

dermen, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Marriage, an Event so essential to your Majesty's Happiness and our own.

Permit us at the same Time, most gracious Sovereign, to observe, that as our most humble Acknowledgements are due to your Majesty for the Marriage, they are no less so, for the Choice of a Queen in whom Piety and Virtue are hereditary Qualities, and who alone is capable of increasing the Satisfaction of a People, who were before looked upon and envied as the happiest in the whole World.

May this Marriage be productive of every good Effect, which your Majesty and your People have Reason to hope for, and expect; and may it afford, to us and the rest of your faithful Subjects, the Comfort of seeing the Royal Family still growing and rising up in another Generation: A Family, which we ardently beg of Heaven may be as immortal, as those Liberties which it came to maintain and assert.

Given under the Common Seal of the Town of Lancaster, this eighth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honorable the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Corke, with Hearts filled with the utmost Zeal and Respect, humbly beg Leave to express our joyful Congratulations on the Solemnization of your Majesty's most auspicious Nuptials and Royal Coronation:

Your Majesty's happy Union with a Princess of the most distinguished Merit and amiable Accomplishments, descended from an illustrious House, always firmly attached to the Protestant Cause, and the Prosperity of your Majesty's Dominions, gives us the strongest Assurances of the Preservation of our Rights and Liberties; and with the utmost Joy we add, that the glorious Progress of your Majesty's Arms, and the noble Examples of Piety and Religion, shewn by your Majesty to your happy Subjects, confirm us in these Assurances.

We most earnestly beseech the Divine Goodness, who is the Giver of all Victories, and by whom Hearts are united, to continue Success to your Majesty's Arms, to the bringing on an honourable and lasting Peace; and to bless your Majesty and your Royal Consort our most gracious Queen, with many and long Years of Conjugal Affection and Happiness; and that your Majesty, when you are called from hence to an immortal Crown, may leave to your People a Race of Princes, the Offspring of your Royal Marriage, to adorn the British Throne, and to reign over and bless the Subjects of these free and happy Realms, to latest Posterity.

In Testimony whereof, the Common Seal of said City is hereunto affixed, this second Day of October, 1761.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Albans, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Newnham and James West, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Saint Albans, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with our most sincere and respectful Congratulations on the Occasion of your Royal Nuptials.

Sensible of the many Advantages these Kingdoms must receive, from an Alliance with a Princess descended from so illustrious a Race of Princes, and distinguished by so many amiable Virtues, we acknowledge, with Hearts full of Gratitude, your Majesty's Attention in this, as in every other Instance, to the Welfare of your People; and interested as we are, from Duty and Affection, in whatever concerns your Majesty, we cannot but rejoice in an Event so conducive to the Happiness of your Reign.

Long may an Union, so auspiciously begun, continue a Blessing to your Subjects; and may Heaven grant a Succession of Princes in your Majesty's Royal House, to perpetuate the Happiness we now enjoy, to latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Capital Burgeses of the Town or Borough of Stamford, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk and Capital Burgeses of the Town or Borough of Stamford in the County of Lincoln.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave, with the greatest Joy and Sincerity, to congratulate your Majesty upon your late happy Marriage with a Protestant Princess, of whose Virtues and Merit there could not be clearer Proofs than those of your Majesty's Discernment and Choice.

Gratitude, equal to our Duty, calls upon us, to make our most profound Acknowledgments of this fresh great Instance of your Majesty's Care and Affection for your native Country, in a Matter so essential to the Happiness of your Majesty's Subjects, and so necessary for the Continuance of the same to their Posterity; and in dutiful Return for this benign Goodness, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will faithfully persevere in our Loyalty and Affection to your most sacred Majesty and your Royal Consort, and use our constant and hearty Prayers, that the greatest Blessings and Felicities both public and domestic may be poured down upon your Majesty and our most gracious Queen; and that your united People, warmed by their Love, and influenced by your Majesty's Example, may pay all Obedience to your Majesty, and the Laws of your Kingdom, as we see your Majesty most religiously paying it to the Laws of God, whose Divine Goodness we implore long to preserve your Majesty and your Royal Consort, and to bless you with a Progeny to descend to the
