AT the Court of St. James's, the 19th Day of October, 1761,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July last, to promise and declare, (amongst other Things) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twelfth Day of September last, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the said Twelfth Day of September, in like Manner voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who should desert themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been extended to the Thirty First Day of this Instant October; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some longer Time; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, as it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty First Day of this Instant October, to the Twelfth Day of December next inclusive. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th Day of October, 1761,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 30th of April last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of this Instant October — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, That no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of this Instant October, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty Ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entituled, " An Act to impower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the Law for impowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to impower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Blair.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff; and Common Council, of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by Matthew Ridley, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled.

ACCCEPT, most gracious Sovereign, our most cheerful and unfeigned Congratulations on the important and interesting Event of your Majesty's Nuptials; on which happy Occasion, we cannot but adore the Divine Goodness, in pointing out to your Majesty's Choice, a Princess, amiably eminent for the Beauties of Her Mind and Person, and by Her Conduct reflecting Honor on the illustrious House from whence she sprung.

May the Almighty bless your Majesty and your Royal Consort with a Progeny, resembling you in all those Royal Virtues, which add a Lustre to a Crown! May every connubial Happiness attend you! And may there never be wanting one of your Descendants to assert the Liberty, and vindicate the Rights of a grateful, free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal, the fifth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

The following Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by Matthew Ridley, Esq; Governor of the said Company, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers

Writers of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

Most gracious Sovereign,
WE, the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of Newcastle upon Tyne, crave Leave most humbly to present our dutiful Congratulations on your Majesty's Auspicious Nuptials, and to testify our Joy on an Event of such universal Satisfaction to your Majesty's faithful Subjects. The Alliance with a Princess so distinguished for every Virtue and amiable Accomplishment, and of a Family ever steady in the Support of the Protestant Religion, gives the most pleasing Prospect of a long Continuance to the Happiness now so perfectly enjoyed under your Majesty's wife, mild, and gracious Government.

We sincerely pray the Divine Providence to endow your Majesty with every publick as well as private Blessing; and that you may, to the unspeakable Comfort of your grateful People, long live, and see a numerous Progeny imitating the great and glorious Example of their Royal Parents, Guardians of Liberty, revered and honoured by free and happy Britons.

Given under our Common Seal the Sixth Day of October, 1761.

The following Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House in Newcastle upon Tyne, has been presented to His Majesty by Matthew Ridley, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House in Newcastle upon Tyne.

Most gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity House in Newcastle upon Tyne, humbly beg Leave to present our sincere Congratulations on the happy Event of your Majesty's Marriage.

We most earnestly wish and pray, that every conjugal Felicity may attend your Majesty and your Royal Consort; and that the Religion and Liberties of Britain may be preserved to the latest Posterity, by a Race of Princes descended from you both.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed the 7th Day of October, 1761.

The following Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses, of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been presented to His Majesty by Robert Jones, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses, of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Huntingdon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses, of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Huntingdon, with Hearts full of Joy, beg Leave once more to approach your Majesty's Sacred Person, with our most sincere Congratulations on the many glorious Events by which your Majesty's Reign has been already rendered conspicuous to the whole World: Events, that cannot fail of contributing greatly to the present and future Credit, Power, and Prosperity of these Kingdoms. And we take this Opportunity more particularly to express our hearty Concurrence in the universal Joy of the Nation, on Account of the Blessings your Majesty is like to enjoy, and afterwards to entail upon your

People, from the Choice you have made of a Princess for your Consort, endowed with every valuable Qualification and distinguished Virtue; and who, we trust in the Almighty, will bless your Majesty with a numerous Offspring, who will perpetuate the mild and gentle Maxims of Government, by which your Majesty has endeared yourself to your most happy and grateful Subjects. It will be our constant Prayer, that your Majesty's Reign may be long, as we are already well assured that it will be wise and glorious.

In Witness whereof, we have hereunto set the Common Seal of the said Borough, the thirteenth Day of October, One thousand seven, hundred and sixty-one.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings in the County of Sussex, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable James Brudenell, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings, in the County of Sussex.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings in the County of Sussex, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, with our hearty and most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Nuptials. We are truly sensible of the Benefits and Advantages we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and good Government, and are deeply touched with a Sense of Gratitude, ready and desirous, on every Occasion, to shew ourselves dutiful and loyal Subjects. At this Time a signal Opportunity offers, when the whole Nation rejoices with us, that your Majesty has made Choice of a Royal Consort, descended from an illustrious Family, remarkable for their firm and constant Zeal for the Protestant Religion; a Princess possessed of the most amiable Qualifications, and endowed with the most shining Virtues. May a numerous Progeny, great, good, and amiable as their Royal Parents, be the blessed Fruit of this auspicious Marriage; that the Glory and Prosperity which the British Dominion enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, may by their Means be transmitted to latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal of the Town and Port of Hastings, the seventeenth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

Dublin Castle, October 6.

This Day arrived his Excellency the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom. His Excellency was received, at his Landing, by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of Dublin. The Foot Forces in Garrison lined the Streets through which his Excellency (attended by a Squadron of Horse) proceeded, amidst the Acclamations of the People, with the usual Ceremony, to the Castle, where, in Council, his Excellency took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and received the Sword from their Excellencies the Lord Justices: After which, the Great Guns in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out upon College Green: And his Excellency repairing to the Presence Chamber, received there the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction, upon his safe Arrival to take upon him the Government of this Kingdom.

THE Creditors of Eliza Lock, late of Golden Lane near Cripplegate, London, Grocer, who was discharged at the last Quarter Sessions held at Kingston upon Thames in the County of Surry, (under the Compulsive Clause in the Act of Parliament made for Relief of Insolvent Debits) are desired to meet at the Bush Tavern at Aldersgate, London, on Friday the 23d of this Instant, at Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, in order to chuse one or more Assignees or Assignees of his Estate and Effects.

Cocke, August 29, 1761.

WHEREAS the Widow Lauthé and Son, late of the City of Corke, Merchants, obtained one or more promissory Note or Notes, for considerable Sums of Money, signed for us by Paul Maylor, our late Cashier, but without our Privy, and not for our Use, or upon our Account, and payable to them, or to Peter Lauthé, for which Note or Notes no Value was given either to us, or the said Paul Maylor. And whereas the said Lauthé and Son have since failed in their Circumstances, and a Bill having been filed against them in our Names in the Court of Chancery in Ireland, to oblige them to deliver up to us such Note or Notes, they have stood out Process of Contempt for not answering, and refuse to deliver up such Note or Notes to us, or to produce the same: And whereas the said Paul Maylor hath in other Instances signed Notes for us without our Privy, for which we never got any Value, and which he never entered in our Books; we think it necessary to caution all Persons against accepting in Payment, or negotiating any Note signed for us, and payable to, or endorsed by the said Lauthé and Son, or the said Peter Lauthé; and from accepting in Payment or negotiating any Note signed for us by the said Paul Maylor, he having in many Instances abused the Trust reposed in him by us.

Larwin, Carleton, and Féray.

THESE are to give Notice to the Heirs of the late Messrs. James Tucker and John Edmonds, who were Merchants and Partners at Alicante in Spain, and who left that Place and retired to England in the Year 1701, that by applying to John Banks, Esq; His Majesty's Consul at Carthagena in Old Spain, they will hear of something to their Advantage; and they are hereby desired to let the said Consul know how to direct to them: And in order to prevent any fallacious Claims being made by Persons who have no Right, the true Heirs are desired to send over the proper Proofs of their being such, which any Proctor in Doctors Commons will put them in the right Way to do.

Carthagena, Sept. 16, 1761.

John Banks.

THE Executors of Mr. John Martindale, late of Liverpool in the County of Lancafter, Gentleman, deceased, do hereby give Notice, that they intend, without Delay, to make a Dividend of the Money arising from Sale of his Estate of Inheritance, and that any of his Relations, or Persons claiming any Right or Title thereto, who have not already made their Claims, are to give Notice thereof to Mr. William Statham, Attorney at Law in Liverpool aforesaid, and make out their Claims, on or before the 2d Day of November next, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend. And for further Particulars all Persons interested, may in the mean Time apply to the said Mr. Statham.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Frederick De Chevrigny, late of Fen Court Fenchurch Street, London, Sugar Broker, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects, on Friday next, at Six of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Paul's Head Tavern near Guildhall, London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing one or more Suit or Suits as Law or in Equity relating to the Estate and Effects of the said Bankrupt, and to their submitting to Arbitration any Disputes concerning the same Estate and Effects.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt hath been lately awarded against Charles Villeneau, late of the Island of Jamaica, but now of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman; and there is Reason to believe that the greatest Part of his Effects are now concealed, the Assignees therefore give Notice, that such Person or Persons who shall make a Discovery of any Money or Effects of the said Bankrupt, which are concealed; shall receive a Reward after the Rate of Forty Pounds for every Hundred Pounds of the net Produce of such Monies or Effects as shall be recovered by such Discovery, on Application to Mr. Henry Jones, Attorney at Law, in Dove Court, Lombard Street.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Hannah Gilbody, now or late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancafter, Claypotter, Dealer and Chapwoman, and she being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender herself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 17th and 18th of November, and 1st of December next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, on each of the said Days, at the House of James Wrigley, known by the Sign of the Golden Lyon in Dale Street in Liverpoole aforesaid, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of her Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to chuse Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish her Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of her Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of her Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Williams Statham, Attorney, in Liverpoole.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against William Bramwell, now or late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancafter, Butcher, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 17th and 18th of November, and 1st of December next, at Three o'Clock, in the Afternoon, on each of the said Days, at at the House of James Whigley, known by the Sign of the Golden Lyon in Dale Street in Liverpoole aforesaid, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to prepare to prove their Debts, and at the second Sitting to chuse Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. William Statham, Attorney, in Liverpoole.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Hewling Luson, of Gunton in the County of Suffolk, Merchant, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 23d. of November next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, on the 24th of the same Month of November, and on the 1st of December next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the House of John Reynolds, called the King's Head Inn in Bungay in the said County of Suffolk, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to chuse Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Philip Meadows, Attorney, in Diss in Norfolk.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Martha Cooke, of Shad Thames in the County of Surry, Biscuit Baker, intend to meet on the 18th of November next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors, who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Henry Ray, now or late of Saffron Walden in the County of Essex, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, intend to meet on the 11th of November next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a final Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors, who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

THE under-mentioned Persons claiming the Benefit of the Act lately passed for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, the following Notices have been brought to the Printers of the LONDON GAZETTE, to be inserted in this Paper, and are herein inserted in Obedience to the said Act.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the First Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled, An Act for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, I do hereby give Notice, that I intend, at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the City of London, or any Adjournment thereof, which shall happen next after Twenty Days from the Publication hereof, to Compel Ralph Hancock, late of Burlington Gardens in the County of Middlesex, Milkman, who is now a Prisoner in His Majesty's Prison of the Fleet, and charged in Execution therein at my Suit, to subscribe and deliver into Court upon Oath a Schedule of all his Estate and Effects, for the Benefit of his Creditors.
