St. James's, October 6.

The following Address of the Clergy of the Church of England, in the Provinces of New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut, has been presented to His Majesty by the most Reverend Father in God the Archbishop of Canterbury: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Clergy of the Church of England in the Provinces of New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Clergy of the Church of England in the Provinces of New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut, humbly beg Leave to join with our Fellow-Subjects, in the most dutiful and affectionate Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Kingdoms and Dominions of your Royal Ancestors.

We adore and bless the good Providence of God, for the abundant Consolation hereby afforded us, under that great, and otherwise irreparable Loss, which we sustained by the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory; and in adorning your Majesty with such eminent Virtues, as give us the happy Prospect of your being indeed a Nursing Father to the Church, as well as the Guardian and Support of the Civil Rights and Privileges of your Subjects; of both which, your Majesty's most gracious Declaration and Proclamation for the Encouragement of Religion and Virtue, and the Suppression of Vice and Immorality, give us the strongest Assurances; so that we have no Room to doubt of your Majesty's Favour, while we continue to inculcate the great Duties of Piety towards God, and Fidelity and Loyalty to your Majesty, agreeable to the Doctrines and Precepts of the Gospel, as taught by our excellent Church, which, we assure your Majesty, shall be our constant Endeavour.

We humbly beg Leave to recommend the Church of England, and her Clergy, in these remote Parts of your Dominions, to your Majesty's most gracious Patronage and Protection; and most ardently beseech Almighty God, the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, by whom Kings reign, to bless your Sacred Person and Government; to grant you a long and prosperous Reign, over a happy and grateful People; and, finally, to exalt you to a Crown of Glory and Immortality. This is, and ever shall be, the daily Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty.

Your Majesty's most loyal,
and most dutiful

Subjects and Servants.

of the Clergy above-named.

Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks.

Most gracious Sovereign,

BE pleased to accept our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's most happy Nuptials. We are truly sensible of the Benefits and Advantages we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and good Government; and are deeply touched with a Sense of Gratitude, ready and desirous, on every Occasion, to shew ourselves dutiful and loyal Subjects. At this Time a signal Opportunity offers, when the whole Nation rejoices that your Majesty has made Choice of a Royal Consort, descended from a high and distinguished Family, possessed of the most amiable Qualifications, and endowed with the greatest Virtue, from whom we hope to see a numerous Offspring, who may be the great Defenders of their Country, and imitating the Example of their Illustrious Parents, may support its Religion by their Authority, and adorn it by their Conduct; and our ardent Wishes are, that your Majesty, and our most gracious Queen, may enjoy Length of Years, in an uninterrupted Scene of Prosperity and Happiness, to rule over a grateful and brave People, ever zealous to promote the Interest of their King and Country.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty-ninth Day of September, 1761.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Watson, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg Leave to express some Part of that lively and cordial Satisfaction, which we have felt at the Solemnization of your Royal Nuptials,

We adore the Divine Providence, which has so happily directed your Choice on this interesting Occasion, and united your Majesty in the sacred Ties of Marriage, with a Protestant Princess, descended from an illustrious Family, remarkable for their firm and constant Zeal for the Reformed Religion: A Princess possessed of the most shining Virtues, adorned with the most amiable Endowments, and every Way worthy to engage the Affections, and share the Honours of a British Monarch.

May the domestick Felicities of your Majesty and your Royal Consort, be great as the Fame of your Virtues, as the publick Prosperity of your Kingdoms, and (if possible) as the most sanguine Wishes of your grateful Subjects: May a numerous Train of Princes, great, good, and amiable as their Royal Parents, be the blessed Fruit of this auspicious Marriage; That the Glory and Prosperity which the British Dominions enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, may by their Means be transmitted to latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty Fifth

Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty One.

Petersburg, Sept. 8. The Empress being quite recovered from her late Indisposition, the two Imperial Ambassadors, and the Spanish Minister, had their Audiences of her Majesty on Thursday last; and on Sunday Evening there was a Drawing Room at Court, on which Occasion the Marchioness of Almodovar, and the Countess of Haxthausen, the Ladies of the Spanish and Danish Ministers, had the Honour to be presented to her Majesty. Count Esterhazy, the Empress Queen of Hungary's Minister to this Court, being recalled, set out this Morning for Vienna.

Delfzyl in Oostfrize, Sept. 23. A Body of 6 or 800 French Light Troops, commanded by the Marquis de Conflans, having appeared before Embden the 24th Instant, and the Burghers having refused to join in defending the Place, the English Garrison of two Companies of Invalids, making about 200 Men, made a very advantageous Capitulation, and embarked on the 26th for Bremen, but met with a violent Storm at N. E. which still detained them in the River.

After the Entrance of the French Troops into the Town, they went to work upon raising Contributions, and extorted 10500 Ducats in ready Money, and 11500 more in Bills of Exchange. From that Time to the 27th, many of the Houses of the Citizens were pillaged, and destroyed; but upon hearing that the Country was up in Arms, they evacuated Embden, and marched back towards Lier, where it is said that the Boors being advantageously posted, sunk the Pontons upon the River, which had served the French to pass it; and that thereupon the Enemy had been obliged to return to Embden. What is certain is, that a great Number of Peasants have entered the Town, opened the Arsenal, and Magazines, and were firing the Cannon upon the French Advanced Guard this Afternoon.

Hamburg, Sept. 29. The 22d Instant, being the Day of their Majesties Coronation at Westminster, a very splendid Feast, succeeded by a grand Illumination and Ball, was given by the Society of British Merchants here, in a Salon built expressly for that Purpose in the Garden belonging to the Factory.

According to the freshest Accounts from Silesia, the Russian Army was arrived at Reuss on the Borders of Poland.

Colberg continued on the 24th Instant to make a brave Defence.

Hague, October 2. Our Correspondence is so much interrupted by the Detachments of Prince Soubise's Troops in Oostfrise, and the Neighbouring Parts, that we have scarce any Accounts of what has passed since Prince Ferdinand's Return with the Allied Army into Hesse. By the last Letters received from thence, which were of the 24th past, his Serene Highness was at Ober Wilmar near Cassel, and had obliged General Stainville to retire with his Infantry into the Intrenchments before that Town, having sent his Cavalry over the Fulda. The French Army had quitted the Hartz, and Marshal Broglio had detached a large Body from Eimbeck towards the Werra.

The Hereditary Prince had been detached by Fritzlär, over the Eder, and a large Detachment of his Light Troops had penetrated as far as Butzbach, within five Leagues of Frankfort.

A Body of Troops under the Command of M. de Clofen, appeared suddenly on the 24th past before Wolfenbuttle, and after summoning the Place, and receiving a Refusal, threw several Shells into it, which have done little or no Damage. He retired the same Evening towards the Hartz. However, the Alarm, Alarm, which this sudden Approach of the Enemy occasioned at Brunsvick, obliged the whole Court to retire the same Afternoon to Zell.

It is confirmed by fresh Letters from Berlin, that General Platen had destroyed considerable Magazines belonging to the Russians at Coblin and Gollin; and that at a Convent, near the last named Place, he had attacked the Russian Wagenbourg, consisting of 5000 Waggon, guarded by 4000 Men, whom he totally defeated with very little Loss on his Side, having made 2000 Prisoners, and taken 5 Haubitzen and 2 Cannon: That a great Number of the Russians were slaughtered by the Cavalry in the Pursuit, after the Action: That among the Prisoners there was one Brigadier General named Czerapow, three Majors, and 20 Officers of Inferior Rank. It is added, that upon Advice of the Prussians, having destroyed the Russian Magazines, the Generals Butterlin and Fermor had repassed the Oder, directing their March, as it was imagined, towards Colberg, though by other Accounts they seemed to intend making a Diversion in Brandenburg. Prince Henry had detached 1600 Dragoons to the Assistance of Colberg, commanded by Colonel Podewils, who passed Berlin the 22d Instant.

St. James's, September 26, 1761.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the Night of the 24th of July last, a Horse, the Property of Mr. Edward Upfold, of Haslemere, in the County of Surry, was Jam-strung, in the Stable adjoining to the said Edward Upfold's House, in Haslemere, aforesaid; and that a great Number of young Fir-Trees, planted in the Garden of the said Edward Upfold, and in other Plantations adjoining, were cut down and destroyed by Persons unknown: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons who committed the said Crimes, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person principally concerned therein) who shall discover his, or her Accomplice, or Accomplices, in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BUT E.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Edward Upfold does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to the Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by him upon the Conviction of one or more of the said Criminals.

Edward Upfold.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurifies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysteries; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.
