose Marriage has excited Her to your Majesty's Affection and Throne. We should have rejoiced most cordially, if only your Majesty's private Happiness had been consulted. Nothing that affects the Heart of so great and good a King can be indifferent to his People. But we have a gracious Declaration from your Majesty, That you considered your Subjects as deeply interested in this important Change of your Life. The Stability of their Happiness, appears to have been present to your Royal Mind, when you was forming Designs for your own. All Europe will applaud the Wisdom of your Choice, whilst your grateful Subjects enjoy the Benefits of it.

We had abundant Reason, Sir, to expect a happy and glorious Reign from a Prince, whose Ancestors were Friends to Liberty, whose Royal Parents had inspired Him with Patriotism, and whose Heart and Temper are formed for universal Benevolence.

Our Hopes are now extended beyond the utmost Bounds of human Foresight. Your Majesty has left us nothing to wish, but the Continuance of your present Happiness; and that you may live to see and educate a Race of princes, worthy of their illustrious Birth, and qualified, like your Majesty, to rule over a brave and loyal People.

Dated the Twenty sixth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty One.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, Barons, and Inhabitants, of the Town and Port of Sandwich in the County of Kent, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Viscount Conyngham and Dr. George Hay, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, Barons, and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, One of the Cinque Ports.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, Barons, and Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Port of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our humble and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Marriage; an Event, in which you have been graciously pleased so to connect your private Happiness with that of all your Subjects, that we are inspired with more Joy on the Occasion, than the heartiest Acclamations can express.

We have experienced the admirable Influence of the Virtues of a great Prince, in the Piety and Humanity, which were the early Ornaments of your Royal Character. Your Majesty has now given us a farther Assurance of Happiness to ourselves and our Posterity, by the Union of your Hereditary and Personal Excellencies with those of your Royal Consort, of whose amiable Endowments we need no other Demonstration, than that they have attracted the Heart of the greatest and the best Monarch in the World.

Professions of Loyalty are the Duty of Subjects at the Commencement of every Reign; but the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils and your distinguished Goodness of Heart, have made such Impressions upon your People, that we speak the Language of Nature, not of Custom, in declaring, that our Loyalty is better founded than in Duty, for your Majesty hath founded it in our Affections.

May your present Happiness, and that of our most gracious Queen, continue to the longest possible Duration of human Life, and may your Royal Descendants rule as wisely over our latest Posterity, as it is your Majesty's Glory to rule over our Hearts and Minds.

Given under our Common Seal at Sandwich aforesaid, the Twenty Ninth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty One.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Corporation and Town of Marlborough, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Brudenell and the Honourable Colonel Brudenell, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor and Burgesses of the Corporation and Town of Marlborough, penetrated with a Sense of Gratitude, as well as Duty and Loyalty, humbly beg Leave to gratulate your Majesty on the Solemnization of your most Auspicious Nuptials with a Princess of such innate Goodness, such amiable Endowments, and such eminent Virtues, as cannot fail of attracting your Majesty's Esteem and Affection, and making the Conjugal State blessed with every domestick Happiness.

May the Great God above long preserve your Majesty and your Royal Consort, to enjoy the Fruits of your blessed Nuptials in a numerous Progeny, and all Conjugal Happiness. May your Majesty long continue the Defender of our Faith, and Maintainer of our Civil Rights: May you be not only the Joy of your own Subjects, as you now are, but the Support of your Allies, and the Terror of your Enemies; the Protector of the Liberties of Europe; the Guardian of the Protestant Interest, and a common Blessing to Mankind: And when, being full of Years, and full of Glory, you shall be gathered to your Fathers to take Possession of an Eternal Crown, may your Temporal Crown descend peaceably on your Royal Offspring; and may there never be wanting a Succession of Princes of your illustrious House, to sway the Scepter of these Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

Given at our Council Chamber this Twenty-second Day of September, 1761.

Berlin, Sept. 22. By Letters received from M. Pluten's Corps at Czempin, we are informed, that some Light Troops, whom he had pushed forwards to Posen, had set Fire to the Russian Magazines at that Place. The General was following the 17th with the rest of his Detachment, which consisted of 12 Battalions and 17 Squadrons, the Major Generals Knoblauch and Ziethen being with him. He was to be at Landsberg the 20th, and might reach Colberg, as was thought, by the 26th, where he was to endeavour to force the Russian General Romanzow manzow to raise the Siege of that Place. We hear from Silesia, that the Russian Army repassed the Oder the 17th at Steynau, and directed their March towards Posen; that they were the 18th at Alt Girau; and the 19th at Schweshau near Lissa.

Hague, Sept. 29. Our last Letters from the Country of Hesse mention, that Prince Ferdinand, with the Allied Army, was the 24th in the Neighbourhood of Cassel, and the Hereditary Prince at Holtz-dorff, four Leagues distant from Marbourg. But we have as yet no Particulars of any Operations, that can be depended on. Upon the News of the Allies having repassed the Dymel, M. Broglie is said to have quitted his Head Quarters at Eimbeck, and to have marched with his whole Force towards Cassel.
