AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 7th Day of October, 1761,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

THIS Day Sir James Lowther, Baronet, Lieutenant of the Counties of Cumberland and Westmoreland, took the Oaths appointed to be taken, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

AT the Court of St. James's, the 11th Day of September, 1761,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July last, to promise and declare, (amongst other Things) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman should be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twelfth of this Instant, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the said Twelfth Day of this Instant, in like Manner voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who should secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards is now near expiring: And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some longer Time; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited by the said Proclamation, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Twelfth Day of this Instant September, to the Thirty-first Day of October next inclusive. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

St. James's, October 10.

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, has been presented to His Majesty by Samuel Chandler, D. D. Benjamin Avery, L. L. D. Michael Pope, and Charles Beatty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, conveened at Philadelphia May 25, 1761, in Behalf of themselves, and the Presbyterian Churches in the Provinces of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia.

Most Gracious Sovereign;

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbyterian Churches convened in Synod, beg leave to embrace this Opportunity of our first Meeting, to condole with your Majesty on the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's Illustrious Grandfather. An Event which has excited the tenderest Emotions in the Breasts of a grateful People, who had long experienced the inestimable Blessings of his mild and auspicious Reign.

His inviolable Attachment to our excellent Constitution, and disinterested Endeavours to promote the Felicity of all his People, rendered him a Monarch equally great and amiable. But his paternal Care of the British Colonies, his seasonable Interposition, and well conducted Efforts to deliver us from savage and perfidious Enemies, his superior Regard for the sacred Rights of Conscience, and utter Abhorrence of every intolerable and bigoted Measure, reflected peculiar Luster on his Administration, and will endear his Memory to every Subject, even in the remotest Parts of your Majesty's Dominions, who are Friends of Civil and Religious Liberty.

Though we have the greatest Reason to deplore with your Majesty this important Loss, yet have we at the same Time abundant Cause to adore the Divine Goodness, in continuing to the Nation a Life of such singular Importance, until your Majesty was capable to sway the Sceptre with equal Dignity and Wisdom.

Permit us therefore, with the greatest Sincerity, to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, and to rejoice that the most high God has granted us a Prince adorned with the most shining Accomplishments; and animated with the glorious Ambition of acquiring the only true Grandeur that can arise from Empire, the unperishing Glory of doing Good.

In particular we consider with unspeakable Pleasure, your Majesty's most gracious Declaration from the Throne, in Favour of Religion and Virtue, which never fail to exalt a Nation; and for the Suppression of Vice and Immorality, which as constantly entail on a People publick Infamy and indelible Reproach. Such great and exemplary Instances of your Majesty's Sollicitude for the Honour of God, and the real Happiness of your People, reflect on your Royal Person a Glory superior to that of Victories and Triumphs.

May your Majesty graciously accept this sincere Tender of our most ardent Zeal and Affection for your Sacred Person and Government, of our inviolable Attachment to the Protestant Succession in your most illustrious House, and of our most humble Assurances, that it shall be our constant Endeavour, (as it has ever been) to inculcate on those committed to our Charge, the Principles of Gratitude, Loyalty and Obedience; and we shall ever in our Prayers, most fervently beseech Almighty God, that your Majesty may reign with great Renown and Length of Days; the Champion of Liberty and of the Protestant Interest, the grand Bulwark of true Religion and Virtue; and finally, be translated to a Crown incorruptible that fadeth not away.

Signed by Order of the Synod,
Robert Croft, Moderator.

The two following Addresses having been transmitted to the Earl of Bute, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, have by him been presented to the King : Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, with all Humility, to congratulate your Majesty upon your Royal Nuptials. And, in the expressing of our Duty and Affection for your Person and Government, to give way to our Joy at this Establishment of your Royal House ; to which our City hath at all Times been distinguished for their Attachments, and with which the Liberties of your Subjects stand inseparably united.

Secure of all Happiness to ourselves under your most auspicious Government, we could have no Care but for the Continuance of it to our Posterity. Your Majesty, graciously condescending to our Wishes, hath rendered that Happiness complete, in that which could alone be wanting, in chusing for your Royal Consort a Princess, who, to have engaged that Choice, cannot but be adorned with every shining Qualification and Endowment that can dignify her Sex. Who, receiving the greatest Reward that can Crown the most transcendent Merit, sees herself possessed of the Affections of a Prince, the Darling of his Subjects, the Terror of his Foes, and the Pride of Europe. Whose Virtues, as a Man, give Lustre to his Crown, and afford her the surest Hold for her Hope, that in his generous Breast she shall find no Rival but his People.

When, with Admiration, we reflect upon the eminent Virtues of your Majesty's illustrious Race, and view them the Source of every Blessing a free People can wish for or enjoy, we gratefully commemorate our glorious Deliverer King William, who, a Friend to our Religious and Civil Rights, and under Heaven, the great Instrument for the Rescuing of both from the Danger they were in ; did, for their everlasting Preservation, fix the Succession to the Throne of these Realms in your Majesty's most August Line. And it is with a Delight unspeakable we behold that Royal Stem, which he with an auspicious Hand had planted, strike the deepest Root in our Constitution ; and stretching forth Branches on every Side to shelter and adorn it.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed this Twenty-fourth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, do, with all Humility and Loyal Affection, entreat your gracious Acceptance of our Congratulations on the happy Occasion of your Majesty's Nuptials.

Your faithful People, who have already experienced the great and glorious Effects of your Majesty's princely Virtues, of the Wisdom and Stability of your Counsels, of your vigorous, magnanimous, and victorious Efforts, to assert the Interest and Honour of your Kingdoms, and chastise the unjust Attempts of your Enemies, cannot but feel the sincerest Joy on every Event which tends to promote the Happiness of your Majesty.

And more especially must our grateful Hearts be affected with the most exalted Pleasure by this your auspicious Union with a Princess, distinguished by every eminent Virtue and amiable Endowment, whose illustrious Line hath constantly shewn the firmest Zeal for the Protestant Religion, and a particular Attachment to your Majesty's Family ; whom the Divine Providence seems to have appointed, in peculiar Favour to your Majesty and these Realms, to compleat, confirm, and perpetuate the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and gracious Government. It hath ever been the Honour and Happiness of this your Majesty's University, to have persevered in the most devoted Attachment to the Princes of your illustrious House ; and we cheerfully embrace this Opportunity of declaring, with the most unfeigned Gratitude, that our humble Endeavours to enforce the Precepts of Loyalty, have been honoured and rewarded by your Majesty's Favour. Engaged therefore by every Motive which can Influence the Minds of faithful Subjects, we take our Part in this general Joy with the most ardent and grateful Zeal.

We humbly and devoutly implore the Divine Goodness to bless your Majesty and your Royal Consort, to preserve you long and happily the Instruments of its Favour to the People of these Kingdoms, and in due Time to crown our Prosperity by granting your Majesties a numerous and flourishing Offspring to inherit the Dignities and Virtues of their Royal Parents.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, having been transmitted to the Earl of Bute, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, has by him been presented to the King : Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit us your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, to join in the Congratulations which are presented to your Majesty from all Quarters, on this truly joyful Occasion.

Happy as we are under the Government of your Majesty, whose Virtues add Splendor to the Throne, and secure the Happiness and the Glory of your Kingdoms ; whose patriot Administration makes all the Subjects to feel the Blessings of Liberty, and whose wise Councils and vigorous Measures have produced signal Triumphs in all Parts of the Globe ; it makes a great Addition to our Joy, that, amidst the Cares of Royalty, your Majesty has so early seen fit to call to your Throne a Protestant Princess, descended from the most illustrious Ancestors, and adorned with every amiable Quality.

While we are confident that by this Step your Majesty has provided most effectually for your domestic Happiness, we beg Leave to express our grateful Sense of the tender Care of your Subjects, which is displayed by your Majesty's thus seeking to perpetuate the Civil and Religious Blessings so amply enjoyed by us, and to transmit them to Posterity, by a Succession of Princes sprung from your Majesty, and from a Queen worthy to be the Partner of your Throne.

That domestic Joy and public Happiness may be the Effect of this Union, that it may produce a Race of Princes Great and Good as your Majesty, that they and their Descendants may fill the Throne, and Reign in the Hearts of a free, a loyal, and virtuous People to latest Ages, is our constant Wish, and our earnest Prayer.

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Signed in their Name, and by their Appointment,

Wm. Davidson, Provost.
Aberdeen, Sept. 29, 1761.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of Bath, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Ligonier, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the City of Bath, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, among the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, to congratulate your Majesty upon the joyful Event of your Marriage, the only Circumstance wanting to compleat our Happiness: For having no further Wish, blessed as we are under your mild and gracious Government, but that our Posterity might continue to be ruled by your Majesty's Descendants. Your Royal Nuptials, while they promise that Blessing, have, in the mean Time, secured the Prosperity of the present Age, by the Choice you have made of your Illustrious Consort. Your loyal Subjects, Sir, have an Interest in every Thing that relates to your Majesty's Welfare. Your Consort is their Queen, and your Children are the Stock and Family of their Kings: It is for them therefore, as well as for yourself, that your Majesty, in the Choice you have made of our Excellent Queen, has provided for your own and your Peoples Prosperity at the same Time. This Paternal Regard to your loving Subjects deserves the highest Return of Gratitude, for calling to the Partnership of your Throne, a Protestant Princess of Illustrious Birth, and adorned with every Virtue and Accomplishment.

Permit us, therefore, to approach your Majesty, and to augurate from this Auspicious Union, a Reign of Domestick Happiness, and a Succession of Heroes to bless and to adorn Posterity; and we do most devoutly pray, that this Scene of Felicity may remain uninterrupted, and that your Illustrious Progeny may reign over these Kingdoms till Time shall be no more.

Given under our Common Seal the fifth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one.

The following Address of the Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Devon, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Courtenay Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Devon, assembled at the Castle of Exeter, on Thursday the 1st Day of October, 1761.

Most gracious Sovereign,

Permit your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Devon, with all Submission, to approach your Royal Throne, and mingle their humble Offerings of sincere Congratulation with the great and general Oblations of Joy made to your Majesty, on your Royal Nuptials.

Your Majesty's Choice of an Illustrious Princess, eminent for Her Religion, Virtues, and great Accomplishments, to reign with you in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects of Great Britain, as it affords us a most interesting Instance of your truly affectionate and paternal Regard for the Welfare and Prosperity of these Kingdoms; so it demands every Return of Duty and Gratitude that is in the Power of a Free, Loyal, and United People, to make to the wisest and best of Princes. We therefore humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Attachment to your Sacred Person, Royal Family, and Government.

May your Majesty and your Royal Consort long enjoy your present Happiness; May Heaven for ever preserve the blissful Union of your Hearts; and may your Years roll on in constant Harmony: May an Illustrious Succession of your Royal Race convey the Prosperity of these Nations to remotest Ages; and may our latest Posterity rejoice in the happy Consequences of this Auspicious Event.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Gloucester, has been presented to His Majesty by the High Sheriff of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Gloucester.

WE humbly beg Leave, most gracious Sovereign, to felicitate your Majesty on your auspicious Marriage to a Protestant Princess, illustriously descended, most admirably accomplished and adorned with the most distinguished Virtues. We cannot be insensible to the Happiness of a Monarch, who testifies by all Actions, that he makes our Happiness his own; nor can any Language express our Joy at this important Event, which affords so ample and pleasing a Prospect of public and lasting Good. The Choice your Majesty has made of a Consort is a shining Proof of your Discernment, and of those Patriot Sentiments which animate your Royal Heart. It is our ardent Wish and Prayer, that this Union may prove to your Majesty and the Queen a Source of the highest Felicity; that you may long be Blessings to each other and to these Nations; that Providence may crown you with peculiar Honours, and grant you a numerous Offspring, who, like their august Parents, shall be Examples of Piety and Virtue, Patrons of Liberty, and Friends to Mankind. It is impossible to forbear adding our most fervent Desires, in which we are joined by every Briton, that these Kingdoms may flourish and rejoice under the Government of your Royal Descendants through all the Ages of revolving Time.

Permit us to conclude with the most inviolable Assurances, that we shall do every Thing in our respective Stations, to the utmost Extent of our Influence, to render your Majesty's Administration easy and prosperous, to maintain Tranquility and good Order, and to preserve and improve, if it can be improved, that general Unanimity which already so happily prevails.

The following Address of the Mayor, Portmen, and Capital Burgeesses, of the Corporation of Orford, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Worsley, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Portmen, and Capital Burgeesses of the Corporation of Orford.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Portmen, and Capital Burgeesses, of the Corporation of Orford, humbly beg Leave, in the Midst of the universal Joy expressed by the Nation, to offer our most sincere Congratulations upon the late Event of your Majesty's Auspicious Nuptials.

When we reflect upon the early and gracious Declarations made by your Majesty, that your Majesty would place your principal Happiness in the Glory, Security, and Welfare, of your People; and observe, that all your Majesty's Actions, since your Accession to the Throne, have had no other View but to make us happy and glorious, we should think ourselves unworthy of the invaluable Blessing of so good a King, if we failed to rejoice at every Circumstance that could tend to soften and alleviate the many heavy Cares with which your Majesty's elevated and painful Station is encompassed. We are bound in Gratitude to wish your Majesty every Domestick messick Comfort and Happiness, which your Royal Comfort, adorned with all Her various Accomplishments and Virtues, can afford.

Our Enemies must bear with Wonder and Mortification, that, whilst under the Favour of Heaven, and your Majesty's wise Conduct, we are extending our important Conquests over them, in so many distant Parts of the Globe, we have indulged in our united Demonstrations of Joy for this desirable Event, with as much Security and Splendor as we could have manifested in Times of the most profound Peace.

Thus successful and glorious in our Warlike Operations by Sea and Land, and happy, as we are, under your Majesty's just and mild Government, what remains for us to ask of Heaven, but that your Majesty's Enemies may be reduced soon to the Necessity of submitting to your equitable Terms, and restoring Peace to Europe; and that your Majesty may be blessed with a numerous Progeny, thereby affording us such Subjects for our future Congratulations.

Given under our Common Seal the twenty-eighth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Twelve Men, and Freemen, of the Corporation of Great Grimsby, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Henry Knight and Joseph Mellish, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Twelve Men, and Freemen, of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Great Grimsby, sincerely affected by every Occasion that tends to the Increase of your Majesty's Glory and Happiness, and zealous, on all Occasions, to approve ourselves your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to express our unfeigned Joy on so wish'd-for an Event, as your Majesty's Union with a Princess of such Illustrious Descent and most exalted Merit. Our Prayers shall be daily offered, that your Majesty and your Royal Consort may long enjoy the Fruits of this blessed Marriage, and your People the happy Effects of it to the latest Posterity, by a Race of Princes resembling their Illustrious Parents, in every private as well as publick Virtue.

Given under our Seal at our Town Hall, this Twenty-ninth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty One.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgeses of Monmouth, has been presented to His Majesty by Norborn Berkeley, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeses of Monmouth, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgeses, of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Monmouth, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your Royal Nuptials, and to express their Sentiments upon that happy and important Event.

To your Majesty's Wisdom and Magnanimity, and the Success of your Arms, under the Blessing and Direction of Divine Providence, Britain owes her present Glory and Splendour, her respectable Situation at Home and Abroad, and the Impotence of her malicious, and most inveterate Foe. In the Midst of War, Royal Sir, you cultivate the Arts of Peace, protect and extend our Commerce, encourage Merit by your Favours, and Virtue by your own great Example. In fine, August Sir, you reign in the Hearts of your People; not only the Sovereign, but the Father of your Country; a far greater Title than the most arbitrary Monarch's over a Nation of Slaves.

Nor are your Majesty's Paternal Cares confined to the Welfare and Happiness of your Subjects of this Generation only, but are extended also to those of their Posterity. In this Light we consider, and cannot sufficiently admire and acknowledge your Majesty's Prudence and Goodness in the Choice of your Royal Consort; a Protestant Princess of a most Illustrious House, particularly attached to your own, by Her eminent Virtues and Endowments formed for Royalty, and from whose exalted Character, we may reasonably entertain the greatest Hopes and Nationed Expectations.

But whilst we thus contemplate our publick Happiness, let us not omit our Acknowledgments to your Majesty for it: National Benefits should have National Returns; and our warmest Gratitude should accompany and justify our Professions. Permit us here, Royal Sir, most humbly to assure you of the Sincerity of ours; and to re-assure you of our inviolable Duty and Attachment to your Majesty the best of Kings, and the Guardian of our Constitution.

May your Majesty's Reign over us exceed the longest of your Predecessors, and in Glory and Felicity, cemented and corroborated by an Increase (if possible) of that mutual Affection and Confidence which so cordially subsists between your Majesty and your People: May your Conjugal and Domestic Happiness know no Alloy or Interruption; and from this Royal Union may there arise a future Race of Princes, to protect and defend your British Isles and Dominions from all Foreign Insult and Incroachment, to maintain and support the Protestant Religion, and to transmit that and our other Rights and Privileges to our latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, the Twenty-second Day of September, 1761, and in the First Year of your Majesty's most gracious Reign,

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, has been presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Ligonier and the Right Honourable William Pitt, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty.

PERMIT us, Madam, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, to pay this first Offering of our Duty to your Majesty, and to join with the rest of our Fellow Subjects, in celebrating your Majesty's Nuptials with the best of Kings, our most gracious Sovereign.

When we reflect upon your illustrious Birth, your Religion truly Protestant; those natural and acquired Endowments, both of Mind and Person, wherewith your Majesty is so eminently adorned, we are persuaded, that, if your faithful Subjects had been consulted, they would have addressed your Majesty to have been their Queen, with the same Ardour that His Majesty has courted you to be his Consort; But the King's Goodness and Wisdom have prevented the Wishes of his People, by placing your Majesty upon the Throne, to be the Pattern of every Female Virtue to your Sex, while His own excellent Perfections are the best and highest Examples to ours.

So ruled, and so instructed, your Subjects have Reason to expect a general Improvement of Manners among the People, and to see Virtue become fashionable, by the Reflection of its Brightness from that high Place where your Majesties are enthroned.

May the Joy of this present Time continue unaltered during both your Lives; and may your own natural Affection

Affection to each other be equalled by nothing but the Zeal and Affection of your Subjects to both your Majesties.

Given under our Common Seal, the fifth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeses of Monmouth, has been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeses of Monmouth, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Queen,

SENSIBLY affected with every Accession of Happiness to our Royal Master, the best of Princes, sensible also of the many and great Benefits derived to His People from His Union with a Protestant Princess of your most illustrious Birth, and of those eminent Virtues and Endowments which form the Royal Mind, we His Majesty's ever dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Common Council of His ancient and loyal Corporation of Monmouth, cannot conceal our Joy and Satisfaction on that happy and important Event; and humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty thereon.

The great Regard you have shewn, Royal Madam, to our darling Monarch, in leaving your native Country, and its natural Attractions, to make Him happy, and to soften the Cares of His Throne, cannot but be most agreeable to His People, who have so great an Interest in His Felicity. And as His Majesty may be justly deemed the Father of His Country, would your Majesty be graciously pleased to adopt it also for yours, it would be still more engaging, and lay us under the strongest Ties of Duty and Gratitude in Return.

May your Majesty rise yet higher (if possible) in the Affections of our Sovereign, and the Esteem of His People; and be long the Royal Partner of that Happiness to which you have so much contributed, and so justly deserve; and may this auspicious Union of your Majesties produce an illustrious Race of Princes, to secure and perpetuate the Blessings we now enjoy to our latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, the twenty second Day of September, 1761, and in the first Year of His Majesty's most gracious Reign.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Gloucester, has been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Gloucester.

May it please your Majesty,

DUTY and Gratitude to the best of Sovereigns have called upon us to testify our Joy in an humble Address to His Majesty, and to present to His Royal Acceptance a loyal and respectful Tender of our sincerest Congratulations on the Occasion of His happy Nuptials.

Animated with a due Sense of the Importance of these Blessings to us, and to our Posterity, We likewise now beg Leave to approach the Person of that excellent Princess, whom by His Majesty's Wisdom and judicious Choice we have the Happiness to honour and revere as our gracious Queen. Such a Choice is to us the strongest Proof, that she is possessed in an eminent Degree, of all those Virtues which can adorn a Throne, which can add Lustre to Royalty, and make both His Majesty, and his People happy.

The following Address of the Mayor, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, has been presented to Her Majesty by Coningsby Sibthorpe, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,

Most gracious Queen,

PERMIT us, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council assembled, to congratulate your Majesty on your Nuptials with a Manarch possessed of every Virtue necessary to the Glory and Happiness of His Kingdoms; and on your Accession to the Throne of Great Britain,

Your illustrious Line has constantly shewn the firmest Zeal for the Protestant Religion; and your great Endowments entitle you to the Affection of a faithful People; and how entirely you are possessed of them, must be well known to the World, by the general Joy expressed, when His Majesty declared His Intention of making you His Royal Consort.

Your Love and Affection will conduce to make the Weight of Government more easy to His Majesty; and we hope the Throne of these Kingdoms will continue to late Ages in your Issue and Descendants.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Lincoln aforesaid, the twenty sixth Day of September, in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, has been presented to her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, by Harbord Harbord Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; Which Address her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, entreat your Royal Highness to accept our most respectful Congratulations, on His Majesty's auspicious Nuptials.

We are bound, by innumerable Ties, to love and venerate your Royal Highness, and share in the superior Satisfaction your Royal Highness enjoys on this happy Event. Long has your Royal Highness been a nursing Mother to these Kingdoms; long have your exemplary Virtues and princely Patronage contributed to their Happiness and Fame! Permit us therefore, gracious Princess, to assure you of our unalterable Zeal and Affection for your Royal Person, and of our inviolable Duty and Fidelity to our excellent Sovereign.

Amidst the Felicities of so bright a Reign, His Majesty's Union with an amiable Princess, of an illustrious Protestant House, has gratified the only Wish His happy Subjects had to form in Favour of succeeding Ages.

May every pleasing Hope they entertain on this great Occasion, be accomplished, that future Generations may rejoice in this illustrious Union! And may Heaven long preserve your Royal Highness, to participate in the Glories of His Majesty's Reign, in the Felicity of the Royal Pair, and in the Prosperity of all your Princely Offspring.

Given under our Common Seal, this twenty ninth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

Madrid, September 4. A Report having been lately spread here, upon the Arrival of the last Letters from France, as if there was Reason to apprehend an immediate Rupture between our Court and that of Great-Britain; we understand, that the Spanish Ministers, in a Conversation which they had lately with the Earl of Bristol, Ambassador Extraordinary from his Britannick Majesty, expressed their Concern thereat, and declared very explicitly to his Excellency, that, on the Part of their Court, there was not the least Ground for any such Apprehensions, as the Catholic King had, at no Time, been more intent upon cultivating a good Correspondence with England, than in the present Conjuncture; and, at the same Time, informed the Earl of Bristol, that Orders had been sent to Monsieur Manso, Governor of San Roque, to reprimand such of the Inhabitants under his Jurisdiction, as had encouraged the illegal Protection given to the French Privateer Row-Boats, under the Cannon of a Spanish Fort.

Nuremberg, Sept. 22. Count Goertz, the French Minister, demanded the 11th, of the Circle of Franconia, two Millions of Rations to be delivered into their Magazines on the Mayn and on the Upper Rhine; one Half the 30th of November, the Remainder by the 31st of January, 1762.

Hague, October 6. By the latest Accounts received here from the Army in Hesse, which are of the 26th of September, Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters were at Wilhelmstahl near Cassel. The Detachments, which the Hereditary Prince had sent along the Fulda and the Lahne, to destroy the Enemy's Magazines, have obliged Marshal Broglie to send a considerable Body of Troops to reinforce Lieutenant General de Stainville, who encamps under the Cannon of Cassel, at which Place the Marshal himself was arrived, whilst the rest of his Army was encamped between Gottingen and the Werra.

The French, after committing great Excesses in the Principality of East Friesland, had provoked the Peasants to rise in Arms against them, which had obliged the first Corps to abandon the Country. They are, however, since returned in greater Numbers, and have put a Garrison of 800 Men into Embden. A Detachment of the French Light Troops has likewise entred Osnabrugge, where they have demanded the most heavy and exorbitant Contributions.

The Russians are certainly marched to Posen; and since they separated from General Laudohn, his Prussian Majesty has levelled the Intrenchments about his Camp; from which it is imagined, that he intends to remove soon from thence.

St. James's, October 9.

The Right Honorable William Pitt having resigned the Seals into the King's Hands, His Majesty was this Day pleased to appoint the Earl of Egremont, to be one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. And, in Consideration of the great and important Services of the said Mr. Pitt, His Majesty has been graciously pleased to direct, That a Warrant be prepared for granting to the Lady Hester Pitt, his Wife, a Barony of Great Britain, by the Name, Stile, and Title, of Baroness of Chatham, to herself, and of Baron of Chatham to her Heirs Male; And also to confer upon the said William Pitt, Esq; an Annuity of Three Thousand Pounds Sterling, during his own Life, and that of Lady Hester Pitt, and their Son John Pitt, Esq;.

St. James's, October 9.

This Day Earl Temple, Keeper of the King's Privy Seal, resigned the said Seal into His Majesty's Hands.

St. James's, October 10.

The King has been pleased, by His Royal Sign Manual, bearing Date the 7th Day of this Instant October, to order, That the Three Forms of Prayer and Service, made for the 5th of November, the 30th of January, and the 29th of May, as also a Form of Prayer for the 25th of October, (being the same as was appointed for the Inauguration of His late Majesty, with only such Alterations as have been directed by Order of Council, in relation to the Prayers for the Royal Family) be used, Yearly, on the said Days, in all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches and Chapels; in all Chapels of Colleges and Halls, within both the Universities; in the Colleges of Eaton and Winchester; and, in all Parish Churches and Chapels, within that Part of His Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England, The Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

St. James's, October 10.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Shute Barrington, Clerk, Master of Arts, the Place and Dignity of a Canon of the Cathedral Church of Christ, in the University of Oxford; The same being vacant by the Decease of Doctor Paul Forrester, late one of the Canons of the said Cathedral Church.

Dublin, September 23.

Yesterday being the Day appointed for their Majesties Coronation, the Great Guns were fired at the Phoenix Park, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon their Excellencies the Lords Justices met at the Castle, and received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction, who all wore Blue and White Cockades, when Athlone Pursuivant, in the Absence of the King of Arms, proclaimed aloud His Majesty's Style and Coronation in Latin, French, and English. After which, their Excellencies, attended with a Guard of Battle-Axes, and a Squadron of Horse, and accompanied by a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry, in their Coaches and Six, the Horses being decorated with Ribbons, made a Tour round St. Stephen's Green. In the Evening, the Regiment of Horse, and three Regiments of Foot, accompanied by the Royal Irish Regiment of Artillery, with a Train of Artillery, marched under the Command of Major General Montagu to St. Stephen's Green, where they were drawn up. And grand Fireworks were played off in three Courses, and between each Course, upon Signals made by Rockets, a Round of Twenty one Guns was fired at the Salute-Battery in the Park, which was answered by the Artillery in the Green, and afterwards by a Running Fire of the Regiments, the Whole making a most pleasing Feu de Joye. On the Return of the Troops to the Barracks, several Hogheads of Porter were distributed among them. His Majesty's Castle, the Parliament-House, the College, the Custom-house, the Barracks, Essex Bridge, the Steeples, and all the publick Buildings, as well as private Houses, were grandly illuminated. A Play was given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and the Night concluded with ringing of Bells, and the greatest Demonstrations of Joy.
