Westminster, November 6.

HIS Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Septimus Robinson, Knt. Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

AT the Opening of the First Parliament, summoned and elected under My Authority, I with Pleasure take Notice of an Event, which has made Me completely happy, and given universal Joy to My loving Subjects. My Marriage with a Princess, eminently distinguished by every Virtue, and amiable Endowment, whilst it affords Me all possible domestic Comfort, cannot but highly contribute to the Happiness of My Kingdoms; which has been, and always shall be, My First Object in every Action of My Life.

It has been My earnest Wish, that this first Period of My Reign might be marked with another Felicity; the restoring of the Blessings of Peace to My People, and putting an End to the Calamities of War, under which so great a Part of Europe suffers. But though Overtures were made to Me, and My good Brother and Ally the King of Prussia, by the several Belligerent Powers, in Order to a general Pacification, for which Purpose a Congress was appointed; and Propositions were made to Me by France for a particular Peace with that Crown, which were followed by an actual Negotiation; yet that Congress hath not hitherto taken Place, and the Negotiation with France is entirely broken off.

The Sincerity of My Disposition to effectuate this good Work has been manifested in the Progress of it; and I have the Consolation to reflect, that the Continuance of the War, and the farther Effusion of Christian Blood, to which it was the Desire of My Heart to put a Stop, cannot with Justice be imputed to Me.

Our Military Operations have been in no Degree suspended or delayed; and it has pleased God to grant Us farther important Successes, by the Conquests of the Islands of Belleisle and Dominica; and by the Reduction of Pondichery, which hath in a Manner annihilated the French Power in the East Indies. In other Parts, where the Enemy's Numbers were greatly superior, their principal Designs and Projects have been generally disappointed, by a Conduct which does the highest Honour to the distinguished Capacity of My General Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, and by the Valour of My Troops. The Magnanimity and Ability of the King of Prussia have eminently appeared, in resisting such numerous Armies, and surmounting so great Difficulties.

In this Situation, I am glad to have an Opportunity of receiving the truest Information of the Sense of My People, by a new Choice of their Representatives. I am fully persuaded you will agree with Me in Opinion, that the steady Exertion of Our most vigorous Efforts, in every Part where the Enemy may still be attacked with Advantage, is the only Means that can be productive of such a Peace, as may with Reason be expected from Our Successes. It is therefore My fixed Resolution, with your Concurrence and Support, to carry on the War in the most effectual Manner for the Interest and Advantage of My Kingdoms; and to maintain, to the utmost of My Power, the good Faith and Honour of My Crown, by adhering firmly to the Engagements entered into with My Allies. In this I will persevere, until My Enemies, moved by their own Losses and Distresses, and touched with the Miseries of so many Nations, shall yield to the equitable Conditions of an honourable Peace; in which Case, as well as in the Prosecution of the War, I do assure you, no Consideration whatever shall make Me depart from the true Interests of these My Kingdoms, and the Honour and Dignity of My Crown.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I am heartily sorry, that the Necessity of large Supplies appears so clearly from what has already been mentioned. The proper Estimates for the Services of the ensuing Year shall be laid before you; and I desire you to grant Me such Supplies, as may enable Me to prosecute the War with Vigour, and as your own Welfare and Security, in the present critical Conjunction, require; that We may happily put the last Hand to this great Work. Whatsoever you give, shall be duly and faithfully applied.

I dare say your affectionate Regard for Me and the Queen makes you go before Me in what I am next to mention; that making an adequate and honourable Provision for Her Support in case She should survive Me. This is what not only Her Royal Dignity, but Her own Merit calls for; and I earnestly recommend it to your Consideration.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have such a Confidence in the Zeal and good Affections of this Parliament, that I think it quite superfluous to use any Exhortations to excite you to a right Conduct. I will only add, That there never was a Situation in which Unanimity, Firmness and Dispatch were more necessary for the Safety, Honour, and true Interest of Great Britain.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 7th Day of November, 1761,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

This Day His Grace Robert Lord Arch Bishop of York, and the Right Reverend Thomas Lord Bishop of London, were, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took their Places at the Board accordingly.

Dublin Castle, October 24.

The Houses of Lords and Commons having unanimously resolved upon humble and dutiful Addresses to His Majesty, the same, together with Addresses from both Houses to the Lord Lieutenant, were this Day presented to his Excellency, and, with his Excellency's Answers, are as follow.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament

Parliament assembled, with all Humility beg Leave to condole with your Majesty, on the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late most Gracious Sovereign, at a Time when the Welfare of Europe seemed to depend on the Continuance of his Life.

So severe and afflicting a loss must necessarily affect our Hearts with the deepest Sorrow; but we cannot sufficiently acknowledge the Divine Goodness, in having given us a Prince of such exalted Virtues, not only to succeed to the Throne, (your legal Inheritance) but to the Affection and Confidence of your Subjects, as unbounded as the greatness of your Predecessors have ever enjoyed them, and so fully to repair the Loss we should have otherwise have sustained by the Death of so excellent a Prince.

The Commencement of this Parliament with the Accession of a King, bred under the Influence, and formed by the Example of a Prince, who uniformly tempered Prerogative with the Law, and whose Glory it was, in the Exercise of his Power, to protect the Rights and Liberties of his People, affords us Matter of the highest Joy and Satisfaction.

We cannot entertain too grateful a Sense of your Majesty's Goodness in the Assurances you have given us, that your Subjects of this Kingdom are fully and in every Respect comprehended in your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, that the Preservation of the Constitution in Church and State, and the enforcing a due Obedience to the Laws, not more necessary to your own Authority than the Good of the People, shall be the first and constant Object of your Care.

The wise Choice your Majesty has made of a Royal Consort, eminent for her personal Virtues and Endowments, displays, in the clearest Light, your paternal Care not only to preserve, but to transmit to Posterity, the Blessings of your Reign, Liberty, and pure Religion.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, animated as we are with the warmest Sentiments which Gratitude and Loyalty can inspire, we shall exert ourselves to carry on the Business of the present Sessions in such Manner, as that it may be distinguished by its uninterrupted Harmony and effective Zeal for the Support of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown; which Dispositions we consider as the surest Means, under your Majesty's paternal Influence, of making us an happy, and establishing us an opulent, and flourishing People.

We have the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's tender Care and Concern for this Kingdom, in having appointed his Excellency the Earl of Halifax our chief Governor, whose distinguished Merit and approved Abilities in the high Station which he filled, give us the fullest Assurance that he will exert himself in promoting the Happiness, and preserving the Tranquility of this Kingdom.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, sensible as we are of the many Blessings we now enjoy, and have derived from your wise and gracious Administration, and that of the Princes of your Royal House, and most grateful for their strict and uniform Attention to the Preservation of our Laws and Liberties, we shall endeavour to make the fullest Returns of the most affectionate Duty and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and shall not cease to implore the Divine Providence for the long Continuance, the Glory and Happiness of your Majesty's Reign.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Will forthwith transmit this dutiful and affectionate Address, to be laid before His Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person, with Hearts deeply affected for the Loss of our late most excellent Sovereign, whose just and glorious Reign must ever make his Memory dear to a grateful People.

This great, this national Loss, could not be repaired, nor our Grief alleviated, but by your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors. The early Virtues which have distinguished your Majesty, and universally procured the Duty, Confidence, and Affection of your Subjects, give us the firmest Assurance of future Happiness, under the Government of a Prince, who, inheriting the Virtues, as well as the Dominions of the best of Kings, makes it His Glory, in the Exercise of His Power, to protect the Rights and Liberties of His People, and lays the Foundation of His own Greatness in the Happiness and Affection of His Subjects.

The tender and affectionate Concern which your Majesty has been pleased to express for our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and your most gracious Declaration, that the Preservation of the Constitution in Church and State, shall be the first and constant Object of your Care, require our most particular and unfeigned Acknowledgments, and are the most convincing Proofs that your Majesty esteems it the most glorious Title of Royalty, to be the common Father of your People.

Your Majesty's wise Choice of a Royal Consort, so eminent for her personal Virtues and Endowments, and descended from an House so illustrious for its invariable Zeal for the Protestant Cause, displays, in the clearest Light, your paternal Care, and gives us the surest Hopes, under God, that this Alliance will transmit, unimpaired, to our Posterity, those most valuable Blessings, Liberty and pure Religion.

We beg Leave to express our most hearty Thanks for your Majesty's great Tenderness for your Subjects of Ireland, manifested in so considerable a Saving, as has been made on a Vote of Credit, given by the Commons in the last Session of the late Parliament.

Permit us further to assure your Majesty of our warmest Gratitude for your paternal Care of this Country, in sending his Excellency the Earl of Halifax to be our chief Governor; a most convincing Proof of your Majesty's being solicitous that we should regulate and improve, which will of course extend, our Trade; and that there should be introduced amongst us, Arts and Sciences most beneficial to Society.

These many and eminent Instances of your Majesty's fixed Attention to our Happiness, must meet with the warmest Return of Affection and Duty, from Subjects not more distinguished by their Regard for the Welfare of their Country, than by their inviolable Loyalty and Gratitude to those Sovereigns from whom they derive their Prosperity and Protection. And we do assure your Majesty, that your faithful Commons will, with the greatest Cheerfulness, and most uninterrupted Harmony, concur in every Measure that may contribute to the maintaining of your just Prerogative, and the Glory of your Reign, which we wish may be long over us; and that we will in all our Deliberations, exert the most effective Zeal for the Support of the Authority and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Government.

H. Alcock, }*

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Will forthwith transmit this dutiful and loyal Address to be laid before His Majesty.

To his Excellency George Dunk Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, return your Excellency our most humble Thanks for your Speech from the Throne, to both Houses of Parliament.

With Hearts full of Loyalty and Gratitude to His Majesty, we acknowledge it, as a Signal Instance of His

His Majesty's Royal Attention and Favour to this Kingdom; that he has been graciously pleased to commit the Government of it to your Excellency's Care.

Your Excellency's distinguished Abilities; your extensive Knowledge, and great Experience, in the Commercial Interests of Great Britain; and the Wisdom and Vigour, with which (under your Excellency's Direction, in your former important Station) those most valuable Interests, have been supported, extended, and secured, justly intitled your Excellency to every Mark of Respect and Gratitude, from all, who then had the Happiness of being under your immediate Protection.

Those eminent Services, so honourably attested by such as were best qualified to judge of the Merit, and were Principal Shareers in the Benefit of them, could not be unknown to His Majesty's faithful Subjects of Ireland; nor fail to inspire them with a particular Veneration for your Excellency's exalted Character.

But high as the Opinion was, which we had before conceived of your Excellency, permit us, My Lord, to say, it is now not only confirmed, but improved. The great Attention and Candour with which you have enquired into and considered the State of this Kingdom, and the Readiness and Solicitude you have so kindly expressed, to promote the publick Welfare, by your Authority, your Credit, and your Experience, gives us a firm Assurance, that the greatest National Benefits will result from the Wisdom of your Excellency's Administration.

The Improvement of our natural Advantages, the Encouragement of Agriculture, and the Extending of our Manufactures and Commerce, are so judiciously and earnestly recommended by your Excellency, and the Utility and Importance of the Protestant Charter Schools, are placed before us in so strong a Light, that we shall be, to the last Degree, wanting both to our Duty and Interest, if we do not fix our most serious Attention upon these great Objects, and avail ourselves of your Excellency's Assistance, to establish us, under His Majesty's paternal Influence, an Opulent, Flourishing, Protestant People.

To propose, to recommend, to facilitate the Means of Publick Happiness, is a Conduct most worthy of your Excellency, which, by thus pursuing the Intention, cannot fail to merit the Approbation of His Majesty, at the same Time that it effectually engages the unbounded Respect, the Affections, the Hearts of all His People.

On our Part, animated with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Gratitude to our Sovereign, and of Zeal for the Prosperity of our Country, we have nothing more at Heart, than to approve ourselves to your Excellency, His Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy, and careful to promote and extend, to the utmost of our Power, the same just Sentiments, amongst all our Fellow-Subjects.

In our Proceedings in Parliament, the Reality of these Principles will be demonstrated by the Harmony of our Deliberations, and a cheerful Concurrence in every Measure which can tend to the Support of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, the Preservation of the Constitution of this Kingdom, and the Ease and Success of your Excellency's Administration.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

My Lords,

I Am, highly sensible of the Honour your Lordships have done me, by your kind and affectionate Address. To deserve the favourable Opinion you are so good as to entertain of me, will be the constant Object of my Ambition and my Care; and I am fully satisfied, I can never so effectually recommend myself to you, as by a faithful Execution of His Majesty's Commands, and a diligent Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of this Kingdom.

To his Excellency the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WHEN His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, return your Excellency our unfeigned Thanks for your most excellent Speech from the Throne; and we beg Leave to assure your Excellency, that the Commons of this Kingdom never met, with clearer Intentions, or a more sincere Desire to support the favourable Opinion which your Excellency has most justly conceived of the Parliaments of this Kingdom; and to manifest their most earnest and unanimous Wishes for the Support of His Majesty's Government, and your Excellency's Administration.

We persuade ourselves, that during your Excellency's Residence amongst us, from your great and extensive Knowledge and Experience, your sincere Desire to encourage, regulate and improve the commercial Affairs of this Kingdom, and your great Zeal to protect the Established Religion of our Country, you will be entitled to the just Reward of an easy and happy Government, which we are thoroughly convinced will not be prevented either by publick Heats or private Animosities.

We shall grant the necessary Supplies with the greater Cheerfulness, as we are fully persuaded, that no Economy will be wanting in the Application of them for the Service of the Publick.

The inexpressible Loss which these Nations have sustained, by the Demise of our late most gracious Sovereign, though it most severely afflicted us, has been repaired by the Accession of His Majesty to the Crown of these Realms; whose Wisdom in the Government of these Kingdoms, and in the happy Choice of a Consort so eminently distinguished for every Virtue and Accomplishment, must make all the rest of Europe envy our Happiness; of the Continuance of which, we are so fully assured, by His Majesty's early and most gracious Declaration to all His Subjects.

We see, with equal Pleasure and Admiration, the arduous and important Situation in which your Excellency is placed; and we cannot sufficiently express our just Sense of your Excellency's noble Intentions for our Service, when you inform us of your invariable Purposes of maintaining His Majesty's Honour, and promoting His Service, while you cannot lose Sight of those desirable Objects, the forwarding the Prosperity, and preserving the Constitution of this Kingdom; in which you may be assured of the heartiest Concurrence of the Commons, as we must ever look upon the Honour and Service of the Crown, and the true Interest and Happiness of the People, as mutual and inseparable.

We beg Leave to make our most grateful Acknowledgments to your Excellency for your affectionate Wish; that the Interests of both Kingdoms may be as thoroughly understood, as they are inseparably connected: A Connection, which we consider as the most valuable and honourable to this Kingdom, and which it is strongly our Inclination, as it is clearly our Interest, to maintain.

Your Excellency's kind Assurances from the Throne leave us no Room to doubt, that every Thing that ought or can be done to promote the Welfare of this Kingdom, will be thoroughly accomplished under your Administration; which Blessing we hope His Majesty will long continue to us: And we hope our Conduct will be such, as may enable your Excellency, upon your Return into the Royal Presence, truly to represent to His Majesty the Zeal and Unanimity of His Subjects in this Kingdom; as we are persuaded your Excellency cannot fail to be fully possessed of the Confidence, Affections, and Hearts, of the People of Ireland.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

Gentlemen,

I Return you my most sincere Thanks for your kind and affectionate Address. The Professions you have been pleased to make, I consider rather as directed to my Situation than my Person; and I look upon this, as one of the many Ways by which you are desirous to convey your Duty to His Majesty. It is so far only as I have the Honour of representing my Royal Master, that I can be in any Manner intitled to receive them; but, in that Light, I must declare myself highly satisfied with so pleasing a Testimony of your Loyalty and Gratitude. What I have said, on the Part of the King, you may rest upon with the most perfect Reliance: What I have said, upon my own, you will interpret by my Conduct.

St. James's, November 7.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Corporation of Christ Church in the County of Hants, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon Thomas Robinson and James Harris, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your auspicious Marriage with her Highness the Princess of Mecklenberg, our now most gracious Queen. Such an Alliance, so wisely formed, and so happily carried into Execution, is a very high and interesting Event; will sweeten your Royal Cares, and give a general and universal Joy to all your Subjects. Not content with the Glories of a mild and just Administration; not content with giving us Plenty at Home, and Successes Abroad, your Majesty is pleased to extend your Views to Futurity; and we hope will make Posterity happy, by a long Succession of Princes in your illustrious House. It has been the Felicity of your Majesty's Reign to make Discord cease, and to diffuse a Spirit of Union through all your Subjects; and we are now taught to improve the Duties of domestic and social Life; and made Happy, Wife, and Good, by Royal Example. Long may your Majesty reign over an affectionate, obedient, and united People, who have nothing more to wish, but the Continuance of their present Happiness, and who ardently implore the Blessings of Heaven upon the best of Sovereigns, our most beloved, and patriot King.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Kent, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Robert Fairfax, Esq; and Sir Wyndham Knatchbull Wyndham, Bart. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your most auspicious Nuptials with a Princess, descended from an House so eminently distinguished in the Cause of Protestantism and of Liberty, and whose Personal Virtues add Lustre to your Throne.

May your Majesty long continue a Blessing to these Nations: And may there never be wanting a Succession of Princes from this happy Union, to fill the Throne of these Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

Magdebourg, Oct. 24. The King of Prussia continued, when we last heard from Sillesia, in his Camp of Strehlen, and General Laudohn in that of Freybourg. On the 19th of this Month, General Botta was sent with a Thousand Waggon's laden with Infantry, to make an Attempt on the Fortress of Kosel, which however did not succeed, as he found General Latorff, Commandant of that Place, alert, and upon his Guard.

Prince Henry still remains in the Camp at Schletttau, and the Motions of Marshal Daun, and General Lascy, have produced no Effect. The Swedes seem to have finished their Campaign, having passed the the Peyne at Anclam, and the Oder at Commin; both which Places they have evacuated.

The Gros of the Russian Fleet is retired from before Colberg, but some few Vessels still block up that Place; and General Romanzow, though he has embarked his heavy Artillery, remains in his entrenched Camp, opposite to General Platen.

Liege, Oct. 26. This Day a Battalion of French Guards arrived here, returning to France; they have suffered very much by Sickness and Want of Provisions since they took the Field.

Tongres, Oct. 28. The four Companies of the Gardes du Corps, which are the last of the King's Household, are passed by here in their Way to Brussels; they are in general very ill mounted, having lost a great Number of Horses in the Field; and the Rest are ruined by Fatigues, and Want of Forage, &c.

Hague, Oct. 30. Marshal Broglio continued still on the 26th Instant, in the same Position, encamped and cantoned between the Leine and Weser. He had a Corps upon the Fulda, and another upon the Dymel. They have demolished the Castle of Schartzfeldt; and given Orders for levelling the Walls of Duderstadt; and are now employed in collecting a great Quantity of Forage in the Parts where they are at present.

Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters were still at Ohr on the 26th: His Troops are in Part encamped; and in Part cantoned between the Emmer, the Hamel, and the Innerte, with a Detachment upon the Lippe. It is probable that this latter occasioned the Prince of Soubize's suspending for a little the Dislocation of his Army, which, it is still assured, is entering into Winter Quarters. The Prince of Soubize is is at present at Wesel, but soon expected at Dusseldorf. Several Battalions and Squadrons of his Army are ordered back to France, besides the Household Troops. The Gendarmerie is to be quartered in the Bishoprick of Liege.

It is confirmed, that the Accounts published of the Magazines belonging to the Allied Army, said to be destroyed by the French in Westphalia and East Friesland, are greatly exaggerated; nothing being more certain, than that the Allies had nothing of any great Consequence in those Parts.

We are still without any matcrial News from Silesia. The Prussians did not succeed in getting a large Convoy into Colberg, which had been prepared by the Prince of Bevern at Stettin, the Russians having dispersed and destroyed the greatest Part of it.
