From Saturday December 5, to Tuesday December 8, 1761.

AT the Court of St. James's; the 19th Day of October, 1761,

P R E S E N T;

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July last, to promise and declare, (amongst other Things) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twelfth Day of September last, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the said Twelfth Day of September, in like Manner voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who should secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been extended to the Thirty First Day of this Instant October; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some longer Time; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, as it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty First Day of this Instant October, to the Twelfth Day of December next inclusive. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 8th of December, 1761,

P R E S E N T,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable
Privy Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Henry Arthur Earl of Powis, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Montgomery, took the Oaths appointed to be taken, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

As did likewise,

Sir Nicholas Bayley, Bart. as Lieutenant of the County of Anglesey.

Sir John Phillips, Bart. as Lieutenant of the Town and County of Haverford West. And,

Richard Myddelton, Esq; as Lieutenant of the County of Denbigh.

[Price Three-Pence.]

St. James's, December 8.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, has been presented to His Majesty by Henry Curwen, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen,
Bayliffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle.

Most gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, beg that your Majesty will be pleased to accept their Congratulations upon your Royal Nuptials: An Event which gives the greater Joy to your faithful Subjects, because your Majesty's unbounded Care for the Good of your People had left them nothing more to wish, than that your Majesty would give us a Queen, and that your constant Attention to the publick Weal might be alleviated and softened by the Sweets of domestic Felicity.

Your Majesty's prudent Choice of a Princess, possessed of every Virtue and Accomplishment that can endear Her to the best of Kings, hath completed the Happiness of your Subjects.

May your Majesty continue, through a long Course of Years, to be the Delight of your People; and may your Royal Issue transmit to Posterity these Blessings which we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government.

Given under the Seal of the said Corporation, the nineteenth Day of November, in the Second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Freeholders of the County of Inverness, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant Colonel Frazer, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders of the County of Inverness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Inverness-Shire, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and respectful Congratulations on Occasion of your Royal Nuptials. We are sensible of the many Advantages these Kingdoms must receive from a Queen distinguished by so many great and amiable Virtues, and descended from so illustrious a Line of Princes of the Protestant Religion.

With grateful Hearts we acknowledge your Majesty's Attention on this, as on every other Occasion to the Welfare of your People. With dutiful Zeal we rejoice in an Event so conducive to the Happiness of your Reign. And with fervent Wishes we pray, that a Union thus auspiciously begun may long continue; and that Heaven may grant a Succession of Princes of your Majesty's Royal House to perpetuate the Happiness your People now enjoy.

Normand Macleod, Praeses.

Liège, November 27. The 25th, the Regiment de la Couronne arrived here, and marched hence the next Day, when they were replaced by Briqueville. This Day Enghien marched into this Town; and we expect the Regiment of Lempes the 29th. These four Regiments return to France by Huy.

The 26th, our Prince set out from Seraign to pass the Winter at Passi near Paris. His Highness travels under the Name of the Marquis de Franchimont, having about sixty Persons in his Train.

The Prince of Soubize is expected here this Evening in his Way to Versailles; an Apartment is prepared for him in the Palace. M. de Chevert commands the Army during his Absence.

Hague, Dec. 4. Prince Ferdinaod's Head Quarters were still at Eimbeck on the 27th past; and the Guards and Highlanders were ordered into Winter Quarters; as it was expected the rest of the Army would likewise be very soon.

Letters from Magdebourg of the 25th say, that every Thing in Silefia, Saxony, and Pomerania, continued in the same Situation.

We have, indeed, a Report, that General Romanzow was drawing off his Troops from before Colberg; but we must wait for further Intelligence before we give entire Credit to it.

Whitenall, November 28, 1761.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Mrs. Martha Roberts, at Waltham Abbey, has received two anonymous threatening Letters, written in the Words, and Letters, following, viz.
